GENERAL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Each Assignor represents, warrants and covenants, which representations, warranties and covenants shall survive execution and delivery of this Agreement, as follows:

2.1 Necessary Filings. All filings, registrations, recordings and other actions necessary or appropriate to create, preserve and perfect the security interest granted by such Assignor to the Collateral Agent hereby in respect of the Collateral have been accomplished and the security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement in and to the Collateral creates a valid and, together with all such filings, registrations, recordings and other actions, a perfected security interest therein prior to the rights of all other Persons (other than the First Priority Representative) therein and subject to no other Liens (other than Permitted Liens) and is entitled to all the rights, priorities and benefits afforded by the UCC or other relevant law as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction to perfected security interests, in each case to the extent that the Collateral consists of the type of property in which a security interest may be perfected by possession or control (within the meaning of the UCC as in effect on the date hereof in the State of New York), by filing a financing statement under the UCC as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction or by a filing of a Grant of Security Interest in the respective form attached hereto in the United States Patent and Trademark Office or in the United States Copyright Office.

Such Assignor is, and as to all Collateral acquired by it from time to time after the date hereof such Assignor will be, the owner of all Collateral free from any Lien or other right, title or interest of any Person (other than Permitted Liens), and such Assignor shall defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all Persons at any time claiming the same or any interest therein adverse to the Collateral Agent.

2.3 Other Financing Statements. As of the date hereof, there is no financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) covering or purporting to cover any interest of any kind in the Collateral (other than financing statements filed in respect of Permitted Liens), and so long as the Termination Date has not occurred, such Assignor will not execute or authorize to be filed in any public office any financing statement (or similar statement or instrument of registration under the law of any jurisdiction) or statements relating to the Collateral, except financing statements filed or to be filed in respect of and covering the security interests granted hereby by such Assignor or in connection with Permitted Liens.

In addition, to the extent that such Assignor does not have an organizational identification number on the date hereof and later obtains one, such Assignor shall promptly thereafter notify the Collateral Agent of such organizational identification number and shall take all actions reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent to the extent necessary to maintain the security interest of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby fully perfected and in full force and effect.

2.7 [RESERVED].

2.8 Certain Significant Transactions. During the one-year period preceding the date of this Agreement, no Person shall have merged or consolidated with or into any Assignor, and no Person shall have liquidated into, or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to, any Assignor, in each case except as described in Annex E hereto. With respect to any transactions so described in Annex E hereto, the respective Assignor shall have furnished such information with respect to the Person (and the assets of the Person and locations thereof) which merged with or into or consolidated with such Assignor, or was liquidated into or transferred all or substantially all of its assets to such Assignor, and shall have furnished to the Collateral Agent such UCC lien searches as may have been requested with respect to such Person and its assets, to establish that no security interest (excluding Permitted Liens) continues perfected on the date hereof with respect to any Person described above (or the assets transferred to the respective Assignor by such Person), including without limitation pursuant to Section 9-316(a)(3) of the UCC.

2.9 Non-UCC Property. 2.10 As-Extracted Collateral; Timber-to-be-Cut. On the date hereof, such Assignor does not own, or expect to acquire, any property which constitutes, or would constitute, As-Extracted Collateral or Timber-to-be-Cut. If at any time after the date of this Agreement such Assignor owns, acquires or obtains rights to any As-Extracted Collateral or Timber-to-be-Cut, such Assignor shall furnish the Collateral Agent with prompt written notice thereof (which notice shall describe in reasonable detail the As-Extracted Collateral and/or Timber-to-be-Cut and the locations thereof) and shall take all actions as may be deemed reasonably necessary or desirable by the Collateral Agent to perfect the security interest of the Collateral Agent therein.

2.11 Collateral in the Possession of a Bailee. If any material amounts of Inventory or other Goods (as to the Assignors taken as a whole) are at any time in the possession of a bailee, such Assignor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof and, if requested by the Collateral Agent, shall use its reasonable best efforts to promptly obtain an acknowledgment from such bailee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, that the bailee holds such Collateral for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and shall act upon the instructions of the Collateral Agent, without the further consent of such Assignor. The Collateral Agent agrees with the Assignors other than the Pulitzer Assignors that the Collateral Agent shall not give any such instructions unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would occur after taking into account any action by the respective Assignor with respect to any such bailee.

2.12 Recourse. This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Assignor and pursuant to and upon all the warranties, representations, covenants and agreements on the part of such Assignor contained herein, in the Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

2.13 Certain Representations and Warranties Regarding Certain Collateral. (a) Each Assignor represents and warrants that on the date hereof: (i) the Stock (and any warrants or options to purchase Stock) held by such Assignor consists of the number and type of shares of the stock (or warrants or options to purchase any stock) of the corporations as described in Annex O hereto; (ii) such Stock referenced in clause (i) of this sentence constitutes that percentage of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the issuing corporation as is set forth in Annex O hereto; (iii) the Notes held by such Assignor consist of the promissory notes described in Annex P hereto where such Assignor is listed as the Lender; (iv) the Limited Liability Company Interests held by such Assignor consist of the number and type of interests of the Persons described in Annex Q hereto; (v) each such Limited Liability Company Interest referenced in clause (iv) of this paragraph constitutes that percentage of the issued and outstanding equity interest of the issuing Person as set forth in Annex Q hereto; (vi) the Partnership Interests held by such Assignor consist of the number and type of interests of the Persons described in Annex R hereto; (vii) each such Partnership Interest referenced in clause (vi) of this paragraph constitutes that percentage or portion of the entire Partnership Interest of the relevant partnership as set forth in Annex R hereto; (viii) such Assignor has complied with the respective procedure set forth in Section 1.1(b) hereof with respect to each item of Collateral described in Annexes O through R hereto for such Assignor; and (ix) on the date hereof, such Assignor owns no other Stock, Limited Liability Company Interests or Partnership Interests.

ARTICLE III

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING ACCOUNTS; CONTRACT RIGHTS; INSTRUMENTS; CHATTEL PAPER AND CERTAIN OTHER COLLATERAL

3.1 Additional Representations and Warranties. As of the time when each of its Accounts arises, each Assignor shall be deemed to have represented and warranted that each such Account, and all records, papers and documents relating thereto (if any) are genuine and what they purport to be, and that all papers and documents (if any) relating thereto (i) will, to the knowledge of such Assignor, represent the genuine, legal, valid and binding obligation of the account debtor evidencing indebtedness unpaid and owed by the respective account debtor arising out of the performance of labor or services or the sale or lease and delivery of the merchandise listed therein, or both, (ii) will be the only original writings evidencing and embodying such obligation of the account debtor named therein (other than copies created for general accounting purposes), (iii) will, to the knowledge of such Assignor, evidence true and valid obligations, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, and (iv) will be in compliance and will conform in all material respects with all applicable federal, state and local laws and applicable laws of any relevant foreign jurisdiction.

3.2 Maintenance of Records. Each Assignor will keep and maintain at its own cost and expense accurate records of its Accounts and Contracts pursuant to its historical customs and practices, including, but not limited to, originals of all documentation (including each Contract) with respect thereto, records of all payments received, all credits granted thereon, all merchandise returned and all other dealings therewith, and such Assignor will make the same available on any premise of any Assignor to the Collateral Agent for inspection, at such Assignor's own cost and expense, at any and all reasonable times upon prior notice to such Assignor and otherwise in accordance with the Loan Agreement. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and at the request of the Collateral Agent, such Assignor shall, at its own cost and expense, deliver all tangible evidence of its Accounts and Contract Rights (including, without limitation, all documents evidencing the Accounts and all Contracts) and such books and records to the Collateral Agent or to its representatives (copies of which evidence and books and records may be retained by such Assignor). Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and if the Collateral Agent so directs, each Lee Assignor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, the Accounts and the Contracts, as well as books, records and documents (if any) of such Assignor evidencing or pertaining to such Accounts and Contracts with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Accounts and Contracts have been assigned to the Collateral Agent and that the Collateral Agent has a security interest therein.

3.3 Direction to Account Debtors; Contracting Parties; etc. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, and subject to the provisions of the Lee Intercreditor Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, if the Collateral Agent so directs any Assignor, such Assignor agrees (x) to cause all payments on account of the Accounts and Contracts to be made directly to the applicable Cash Collateral Account, (y) that the Collateral Agent may, at its option, directly notify the obligors with respect to any Accounts and/or under any Contracts to make payments with respect thereto as provided in the preceding clause (x), and (z) that the Collateral Agent may enforce collection of any such Accounts and Contracts and may adjust, settle or compromise the amount of payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as such Assignor. Without notice to or assent by any Assignor, the Collateral Agent may, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, apply any or all amounts then in, or thereafter deposited in, the applicable Cash Collateral Account toward the payment of the Obligations in the manner provided in Section 7.4 of this Agreement. The reasonable costs and expenses of collection (including reasonable attorneys' fees), whether incurred by an Assignor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Assignor. The Collateral Agent shall deliver a copy of each notice referred to in the preceding clause (y) to the relevant Assignor, provided that (x) the failure by the Collateral Agent to so notify such Assignor shall not affect the effectiveness of such notice or the other rights of the Collateral Agent created by this Section 3.3 and (y) no such notice shall be required if an Event of Default of the type described in Section 11.05 of the Loan Agreement has occurred and is continuing.

3.4 Modification of Terms; etc. Except in accordance with such Assignor's ordinary course of business and consistent with reasonable business judgment or as permitted by Section 3.5, no Assignor shall rescind or cancel any indebtedness evidenced by any Account or under any Contract, or modify any material term thereof or make any material adjustment with respect thereto, or extend or renew the same, or compromise or settle any material dispute, claim, suit or legal proceeding relating thereto, or sell any Account or Contract, or interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent.

3.5 Collection. Each Assignor shall endeavor in accordance with reasonable business practices to cause to be collected from the account debtor named in each of its Accounts or obligor under any Contract, as and when due (including, without limitation, amounts which are delinquent, such amounts to be collected in accordance with generally accepted lawful collection procedures) any and all amounts owing under or on account of such Account or Contract, and apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Account or under such Contract. Except as otherwise directed by the Collateral Agent, and subject to the terms of the Lee Intercreditor Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, any Assignor may allow in the ordinary course of business as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts and Contracts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, which such Assignor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment and (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise or improperly performed services or for other reasons which such Assignor finds appropriate in accordance with reasonable business judgment. The reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) of collection, whether incurred by an Assignor or the Collateral Agent, shall be borne by the relevant Assignor.

3.6 Instruments. If any Assignor owns or acquires any Instrument in excess of $500,000 (or, in the case of any Pulitzer Assignor, $25,000) constituting Collateral (other than (x) checks and other payment instruments received and collected in the ordinary course of business and (y) any Intercompany Note), such Assignor will within 10 (or, in the case of any Pulitzer Assignor, 5) Business Days notify the Collateral Agent thereof, and upon request by the Collateral Agent (provided, that such request shall not be required with respect to any such Instrument of a Pulitzer Assignor) will promptly deliver such Instrument to the Collateral Agent appropriately endorsed to the order of the Collateral Agent.

3.7 Assignors Remain Liable Under Accounts. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Assignors shall remain liable under each of the Accounts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it thereunder, all in accordance with the terms of any agreement giving rise to such Accounts. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto) by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor of any payment relating to such Account pursuant hereto, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Assignor under or pursuant to any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any payment received by them or as to the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Account (or any agreement giving rise thereto), to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3.8 Assignors Remain Liable Under Contracts. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Assignors shall remain liable under each of the Contracts to observe and perform all of the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by them thereunder, all in accordance with and pursuant to the terms and provisions of each Contract. Neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Creditor shall have any obligation or liability under any Contract by reason of or arising out of this Agreement or the receipt by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor of any payment relating to such Contract pursuant hereto, nor shall the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Creditor be obligated in any manner to perform any of the obligations of any Assignor under or pursuant to any Contract, to make any payment, to make any inquiry as to the nature or the sufficiency of any performance by any party under any Contract, to present or file any claim, to take any action to enforce any performance or to collect the payment of any amounts which may have been assigned to them or to which they may be entitled at any time or times.

3.9 Deposit Accounts; Etc.

(a) No Assignor maintains, or at any time after the date of this Agreement shall establish or maintain, any demand, time, savings, passbook or similar account, except for such accounts maintained with a bank (as defined in Section 9-102 of the UCC) whose jurisdiction (determined in accordance with Section 9-304 of the UCC) is within a State of the United States. Annex F hereto accurately sets forth, as of the date of this Agreement, for each Assignor, each Deposit Account maintained by such Assignor (including a description thereof and the respective account number), the name and address of the respective bank with which such Deposit Account is maintained, and the jurisdiction of the respective bank with respect to such Deposit Account, and indicates whether such Deposit Account constitutes an Excluded Account. For each Deposit Account (other than any Excluded Account), and, in the case of any Pulitzer Assignor, if requested by the Collateral Agent for the purposes of perfection, the respective Assignor shall cause the bank with which the Deposit Account is maintained to execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent (or to the person contemplated by Section 2.3(c) of the Lee Intercreditor Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable), on or before the date of this Agreement (or such later date as may be reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent in its sole discretion) or, if later, at the time of the establishment of the respective Deposit Account, a “control agreement” (A) in a form substantially consistent with the “control agreement” for such Deposit Account in effect with respect to the Prepetition Credit Agreement or the Pulitzer Debt Agreement, in each case on the Petition Date, with such changes thereto to account for or ensure the continuous perfection of the Collateral Agent’s lien on such Deposit Account or, (B) if no such “control agreement” for a Deposit Account is in effect on the Petition Date, a “control agreement” in such other form as may be acceptable to the Collateral Agent. If any bank with which a Deposit Account (other than any Excluded Account) is maintained refuses to, or does not, enter into such a “control agreement”, then the respective Assignor shall promptly (and in any event within such period as may be reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent in its sole discretion) close the respective Deposit Account and transfer all balances therein to the applicable Cash Collateral Account or another Deposit Account meeting the requirements of this Section 3.9. If any bank with which a Deposit Account (other than any Excluded Account) is maintained refuses to subordinate all its claims with respect to such Deposit Account to the Collateral Agent’s security interest therein on terms satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, then the Collateral Agent, at its option, may (x) require that such Deposit Account be terminated in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence or (y) agree to a “control agreement” without such subordination, provided that in such event the Collateral Agent may at any time, at its option, subsequently require that such Deposit Account be terminated (within a reasonable period after notice from the Collateral Agent) in accordance with the requirements of the immediately preceding sentence. The Collateral Agent agrees that it will only give a “Notice of Exclusive Control” under a “control agreement” following the occurrence of an Event of Default.

(b) The name and address of each Securities Intermediary or commodity intermediary at which any Pulitzer Assignor maintains any Securities Account or Commodity Account and the applicable account numbers and account names are set forth in Annex U. Each such Assignor agrees to amend Annex U from time to time within five Business Days after opening any additional Securities Account or Commodity Account, or closing or changing the account name or number on any existing Securities Account or Commodity Account.

(c) After the date of this Agreement, no Assignor shall establish any new demand, time, savings, passbook or similar account, except for (i) Deposit Accounts established and maintained with banks and meeting the requirements of preceding clause (a) and (ii) Excluded Accounts. At the time any such Deposit Account (other than an Excluded Account) is established, the appropriate “control agreement” shall be entered into in accordance with the requirements of preceding clause (a) and the respective Assignor shall furnish (in the case of a Pulitzer Assignor, within five Business Days) to the Collateral Agent a supplement to Annex F hereto containing the relevant information with respect to the respective Deposit Account and the bank with which same is established.

3.10 Letter-of-Credit Rights. If any Assignor is at any time a beneficiary under a letter of credit with a stated amount of $500,000 or more, such Assignor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof and, at the request of the Collateral Agent, such Assignor shall, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, use its reasonable best efforts to (i) arrange for the issuer and any confirmer of such letter of credit to consent to an assignment to the Collateral Agent of the proceeds of any drawing under such letter of credit or (ii) arrange for the Collateral Agent to become the transferee beneficiary of such letter of credit, with the Collateral Agent agreeing, in each case, that the proceeds of any drawing under the letter of credit are to be applied as provided in this Agreement after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default.

3.11 Commercial Tort Claims. All Commercial Tort Claims of each Assignor in existence on the date of this Agreement in an amount (taking the greater of the aggregate claimed damages thereunder or the reasonably estimated value thereof) of $500,000 or more (or, in the case of each Pulitzer Assignor, $100,000 or more) are described in Annex H hereto. If any Assignor shall at any time after the date of this Agreement acquire a Commercial Tort Claim in an amount (taking the greater of the aggregate claimed damages thereunder or the reasonably estimated value thereof) of $500,000 or more (or, in the case of each Pulitzer Assignor, $100,000 or more), such Assignor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof in a writing signed by such Assignor and describing the details thereof and shall grant to the Collateral Agent in such writing a security interest therein and in the proceeds thereof, all upon the terms of this Agreement, with such writing to be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent.

3.12 Chattel Paper. Upon the request of the Collateral Agent made at any time or from time to time, each Lee Assignor shall promptly furnish to the Collateral Agent a list of all Electronic Chattel Paper held or owned by such Lee Assignor. Furthermore, if requested by the Collateral Agent, each Lee Assignor shall promptly take all actions which are reasonably practicable so that the Collateral Agent has “control” of all Electronic Chattel Paper in accordance with the requirements of Section 9-105 of the UCC. Each Lee Assignor will promptly (and in any event within 10 days) following any request by the Collateral Agent deliver all of its Tangible Chattel Paper to the Collateral Agent. At all times, each Lee Assignor will mark Tangible Chattel Paper with a legend provided by the Collateral Agent indicating the security interest herein. In addition, each Pulitzer Assignor represents and warrants that there are no Accounts or Chattel Paper of such Assignor which arise out of a contract or contracts with the United States of America or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof, except for those listed on Annex T hereto (as such Annex shall be updated from time to time).

3.13 Further Actions. Each Assignor will, at its own expense, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps, including any and all actions as may be necessary or required under the Federal Assignment of Claims Act, relating to its Accounts, Contracts, Instruments and other property or rights covered by the security interest hereby granted, as the Collateral Agent may reasonably require.

ARTICLE IV

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING TRADEMARKS AND DOMAIN NAMES

4.1 Additional Representations and Warranties. Each Assignor represents and warrants that it is the true and lawful owner of or otherwise has the right to use the registered Marks and, in the case of the Lee Assignors, Domain Names listed in Annex I hereto for such Assignor and that said listed Marks and Domain Names include all United States marks and applications for United States marks registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office and, in the case of the Lee Assignors, all Domain Names that such Assignor owns or, except as described in Annex I, uses in connection with its business as of the date hereof, and, in the case of each Pulitzer Assignor, except as set forth on Annex I none of such Marks has been licensed to any third party except in the ordinary course of publishing newspapers and related products. Each Assignor represents and warrants that it owns, is licensed to use or otherwise has the right to use, all material Marks and material Domain Names that it uses. Each Assignor further warrants that it has no knowledge of any third-party claim received by it that any aspect of such Assignor's present or contemplated business operations infringes or will infringe any trademark, service mark or trade name of any other Person other than as could not, either individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each Assignor represents and warrants that it is the true and lawful owner of or otherwise has the right to use all U.S. trademark registrations and, in the case of the Lee Assignors, Domain Name registrations listed in Annex I hereto for such Assignor and that, to each Assignor's knowledge, said registrations are valid, subsisting, have not been canceled and that such Assignor is not aware of any third-party claim that any of said registrations is invalid or unenforceable, and is not aware that there is any reason that any of said applications for United States Marks will not mature into registrations, except to the extent the same, either individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Subject to the Lee Intercreditor Agreement and the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, each Assignor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent an absolute power of attorney to sign, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, any document which may be required by the United States Patent and Trademark Office or similar registrar in order to effect an absolute assignment of all right, title and interest in each Mark and/or Domain Name, and record the same.

4.2 Licenses and Assignments. Except as otherwise permitted by the Secured Debt Agreements, each Assignor hereby agrees not to divest itself of any right under any material Mark or Domain Name absent prior written approval of the Collateral Agent.

4.3 Infringements. Each Assignor agrees, promptly upon learning thereof, to notify the Collateral Agent in writing of the name and address of, and to furnish such pertinent information that may be available with respect to, any party who such Assignor believes is, or may be, infringing or diluting or otherwise violating any of such Assignor's rights in and to any

Mark or Domain Name in any manner that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or with respect to any party claiming that such Assignor's use of any Mark or Domain Name material to such Assignor's business violates in any material respect any property right of that party. Each Assignor further agrees to prosecute diligently in accordance with reasonable business practices any Person infringing any Mark or Domain Name in any manner that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.4 Preservation of Marks. Each Assignor agrees to take all such actions as are reasonably necessary to preserve its Marks as trademarks or service marks under the laws of the United States (other than any such Marks which are no longer used or useful in its business or operations).

4.5 Maintenance of Registration. Each Assignor shall, at its own expense, diligently process all documents reasonably required to maintain all Mark and/or Domain Name registrations, including but not limited to affidavits of use and applications for renewals of registration in the United States Patent and Trademark Office for all of its material registered Marks, and shall pay all fees and disbursements in connection therewith and shall not abandon any such filing of affidavit of use or any such application of renewal prior to the exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies without prior written consent of the Collateral Agent (other than with respect to registrations and applications deemed by such Assignor in its reasonable business judgment to be no longer prudent to pursue).

4.6 Future Registered Marks and Domain Names. If any Mark registration is issued hereafter to any Assignor as a result of any application now or hereafter pending before the United States Patent and Trademark Office or any Domain Name is registered by any Lee Assignor, within 30 days of receipt of such certificate or similar indicia of ownership, such Assignor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent a copy of such registration certificate or similar indicia of ownership, and a grant of a security interest in such Mark and/or Domain Name to the Collateral Agent and at the expense of such Assignor, confirming the grant of a security interest in such Mark and/or Domain Name to the Collateral Agent hereunder, the form of such security to be substantially in the form of Annex L hereto or in such other form as may be reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent.

4.7 Remedies. If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, the Collateral Agent may, in accordance with the Lee Intercreditor Agreement and the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, by written notice to the relevant Assignor, take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the entire right, title and interest of such Assignor in and to each of the Marks and Domain Names, together with all trademark rights and rights of protection to the same, vested in the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, in which event such rights, title and interest shall immediately vest, in the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise the power of attorney referred to in Section 4.1 hereof to execute, cause to be acknowledged and notarized and record said absolute assignment with the applicable agency or registrar; (ii) take and use or sell the Marks or Domain Names and the goodwill of such Assignor's business symbolized by the Marks or Domain Names and the right to carry on the business and use the assets of such Assignor in connection with which the Marks or Domain Names have been used; and (iii) direct such Assignor to refrain, in which event such Assignor shall refrain, from using the Marks or Domain

Names in any manner whatsoever, directly or indirectly, and such Assignor shall execute such further documents that the Collateral Agent may reasonably request to further confirm this and to transfer ownership of the Marks or Domain Names and registrations and any pending trademark applications in the United States Patent and Trademark Office or applicable Domain Name registrar to the Collateral Agent.

ARTICLE V

SPECIAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND TRADE SECRETS

5.1 Additional Representations and Warranties. Each Assignor represents and warrants that it is the true and lawful owner of all rights in (i) all material Trade Secret Rights, (ii) the Patents listed in Annex J hereto for such Assignor and that said Patents include all the United States patents and applications for United States patents that such Assignor owns as of the date hereof, and, in the case of each Pulitzer Assignor, except as set forth on Annex J none of such Patents has been licensed to any third party except in the ordinary course of publishing newspapers and related products, and (iii) the registered Copyrights listed in Annex K hereto for such Assignor and that, except as described in Annex K hereto, said Copyrights are all the United States copyrights registered with the United States Copyright Office and applications to United States copyrights that such Assignor owns as of the date hereof, and, in the case of each Pulitzer Assignor, except as set forth on Annex K none of such Copyrights has been licensed to any third party except in the ordinary course of publishing newspapers and related products. Each Assignor further warrants that it has no knowledge of any third-party claim that any aspect of such Assignor's present or contemplated business operations infringes or will infringe any patent of any other Person or such Assignor has misappropriated any Trade Secret or proprietary information which, either individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. In accordance with the Lee Intercreditor Agreement and the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, each Assignor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent an absolute power of attorney to sign, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, any document which may be required by the United States Patent and Trademark Office or the United States Copyright Office in order to effect an absolute assignment of all right, title and interest in each Patent or Copyright, and to record the same.

5.2 Licenses and Assignments. Except as otherwise permitted by the Secured Debt Agreements, each Assignor hereby agrees not to divest itself of any right under any material Patent or Copyright absent prior written approval of the Collateral Agent.

5.3 Infringements. Each Assignor agrees, promptly upon learning thereof, to furnish the Collateral Agent in writing with all pertinent information available to such Assignor with respect to any infringement, contributing infringement or active inducement to infringe or other violation of such Assignor's rights in any Patent or Copyright or to any claim that the practice of any Patent or use of any Copyright violates any property right of a third party, or with respect to any misappropriation of any Trade Secret Right or any claim that practice of any Trade Secret Right violates any property right of a third party, in each case, in any manner which, either individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each Assignor further agrees, absent direction of the Collateral Agent to the contrary, to diligently prosecute, in accordance with its reasonable business judgment, any Person infringing any Patent or Copyright or any Person misappropriating any Trade Secret Right, in each case to the extent that such infringement or misappropriation, either individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.4 Maintenance of Patents or Copyrights. At its own expense, each Assignor shall make timely payment of all post-issuance fees required to maintain in force its rights under each material Patent or Copyright, absent prior written consent of the Collateral Agent.

5.5 Prosecution of Patent or Copyright Applications. At its own expense, each Assignor shall diligently prosecute all material applications for (i) United States Patents listed in Annex J hereto and (ii) Copyrights listed on Annex K hereto, in each case for such Assignor and shall not abandon any such application prior to exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies (other than applications that are deemed by such Assignor in its reasonable business judgment to no longer be necessary in the conduct of the Assignor's business), absent written consent of the Collateral Agent.

5.6 Other Patents and Copyrights. Within 30 days of the acquisition or issuance of a United States Patent, registration of a Copyright, or acquisition of a registered Copyright, or of filing of an application for a United States Patent or Copyright, the relevant Assignor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent a copy of said Copyright or Patent, or certificate or registration of, or application therefor, as the case may be, with a grant of a security interest as to such Patent or Copyright, as the case may be, to the Collateral Agent and at the expense of such Assignor, confirming the grant of a security interest, the form of such grant of a security interest to be substantially in the form of Annex M or N hereto, as appropriate, or in such other form as may be reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent.

5.7 Remedies. If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, the Collateral Agent may, in accordance with the Lee Intercreditor Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, by written notice to the relevant Assignor, take any or all of the following actions: (i) declare the entire right, title, and interest of such Assignor in each of the Patents and Copyrights vested in the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, in which event such right, title, and interest shall immediately vest in the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, in which case the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise the power of attorney referred to in Section 5.1 hereof to execute, cause to be acknowledged and notarized and to record said absolute assignment with the applicable agency; (ii) take and practice or sell the Patents and Copyrights; and (iii) direct such Assignor to refrain, in which event such Assignor shall refrain, from practicing the Patents and using the Copyrights directly or indirectly, and such Assignor shall execute such further documents as the Collateral Agent may reasonably request further to confirm this and to transfer ownership of the Patents and Copyrights to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors.

ARTICLE VI

PROVISIONS CONCERNING ALL COLLATERAL

6.1 Protection of Collateral Agent's Security. Except as otherwise permitted by the Secured Debt Agreements, each Assignor will do nothing to impair, in any material respect, the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral. Each Assignor will at all times maintain insurance, at such Assignor's own expense to the extent and in the manner provided in the Secured Debt Agreements. Except to the extent otherwise permitted to be retained by such Assignor or applied by such Assignor pursuant to the terms of the Secured Debt Agreements, the Collateral Agent shall, at the time any proceeds of such insurance are distributed to the Secured Creditors, apply such proceeds in accordance with Section 7.4 hereof. Each Assignor assumes all liability and responsibility in connection with the Collateral acquired by it and the liability of such Assignor to pay the Obligations shall in no way be affected or diminished by reason of the fact that such Collateral may be lost, destroyed, stolen, damaged or for any reason whatsoever unavailable to such Assignor.

6.2 Warehouse Receipts Non-Negotiable. To the extent practicable, each Assignor agrees that if any warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature of a warehouse receipt is issued with respect to any of its Inventory, such Assignor shall request that such warehouse receipt or receipt in the nature thereof shall not be "negotiable" (as such term is used in Section 7-104 of the UCC as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction or under other relevant law).

6.3 Additional Information. Each Assignor will, at its own expense, from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, promptly (and in any event within 10 days after its receipt of the respective request) furnish to the Collateral Agent such information with respect to the Collateral (including the identity of the Collateral or such components thereof as may have been requested by the Collateral Agent, and the estimated value and location of such Collateral). Without limiting the foregoing, each Assignor agrees that it shall promptly (and in any event within 20 days after its receipt of the respective request) furnish to the Collateral Agent such updated Annexes hereto as may from time to time be reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent.

6.4 Further Actions. Each Assignor will, at its own expense and upon the reasonable request of the Collateral Agent, make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time such lists, descriptions and designations of its Collateral, warehouse receipts, receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, bills of lading, documents of title, vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments and take such further steps relating to the Collateral and other property or rights covered by the security interest hereby granted, which the Collateral Agent deems reasonably appropriate or advisable to perfect, preserve or protect its security interest in the Collateral consistent with the provisions of this Agreement. In addition, each Pulitzer Assignor will, at its own expense, from time to time upon the written request of the Collateral Agent, take such further action as the Collateral Agent may reasonably deem necessary or desirable to place the interest of the Collateral Agent as lienholder (or other similar designation) on the Certificate of Title of any motor vehicles or other Equipment constituting Collateral owned by such Assignor which is covered by a Certificate of Title and delivering the original thereof to the Collateral Agent (or its designated agent), it being understood that any such Assignor shall not be required to comply with the foregoing requirements of this sentence prior to an Event of Default unless the aggregate book value of motor vehicles and such Equipment exceeds $750,000 (in which case, and in the case of an Event of Default, all Certificate of Titles will be required to be delivered with the Collateral Agent's Lien properly noted thereon).

6.5 Financing Statements. Each Assignor agrees to execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent such financing statements, in form reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent, as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request or as are reasonably necessary or desirable in the opinion of the Collateral Agent to establish and maintain a valid, enforceable, perfected security interest in the Collateral as provided herein and the other rights and security contemplated hereby. Each Assignor will pay any applicable filing fees, recordation taxes and related expenses relating to its Collateral. Each Assignor hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent to file any such financing statements without the signature of such Assignor where permitted by law (and such authorization includes describing the Collateral as "all assets" of such Assignor with further reference to those assets specifically excluded from the grant of the security interest contained in this Agreement).

6.6 Federal Government Contracts. If any Account or Chattel Paper of any Pulitzer Assignor arises out of a contract or contracts with the United States of America or any department, agency, or instrumentally thereof, such Pulitzer Assignor shall (i) promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof in writing, and execute and deliver in connection therewith (A) a collateral assignment of claims in favor of the Collateral Agent, and (B) a notice of collateral assignment of claims directed to the appropriate federal government agencies and agents thereof as required under applicable law, each in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, (ii) promptly take any other steps reasonably required by the Collateral Agent in order to ensure that all moneys due or to become due under such contract or contracts shall be collaterally assigned to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Creditors, and notice thereof given under the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940, as amended (31 U.S.C. 3727; 41 U.S.C. 15), or other applicable law, and (iii) promptly update Annex T hereto and deliver a copy of such revised schedule to the Collateral Agent, together with copies of all related contracts evidencing such Accounts and/or Chattel Paper. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Pulitzer Assignors shall not be required to comply with the foregoing in connection with purchase orders for the publication of notices so long as the aggregate amount owing under all of such purchase orders does not at any time exceed $100,000.

6.7 Maintenance of Insurance. Each Pulitzer Grantor shall maintain, with financially sound and reputable companies, insurance with respect to their respective properties and businesses against such casualties and contingencies, of such types, on such terms and in such amounts (including deductibles, co-insurance and self-insurance, if adequate reserves are maintained with respect thereto) as is customary in the case of entities of established reputations engaged in the same or a similar business and similarly situated. In addition, each Pulitzer Grantor shall maintain, with financially sound and reputable companies, insurance policies insuring (a) its Equipment, Fixtures and Inventory against loss by fire, explosion, theft and such other casualties as are usually insured against by companies engaged in the same or similar businesses, and reasonably satisfactory to the Required Lenders, and (b) against liability for personal injury and property damage relating to such Equipment, Fixtures and Inventory, and reasonably satisfactory to the Required Lenders. Each Pulitzer Grantor, at its expense, shall obtain a loss payable endorsement to each policy of property insurance in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors and each policy of liability insurance shall name the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors as an additional insured. Each Pulitzer Grantor shall, if so directed by the Collateral Agent, deliver to the Collateral Agent as often as the Collateral Agent may reasonably request, a report of a reputable insurance broker with respect to the insurance on its Equipment, Fixtures and Inventory. Within 60 days of the date hereof, all policies of insurance required to be maintained pursuant to this Section 6.7 shall (i) contain a clause which provides that the Collateral Agent's and the Secured Creditors' interests under the policy shall not be invalidated by any act or omission to act of, or any breach of warranty by, the insured, or by any change in the title, ownership or possession of the insured property, or by the use of the property for purposes more hazardous than is permitted in the policy; and (ii) provide that, as to the interests of the Collateral Agent under such policies, no cancellation, reduction in amount or change in coverage thereof shall be effective until at least 30 days after receipt by the Collateral Agent of written notice thereof.

ARTICLE VII

REMEDIES UPON OCCURRENCE OF AN EVENT OF DEFAULT

7.1 Remedies; Obtaining the Collateral Upon Default. Subject to the terms of the Lee Intercreditor Agreement, the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, and Section 11 of the Loan Agreement each Assignor agrees that, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then and in every such case, the Collateral Agent, in addition to any rights now or hereafter existing under applicable law and under the other provisions of this Agreement, shall have all rights as a secured creditor under any UCC, and such additional rights and remedies to which a secured creditor is entitled under the laws in effect in all relevant jurisdictions and may:

(i) personally, or by agents or attorneys, immediately take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, from such Assignor or any other Person who then has possession of any part thereof with or without notice or process of law, and for that purpose may enter upon such Assignor's premises where any of the Collateral is located and remove the same and use in connection with such removal any and all services, supplies, aids and other facilities of such Assignor;

(ii) instruct the obligor or obligors on any agreement, instrument or other obligation (including, without limitation, the Accounts and the Contracts) constituting the Collateral to make any payment required by the terms of such agreement, instrument or other obligation directly to the Collateral Agent and may exercise any and all remedies of such Assignor in respect of such Collateral;

(iii) instruct all banks which have entered into a control agreement with the Collateral Agent to transfer all monies, securities and instruments held by such depository bank to the applicable Cash Collateral Account;

(iv) sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof in accordance with Section 7.2 hereof, or direct such Assignor to sell, assign or otherwise liquidate any or all of the Collateral or any part thereof, and, in each case, take possession of the proceeds of any such sale or liquidation; or

(v) take possession of the Collateral or any part thereof, by directing such Assignor in writing to deliver the same to the Collateral Agent at any reasonable place or places designated by the Collateral Agent, in which event such Assignor shall at its own expense:

(x) forthwith cause the same to be moved to the place or places so designated by the Collateral Agent and there delivered to the Collateral Agent;

(y) store and keep any Collateral so delivered to the Collateral Agent at such place or places pending further action by the Collateral Agent as provided in Section 7.2 hereof; and

(z) while the Collateral shall be so stored and kept, provide such security and maintenance services as shall be reasonably necessary to protect the same and to preserve and maintain it in good condition;

(vi) license or sublicense, whether on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, any Marks, Domain Names, Patents or Copyrights included in the Collateral for such term and on such conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall in its sole judgment determine;

(vii) apply any monies constituting Collateral or proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.4;

(viii) accelerate any Note which may be accelerated in accordance with its terms, and take any other lawful action to collect upon any Note (including, without limitation, to make any demand for payment thereon);

(ix) transfer all or any part of the Collateral into the Collateral Agent's name or the name of its nominee or nominees;

(x) vote (and exercise all rights and powers in respect of voting) all or any part of the Collateral (whether or not transferred into the name of the Collateral Agent) and give all consents, waivers and ratifications in respect of the Collateral and otherwise act with respect thereto as though it were the outright owner thereof (each Assignor hereby irrevocably constituting and appointing the Collateral Agent the proxy and attorney-in-fact of such Assignor, with full power of substitution to do so); and

(xi) take any other action as specified in clauses (1) through (5), inclusive, of Section 9-607 of the UCC;

it being understood that each Assignor's obligation so to deliver the Collateral is of the essence of this Agreement and that, accordingly, upon application to a court of equity having jurisdiction, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to a decree requiring specific performance by such Assignor of said obligation. By accepting the benefits of this Agreement and each other Security Document, the Secured Creditors expressly acknowledge and agree that this Agreement and each other Security Document may be enforced only by the action of the Collateral Agent acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement and the other Security Documents.

7.2 Remedies; Disposition of the Collateral. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then any Collateral repossessed by the Collateral Agent under or pursuant to Section 7.1 hereof and any other Collateral whether or not so repossessed by the Collateral Agent, may be sold, assigned, leased or otherwise disposed of under one or more contracts or as an entirety, and without the necessity of gathering at the place of sale the property to be sold, and in general in such manner, at such time or times, at such place or places and on such terms as the Collateral Agent may, in compliance with any mandatory requirements of applicable law, determine to be commercially reasonable. Any of the Collateral may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of, in the condition in which the same existed when taken by the Collateral Agent or after any overhaul or repair at the expense of the relevant Assignor which the Collateral Agent shall determine to be commercially reasonable. Any such sale, lease or other disposition may be effected by means of a public disposition or private disposition, effected in accordance with the applicable requirements (in each case if and to the extent applicable) of Sections 9-610 through 9-613 of the UCC and/or such other mandatory requirements of applicable law as may apply to the respective disposition. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private disposition or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the disposition, and such disposition may be made at any time or place to which the disposition may be so adjourned. To the extent permitted by any such requirement of law, the Collateral Agent may bid for and become the purchaser (and may pay all or any portion of the purchase price by crediting Obligations against the purchase price) of the Collateral or any item thereof, offered for disposition in accordance with this Section 7.2 without accountability to the relevant Assignor. If, under applicable law, the Collateral Agent shall be permitted to make disposition of the Collateral within a period of time which does not permit the giving of notice to the relevant Assignor as hereinabove specified, the Collateral Agent need give such Assignor only such notice of disposition as shall be required by such applicable law. Each Assignor agrees to do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary to make such disposition or dispositions of all or any portion of the Collateral valid and binding and in compliance with any and all applicable laws, regulations, orders, writs, injunctions, decrees or awards of any and all courts, arbitrators or governmental instrumentalities, domestic or foreign, having jurisdiction over any such sale or sales, all at such Assignor's expense.

7.3 Waiver of Claims. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, EACH ASSIGNOR HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NOTICE AND JUDICIAL HEARING IN CONNECTION WITH THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S TAKING POSSESSION OR THE COLLATERAL AGENT'S DISPOSITION OF ANY OF THE COLLATERAL, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY AND ALL PRIOR NOTICE AND HEARING FOR ANY PREJUDGMENT REMEDY OR REMEDIES, and each Assignor hereby further waives, to the extent permitted by law:

(i) all damages occasioned by such taking of possession or any such disposition except any damages which are the direct result of the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision);

(ii) all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder; and

(iii) all rights of redemption, appraisalment, valuation, stay, extension or moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law in order to prevent or delay the enforcement of this Agreement or the absolute sale of the Collateral or any portion thereof, and each Assignor, for itself and all who may claim under it, insofar as it or they now or hereafter lawfully may, hereby waives the benefit of all such laws.

Any sale of, or the grant of options to purchase, or any other realization upon, any Collateral shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand, either at law or in equity, of the relevant Assignor therein and thereto, and shall be a perpetual bar both at law and in equity against such Assignor and against any and all Persons claiming or attempting to claim the Collateral so sold, optioned or realized upon, or any part thereof, from, through and under such Assignor.

7.4 Application of Proceeds. (a) Subject to the terms of the Lee Intercreditor Agreement and the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, all moneys collected by the Collateral Agent (or, to the extent any Mortgage or any other Security Document requires proceeds of collateral under such other Security Document to be applied in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Collateral Agent or other agent under such other Security Document) upon any sale or other disposition of the Collateral, together with all other moneys received by the Collateral Agent hereunder, shall be applied as provided in Section 13.17 of the Loan Agreement.

(b) All payments required to be made hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Secured Creditors.

(c) It is understood that the Assignors shall remain jointly and severally liable to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Obligations.

7.5 Remedies Cumulative. Each and every right, power and remedy hereby specifically given to the Collateral Agent shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy specifically given to the Collateral Agent under this Agreement, the other Secured Debt Agreements or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity or by statute and each and every right, power and remedy whether specifically herein given or otherwise existing may be exercised from time to time or simultaneously and as often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Collateral Agent. All such rights, powers and remedies shall be cumulative and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of one shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise any other or others. No delay or omission of the Collateral Agent in the exercise of any such right, power or remedy and no renewal or extension of any of the Obligations shall impair any such right, power or remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any Default or Event of Default or an acquiescence thereof. No notice to or demand on any Assignor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. In the event that the Collateral Agent shall bring any suit to enforce any of its rights hereunder and shall be entitled to judgment, then in such suit the Collateral Agent may recover reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and the amounts thereof shall be included in such judgment.

7.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case the Collateral Agent shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Agreement by foreclosure, sale, entry or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent, then and in every such case the relevant Assignor, the Collateral Agent and each holder of any of the Obligations shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Collateral subject to the security interest created under this Agreement, and all rights, remedies and powers of the Collateral Agent shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNITY

8.1 Indemnity. (a) Each Assignor jointly and severally agrees to indemnify, reimburse and hold the Collateral Agent, each other Secured Creditor and their respective successors, assigns, employees, affiliates and agents (hereinafter in this Section 8.1 referred to individually as "Indemnitee," and collectively as "Indemnitees") harmless from any and all liabilities, obligations, damages, injuries, penalties, claims, demands, actions, suits, judgments and any and all costs, expenses or disbursements (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) (for the purposes of this Section 8.1 the foregoing are collectively called "expenses") of whatsoever kind and nature imposed on, asserted against or incurred by any of the Indemnitees in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any other Secured Debt Agreement or any other document executed in connection herewith or therewith or in any other way connected with the administration of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or the enforcement of any of the terms of, or the preservation of any rights under any thereof, or in any way relating to or arising out of the manufacture, ownership, ordering, purchase, delivery, control, acceptance, lease, financing, possession, operation, condition, sale, return or other disposition, or use of the Collateral (including, without limitation, latent or other defects, whether or not discoverable), the violation of the laws of any country, state or other governmental body or unit, any tort (including, without limitation, claims arising or imposed under the doctrine of strict liability, or for or on account of injury to or the death of any Person (including any Indemnitee), or property damage), or contract claim; provided that no Indemnitee shall be indemnified pursuant to this Section 8.1(a) for losses, damages or liabilities to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision). Each Assignor agrees that upon written notice by any Indemnitee of the assertion of such a liability, obligation, damage, injury, penalty, claim, demand, action, suit or judgment, the relevant Assignor shall assume full responsibility for the defense thereof. Each Indemnitee agrees to use its best efforts to promptly notify the relevant Assignor of any such assertion of which such Indemnitee has knowledge.

(b) Without limiting the application of Section 8.1(a) hereof, each Assignor agrees, jointly and severally, to pay or reimburse the Collateral Agent for any and all reasonable fees, costs and expenses of whatever kind or nature incurred in connection with the creation, preservation or protection of the Collateral Agent's Liens on, and security interest in, the Collateral, including, without limitation, all fees and taxes in connection with the recording or filing of instruments and documents in public offices, payment or discharge of any taxes or Liens upon or in respect of the Collateral, premiums for insurance with respect to the Collateral and all other fees, costs and expenses in connection with protecting, maintaining or preserving the Collateral and the Collateral Agent's interest therein, whether through judicial proceedings or otherwise, or in defending or prosecuting any actions, suits or proceedings arising out of or relating to the Collateral.

(c) Without limiting the application of Section 8.1(a) or (b) hereof, each Assignor agrees, jointly and severally, to pay, indemnify and hold each Indemnitee harmless from and against any loss, costs, damages and expenses which such Indemnitee may suffer, expend or incur in consequence of or growing out of any misrepresentation by any Assignor in this Agreement, any other Secured Debt Agreement or in any writing contemplated by or made or delivered pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or any other Secured Debt Agreement.

(d) If and to the extent that the obligations of any Assignor under this Section 8.1 are unenforceable for any reason, such Assignor hereby agrees to make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of such obligations which is permissible under applicable law.

8.2 Indemnity Obligations Secured by Collateral; Survival. Any amounts paid by any Indemnitee as to which such Indemnitee has the right to reimbursement shall constitute Obligations secured by the Collateral. The indemnity obligations of each Assignor contained in this Article VIII shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the full payment of all of the other Obligations and notwithstanding the full payment of all the Notes (as defined in the Loan Agreement) issued, and Loans made, under the Loan Agreement and the payment of all other Obligations and notwithstanding the discharge thereof and the occurrence of the Termination Date.

FORM OF CONTROL AGREEMENT REGARDING DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

CONTROL AGREEMENT, dated as of [_____] (as amended, modified, restated and/or supplemented from time to time, this “Agreement”), among the undersigned assignor (the “Assignor”), WILMINGTON TRUST, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, not in its individual capacity but solely as Collateral Agent (the “Collateral Agent”), and [_____] (the “Deposit Account Bank”), as the “bank” (as defined in Section 9-102 of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect on the date hereof in the State of [New York] (the “UCC”)) with which one or more deposit accounts (as defined in Section 9-102 of the UCC) are maintained by the Assignor (with all such deposit accounts now or at any time in the future maintained by the Assignor with the Deposit Account Bank being herein called the “Deposit Accounts”).

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, the Assignor, various other assignors and the Collateral Agent have entered into a Security Agreement, dated as of [_____] (as amended, amended and restated, modified or supplemented from time to time, the “Security Agreement”), under which, among other things, in order to secure the payment of the Obligations (as defined in the Security Agreement), the Assignor has granted a security interest to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Creditors (as defined in the Security Agreement) in all of the right, title and interest of the Assignor in and into any and all “deposit accounts” (as defined in Section 9-102 of the UCC) and in all monies, securities, instruments and other investments deposited therein from time to time (collectively, herein called the “Collateral”); and

WHEREAS, the Assignor desires that the Deposit Account Bank enter into this Agreement in order to establish “control” (as defined in Section 9-104 of the UCC) in each Deposit Account at any time or from time to time maintained with the Deposit Account Bank, and to provide for the rights of the parties under this Agreement with respect to such Deposit Accounts;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and agreements contained herein, and for other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Assignor’s Dealings with Deposit Accounts; Notice of Exclusive Control. Until the Deposit Account Bank shall have received from the Collateral Agent a Notice of Exclusive Control (as defined below), the Assignor shall be entitled to present items drawn on and otherwise to withdraw or direct the disposition of funds from the Deposit Accounts and give instructions in respect of the Deposit Accounts; provided, however, that the Assignor may not, and the Deposit Account Bank agrees that it shall not permit the Assignor to, without the Collateral Agent’s prior written consent, close any Deposit Account. If the Collateral Agent shall give to the Deposit Account Bank a notice of the Collateral Agent's exclusive control of the Deposit Accounts, which notice states that it is a "Notice of Exclusive Control" (a "Notice of Exclusive Control"), only the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to withdraw funds from the Deposit Accounts, to give any instructions in respect of the Deposit Accounts and any funds held therein or credited thereto or otherwise to deal with the Deposit Accounts.

2. Collateral Agent's Right to Give Instructions as to Deposit Accounts. (a) Notwithstanding the foregoing or any separate agreement that the Assignor may have with the Deposit Account Bank, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled, for purposes of this Agreement, at any time to give the Deposit Account Bank instructions as to the withdrawal or disposition of any funds from time to time credited to any Deposit Account, or as to any other matters relating to any Deposit Account or any other Collateral, without further consent from the Assignor. The Assignor hereby irrevocably authorizes and instructs the Deposit Account Bank, and the Deposit Account Bank hereby agrees, to comply with any such instructions from the Collateral Agent without any further consent from the Assignor. Such instructions may include the giving of stop payment orders for any items being presented to any Deposit Account for payment. The Deposit Account Bank shall be fully entitled to rely on, and shall comply with, such instructions from the Collateral Agent even if such instructions are contrary to any instructions or demands that the Assignor may give to the Deposit Account Bank. In case of any conflict between instructions received by the Deposit Account Bank from the Collateral Agent and the Assignor, the instructions from the Collateral Agent shall prevail.

(b) It is understood and agreed that the Deposit Account Bank's duty to comply with instructions from the Collateral Agent regarding the Deposit Accounts is absolute, and the Deposit Account Bank shall be under no duty or obligation, nor shall it have the authority, to inquire or determine whether or not such instructions are in accordance with the Security Agreement or any other Loan Document (as defined in the Loan Agreement referred to in the Security Agreement), nor seek confirmation thereof from the Assignor or any other Person.

3. Assignor's Exculpation and Indemnification of Depository Bank. The Assignor hereby irrevocably authorizes and instructs the Deposit Account Bank to follow instructions from the Collateral Agent regarding the Deposit Accounts even if the result of following such instructions from the Collateral Agent is that the Deposit Account Bank dishonors items presented for payment from any Deposit Account. The Assignor further confirms that the Deposit Account Bank shall have no liability to the Assignor for wrongful dishonor of such items in following such instructions from the Collateral Agent. The Deposit Account Bank shall have no duty to inquire or determine whether the Assignor's obligations to the Collateral Agent are in default or whether the Collateral Agent is entitled, under any separate agreement between the Assignor and the Collateral Agent, to give any such instructions. The Assignor further agrees to be responsible for the Deposit Account Bank's customary charges and to indemnify the Deposit Account Bank from and to hold the Deposit Account Bank harmless against any loss, cost or expense that the Deposit Account Bank may sustain or incur in acting upon instructions which the Deposit Account Bank believes in good faith to be instructions from the Collateral Agent.

4. Subordination of Security Interests; Deposit Account Bank's Recourse to Deposit Accounts. The Deposit Account Bank hereby subordinates any claims and security interests it may have against, or with respect to, any Deposit Account at any time established or maintained with it by the Assignor (including any amounts, investments, instruments or other Collateral from time to time on deposit therein) to the security interests of the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Creditors) therein, and agrees that no amounts shall be charged by it to, or withheld or set-off or otherwise recouped by it from, any Deposit Account of the Assignor or any amounts, investments, instruments or other Collateral from time to time on deposit therein; provided that the Deposit Account Bank may, however, from time to time debit the Deposit Accounts for any of its customary charges in maintaining the Deposit Accounts or for reimbursement for the reversal of any provisional credits granted by the Deposit Account Bank to any Deposit Account, to the extent, in each case, that the Assignor has not separately paid or reimbursed the Deposit Account Bank therefor.

5. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Deposit Account Bank. The Deposit Account Bank represents and warrants to the Collateral Agent that:

(a) The Deposit Account Bank constitutes a "bank" (as defined in Section 9-102 of the UCC) and agrees that the jurisdiction (determined in accordance with Section 9-304 of the UCC) of the Deposit Account Bank for purposes of each Deposit Account maintained by the Assignor with the Deposit Account Bank shall be [the State of New York].

(b) The Deposit Account Bank shall not permit any Assignor to establish any demand, time, savings, passbook or other account with it which does not constitute a "deposit account" (as defined in Section 9-102 of the UCC).

(c) The account agreements between the Deposit Account Bank and the Assignor relating to the establishment and general operation of the Deposit Accounts provide, whether specifically or generally, that the laws of [_____] govern secured transactions relating to the Deposit Accounts and that the Deposit Account Bank's "jurisdiction" for purposes of Section 9-304 of the UCC in respect of the Deposit Accounts is [New York]. The Deposit Account Bank will not, without the Collateral Agent's prior written consent, amend any such account agreement so that the Deposit Account Bank's jurisdiction for purposes of Section 9-304 of the UCC is other than a jurisdiction permitted pursuant to preceding clause (a). All account agreements in respect of each Deposit Account in existence on the date hereof are listed on Annex A hereto and copies of all such account agreements have been furnished to the Collateral Agent. The Deposit Account Bank will promptly furnish to the Collateral Agent a copy of the account agreement for each Deposit Account hereafter established by the Deposit Account Bank for the Assignor.

(d) The Deposit Account Bank has not entered and will not enter, into any agreement with any other Person by which the Deposit Account Bank is obligated to comply with instructions from such other Person as to the disposition of funds from any Deposit Account or other dealings with any Deposit Account or other of the Collateral.

(e) On the date hereof the Deposit Account Bank maintains no Deposit Accounts for the Assignor other than the Deposit Accounts specifically identified in Annex A hereto.

(f) Any items or funds received by the Deposit Account Bank for the Assignor's account will be credited to said Deposit Accounts specified in paragraph (e) above or to any other Deposit Accounts hereafter established by the Deposit Account Bank for the Assignor in accordance with this Agreement.

(g) The Deposit Account Bank will promptly notify the Collateral Agent of each Deposit Account hereafter established by the Deposit Account Bank for the Assignor (which notice shall specify the account number of such Deposit Account and the location at which the Deposit Account is maintained), and each such new Deposit Account shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement in all respects.

6. Deposit Account Statements and Information. The Deposit Account Bank agrees, and is hereby authorized and instructed by the Assignor, to furnish to the Collateral Agent, at its address indicated below, copies of all account statements and other information relating to each Deposit Account that the Deposit Account Bank sends to the Assignor and to disclose to the Collateral Agent all information requested by the Collateral Agent regarding any Deposit Account.

7. Conflicting Agreements. This Agreement shall have control over any conflicting agreement between the Deposit Account Bank and the Assignor.

8. Merger or Consolidation of Deposit Account Bank. Without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, any bank into which the Deposit Account Bank may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any bank resulting from any merger to which the Deposit Account Bank shall be a party, shall be the successor of the Deposit Account Bank hereunder and shall be bound by all provisions hereof which are binding upon the Deposit Account Bank and shall be deemed to affirm as to itself all representations and warranties of the Deposit Account Bank contained herein.

9. Notices. (a) All notices and other communications provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing (including facsimile) and sent to the intended recipient at its address or telex or facsimile number set forth below:

8. REMEDIES, CUMULATIVE, ETC. Each and every right, power and remedy of the Pledgee provided for in this Agreement, each Intercreditor Agreement or in any other Secured Debt Agreement, or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute shall be cumulative and concurrent and shall be in addition to every other such right, power or remedy. The exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor of any one or more of the rights, powers or remedies provided for in this Agreement or any other Secured Debt Agreement or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor of all such other rights, powers or remedies, and no failure or delay on the part of the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to exercise any such right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof. No notice to or demand on any Pledgor in any case shall entitle it to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any of the rights of the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand. The Secured Creditors agree that, other than as provided in the applicable Intercreditor Agreement, this Agreement may be enforced only by the action of the Pledgee, in each case, acting upon the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors, and that no other Secured Creditor shall have any right individually to seek to enforce or to enforce this Agreement or to realize upon the security to be granted hereby, it being understood and agreed that such rights and remedies may be exercised by the Pledgee for the benefit of the Secured Creditors upon the terms of this Agreement.

9. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS. (a) Subject to the terms of the applicable Intercreditor Agreement with respect to Common Collateral (as defined in the applicable Intercreditor Agreement), all monies collected by the Pledgee pursuant to the terms of this Agreement upon any sale or other disposition of Collateral, together with all other monies received by the Pledgee hereunder, shall be applied as provided in Section 13.17 of the Loan Agreement.

(b) All payments required to be made under Section 13.17 of the Loan Agreement shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Secured Creditors.

(c) It is understood and agreed that each Pledgor shall remain jointly and severally liable with respect to its Obligations to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral pledged by it hereunder and the aggregate amount of such Obligations.

10. PURCHASERS OF COLLATERAL. Upon any sale of the Collateral by the Pledgee hereunder (whether by virtue of the power of sale herein granted, pursuant to judicial process or otherwise), the receipt of the Pledgee or the officer making such sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold, and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Pledgee or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication or nonapplication thereof.

11. INDEMNITY. Each Pledgor jointly and severally agrees (i) to indemnify, reimburse and hold harmless the Pledgee and each other Secured Creditor and their respective successors, assigns, employees, agents and affiliates (individually an "Indemnitee", and collectively, the “Indemnitees”) from and against any and all obligations, damages, injuries, penalties, claims, demands, losses, judgments and liabilities (including, without limitation, liabilities for penalties) of whatsoever kind or nature, and (ii) to reimburse each Indemnitee for all reasonable costs, expenses and disbursements, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses, in each case arising out of or resulting from this Agreement or the exercise by any Indemnitee of any right or remedy granted to it hereunder or under any other Secured Debt Agreement (but excluding any obligations, damages, injuries, penalties, claims, demands, losses, judgments and liabilities (including, without limitation, liabilities for penalties) or expenses of whatsoever kind or nature to the extent incurred or arising by reason of gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision)). In no event shall the Pledgee hereunder be liable, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on its part (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision), for any matter or thing in connection with this Agreement other than to account for monies or other property actually received by it in accordance with the terms hereof. If and to the extent that the obligations of any Pledgor under this Section 11 are unenforceable for any reason, such Pledgor hereby agrees to make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of such obligations which is permissible under applicable law. The indemnity obligations of each Pledgor contained in this Section 11 shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the full payment of all the Notes issued under the Loan Agreement, and the payment of all other Obligations and notwithstanding the discharge thereof.

12. PLEDGEE NOT A PARTNER OR LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY MEMBER. (a) Nothing herein shall be construed to make the Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor liable as a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership and neither the Pledgee nor any other Secured Creditor by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise (except as referred to in the following sentence) shall have any of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner in any partnership. The parties hereto expressly agree that, unless the Pledgee shall become the absolute owner of Collateral consisting of a Limited Liability Company Interest or a Partnership Interest pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall not be construed as creating a partnership or joint venture among the Pledgee, any other Secured Creditor, any Pledgor and/or any other Person.

(b) Except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12, the Pledgee, by accepting this Agreement, did not intend to become a member of any limited liability company or a partner of any partnership or otherwise be deemed to be a co-venturer with respect to any Pledgor, any limited liability company, partnership and/or any other Person either before or after an Event of Default shall have occurred. The Pledgee shall have only those powers set forth herein and the Secured Creditors shall assume none of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership or any Pledgor except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this Section 12.

(c) The Pledgee and the other Secured Creditors shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any obligation of any Pledgor as a result of the pledge hereby effected.

(d) The acceptance by the Pledgee of this Agreement, with all the rights, powers, privileges and authority so created, shall not at any time or in any event obligate the

[Second Lien Pledge Agreement]

Pledgee or any other Secured Creditor to appear in or defend any action or proceeding relating to the Collateral to which it is not a party, or to take any action hereunder or thereunder, or to expend any money or incur any expenses or perform or discharge any obligation, duty or liability under the Collateral.

13. FURTHER ASSURANCES; POWER-OF-ATTORNEY. (a) Each Pledgor agrees that it will join with the Pledgee in executing and, at such Pledgor's own expense, file and refile under the UCC or other applicable law such financing statements, continuation statements and other documents, in form reasonably acceptable to the Pledgee, in such offices as the Pledgee (acting on its own or on the instructions of the Required Secured Creditors) may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate and wherever required or permitted by law in order to perfect and preserve the Pledgee's security interest in the Collateral hereunder and hereby authorizes the Pledgee to file financing statements and amendments thereto relative to all or any part of the Collateral (including, without limitation, (x) financing statements which list the Collateral specifically and/or "all assets" as collateral and (y) "in lieu of" financing statements) without the signature of such Pledgor where permitted by law, and agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver to the Pledgee such additional conveyances, assignments, agreements and instruments as the Pledgee may reasonably require or deem advisable to carry into effect the purposes of this Agreement or to further assure and confirm unto the Pledgee its rights, powers and remedies hereunder or thereunder.

(b) Each Pledgor hereby constitutes and appoints the Pledgee, its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, irrevocably, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor or otherwise, from time to time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, in the Pledgee's discretion, to act, require, demand, receive and give acquittance for any and all monies and claims for monies due or to become due to such Pledgor under or arising out of the Collateral, to endorse any checks or other instruments or orders in connection therewith and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings and to execute any instrument which the Pledgee may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, which appointment as attorney is coupled with an interest.

14. THE PLEDGEE AS COLLATERAL AGENT. The Pledgee will hold in accordance with this Agreement (and subject to the Lee Intercreditor Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable) all items of the Collateral at any time received under this Agreement. It is expressly understood, acknowledged and agreed by each Secured Creditor that by accepting the benefits of this Agreement each such Secured Creditor acknowledges and agrees that the obligations of the Pledgee as holder of the Collateral and interests therein and with respect to the disposition thereof, and otherwise under this Agreement, are only those expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreements and in Section 12 of the Loan Agreement. The Pledgee shall act hereunder on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in Section 12 of the Loan Agreement.

15. TRANSFER BY THE PLEDGORS. Except as permitted by the Loan Agreement, no Pledgor will sell or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any of the Collateral or any interest therein.

[Second Lien Pledge Agreement]

16. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS OF THE PLEDGORS. (a) Each Pledgor represents, warrants and covenants as to itself and each of its Subsidiaries that:

(i) it is the legal, beneficial and record owner of, and has good and marketable title to, all of its Collateral and that it has sufficient interest in all of its Collateral in which a security interest is purported to be created hereunder for such security interest to attach (subject, in each case, to no pledge, lien, mortgage, hypothecation, security interest, charge, option, Adverse Claim or other encumbrance whatsoever, except the liens and security interests created by this Agreement and any other Permitted Liens and Permitted Encumbrances);

(ii) it has full power, authority and legal right to pledge all the Collateral pledged by it pursuant to this Agreement;

(iii) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Pledgor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Pledgor enforceable against such Pledgor in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability hereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law);

(iv) except to the extent already obtained or made, no consent of any other party (including, without limitation, any stockholder, partner, member or creditor of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries) and no consent, license, permit, approval or authorization of, exemption by, notice or report to, or registration, filing or declaration with, any governmental authority is required to be obtained by such Pledgor in connection with (a) the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by such Pledgor, (b) the validity or enforceability of this Agreement against such Pledgor, (c) the perfection or enforceability of the Pledgee's security interest in such Pledgor's Collateral or (d) except for compliance with or as may be required by applicable securities laws, the exercise by the Pledgee of any of its rights or remedies provided herein;

(v) neither the execution, delivery or performance by such Pledgor of this Agreement or any other Secured Debt Agreement to which it is a party, nor compliance by it with the terms and provisions hereof and thereof nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated therein: (i) will contravene any provision of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation, or any applicable order, writ, injunction or decree of any court, arbitrator or governmental instrumentality, domestic or foreign, applicable to such Pledgor; (ii) will conflict or be inconsistent with or result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien (except pursuant to this Agreement or any other Security Document) upon any of the properties or assets of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of any indenture, lease, mortgage, deed of trust, credit agreement, loan agreement or any other material agreement, contract or other instrument to which such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or is otherwise bound, or by which it or any of its properties or assets is bound or to which it may be subject; or (iii) will violate any provision of the certificate of incorporation, by-laws, certificate of partnership, partnership agreement, certificate of formation or limited liability company agreement (or equivalent organizational documents), as the case may be, of such Pledgor or any of its Subsidiaries;

(vi) all of such Pledgor's Collateral has been duly and validly issued, is fully paid and non-assessable and is subject to no options to purchase or similar rights;

(vii) the pledge, collateral assignment and delivery to the Pledgee (subject to Section 3.6 above) of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Certificated Securities pursuant to this Agreement creates a valid and perfected security interest in such Certificated Securities and the Proceeds thereof, subject to no prior Lien or encumbrance or to any agreement purporting to grant to any third party a Lien or encumbrance on the property or assets of such Pledgor (other than Permitted Liens and Permitted Encumbrances) which would include the Securities and the Pledgee is entitled to all the rights, priorities and benefits afforded by the UCC or other relevant law as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction to perfect security interests in respect of such Collateral, in each case subject to the provisions of the applicable Intercreditor Agreement; and (viii) subject to Section 3.6 above, "control" (as defined in Section 8-106 of the UCC) has been obtained by the Pledgee, over all of such Pledgor's Collateral consisting of Securities with respect to which such "control" may be obtained pursuant to Section 8-106 of the UCC, except to the extent that the obligation of the applicable Pledgor to provide the Pledgee with "control" of such Collateral has not yet arisen under this Agreement; provided that in the case of the Pledgee obtaining "control" over Collateral consisting of a Security Entitlement, such Pledgor shall have taken all steps in its control so that the Pledgee obtains "control" over such Security Entitlement.

(b) Each Pledgor covenants and agrees that it will defend the Pledgee's right, title and security interest in and to such Pledgor's Collateral and the proceeds thereof against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever; and each Pledgor covenants and agrees that it will have like title to and right to pledge any other property at any time hereafter pledged to the Pledgee by such Pledgor as Collateral hereunder and will likewise defend the right thereto and security interest therein of the Pledgee and the other Secured Creditors.

(c) Each Pledgor covenants and agrees that it will take no action which would violate any of the terms of any Secured Debt Agreement.

17. LEGAL NAMES; TYPE OF ORGANIZATION (AND WHETHER A REGISTERED ORGANIZATION AND/OR A TRANSMITTING UTILITY); JURISDICTION OF ORGANIZATION; LOCATION; ORGANIZATIONAL IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS; CHANGES THERETO; ETC. The exact legal name of each Pledgor, the type of organization of such Pledgor, whether or not such Pledgor is a Registered Organization, the jurisdiction of organization of such Pledgor, such Pledgor's Location, the organizational identification number (if any) of each Pledgor, and whether or not such Pledgor is a Transmitting Utility, is listed on Annex A hereto for such Pledgor. No Pledgor shall change its legal name, its type of organization, its status as a Registered Organization (in the case of a Registered Organization), its status as a Transmitting Utility or as a Person which is not a Transmitting Utility, as the case may be, its jurisdiction of organization, its Location, or its organizational identification number (if any), except that any such changes shall be permitted (so long as not in violation of the applicable requirements of the Secured Debt Agreements and so long as same do not involve (x) a Registered Organization ceasing to constitute same or (y) any Pledgor changing its jurisdiction of organization or Location from the United States or a State thereof to a jurisdiction of organization or Location, as the case may be, outside the United States or a State thereof) if (i) it shall have given to the Pledgee not less than 15 days' (or, in the case of any Pulitzer Pledgor, 30 days') prior written notice of each change to the information listed on Annex A (as adjusted for any subsequent changes thereto previously made in accordance with this sentence), together with a supplement to Annex A which shall correct all information contained therein for such Pledgor, and (ii) in connection with such change or changes, it shall have taken all action reasonably requested by the Pledgee to maintain the security interests of the Pledgee in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby at all times fully perfected and in full force and effect. In addition, to the extent that any Pledgor does not have an organizational identification number on the date hereof and later obtains one, such Pledgor shall promptly thereafter deliver a notification of the Pledgee of such organizational identification number and shall take all actions reasonably satisfactory to the Pledgee to the extent necessary to maintain the security interest of the Pledgee in the Collateral intended to be granted hereby fully perfected and in full force and effect.

18. PLEDGORS' OBLIGATIONS ABSOLUTE, ETC. The obligations of each Pledgor under this Agreement shall be absolute and unconditional and shall remain in full force and effect without regard to, and shall not be released, suspended, discharged, terminated or otherwise affected by, any circumstance or occurrence whatsoever (other than termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 20 hereof), including, without limitation:

- (i) any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of, or addition or supplement to or deletion from any Secured Debt Agreement (other than this Agreement in accordance with its terms), or any other instrument or agreement referred to therein, or any assignment or transfer of any thereof;
- (ii) any waiver, consent, extension, indulgence or other action or inaction under or in respect of any such agreement or instrument including, without limitation, this Agreement (other than a waiver, consent or extension with respect to this Agreement in accordance with its terms);
- (iii) any furnishing of any additional security to the Pledgee or its assignee or any acceptance thereof or any release of any security by the Pledgee or its assignee;
- (iv) any limitation on any party's liability or obligations under any such instrument or agreement or any invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any such instrument or agreement or any term thereof; or
- (v) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, composition, adjustment, dissolution, liquidation or other like proceeding relating to any Pledgor or any Subsidiary of any Pledgor, or any action taken with respect to this Agreement by any trustee or receiver, or by any court, in any such proceeding, whether or not such Pledgor shall have notice or knowledge of any of the foregoing.

19. SALE OF COLLATERAL WITHOUT REGISTRATION. (a) If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and any Pledgor shall have received from the Pledgee a written request or requests that such Pledgor cause any registration, qualification or compliance under any federal or state securities law or laws to be effected with respect to all or any part of the Collateral, such Pledgor as soon as practicable and at its expense will use its best efforts to cause such registration to be effected (and be kept effective) and will use its best efforts to cause such qualification and compliance to be effected (and be kept effective) as may be so requested and as would permit or facilitate the sale and distribution of such Collateral, including, without limitation, registration under the Securities Act, as then in effect (or any similar statute then in effect), appropriate qualifications under applicable blue sky or other state securities laws and appropriate compliance with any other governmental requirements; provided, that the Pledgee shall furnish to such Pledgor such information regarding the Pledgee as such Pledgor may request in writing and as shall be required in connection with any such registration, qualification or compliance. Each Pledgor will cause the Pledgee to be kept reasonably advised in writing as to the progress of each such registration, qualification or compliance and as to the completion thereof, will furnish to the Pledgee such number of prospectuses, offering circulars and other documents incident thereto as the Pledgee from time to time may reasonably request, and will indemnify, to the extent permitted by law, the Pledgee and all other Secured Creditors participating in the distribution of such Collateral against all claims, losses, damages and liabilities caused by any untrue statement (or alleged untrue statement) of a material fact contained therein (or in any related registration statement, notification or the like) or by any omission (or alleged omission) to state therein (or in any related registration statement, notification or the like) a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as the same may have been caused by an untrue statement or omission based upon information furnished in writing to such Pledgor by the Pledgee or such other Secured Creditor expressly for use therein.

(b) If at any time when the Pledgee shall determine to exercise its right to sell all or any part of the Collateral pursuant to Section 7 hereof, and such Collateral or the part thereof to be sold shall not, for any reason whatsoever, be effectively registered under the Securities Act, as then in effect, the Pledgee may, in its sole and absolute discretion and in accordance with the applicable Intercreditor Agreement, sell such Collateral or part thereof by private sale in such manner and under such circumstances as the Pledgee may deem necessary or advisable in order that such sale may legally be effected without such registration. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in any such event the Pledgee, in its sole and absolute discretion (i) may proceed to make such private sale notwithstanding that a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Collateral or part thereof shall have been filed under such Securities Act, (ii) may approach and negotiate with a single possible purchaser to effect such sale, and (iii) may restrict such sale to a purchaser who will represent and agree that such purchaser is purchasing for its own account, for investment, and not with a view to the distribution or sale of such Collateral or part thereof. In the event of any such sale, the Pledgee shall incur no responsibility or liability for selling all or any part of the Collateral at a price which the Pledgee, in its sole and absolute discretion and in accordance with the applicable Intercreditor Agreement, may in good faith deem reasonable under the circumstances, notwithstanding the possibility that a substantially higher price might be realized if the sale were deferred until the registration as aforesaid.

20. TERMINATION; RELEASE. (a) On the Termination Date, this Agreement shall terminate (provided that all indemnities set forth herein including, without limitation, in Section 11 hereof shall survive any such termination) and the Pledgee, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will execute and deliver to such Pledgor a proper instrument or instruments (including UCC termination statements) acknowledging the satisfaction and termination of this Agreement (including, without limitation, UCC termination statements and instruments of satisfaction, discharge and/or reconveyance), and will duly release from the security interest created hereby and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as may be in the possession of the Pledgee and as has not theretofore been sold or otherwise applied or released pursuant to this Agreement, together with any moneys at the time held by the Pledgee or any of its sub-agents hereunder and, with respect to any Collateral consisting of an Uncertificated Security, a Partnership Interest or a Limited Liability Company Interest (other than an Uncertificated Security, Partnership Interest or Limited Liability Company Interest credited on the books of a Clearing Corporation or Securities Intermediary), a termination of the agreement relating thereto executed and delivered by the issuer of such Uncertificated Security pursuant to Section 3.2(a)(ii) or by the respective partnership or limited liability company pursuant to Section 3.2(a)(iv)(2). As used in this Agreement, "Termination Date" shall mean the date upon which the Loan Agreement shall have been terminated and no Note is outstanding (and all Loans have been paid in full in cash), and all other Obligations (other than indemnities described in Section 11 hereof and described in Section 13.01 of the Loan Agreement, in each case which are not then due and payable) then due and payable have been paid in full.

(b) In the event that any part of the Collateral is sold or otherwise disposed of (to a Person other than a Credit Party) (I) (x) at any time prior to the Termination Date, in connection with a sale or disposition permitted by Section 10.02 of the Loan Agreement or is otherwise released at the direction of the Required Lenders (or such other Lenders (or number or percentage thereof) as shall be necessary under Section 13.12(a) of the Loan Agreement) or (y) at any time thereafter, to the extent permitted by the other Secured Debt Agreements, and in the case of clauses (x) and (y), the proceeds of such sale or disposition (or from such release) are applied in accordance with the terms of the Loan Agreement or such other Secured Debt Agreement, as the case may be, to the extent required to be so applied, or (II) pursuant to a Joint-Venture Transaction in accordance with the terms of the Loan Agreement, the Pledgee, at the request and expense of such Pledgor, will duly release from the security interest created hereby, or in the case of a Joint-Venture Transaction, the security interests created hereby shall be automatically released (and, in each case, will execute and deliver such documentation, including termination or partial release statements and the like in connection therewith) and assign, transfer and deliver to such Pledgor (without recourse and without any representation or warranty) such of the Collateral as is then being (or has been) so sold or released and as may be in the possession of the Pledgee (or, in the case of Collateral held by any sub-agent designated pursuant to Section 4 hereto, such sub-agent) and has not theretofore been released pursuant to this Agreement.

[Second Lien Pledge Agreement]

(c) At any time that any Pledgor desires that Collateral be released as provided in the foregoing Section 20(a) or (b), it shall deliver to the Pledgee (and the relevant sub-agent, if any, designated pursuant to Section 4 hereof) a certificate signed by an Authorized Officer of such Pledgor stating that the release of the respective Collateral is permitted pursuant to Section 20(a) or (b) hereof. If reasonably requested by the Pledgee (although the Pledgee shall have no obligation to make any such request), the relevant Pledgor shall furnish appropriate legal opinions (from counsel, reasonably acceptable to the Pledgee) to the effect set forth in the immediately preceding sentence.

(d) Upon the occurrence of the Termination Date, the Pledgors shall be automatically released from this Agreement and all security interests created hereunder shall be released automatically without further action on the part of the Pledgee and this Agreement shall, as to each Pledgor, terminate, and have no further force or effect (provided that all indemnitees set forth herein, including, without limitation, in Section 11 hereof shall survive any such termination).

(e) The Pledgee shall have no liability whatsoever to any other Secured Creditor as the result of any release of Collateral by it in accordance with (or which the Pledgee in good faith believes to be in accordance with) this Section 20.

21. NOTICES, ETC. Except as otherwise specified herein, all notices, requests, demands or other communications to or upon the respective parties hereto shall be sent or delivered by mail, telegraph, telex, telecopy, cable or courier service and all such notices and communications shall, when mailed, telegraphed, telexed, telecopied, or cabled or sent by courier, be effective when deposited in the mails, delivered to the telegraph company, cable company or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by telex or telecopier, except that notices and communications to the Pledgee or any Pledgor shall not be effective until received by the Pledgee or such Pledgor, as the case may be. 22. WAIVER; AMENDMENT. Except as provided in Sections 30 and 32 hereof, none of the terms and conditions of this Agreement may be changed, waived, modified or varied in any manner whatsoever unless in writing duly signed by each Pledgor directly affected thereby (it being understood that the addition or release of any Pledgor hereunder shall not constitute a change, waiver, discharge or termination affecting any Pledgor other than the Pledgor so added or released) and the Pledgee (with the written consent of the Required Secured Creditors).

23. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect, subject to release and/or termination as set forth in Section 20 hereof, (ii) be binding upon each Pledgor, its successors and assigns; provided, however, that no Pledgor shall assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Pledgee (with the prior written consent of the Required Secured Creditors), and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of the Pledgee hereunder, to the benefit of the Pledgee, the other Secured Creditors and their respective successors, transferees and assigns. All agreements, statements, representations and warranties made by each Pledgor herein or in any certificate or other instrument delivered by such Pledgor or on its behalf under this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Secured Creditors and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreements and the other Secured Debt Agreements regardless of any investigation made by the Secured Creditors or on their behalf.

24. HEADINGS DESCRIPTIVE. The headings of the several Sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

25. GOVERNING LAW; SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; VENUE; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PLEDGOR HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY CLAIM THAT ANY SUCH COURTS LACK PERSONAL JURISDICTION OVER SUCH PLEDGOR, AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT BROUGHT IN ANY OF THE AFORESAID COURTS THAT ANY SUCH COURT LACKS PERSONAL JURISDICTION OVER SUCH PLEDGOR. EACH

[Second Lien Pledge Agreement]

28. SEVERABILITY. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

29. RECOURSE. This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Pledgor and pursuant to and upon all the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements on the part of such Pledgor contained herein, in the Lee Intercreditor Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, and in the other Secured Debt Agreements and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith.

30. ADDITIONAL PLEDGORS. It is understood and agreed that any Subsidiary of the Borrower that is required to become a party to this Agreement after the date hereof pursuant to the requirements of the Loan Agreement, any Intercreditor Agreement or any other Secured Debt Agreement, shall become a Pledgor hereunder by (x) executing a counterpart hereof and delivering same to the Pledgee or executing a joinder agreement and delivering same to the Pledgee, in each case as may be required by (and in form and substance satisfactory to) the Pledgee, (y) delivering supplements to Annexes A through F, hereto as are necessary to cause such annexes to be complete and accurate with respect to such additional Pledgor on such date and (z) taking all actions as specified in this Agreement as would have been taken by such Pledgor had it been an original party to this Agreement, in each case with all documents required above to be delivered to the Pledgee and with all documents and actions required above to be taken to the reasonable satisfaction of the Pledgee.

31. LIMITED OBLIGATIONS. It is the desire and intent of each Pledgor and the Secured Creditors that this Agreement shall be enforced against each Pledgor to the fullest extent permissible under the laws applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in furtherance of the foregoing, it is noted that the obligations of each Pledgor constituting a Subsidiary Guarantor have been limited as provided in the Subsidiaries Guaranty.

32. RELEASE OF PLEDGORS. If at any time all of the Equity Interests of any Pledgor owned by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries are sold (to a Person other than a Credit Party) in a transaction permitted pursuant to the Loan Agreement (and which does not violate the terms of any other Secured Debt Agreement then in effect), then, such Pledgor shall be released as a Pledgor pursuant to this Agreement without any further action hereunder (it being understood that the sale of all of the Equity Interests in any Person that owns, directly or indirectly, all of the Equity Interests in any Pledgor shall be deemed to be a sale of all of the Equity Interests in such Pledgor for purposes of this Section), and the Pledgee is authorized and directed to execute and deliver such instruments of release as are reasonably satisfactory to it. At any time that the Borrower desires that a Pledgor be released from this Agreement as provided in this Section 32, the Borrower shall deliver to the Pledgee a certificate signed by an Authorized Officer of the Borrower stating that the release of such Pledgor is permitted pursuant to this Section 32. If requested by Pledgee (although the Pledgee shall have no obligation to make any such request), the Borrower shall furnish legal opinions (from counsel acceptable to the Pledgee) to the effect set forth in the immediately preceding sentence. The Pledgee shall have no liability whatsoever to any other Secured Creditor as a result of the release of any Pledgor by it in accordance with, or which it believes in good faith to be in accordance with, this Section 32.

33. INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENTS. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the exercise of any right or remedy by the Pledgee hereunder in respect of Common Collateral (as defined in the Lee Intercreditor Agreement) or Common Collateral (as defined in the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement) shall be subject to the provisions of the Lee Intercreditor Agreement and the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, respectively. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Lee Intercreditor Agreement (with respect to Common Collateral (as defined therein)) or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement (with respect to Common Collateral (as defined therein)) and this Agreement, the terms of the Lee First Lien Intercreditor Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable, shall govern and control.

On or prior to the Restructuring Closing Date, the Company shall have paid to the Purchasers an amount equal to $5,000,000 using only funds provided by Lee to the Company on or prior to such date, and such amount shall be applied as a prepayment of the Notes substantially concurrent with the issuance thereof in accordance with paragraph 2B hereof.

4T. Tax Sharing Agreement. Each Purchaser shall have received (i) a copy of a tax sharing agreement among the Pulitzer Entities and Lee, dated the date hereof, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to such Purchaser (the “Tax Sharing Agreement”) and (ii) reasonably satisfactory evidence that the Tax Sharing Agreement is in full force and effect.

4U. Star Intercompany Obligations. Each Purchaser shall have received evidence reasonably satisfactory to it that the Star Intercompany Notes have been canceled and no liability remains outstanding in respect thereof.

PARAGRAPH 5. PREPAYMENTS.

5A. Mandatory Scheduled Prepayments. On March 20, 2012 and on the 20th day of each June, September, December and March thereafter to and including December 20, 2015, the Company will prepay the Notes at par and without payment of the Yield-Maintenance Amount or any premium in accordance with the following schedule:

The Company shall pay the entire remaining outstanding principal amount of the Notes on December 31, 2015.

5B. Excess Cash Flow Sweep. On or prior to the 45th day after the last day of each fiscal quarter of the Guarantor (commencing with the first fiscal quarter ending closest to March 31, 2012 through and including the last day of the fiscal quarter ending closest to September 30, 2015), the Company will prepay a principal amount of Notes (an “Excess Cash Flow Sweep Prepayment”) equal to the greater of (a) zero and (b) an amount equal to (i) 75% of Available Excess Cash Flow for such fiscal quarter (rounded down to the nearest $10,000 increment), plus (ii) if, after giving effect to a pro forma reduction of Unrestricted Cash as a result of any prepayment required to be made with respect to such fiscal quarter pursuant to the foregoing clause (i), the aggregate amount of Unrestricted Cash held by the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries as at the last day of such fiscal quarter exceeds $20,000,000, an amount equal to 100% of such excess amount (rounded down to the nearest $10,000 increment). The Excess Cash Flow Sweep Prepayment shall be made at par and without payment of the Yield-Maintenance Amount or any premium. Simultaneously with each prepayment made pursuant to this paragraph 5B, the Company shall deliver to each holder of Notes the calculation, in reasonable detail, of the amount of the Excess Cash Flow Sweep Prepayment as of such prepayment date.

5C. Optional Prepayments.

(i) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Notes shall be subject to prepayment, in whole at any time or from time to time in part (in a minimum principal amount of $250,000 and integral multiples of $100,000 above that amount) at the option of the Company, at 100% of the principal amount so prepaid, but without payment of the Yield-Maintenance Amount or any premium.

(ii) The Company shall give the holder of each Note notice (which may be by telephone or e-mail) of any prepayment pursuant to paragraph 5C(i) not less than 3 Business Days prior to the prepayment date (which shall be a Business Day), specifying such prepayment date and the principal amount of the Notes, and of the Notes held by such holder, to be prepaid on such date and stating that such prepayment is to be made pursuant to paragraph 5C(i). Notice of prepayment having been given as aforesaid, the principal amount of the Notes specified in such notice (but without the Yield-Maintenance Amount or any premium) shall become due and payable on such prepayment date unless such notice of prepayment shall be rescinded by the Company on or before such prepayment date.

5D. Asset Sale Prepayments. Within 5 Business Days of each date on or after the Restructuring Closing Date upon which the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries receives any Asset Sale Proceeds, the Company will prepay a principal amount of Notes (an “Asset Sale Prepayment”) in an amount equal to 100% of the Asset Sale Proceeds (rounded down to the nearest $10,000 increment) received on such date in accordance with the requirements of paragraphs 5F and 5G. The Company agrees that, on any Business Day on which the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries receives any Asset Sale Proceeds, it will cause such Asset Sale Proceeds to be deposited into the Asset Sale Proceeds Reserve Account, unless it makes the prepayment contemplated by the preceding sentence on such Business Day.

5E. Prepayment Upon Change of Control. Promptly and in any event within 5 Business Days after the occurrence of a Change of Control, the Company will give written notice thereof (a “Change of Control Notice”) to the holders of all outstanding Notes, which Change of Control Notice shall (i) refer specifically to this paragraph 5E, (ii) describe the Change of Control in reasonable detail and specify the Change of Control Prepayment Date and the Response Date (as respectively defined below) in respect thereof and (iii) offer to prepay all outstanding Notes at the price specified below on the date therein specified (the “Change of Control Prepayment Date”), which shall be a Business Day not more than 15 days after the date of such Change of Control Notice. Each holder of a Note will notify the Company of such holder’s acceptance or rejection of such offer by giving written notice of such acceptance or rejection to the Company on or before the date specified in such Change of Control Notice (the “Response Date”), which specified date shall be a Business Day not less than 7 days nor more than 12 days after the date of such Change of Control Notice. The Company shall prepay on the Change of Control Prepayment Date all of the outstanding Notes held by the holders as to which such offer has been so accepted (it being understood that failure of any holder to accept such offer on or before the Response Date shall be deemed to constitute acceptance by such holder), at the principal amount of each such Note, together with interest accrued thereon to the Change of Control Prepayment Date but without payment of the Yield-Maintenance Amount or any premium. If any holder shall reject such offer on or before the Response Date, such holder shall be deemed to have waived its rights under this paragraph 5E to require prepayment of all Notes held by such holder in respect of such Change of Control but not in respect of any subsequent Change of Control. For purposes of this paragraph 5E, any holder of more than one Note may act separately with respect to each Note so held (with the effect that a holder of more than one Note may accept such offer with respect to one or more Notes so held and reject such offer with respect to one or more other Notes so held).

5F. Application of Certain Prepayments. Any prepayment of the Notes pursuant to any provision hereof (other than paragraph 5E hereof) shall be applied to reduce the minimum cumulative principal prepayments required by paragraph 5A in the order of maturity of such prepayments under paragraph 5A, provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing portion of this sentence shall not apply to any prepayment that is made pursuant to paragraph 5A or that is part of the Reduction Amount to the extent applied to reduce such minimum cumulative principal prepayments. Any prepayment of the Notes pursuant to paragraph 5E shall be applied ratably to reduce the minimum cumulative principal prepayments required by paragraph 5B (including, without limitation, the payment due on the maturity date of the Notes).

5G. Partial Payments Pro Rata. Upon any partial prepayment of the Notes pursuant to any provision hereof (other than paragraph 5E), the principal amount so prepaid shall be allocated to all Notes at the time outstanding in proportion to the respective outstanding principal amounts thereof.

5H. Retirement of Notes. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries or any Company Affiliate to, prepay or otherwise retire in whole or in part prior to their stated final maturity (other than by prepayment pursuant to this paragraph 5 or upon acceleration of such final maturity pursuant to paragraph 8A), or purchase or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, Notes held by any holder.

5I. Use of Debt to Make Prepayment. No prepayment of less than the entire outstanding principal amount of the Notes will be made with the proceeds of any Debt incurred by the Guarantor, the Company or any of the Guarantor's other Subsidiaries, except unsecured Debt subordinated to payment of the Notes on terms and conditions satisfactory to the Required Holders.

5J. Prepayment of Interest upon Payment in Full of Notes. Any payment or prepayment of any Notes pursuant to this paragraph 5 which results in the payment or prepayment of the entire outstanding principal amount of such Notes shall be made together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon as of the date of such payment or prepayment. No interest shall otherwise be paid together with any such payment or prepayment unless such payment or prepayment is made on a date when interest is scheduled to be paid.

PARAGRAPH 6. AFFIRMATIVE COVENANTS.

So long as any Note shall remain unpaid, the Company covenants as follows:

6A. Financial Statements. The Company will deliver or cause the Guarantor to deliver to each holder of a Note in duplicate or in electronic format (it being understood that the

(vii) no later than the first Business Day of every other week (beginning on the first Monday after the Restructuring Closing Date), a forecast for the succeeding 13-week period of the projected consolidated cash flows of (x) Lee and its Subsidiaries, and (y) the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries, each taken as a whole (such forecast to contain the same level of detail used in such forecasts delivered to the holders of the Prepetition Notes commencing in October, 2011), together with a variance report of actual cash flow for the immediately preceding period for which a forecast was delivered against the then current forecast for such preceding period;

(viii) promptly, and in any event within 45 days following the end of each fiscal quarter in each fiscal year of Lee, a written report of a Responsible Officer, in form and scope reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders (such satisfaction to be presumed in the absence of an objection delivered to the Company within 30 days after the receipt of such report), setting forth a summary in reasonable detail of all Restricted Intercompany Charges, including cash and non-cash activities, organized by category of intercompany activity, by and among (x) Lee and its Subsidiaries (other than the Pulitzer Entities), on one hand, and the Pulitzer Entities, on the other hand, and (y) the Pulitzer Entities and Star Publishing, and a reconciliation of intercompany balances with respect to each of (x) and (y); funded, together with revised projections of future cash payments in respect of such pension obligations;

(xi) promptly, and in any event within 30 days following the end of each fiscal month of Lee, a management report describing the financial performance and operations of Lee and its subsidiaries in a form consistent with, and containing the same level of detail as, reports made available to the holders of the Prepetition Notes commencing in October, 2011; and

(xii) with reasonable promptness, such other information and documents as any holder may reasonably request.

Together with each delivery of financial statements required by clauses (i) and (ii) above, the Company will deliver to each holder a Compliance Certificate, substantially in the form of Exhibit I attached hereto, executed on behalf of the Company and demonstrating (with computations in reasonable detail) compliance by the Company and its Subsidiaries with the provisions of paragraph 7C(4) of this Agreement and stating that there exists no Event of Default or Default, or, if any Event of Default or Default exists, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action the Company proposes to take with respect thereto. Together with each delivery of financial statements required by clause (ii) above, the Company will use reasonable efforts to deliver or cause to be delivered to each holder a certificate of such accountants stating that, in making the audit necessary for their report on such financial statements, they have obtained no knowledge of any Event of Default or Default or, if they have obtained knowledge of any Event of Default or Default, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof. Such accountants, however, shall not be liable to anyone by reason of their failure to obtain knowledge of any Event of Default or Default which would not be disclosed in the course of an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Together with all financial statements of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries required to be delivered pursuant to this paragraph 6A, the Company will deliver or cause to be delivered a reconciliation reflecting the changes that would be required to such financial statements had they been prepared in accordance with the GAAP and policies used to prepare the audited financial statements of the Guarantor for the Guarantor's fiscal year ended September 25, 2011. The Company also covenants that immediately after any Responsible Officer obtains knowledge of an Event of Default or Default, it will deliver to each holder an Officer's Certificate specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action the Company has taken, is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto. Each holder is hereby authorized to deliver a copy of any financial statement delivered to such holder pursuant to this paragraph 6A to any regulatory body having jurisdiction over such holder. Nothing herein shall require, or be deemed to require, the Company to deliver any audited financial statements, or a certificate of accountants related to any Event of Default or Default, for the Company.

6B. Inspection of Properties. The Company will permit any Person designated by any holder in writing, at such holder's expense if no Event of Default then exists and at the Company's expense if an Event of Default then exists, to visit and inspect any of the properties of the Company and its Subsidiaries, to examine the limited liability company or corporate books and financial records of the Company and its Subsidiaries and make copies thereof or extracts therefrom and to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of any of such limited liability companies or corporations with the principal officers of the Company and its independent public accountants, all at such reasonable times and as often as such holder may reasonably request; provided, however, that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred, no holder of Notes shall exercise rights pursuant to this paragraph 6B without the written approval of the Required Holders (to be given or withheld in their sole discretion) and (ii) no more than two such inspections shall be conducted in any calendar year.

6C. Covenant to Secure Notes Equally. The Company will, if it or any Subsidiary shall create or assume any Lien upon any of its property or assets, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, other than Liens permitted by the provisions of paragraph 7C(1) (unless prior written consent to the creation or assumption thereof shall have been obtained pursuant to paragraph 12C), make or cause to be made effective provision whereby the Notes will be secured by such Lien equally and ratably with any and all other Debt thereby secured, so long as any such other Debt shall be so secured; provided that the creation and maintenance of such equal and ratable Lien shall not in any way limit or modify the right of the holders of the Notes to enforce the provisions of paragraph 7C(1).

6D. Compliance with Laws and Regulations. The Company will, and will cause each Subsidiary to, be in material compliance with all laws, ordinances or governmental rules or regulations to which each of them is subject (including, without limitation, the laws and regulations that are referred to in paragraph 9K, and those relating to equal employment opportunity and employee health and safety) which are now in effect or may be legally imposed in the future in any jurisdiction in which the Company and any Subsidiary is doing business other than those laws and regulations which the Company or such Subsidiary is contesting in good faith by appropriate proceedings; provided, however, (i) the Company or such Subsidiary continues to operate any affected business free of any requirement to escrow or sequester any material amount of such business' profits or revenues pending resolution of such proceedings, or (ii) any non-compliance with any law or regulation could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

6E. Patents, Trade Marks and Trade Names. The Company will and will cause each Subsidiary to continue to own, or hold and maintain in effect, all licenses, certificates, permits, franchises and other governmental authorizations necessary to the ownership of their respective properties or to the use of, all copyrights, franchises, licenses, marketing rights, patents, service marks, trade marks, trade names, and rights in any of the foregoing, as in the aggregate are necessary for the conduct of its business in the manner in which such business is being conducted as of the date hereof except where failure to continue to own or hold such licenses could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

6F. Information Required by Rule 144A. The Company will, upon the request of the holder of any Note, provide such holder, and any qualified institutional buyer designated by such holder, such financial and other information as such holder may reasonably determine to be necessary in order to permit compliance with the information requirements of Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of Notes, except at such times as the Company is subject to the reporting requirements of section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act. For the purpose of this paragraph 6F, the term "qualified institutional buyer" shall have the meaning specified in Rule 144A under the Securities Act.

6G. Payment of Taxes and Other Claims. The Company will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, file all income tax or similar tax returns required to be filed in any jurisdiction and to pay and discharge all taxes shown to be due and payable by the Company or its Subsidiaries on such returns and all other taxes, assessments, governmental charges, levies, trade accounts payable and claims for work, labor or materials (all the foregoing being referred to collectively as “Claims”) payable by any of them, to the extent such Claims have become due and payable and before they have become delinquent (including, without limitation, Claims for which sums have become due and payable that have or might become a Lien on properties or assets of the Company or any Subsidiary); provided, that neither the Company nor any Subsidiary need pay any Claim if (i) the amount, applicability or validity thereof is contested by the Company or such Subsidiary on a timely basis in good faith and in appropriate proceedings, and the Company or such Subsidiary has established adequate reserves therefor in accordance with GAAP on its books or (ii) the nonpayment of all such Claims in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

6H. ERISA Compliance. The Company will, and will cause each ERISA Affiliate controlled by the Company to, at all times:

- (i) with respect to each Plan, make timely payments of contributions required to meet the minimum funding standard set forth in ERISA or the Code with respect thereto and, with respect to any Multiemployer Plan, make timely payment of contributions required to be paid thereto as provided by Section 515 of ERISA, and
- (ii) comply with all other provisions of ERISA,

except for such failures to make contributions and failures to comply as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

6I. Insurance. The Company will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, maintain, with financially sound and reputable insurers, (i) insurance with respect to their respective properties and businesses against such casualties and contingencies, of such types, on such terms and in such amounts (including deductibles, co-insurance and self-insurance, if adequate reserves are maintained with respect thereto) as is customary in the case of entities of established reputations engaged in the same or a similar business and similarly situated and (ii) such other insurance coverages as may be required under the terms of the Collateral Documents.

6J. Maintenance of Properties. The Company will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, maintain and keep, or cause to be maintained and kept, their respective properties in good repair, working order and condition (other than ordinary wear and tear), so that the business carried on in connection therewith may be properly conducted at all times, provided that this paragraph shall not (i) prevent the Company or any Subsidiary from discontinuing the operation and the maintenance of any of its properties if such discontinuance is desirable in the conduct of its business and the Company has concluded that such discontinuance could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect or (ii) be interpreted to require the Company to make Capital Expenditures in respect of maintenance in excess of the amounts permitted to be spent on Capital Expenditures under the Guaranty Agreement.

6K. Corporate Existence, Etc. Subject to paragraph 7C(6), the Company will at all times preserve and keep its corporate existence in full force and effect. Subject to paragraphs 7C(4) and 7C(6), the Company will at all times preserve and keep in full force and effect the corporate existence of each of its Subsidiaries (unless merged into the Company or a Subsidiary) and all rights and franchises of the Company and its Subsidiaries unless, in the good faith judgment of the Company, the termination of or failure to preserve and keep in full force and effect such corporate existence, right or franchise could not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect.

6L. Books and Records. The Company will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, maintain proper books of record and account in conformity with GAAP and all applicable requirements of any Governmental Authority having legal or regulatory jurisdiction over the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be.

6M. Delivery of Deeds of Trust. To the extent that the Company is unable to satisfy the condition set forth in paragraph 4M(3) hereto on or prior to the Restructuring Closing Date, the Company will deliver to the Purchasers the Deeds of Trust, as referenced in such paragraph, as soon as commercially reasonable but no later than 30 calendar days after the Restructuring Closing Date or by such later date to which the Required Holders may agree.

PARAGRAPH 7. NEGATIVE COVENANTS.

So long as any Note shall remain unpaid, the Company covenants as follows:

The Company acknowledges, and the parties hereto agree, that each holder of a Note has the right to maintain its investment in the Notes free from repayment by the Company (except as herein specifically provided for) and that the provision for payment of the Yield-Maintenance Amount by the Company in the event that the Notes are prepaid or are accelerated as a result of an Event of Default, is intended to provide compensation for the deprivation of such right under such circumstances.

8B. Rescission of Acceleration. At any time after any or all of the Notes shall have been declared immediately due and payable pursuant to paragraph 8A, the holder or holders of at least 66 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of Notes then outstanding may, by notice in writing to the Company, rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if (i) the Company shall have paid all overdue interest on the Notes, the principal of the Notes which has become due otherwise than by reason of such declaration, and interest on such overdue interest and overdue principal at the rate specified in the Notes, (ii) the Company shall not have paid any amounts which have become due solely by reason of such declaration, (iii) all Events of Default and Defaults, other than non-payment of amounts which have become due solely by reason of such declaration, shall have been cured or waived pursuant to paragraph 12C, and (iv) no judgment or decree shall have been entered for the payment of any amounts due pursuant to the Notes or this Agreement. No remedy conferred in this Agreement or in any other Transaction Document upon the holder of any Note is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, and each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy conferred herein or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise.

The Company has and each Material Subsidiary has the limited liability company or corporate power, as applicable, to own its respective property and to carry on its respective business as now being conducted, and the Company is and each Material Subsidiary is duly qualified as a foreign limited liability company or foreign corporation, as applicable, to do business and in good standing in every jurisdiction in which the nature of the respective business conducted or property owned by it makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to so qualify would not have a Material Adverse Effect. Each of the Company and the Subsidiaries has the limited liability company power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, the Notes and each of the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party and to perform the provisions hereof and thereof. The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement and the Notes have been duly authorized by all necessary limited liability company action, and this Agreement constitutes, and upon execution and delivery thereof, each Note and each other Transaction Document to which any Credit Party is a party will constitute, a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Credit Party enforceable against such Credit Party in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

9B. Material Adverse Change. Since September 25, 2011, nothing has occurred that has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect (it being understood that the filing of the voluntary petitions by the Debtors under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on the Petition Date shall not, in and of itself, be deemed to have had or, reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect).

9C. Litigation; Observance of Agreements, Statutes and Orders.

(i) Except as set forth in Schedule 9C (it being understood that disclosure on Schedule 9C is not a representation that the matter to which the disclosure relates is expected to have a Material Adverse Effect), there are no actions, suits, investigations or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against or affecting the Company or any Subsidiary or any property of the Company or any Subsidiary in any court or before any arbitrator of any kind or before or by any Governmental Authority that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary is (a) in default under any term of any agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound, (b) in violation of any order, judgment, decree or ruling of any court, arbitrator or Governmental Authority or (c) in violation of any applicable law, ordinance, rule or regulation of any Governmental Authority (including, without limitation, Environmental Laws, the USA Patriot Act or any of the other laws and regulations that are referred to in paragraph 9K), which default or violation, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary is in default and no waiver of default is currently in effect, in the payment of any principal or interest on any Debt of the Company or such Subsidiary and no event or condition exists with respect to any Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary that would permit (or that with notice or the lapse of time, or both, would permit) one or more Persons to cause such Debt to become due and payable before its stated maturity or before its regularly scheduled dates of payment.

(ii) Except as disclosed in Schedule 9D, neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has agreed or consented to cause or permit in the future (upon the happening of a contingency or otherwise) any of its property, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, to be subject to a Lien not permitted by paragraph 7C(1).

9E. Title to Properties. The Company has and each of its Material Subsidiaries has good and marketable title to its respective real properties (other than properties which it leases) and good title to all of its other respective properties and assets, subject to no Lien of any kind except Liens permitted by paragraph 7C(1). All leases necessary in any material respect for the conduct of the respective businesses of the Company and its Subsidiaries are valid and subsisting and are in full force and effect.

9F. Conflicting Agreements and Other Matters. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any contract or agreement or subject to any charter or other limited liability company or corporate restriction which materially and adversely affects the business, property or assets, or financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. Neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement or the Notes, nor the issuance of the Notes, nor fulfillment of nor compliance with the terms and provisions hereof and of the Notes and the other Transaction Documents will conflict with, or result in a breach of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in any violation of, or result in the creation of any Lien upon any of the properties or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to, the limited liability company agreement, charter, by-laws or other organizational documents of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, any award of any arbitrator or any agreement (including any agreement with members or stockholders), instrument, order, judgment, decree, statute, law, rule or regulation to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is subject, except to the extent any such conflict, breach, defaults, violation or creation of a Lien could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in the Limited Liability Company Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof) and as set forth on Schedule 9F, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to, or otherwise subject to any provision contained in, any instrument evidencing indebtedness of the Company or such Subsidiary, any agreement relating thereto or any other contract or agreement (including its limited liability company agreement, charter or other organizational documents) which limits the amount of, or otherwise imposes restrictions on the incurring of, Debt of the Company of the type evidenced by the Notes.

9H. ERISA. Except as stated in Schedule 9H (it being understood that disclosure on Schedule 9H is not a representation that the matter to which the disclosure relates is expected to have a Material Adverse Effect),

(i) the Company and each ERISA Affiliate have operated and administered each Plan in compliance with all applicable laws except for such instances of noncompliance as have not resulted in and could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Neither the Company nor any ERISA Affiliate has incurred any liability (including actual or contingent withdrawal liability under section 4201 or 4204 of ERISA in respect of Multiemployer Plans) pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or the penalty or excise tax provisions of the Code relating to employee benefit plans (as defined in section 3 of ERISA), and no event, transaction or condition has occurred or exists that could reasonably be expected to result in the incurrence of any such liability by the Company or any ERISA Affiliate, or in the imposition of any Lien on any of the rights, properties or assets of the Company or any ERISA Affiliate, in either case pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or to section 430(k) of the Code or to any such penalty or excise tax provisions under the Code or Federal law or section 4068 of ERISA or by

The term “benefit liabilities” has the meaning specified in section 4001 of ERISA and the terms “current value” and “present value” have the meaning specified in section 3 of ERISA.

(iv) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the issuance of the Notes hereunder will not involve any transaction that is subject to the prohibitions of section 406 of ERISA or in connection with which a tax could be imposed pursuant to section 4975(c)(1)(A)-(D) of the Code. The representation by the Company to each Purchaser in the first sentence of this clause (v) of paragraph 9H is made in reliance upon and subject to the accuracy of such Purchaser’s representation in paragraph 10B as to the sources of the funds used to acquire the Prepetition Notes held by such Purchaser on the Petition Date.

9J. Disclosure. All factual information (taken as a whole) theretofore furnished by or on behalf of Lee and its Subsidiaries in writing to the Purchasers (including, without limitation, all information contained in the Transaction Documents, the Plan of Reorganization and the Disclosure Statement) for purposes of or in connection with this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents or any transaction contemplated herein or therein is true and accurate in all material respects on the date as of which such information is dated or certified and not incomplete by omitting to state any fact necessary to make such information (taken as a whole) not misleading in any material respect at such time in light of the circumstances under which such information was provided, it being understood and agreed that for purposes of this paragraph 9J, such factual information shall not include any projections or any pro forma financial information. There is no fact peculiar to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries which materially adversely affects or in the future may (so far as the Company can now foresee) materially adversely affect the business, property or assets, or financial condition of the

(iii) To the Company’s actual knowledge after making due inquiry, neither the Company nor any Controlled Entity (i) is under investigation by any Governmental Authority for, or has been charged with, or convicted of, money laundering, drug trafficking, terrorist-related activities or other money laundering predicate crimes under any applicable law (collectively, “Anti-Money Laundering Laws”), (ii) has been assessed civil penalties under any Anti-Money Laundering Laws or (iii) has had any of its funds seized or forfeited in an action under any Anti-Money Laundering Laws. Each such Subsidiary has the corporate or other power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease and to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact.

(iv) No Subsidiary is a party to, or otherwise subject to any legal, regulatory, contractual or other restriction (other than this Agreement, the agreements listed on Schedule 9M and customary limitations imposed by corporate law or similar statutes) restricting the ability of such Subsidiary to pay dividends out of profits or make any other similar distributions of profits to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that owns outstanding shares of capital stock or similar equity interests of such Subsidiary.

Pledge Agreement, the Deeds of Trust, the Account Control Agreement, the Trademark Security Agreements, the Copyright Security Agreements, or any other Transaction Document to which such Credit Party is a party, does not (i) contravene, result in any breach of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation of any Lien in respect of any property of the Company or any Subsidiary under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan, purchase or credit agreement, lease, corporate charter or by-laws, or any other agreement or instrument to which the Company or any Subsidiary is bound or by which the Company or any Subsidiary or any of their respective properties may be bound or affected, (ii) conflict with or result in a breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any order, judgment, decree, or ruling of any court, arbitrator or Governmental Authority applicable to the Company or any Subsidiary or (iii) violate any provision of any statute or other rule or regulation of any Governmental Authority applicable to the Company or any Subsidiary, except, in the case of the other Transaction Documents not specifically enumerated above, to the extent such contravention, conflict, breach or violation, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

“Reinvestment Yield” shall mean, with respect to the Called Principal of any Note, 0.50% over the yield to maturity implied by the yield(s) reported as of 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day preceding the Settlement Date with respect to such Called Principal, on the display designated as “Page PX1” (or such other display as may replace Page PX1) on Bloomberg Financial Markets for the most recently issued actively traded on-the-run U.S. Treasury securities (“Reported”) having a maturity equal to the Remaining Average Life of such Called Principal as of such Settlement Date. If there are no such U.S. Treasury securities Reported having a maturity equal to such Remaining Average Life, then such implied yield to maturity will be determined by (a) converting U.S. Treasury bill quotations to bond equivalent yields in accordance with accepted financial practice and (b) interpolating linearly between the yields Reported for the applicable most recently issued actively traded on-the-run U.S. Treasury securities with the maturities (1) closest to and greater than such Remaining Average Life and (2) closest to and less than such Remaining Average Life. The Reinvestment Yield shall be rounded to the number of decimal places as appears in the interest rate of the applicable Note.

If there is no such U.S. Treasury constant maturity having a term equal to such Remaining Average Life, such implied yield to maturity will be determined by interpolating linearly between (1) the U.S. Treasury constant maturity so reported with the term closest to and greater than such Remaining Average Life and (2) the U.S. Treasury constant maturity so reported with the term closest to and less than such Remaining Average Life. The Reinvestment Yield shall be rounded to the number of decimal places as appears in the interest rate of the applicable Note.

“Remaining Scheduled Payments” shall mean, with respect to the Called Principal of any Note, all payments of such Called Principal and interest thereon that would be due on or after the Settlement Date with respect to such Called Principal if no payment of such Called Principal were made prior to its scheduled due date.

“Settlement Date” shall mean, with respect to the Called Principal of any Note, the date on which such Called Principal has become or is declared to be immediately due and payable pursuant to paragraph 8A.

“Yield-Maintenance Amount” shall mean, with respect to any Note, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Discounted Value of the Called Principal of such Note over the sum of (i) such Called Principal plus (ii) interest accrued thereon as of (including interest due on) the Settlement Date with respect to such Called Principal. No course of dealing between the Company and the holder of any Note nor any delay in exercising any rights hereunder or under any Note shall operate as a waiver of any rights of any holder of such Note. The Company will not directly or indirectly pay or cause to be paid any remuneration, whether by way of supplemental or additional interest, fee or otherwise, or grant any security, to any holder of Notes as consideration for or as an inducement to the entering into by any holder of Notes or any waiver or amendment of any of the terms and provisions hereof (or any amendment hereto) unless such remuneration is concurrently paid, or security is concurrently granted, on the same terms, ratably to each holder of Notes then outstanding even if such holder did not consent to such waiver or amendment. To the extent that any fees paid to any Consenting Noteholder pursuant to paragraph 4Q are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to a final judgment not subject to appeal, to be subject to the preceding sentence and, in connection therewith, any Consenting Noteholder is required to disgorge all or any part of such fees, the Company shall pay to such Consenting Noteholder such additional amount so that, after taking into account such additional amount and such disgorgement, such Consenting Noteholder shall have received and retained the full amount of the fees payable pursuant to such paragraph. As used herein and in the Notes, the term “this Agreement” and references thereto shall mean this Agreement as it may from time to time be amended or supplemented.

12D. Form, Registration, Transfer and Exchange of Notes; Lost Notes. The Notes are issuable as registered notes without coupons in denominations of at least $100,000, except as may be necessary to (i) reflect any principal amount not evenly divisible by $100,000 or (ii) enable the registration of transfer by a holder of its entire holding of Notes. The Company shall keep at its principal office a register in which the Company shall provide for the registration of Notes and of transfers of Notes. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note at the principal office of the Company, the Company shall, at its expense, execute and deliver one or more new Notes of like tenor and of a like aggregate principal amount, registered in the name of such transferee or transferees. At the option of the holder of any Note, such Note may be exchanged for other Notes of like tenor and of any authorized denominations, of a like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Note to be exchanged at the principal office of the Company. Whenever any Notes are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall, at its expense, execute and deliver the Notes which the holder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Note surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer duly executed, by the holder of such Note or such holder’s attorney duly authorized in writing. Any Note or Notes issued in exchange for any Note or upon transfer thereof shall carry the rights to unpaid interest and interest to accrue which were carried by the Note so exchanged or transferred, so that neither gain nor loss of interest shall result from any such transfer or exchange. Upon receipt of written notice from the holder of any Note of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of such Note and, in the case of any such loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of such holder’s unsecured indemnity agreement, or in the case of any such mutilation upon surrender and cancellation of such Note, the Company will make and deliver a new Note, of like tenor, in lieu of the lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated Note.

12E. Persons Deemed Owners; Participations. Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer, the Company may treat the Person in whose name any Note is registered as the owner and holder of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of, interest on and any Yield-Maintenance Amount payable with respect to such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note shall be overdue, and the Company shall not be affected by notice to the contrary. Subject to the preceding sentence, the holder of any Note may from time to time grant participations in such Note to any Person on such terms and conditions as may be determined by such holder in its sole and absolute discretion, provided that any such participation shall be in an amount of at least $100,000, provided that no such granting of a participation shall increase or otherwise affect the obligations of the Company hereunder.

12F. Survival of Representations and Warranties; Entire Agreement. All representations and warranties contained herein or made in writing by or on behalf of the Company in connection herewith shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Notes, the transfer by a Purchaser of any Note or portion thereof or interest therein and the payment of any Note, and may be relied upon by any Transferee, regardless of any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of any Purchaser or any Transferee. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement, the Notes and the Transaction Documents embody the entire agreement and understanding between the Purchasers and the Company and supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof.

12G. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and other agreements in this Agreement contained by or on behalf of either of the parties hereto shall bind and inure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto (including, without limitation, any Transferee) whether so expressed or not.

12H. Notices. All written communications provided for hereunder shall be sent by first class mail or nationwide overnight delivery service (with charges prepaid) and (i) if to a Purchaser, addressed to it at the address specified for such communications in Schedule A attached hereto, or at such other address as such Purchaser shall have specified to the Company in writing, (ii) if to any other holder of any Note, addressed to such other holder at such address as such other holder shall have specified to the Company in writing or, if any such other holder shall not have so specified an address to the Company, then addressed to such other holder in care of the last holder of such Note which shall have so specified an address to the Company, and (iii) if to the Company, addressed to it at 900 North Tucker Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri 63101, Attention: Senior Vice President-Finance, or at such other address as the Company shall have specified to the holder of each Note in writing.

12I. Payments due on Non-Business Days. Anything in this Agreement or the Notes to the contrary notwithstanding, any payment of principal of or interest on any Note that is due on a date other than a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day. If the date for any payment is extended to the next succeeding Business Day by reason of the preceding sentence, the period of such extension shall not be included in the computation of the interest payable on such Business Day.

12J. Satisfaction Requirement. If any agreement, certificate or other writing, or any action taken or to be taken, is by the terms of this Agreement required to be satisfactory to any holder of Notes or to the Required Holder(s), the determination of such satisfaction shall be made by such holder of Notes or the Required Holder(s), as the case may be, in the sole and exclusive judgment (exercised in good faith) of the Person or Persons making such determination.

12K. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the law of the State of New York excluding choice-of-law principles of the law of such State that would permit the application of the laws of a jurisdiction other than such State.

12L. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

12M. Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings of the several paragraphs of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement.

12N. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts (or counterpart signature pages), each of which shall be an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

12O. Independence of Covenants. All covenants hereunder shall be given independent effect so that if a particular action or condition is prohibited by any one of such covenants, the fact that it would be permitted by an exception to, or otherwise be in compliance within the limitations of, another covenant shall not (i) avoid the occurrence of an Event of Default or Default if such action is taken or such condition exists or (ii) in any way prejudice an attempt by the holders to prohibit (through equitable action or otherwise) the taking of any action by the Company or a Subsidiary which would result in an Event of Default or Default.

12P. Severalty of Obligations. The obligations of the Purchasers under this Agreement are several obligations. No failure by any Purchaser to perform its obligations under this Agreement shall relieve any other Purchaser or the Company of any of its obligations hereunder, and no Purchaser shall be responsible for the obligations of, or any action taken or omitted by, any other Purchaser hereunder.

12Q. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities. The Company hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of any New York state or Federal court sitting in New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, and the Company hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in New York state or Federal court. The Company hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The Company agrees and irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such action or proceeding by the mailing, by registered or certified U.S. mail, or by any other means or mail that requires a signed receipt, of copies of such process to the Company at its address set forth in paragraph 12H, and hereby appoints such Person as its agent to receive such service of process. The Company agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this paragraph 12Q shall affect the right of any holder of the Notes to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or affect the right of any holder of the Notes to bring any action or proceeding against the Company or its property in the courts of any other jurisdiction. To the extent that the Company has or hereafter may acquire immunity from jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, execution or otherwise) with respect to itself or its property, the Company hereby irrevocably waives such immunity in respect of its obligations under this Agreement.

12R. Waiver of Jury Trial. The Company and the holders of the Notes agree to waive their respective rights to a jury trial of any claim or cause of action based upon or arising out of this Agreement, the Notes, or any dealings between them relating to the subject matter of this transaction and the lender/borrower relationship that is being established. The scope of this waiver is intended to be all-encompassing of any and all disputes that may be filed in any court and that relate to the subject matter of this transaction, including without limitation, contract claims, tort claims, breach of duty claims, and all other common law and statutory claims. The holders of the Notes and the Company each acknowledge that this waiver is a material inducement to enter into this business relationship, that each has already relied on the waiver in entering into this Agreement, and that each will continue to rely on the waiver in their related future dealings. The holders of the Notes and the Company further warrant and represent that each has reviewed this waiver with its legal counsel, and that each knowingly and voluntarily waives its jury trial rights following consultation with legal counsel. In the event of litigation, this Agreement may be filed as a written consent to a trial by the court.

12S. Confidential Information. For the purposes of this paragraph 12S, “Confidential Information” means information delivered, whether to any holder or to any financial advisor retained by special counsel to the holders, by or on behalf of the Company, any Subsidiary, the Guarantor or Lee in connection with the transactions contemplated by or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement that is proprietary in nature and that was clearly marked or labeled or otherwise adequately identified when received by such holder or financial advisor as being confidential information of the Company, such Subsidiary, the Guarantor or Lee, provided that such term does not include information that (a) was publicly known or otherwise known to such holder prior to the time of such disclosure, (b) subsequently becomes publicly known through no act or omission by such holder or any person acting on such holder’s behalf, (c) otherwise becomes known to such holder other than through disclosure by any such financial advisor or by the Company, any Subsidiary, the Guarantor or Lee or (d) constitutes financial statements that are otherwise publicly available. Each holder will maintain the confidentiality of such Confidential Information delivered to it in accordance with procedures adopted by such holder in good faith to protect confidential information of third parties delivered to such holder, provided that such holder may deliver or disclose Confidential Information described in clause (x) above following the termination of the engagement of such financial advisor and may deliver or disclose Confidential Information described in clause (x) or (y) above to (i) its directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, trustees and affiliates (to the extent such disclosure reasonably relates to the administration of the investment represented by its Notes), (ii) its financial advisors and other professional advisors who agree to hold confidential the Confidential Information substantially in accordance with the terms of this paragraph 12S, (iii) any other holder of any Note, (iv) any Institutional Investor to which it sells or offers to sell such Note or any part thereof or any participation therein (if such Person has agreed in writing prior to its receipt of such Confidential Information to be bound by the provisions of this paragraph 12S), (v) any Person from which it offers to purchase any security of the Company, the Guarantor or Lee (if such Person has agreed in writing prior to its receipt of such Confidential Information to be bound by the provisions of this paragraph 12S), (vi) any federal or state regulatory authority having jurisdiction over such holder, (vii) the NAIC or the SVO or, in each case, any similar organization, or any nationally recognized rating agency that requires access to information about such holder's investment portfolio, or (viii) any other Person to which such delivery or disclosure may be necessary or appropriate (w) to effect compliance with any law, rule, regulation or order applicable to such holder, (x) in response to any subpoena or other legal process, (y) in connection with any litigation to which such holder is a party or (z) if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, to the extent such holder may reasonably determine such delivery and disclosure to be necessary or appropriate in the enforcement or for the protection of the rights and remedies under such holder's Notes, this Agreement, the Guaranty Agreement or any other Transaction Document or any document relating hereto or thereto. Each holder of a Note, by its acceptance of a Note, will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by and to be entitled to the benefits of this paragraph 12S as though it were a party to this Agreement. On reasonable request by the Company in connection with the delivery to any holder of a Note of information required to be delivered to such holder under this Agreement or requested by such holder (other than a holder that is a party to this Agreement or its nominees), such holder will enter into an agreement with the Company embodying the provisions of this paragraph 12S.

(d) impossibility or illegality of performance on the part of the Company or any other Person of its obligations under the Notes, the Note Agreement or this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto;

(e) in respect of the Company or any other Person, any change of circumstances, whether or not foreseen or foreseeable, whether or not imputable to the Company or any other Person, or impossibility of performance through fire, explosion, accident, labor disturbance, floods, droughts, embargoes, wars (whether or not declared), civil commotion, acts of God or the public enemy, delays or failure of suppliers or carriers, inability to obtain materials, action of any Federal or state regulatory body or agency, change of law or any other causes affecting performance, or any other force majeure, whether or not beyond the control of the Company or any other Person and whether or not of the kind hereinbefore specified;

(f) any attachment, claim, demand, charge, lien, order, process, encumbrance or any other happening or event or reason, similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, or any withholding or diminution at the source, by reason of any taxes, assessments, expenses, indebtedness, obligations or liabilities of any character, foreseen or unforeseen, and whether or not valid, incurred by or against any Person, or any claims, demands, charges or liens of any nature, foreseen or unforeseen, incurred by any Person, or against any sums payable under this Guaranty, so that such sums would be rendered inadequate or would be unavailable to make the payments herein provided;

(g) any order, judgment, decree, ruling or regulation (whether or not valid) of any court of any nation or of any political subdivision thereof or any body, agency, department, official or administrative or regulatory agency of any thereof or any other action, happening, event or reason whatsoever which shall delay, interfere with, hinder or prevent, or in any way adversely affect, the payment or performance by any party of any of the Guaranteed Obligations;

(h) any failure or lack of diligence in collection or protection, failure in presentment or demand for payment, protest, notice of protest, notice of default and of nonpayment, any failure to give notice to the Guarantor of failure of Company or any other Person to keep and perform any of the Guaranteed Obligations, or failure to resort for payment to the Company or to any other Person or to any other guaranty or to any property, security, Liens or other rights or remedies;

(i) the acceptance of any additional security or other guaranty, the advance of additional money to the Company or any other Person, the renewal or extension of the Notes or amendments, modifications, consents or waivers with respect to the Notes, the Note Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, or the sale, release, substitution or exchange of any security for the Notes;

(j) any defense whatsoever that the Company or any other Person might have to the payment of the Notes (principal, Yield-Maintenance Amount, if any, or interest or any other amounts due thereunder), other than payment in cash thereof, or to the payment, performance or observance of any of the other Guaranteed Obligations, whether through the satisfaction or purported satisfaction by the Company or any other Person of its debts due to any cause such as bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, merger, consolidation, reorganization, dissolution, liquidation, winding up or otherwise;

(k) any act or failure to act with regard to the Notes, the Note Agreement, this Guaranty or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, or anything which might vary the risk of the Guarantor; or provided, that the specific enumeration of the above-mentioned acts, failures or omissions shall not be deemed to exclude any other acts, failures or omissions, though not specifically mentioned above, it being the purpose and intent of this Guaranty that the obligations of the Guarantor shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be discharged, impaired or varied except by the full and prompt payment and performance of all of the Guaranteed Obligations. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that repeated and successive demands may be made and recoveries may be had hereunder as and when, from time to time, the Company or any other Person shall default under the terms of the Notes, the Note Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto and that notwithstanding recovery hereunder for or in respect of any given default or defaults by the Company or any other Person under the Notes, the Note Agreement or any such other instrument or agreement, this Guaranty shall remain in full force and effect and shall apply to each and every subsequent default.

(iv) All rights of any holder of Notes may be transferred or assigned at any time and shall be considered to be transferred or assigned at any time or from time to time upon the transfer of such Note whether with or without the consent of or notice to the Guarantor under this Guaranty or to the Company.

(v) The Guarantor hereby subordinates to the rights of the holders of Notes under the Note Agreement, the Notes or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, and agrees to defer any assertion of, until such time as the Guaranteed Obligations have been indefeasibly paid and performed in full, any claim or other rights that it may now or hereafter acquire against the Company or any other Person that arise from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of the Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty, including, without limitation, any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, contribution or indemnification and any right to participate in any claim or remedy of any holder or holders of Notes against the Company or any other Person, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity or under contract, statute or common law, including, without limitation, the right to take or receive from the Company or any other Person, directly or indirectly, in cash or other property or by setoff or in any other manner, payment or security on account of such claim, remedy or right. If any amount shall be paid to the Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence at any time prior to the payment and performance in full of all the Guaranteed Obligations, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the holders of Notes and shall forthwith be paid to such holders to be credited and applied to the Guaranteed Obligations, whether matured or unmatured.

(vi) The Guarantor agrees that to the extent the Company or any other Person makes any payment on any Note or in respect of any of the other Guaranteed Obligations, which payment or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, voided, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside, recovered, rescinded or is required to be retained by or repaid to a trustee, receiver, or any other Person under any bankruptcy code, common law, or equitable cause, then and to the extent of such payment, the obligation or the part thereof intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect with respect to the Guarantor's obligations hereunder, as if said payment had not been made. The liability of the Guarantor hereunder shall not be reduced or discharged, in whole or in part, by any payment to any holder of Notes from any source that is thereafter paid, returned or refunded in whole or in part by reason of the assertion of a claim of any kind relating thereto, including, but not limited to, any claim for breach of contract, breach of warranty, preference, illegality, invalidity, or fraud asserted by any account debtor or by any other Person.

(vii) The holders of Notes shall have no obligation to (a) to marshal any assets in favor of the Guarantor or in payment of any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations or (b) pursue any other remedy that the Guarantor may or may not be able to pursue itself and that may lighten the Guarantor's burden, any right to which the Guarantor hereby expressly waives.

3. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The Guarantor represents, covenants and warrants as follows:

3.1. Organization and Qualification; Due Authorization. The Guarantor is a corporation duly organized and existing in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Company and each other Subsidiary (other than a Subsidiary of the Company that is not a Material Subsidiary) is duly organized and existing in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated or otherwise organized. The Guarantor, the Company and each other Subsidiary (other than a Subsidiary of the Company that is not a Material Subsidiary) has the corporate or limited liability company power, as applicable, to own its respective property and to carry on its respective business as now being conducted, and the Guarantor, the Company and each other Subsidiary (other than a Subsidiary of the Company that is not a Material Subsidiary) is duly qualified as a foreign corporation or limited liability company, as applicable, to do business and in good standing in every jurisdiction in which the nature of the respective business conducted or property owned by it makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to so qualify would not have a Material Adverse Effect. The Guarantor has the corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Guaranty and to perform the provisions hereof. The execution, delivery and performance by the Guarantor of this Guaranty has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action, and this Guaranty constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Guarantor enforceable against the Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

3.2. Material Adverse Change. Since September 25, 2011, nothing has occurred that has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect (it being understood that the filing of the voluntary petitions by the Debtors under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on the Petition Date shall not, in and of itself, be deemed to have had or, reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect).

3.3. Litigation; Observance of Agreements, Statutes and Orders.

(i) Except as set forth in Schedule 3.3 (it being understood that disclosure on Schedule 3.3 is not a representation that the matter to which the disclosure relates is expected to have a Material Adverse Effect), there are no actions, suits, investigations or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Guarantor, threatened against or affecting the Guarantor or any Subsidiary or any property of the Guarantor or any Subsidiary in any court or before any arbitrator of any kind or before or by any Governmental Authority that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) Neither the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary is (a) in default under any term of any agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound, (b) in violation of any order, judgment, decree or ruling of any court, arbitrator or Governmental Authority or (c) in violation of any applicable law, ordinance, rule or regulation of any Governmental Authority (including, without limitation, Environmental Laws, the USA Patriot Act or any of the other laws and regulations that are referred to in Section 3.12), which default or violation, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

3.4. Outstanding Debt.

(i) Except as described therein, Schedule 3.4 sets forth a complete and correct list of all outstanding Debt of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries as of September 25, 2011 (including a description of the obligors and obligees, principal amount outstanding and collateral therefor, if any, and guaranty thereof, if any), since which date there has been no material change in the amounts, interest rates, sinking funds, installment payments or maturities of the Debt of the Guarantor or its Subsidiaries. Neither the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary is in default and no waiver of default is currently in effect, in the payment of any principal or interest on any Debt of the Guarantor or such Subsidiary and no event or condition exists with respect to any Debt of the Guarantor or any Subsidiary that would permit (or that with notice or the lapse of time, or both, would permit) one or more Persons to cause such Debt to become due and payable before its stated maturity or before its regularly scheduled dates of payment.

(ii) Except as disclosed in Schedule 3.4, neither the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary has agreed or consented to cause or permit in the future (upon the happening of a contingency or otherwise) any of its property, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, to be subject to a Lien not permitted by Section 5.2.

3.5. Title to Properties. The Guarantor has and each of its Subsidiaries has good and marketable title to its respective real properties (other than properties which it leases) and good title to all of its other respective properties and assets, subject to no Lien of any kind except Liens permitted by Section 5.2. All leases necessary in any material respect for the conduct of the respective businesses of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries are valid and subsisting and are in full force and effect, subject to Liens permitted by Section 5.2.

3.6. Taxes. The Guarantor has and each of its Subsidiaries has filed all Federal, state and other income tax returns which, to the best knowledge of the officers of the Guarantor, are required to be filed and each has paid all taxes as shown on such returns and on all assessments received by it to the extent that such taxes have become due, except such taxes as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings for which adequate reserves have been established in accordance with GAAP. Federal income tax returns of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries have been examined and reported on by the taxing authorities or closed by applicable statutes and satisfied for all fiscal years prior to and including the fiscal year ended September 26, 2010.

3.7. Conflicting Agreements and Other Matters. Neither the Guarantor nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any contract or agreement or subject to any charter or other limited liability company or corporate restriction which materially and adversely affects the business, property or assets, or financial condition of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. Neither the execution nor delivery of this Guaranty, the Note Agreement, the Notes or any other Transaction Document, nor the issuance of the Notes, nor fulfillment of nor compliance with the terms and provisions hereof and of the Note Agreement, the Notes or any other Transaction Document will conflict with, or result in a breach of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in any violation of, or result in the creation of any Lien upon any of the properties or assets of the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to, the charter, by-laws, limited liability company agreement or other organizational documents of the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries, any award of any arbitrator or any agreement (including any agreement with members or stockholders), instrument, order, judgment, decree, statute, law, rule or regulation to which the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries is subject, except to the extent any such conflict, breach, defaults, violation or creation of a Lien could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in the Limited Liability Company Agreement (as in effect on the date hereof) and as set forth in Schedule 3.7, neither the Guarantor nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to, or otherwise subject to any provision contained in, any instrument evidencing indebtedness of the Guarantor or such Subsidiary, any agreement relating thereto or any other contract or agreement (including its limited liability company agreement, charter or other organizational documents) which limits the amount of, or otherwise imposes restrictions on the incurring of, Debt of the Guarantor represented by this Guaranty or Debt of the Company of the type evidenced by the Notes.

3.8. ERISA. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.8 (it being understood that disclosure on Schedule 3.8 is not a representation that the matter to which the disclosure relates is expected to have a Material Adverse Effect),

(i) the Guarantor and each ERISA Affiliate have operated and administered each Plan in compliance with all applicable laws except for such instances of noncompliance as have not resulted in and could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Neither the Guarantor nor any ERISA Affiliate has incurred any liability (including actual or contingent withdrawal liability under section 4201 or 4204 of ERISA in respect of Multiemployer Plans) pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or the penalty or excise tax provisions of the Code relating to employee benefit plans (as defined in section 3 of ERISA), and no event, transaction or condition has occurred or exists that could reasonably be expected to result in the incurrence of any such liability by the Guarantor or any ERISA Affiliate, or in the imposition of any Lien on any of the rights, properties or assets of the Guarantor or any ERISA Affiliate, in either case pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or to section 430(k) of the Code or to any such penalty or excise tax provisions under the Code or Federal law or section 4068 of ERISA or by the granting of a security interest in connection with the amendment of a Plan, other than such liabilities or Liens as would not be individually or in the aggregate material.

(ii) The present value of the aggregate benefit liabilities under each of the Plans (other than Multiemployer Plans), as reflected in the September 25, 2011 actuarial valuation report of the Plans per GAAP and determined as of September 25, 2011 on the basis of the actuarial assumptions specified for accounting purposes in such report, did not exceed the aggregate current value of the assets of such Plan allocable to such benefit liabilities by more than $38,000,000 in the case of any single Plan and by more than $72,000,000 in the aggregate for all Plans. The term “benefit liabilities” has the meaning specified in section 4001 of ERISA and the terms “current value” and “present value” have the meaning specified in section 3 of ERISA.

(iii) The expected postretirement benefit obligation (determined as of the last day of the Guarantor’s most recently ended fiscal year in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 715-60, without regard to liabilities attributable to continuation coverage mandated by section 4980B of the Code) of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries is not material.

(iv) The execution and delivery of this Guaranty will not involve any transaction that is subject to the prohibitions of section 406 of ERISA or in connection with which a tax could be imposed pursuant to section 4975(c)(1)(A)-(D) of the Code.

3.9. Governmental Authorizations, Etc. No consent, approval or authorization of, or registration, filing or declaration with, any Governmental Authority is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by the Guarantor of this Guaranty which has not already been obtained.

3.10. Disclosure. All factual information (taken as a whole) theretofore furnished by or on behalf of Lee and its Subsidiaries in writing to the Purchasers (including, without limitation, all information contained in the Transaction Documents, the Plan of Reorganization and the Disclosure Statement) for purposes of or in connection with this Guaranty, the other Transaction Documents or any transaction contemplated herein or therein is true and accurate in all material respects on the date as of which such information is dated or certified and not incomplete by omitting to state any fact necessary to make such information (taken as a whole) not misleading in any material respect at such time in light of the circumstances under which such information was provided, it being understood and agreed that for purposes of this Section 3.10, such factual information shall not include any projections or any pro forma financial information. There is no fact peculiar to the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries which materially adversely affects or in the future may (so far as the Guarantor can now foresee) materially adversely affect the business, property or assets, or financial condition of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole and which has not been set forth in this Guaranty or in the other documents, certificates and statements furnished to the holders of Notes by or on behalf of the Guarantor on or prior to the date hereof in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

3.11. Solvency. On and as of the Restructuring Closing Date, and after giving effect to all debt being incurred or assumed and Liens created by the Credit Parties in connection with this Agreement, the Notes and the other Transaction Documents, (i) the sum of the assets, at a fair valuation, of the Company (on a stand-alone basis) and of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) will exceed its or their respective debts, (ii) the Company (on a stand-alone basis) and the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) has or have not incurred and does or do not intend to incur, and does or do not believe that it or they will incur, debts beyond its or their respective ability to pay such debts as such debts mature, and (iii) the Company (on a stand-alone basis) and the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) will have sufficient capital with which to conduct its or their respective businesses. For purposes of this Section 3.11, “debt” means any liability on a claim, and “claim” means (a) right to payment, whether or not such a right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured or (b) right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured. The amount of contingent liabilities at any time shall be computed as the amount that, in the light of all the facts and circumstances existing at such time, represents the amount that can reasonably be expected to become an actual or matured liability.

3.12. Foreign Assets Control Regulations, Etc.

(i) Neither the Guarantor nor any Controlled Entity is (i) a Person whose name appears on the list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons published by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, U.S. Department of Treasury (“OFAC”) (an “OFAC Listed Person”) or (ii) a department, agency or instrumentality of, or is otherwise controlled by or acting on behalf of, directly or indirectly, (x) any OFAC Listed Person or (y) any Person, entity, organization, foreign country or regime that is subject to any OFAC Sanctions Program (each OFAC Listed Person and each other Person, entity, organization and government of a country described in clause (ii), a “Blocked Person”).

(ii) Neither the Guarantor nor any Controlled Entity has any investments in, or engages in any dealings or transactions with, any Person where such investments, dealings or transactions would cause the receipt of any payment or exercise of any rights in respect of, this Guaranty by any holder of Notes to be in violation of any of the laws or regulations identified in this Section 3.12.

(iii) To the Guarantor’s actual knowledge after making due inquiry, neither the Guarantor nor any Controlled Entity (i) is under investigation by any Governmental Authority for, or has been charged with, or convicted of, money laundering, drug trafficking, terrorist-related activities or other money laundering predicate crimes under any applicable law (collectively, “Anti-Money Laundering Laws”), (ii) has been assessed civil penalties under any Anti-Money Laundering

Laws or (iii) has had any of its funds seized or forfeited in an action under any Anti-Money Laundering Laws. The Guarantor has taken reasonable measures appropriate to the circumstances (in any event as required by applicable law) to ensure that the Guarantor and each Controlled Entity is and will continue to be in compliance with all applicable current and future Anti-Money Laundering Laws.

(iv) The Guarantor has taken reasonable measures appropriate to the circumstances (in any event as required by applicable law) to ensure that the Guarantor and each Controlled Entity is and will continue to be in compliance with all applicable current and future anti-corruption laws and regulations.

3.13. Organization and Ownership of Shares of Subsidiaries; Affiliates.

(i) Schedule 3.13 contains (except as noted therein) a complete and correct list of the Guarantor's Subsidiaries, showing, as to each Subsidiary, the correct name thereof, the jurisdiction of its organization, and the percentage of shares of each class of its capital stock or similar equity interests outstanding owned by the Guarantor and each other Subsidiary.

(ii) All of the outstanding shares of capital stock or similar Equity Interests of each Subsidiary shown in Schedule 3.13 as being owned by the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries have been validly issued, are fully paid and nonassessable and are owned by the Guarantor or another Subsidiary free and clear of any Lien (except as otherwise disclosed in Schedule 3.13).

(iii) Each Subsidiary is a corporation or other legal entity duly organized, validly existing and, where applicable, in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization, and is duly qualified as a foreign corporation or other legal entity and, where applicable, is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each such Subsidiary has the corporate or other power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease and to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact.

(iv) No Subsidiary is a party to, or otherwise subject to any legal, regulatory, contractual or other restriction (other than this Guaranty, the agreements listed on Schedule 3.13 and customary limitations imposed by corporate law or similar statutes) restricting the ability of such Subsidiary to pay dividends out of profits or make any other similar distributions of profits to the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries that owns outstanding shares of capital stock or similar equity interests of such Subsidiary.

3.14. Compliance with Laws, Other Instruments, Etc. The execution, delivery and performance by each Credit Party of this Guaranty or any other Transaction Document to which such Credit Party is a party does not and, with respect to any of the documents or other matters referred to below as in effect on the date hereof, will not (i) contravene, result in any breach of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation of any Lien in respect of any property of the Guarantor or any Subsidiary under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan, purchase or credit agreement, lease, corporate charter or by-laws, or any other agreement or instrument to which the Guarantor or any Subsidiary is bound or by which the Guarantor or any Subsidiary or any of their respective properties may be bound or affected, (ii) conflict with or result in a breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any order, judgment, decree, or ruling of any court, arbitrator or Governmental Authority applicable to the Guarantor or any Subsidiary or (iii) violate any provision of any statute or other rule or regulation of any Governmental Authority applicable to the Guarantor or any Subsidiary.

3.15. Licenses, Permits, Etc. The Guarantor and each of its Subsidiaries owns or has the right to use all the patents, trademarks, permits, domain names, service marks, trade names, copyrights, licenses, franchises, inventions, trade secrets, proprietary information and know-how of any type, whether or not written (including, but not limited to, rights in computer programs and databases) and formulas, or rights with respect to the foregoing, and has obtained assignments of all leases, licenses and other rights of whatever nature, necessary for the present conduct of its business, without any known conflict with the rights of others which, or the failure to own or have which, as the case may be, either individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

3.16. [Reserved].

3.17. Environmental Matters.

(i) Neither the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary has knowledge of any claim or has received any notice of any claim, and no proceeding has been instituted raising any claim against the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective real properties now or formerly owned, leased or operated by any of them or other assets, alleging any damage to the environment or violation of any Environmental Laws, except, in each case, such as could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) Neither the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary has knowledge of any facts which would give rise to any claim, public or private, of violation of Environmental Laws or damage to the environment emanating from, occurring on or in any way related to real properties now or formerly owned, leased or operated by any of them or to other assets or their use, except, in each case, such as could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(iii) Neither the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary has stored any Hazardous Materials on real properties now or formerly owned, leased or operated by any of them and has not disposed of any Hazardous Materials in a manner contrary to any Environmental Laws in each case in any manner that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(iv) All buildings on all real properties now owned, leased or operated by the Guarantor or any Subsidiary are in compliance with applicable Environmental Laws, except where failure to comply could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

4. AFFIRMATIVE COVENANTS

(xii) with reasonable promptness, such other information and documents as any holder of Notes may reasonably request.

Together with each delivery of financial statements required by clauses (i) and (ii) above, the Guarantor will deliver to each holder of Notes an Officer's Certificate, substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto, executed on behalf of the Guarantor and demonstrating (with computations in reasonable detail) compliance by the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (including the Company) with the provisions of Sections 5.1, 5.5 and 5.12 of this Guaranty and stating that there exists no Event of Default or Default, or, if any Event of Default or Default exists, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action the Guarantor proposes to take with respect thereto. Together with each delivery of financial statements required by clause (ii) above, the Guarantor will use reasonable efforts to deliver or cause to be delivered to each holder a certificate of such accountants stating that, in making the audit necessary for their report on such financial statements, they have obtained no knowledge of any Event of Default or Default or, if they have obtained knowledge of any Event of Default or Default, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof. Such accountants, however, shall not be liable to anyone by reason of their failure to obtain knowledge of any Event of Default or Default which would not be disclosed in the course of an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Together with all financial statements of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries required to be delivered pursuant to this paragraph 6A, the Guarantor will deliver or cause to be delivered a reconciliation reflecting the changes that would be required to such financial statements had they been prepared in accordance with the GAAP and policies used to prepare the audited financial statements of the Guarantor for the Guarantor's fiscal year ended September 25, 2011. The Guarantor also covenants that immediately after any Responsible Officer obtains knowledge of an Event of Default or Default, it will deliver to each holder an Officer's Certificate specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action the Guarantor has taken, is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto. Each holder of Notes is hereby authorized to deliver a copy of any financial statement delivered to such holder pursuant to this Section 4.1 to any regulatory body having jurisdiction over such holder.

4.2. Inspection of Properties. The Guarantor will permit any Person designated by any holder in writing, at such holder's expense if no Event of Default then exists and at the Company's expense if an Event of Default then exists, to visit and inspect any of the properties of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries, to examine the corporate or limited liability company books and financial records of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries and make copies thereof or extracts therefrom and to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of any of such limited liability companies or corporations with the principal officers of the Guarantor and its independent public accountants, all at such reasonable times and as often as such holder may reasonably request; provided, however, that, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred, no holder of Notes shall exercise rights pursuant to this Section 4.2 without the written approval of the Required Holders (to be given or withheld in their sole discretion) and (ii) no more than two such inspections shall be conducted in any calendar year.

4.3. Covenant to Secure Notes Equally. The Guarantor will, if it or any Subsidiary shall create or assume any Lien upon any of its property or assets, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, other than Liens permitted by the provisions of Section 5.2 (unless prior written consent to the creation or assumption thereof shall have been obtained pursuant to Section 7.2), make or cause to be made effective provision whereby the Guaranteed Obligations will be secured by such Lien equally and ratably with any and all other Debt thereby secured, so long as any such other Debt shall be so secured; provided that the creation and maintenance of such equal and ratable Lien shall not in any way limit or modify the right of the holders of the Notes to enforce the provisions of Section 5.2.

4.4. Business. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.4, the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole will continue to engage in business in substantially the same fields of enterprise as conducted on the date hereof.

4.6. Patents, Trade Marks and Trade Names. The Guarantor will, and will cause each Subsidiary to, continue to own, or hold and maintain in effect, all licenses, certificates, permits, franchises and other governmental authorizations necessary to the ownership of their respective properties or to the use of, all copyrights, franchises, licenses, marketing rights, patents, service marks, trade marks, trade names, and rights in any of the foregoing, as in the aggregate are necessary for the conduct of its business in the manner in which such business is being conducted as of the date hereof except where failure to continue to own or hold such licenses could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.7. Payment of Taxes and Other Claims. The Guarantor will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, file all income tax or similar tax returns required to be filed in any jurisdiction and to pay and discharge all taxes shown to be due and payable on such returns and all other taxes, assessments, governmental charges, levies, trade accounts payable and claims for work, labor or materials (all the foregoing being referred to collectively as “Claims”) payable by any of them, to the extent such Claims have become due and payable and before they have become delinquent (including, without limitation, Claims for which sums have become due and payable that have or might become a Lien on properties or assets of the Guarantor or any Subsidiary); provided, that neither the Guarantor nor any Subsidiary need pay any Claim if (i) the amount, applicability or validity thereof is contested by the Guarantor or such Subsidiary on a timely basis in good faith and in appropriate proceedings, and the Guarantor or such Subsidiary has established adequate reserves therefor in accordance with GAAP on its books or (ii) the nonpayment of all such Claims in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.8. ERISA Compliance. The Guarantor will, and will cause each ERISA Affiliate to, at all times:

(i) with respect to each Plan, make timely payments of contributions required to meet the minimum funding standard set forth in ERISA or the Code with respect thereto and, with respect to any Multiemployer Plan, make timely payment of contributions required to be paid thereto as provided by Section 515 of ERISA, and

(ii) comply with all other provisions of ERISA,

except for such failures to make contributions and failures to comply as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.9. Execution and Delivery of Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement and Other Collateral Documents. Within ten (10) Business Days after any Credit Party’s acquisition or formation of a Person that becomes a Subsidiary:

(i) the Guarantor will cause such Subsidiary to execute and deliver to each holder of Notes (a) the Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, or a joinder thereto, (b) an appropriate joinder to the Security Agreement and (c) such other documents necessary to grant a first priority Lien in such Subsidiary’s assets (other than, in the case of Star Publishing, the Excluded TNI Assets) in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the holders of the Notes;

(ii) the Guarantor (if such Subsidiary is a direct subsidiary of the Guarantor) will pledge or will cause the direct parent of such Subsidiary (if such Subsidiary is not a direct subsidiary of the Guarantor) to pledge the equity interests of such Subsidiary pursuant to a pledge agreement substantially similar in form to the Pledge Agreement; and

(iii) the Guarantor will deliver (or cause to be delivered) such certificates accompanying authorizing resolutions and corporate or similar constitutive documents and other agreements, instruments, opinions and other documents as the Required Holders may reasonably request, each of the foregoing to be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders.

In addition to the foregoing, the Guarantor will, and will cause each Subsidiary to, within thirty (30) days after such Person shall have obtained title (whether in fee or, if requested by the Required Holders with respect to any leasehold interest of the Guarantor or any Subsidiary, a leasehold interest) to any real property with a Fair Market Value, individually, of more than $3,000,000, take such action as shall be reasonably necessary to grant a first priority Lien in favor of the Collateral Agent to secure the Notes with such Person's interest in such real property and to obtain title insurance in an amount reasonably required by the Required Holders. Such Lien shall be documented and recorded to the reasonable satisfaction of the Required Holders.

4.10. Insurance. The Guarantor will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, maintain, with financially sound and reputable insurers, (i) insurance with respect to their respective properties and businesses against such casualties and contingencies, of such types, on such terms and in such amounts (including deductibles, co-insurance and self-insurance, if adequate reserves are maintained with respect thereto) as is customary in the case of entities of established reputations engaged in the same or a similar business and similarly situated and (ii) such other insurance coverages as may be required under the terms of the Collateral Documents.

4.11. Maintenance of Properties. The Guarantor will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, maintain and keep, or cause to be maintained and kept, their respective properties in good repair, working order and condition (other than ordinary wear and tear), so that the business carried on in connection therewith may be properly conducted at all times, provided that this Section shall not (i) prevent the Guarantor or any Subsidiary from discontinuing the operation and the maintenance of any of its properties if such discontinuance is desirable in the conduct of its business and the Guarantor has concluded that such discontinuance could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect or (ii) be interpreted to require the Guarantor to make Capital Expenditures in respect of maintenance in excess of the amounts permitted to be spent on Capital Expenditures under this Guaranty.

4.12. Corporate Existence, Etc. Subject to Section 5.7, the Guarantor will at all times preserve and keep its corporate existence in full force and effect. Subject to Sections 5.5 and 5.7, the Guarantor will at all times preserve and keep in full force and effect the corporate existence of each of its Subsidiaries (unless merged into the Guarantor or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary) and all rights and franchises of the Guarantor and its Subsidiaries unless, in the good faith judgment of the Guarantor, the termination of or failure to preserve and keep in full force and effect such corporate existence, right or franchise could not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.13. Books and Records. The Guarantor will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, maintain proper books of record and account in conformity with GAAP and all applicable requirements of any Governmental Authority having legal or regulatory jurisdiction over the Guarantor or such Subsidiary, as the case may be.

7. MISCELLANEOUS

7.1. Survival of Representations and Warranties; Entire Agreement. All representations and warranties contained herein or made in writing by or on behalf of the Guarantor in connection herewith shall survive the execution and delivery of this Guaranty, the purchase or transfer of any Note or portion thereof or interest therein and the payment of any Note, and may be relied upon by any subsequent holder of Notes, regardless of any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of any other holder of Notes. All statements contained in the Transaction Documents to which the Guarantor is a party or any certificate or other instrument delivered by or on behalf of the Guarantor pursuant to or in connection with this Guaranty shall be deemed representations and warranties of the Guarantor under this Guaranty. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Guaranty and the Transaction Documents to which the Guarantor is a party embody the entire agreement and understanding between the Guarantor and the holders of the Notes and supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof.

7.2. Consent to Amendments. This Guaranty (or any amendment hereto) may be amended or any provision hereof may be waived, and the Guarantor may take any action herein prohibited, or omit to perform any act herein required to be performed by it, if the Guarantor shall obtain the written consent to such amendment, waiver, action or omission to act, of the Required Holder(s), except that that (i) no amendment or waiver of any of the provisions of Section 2 hereof or any defined term (as it is used therein) and (ii) no termination of this Guaranty in its entirety or release of the Guarantor herefrom will be effective unless consented to in writing by the holder or holders of all Notes at the time outstanding. The Guarantor will not directly or indirectly pay or cause to be paid any remuneration, whether by way of supplemental or additional interest, fee or otherwise, or grant any security, to any holder of Notes as consideration for or as an inducement to the entering into by any holder of Notes or any waiver or amendment of any of the terms and provisions hereof (or any amendment hereto) unless such remuneration is concurrently paid, or security is concurrently granted, on the same terms, ratably to each holder of Notes then outstanding even if such holder did not consent to such waiver or amendment.

7.3. Binding Effect, etc. Any amendment or waiver consented to as provided in Section 7.2 hereof applies equally to all holders of Notes and is binding upon them and upon each future holder of any Note and the Guarantor without regard to whether such Note has been marked to indicate such amendment or waiver. No such amendment or waiver will extend to or affect any obligation, covenant, agreement or Event of Default not expressly amended or waived or impair any right consequent thereon. No course of dealing between the Guarantor and any holder of Notes nor any delay in exercising any rights hereunder or under any Note shall operate as a waiver of any rights of any holder of such Note.

7.4. Notices. All written communications provided for hereunder shall be sent by first class mail or nationwide overnight delivery service (with charges prepaid) and (i) if to any holder of Notes, addressed to it at the address specified for such communications in Schedule A to the Note Agreement, or at such other address as such holder of Notes shall have specified to the Guarantor or the Company in writing or, if any such other holder shall not have so specified an address to the Guarantor or the Company, then addressed to such holder in care of the last holder of such Note which shall have so specified an address to the Guarantor or the Company, and (ii) if to the Guarantor, addressed to it at 900 North Tucker Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri 63101, Attention: Senior Vice President-Finance, or at such other address as the Guarantor shall have specified to the holder of each Note in writing.

7.5. Severability. Any provision of this Guaranty which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

7.6. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and other agreements in this Guaranty shall bind the successors and assigns of the Guarantor and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the holders of Notes (including, without limitation, any Transferee) whether so expressed or not.

7.7. Independence of Covenants. All covenants hereunder shall be given independent effect so that if a particular action or condition is prohibited by any one of such covenants, the fact that it would be permitted by an exception to, or otherwise be in compliance within the limitations of, another covenant shall not (i) avoid the occurrence of an Event of Default or Default if such action is taken or such condition exists or (ii) in any way prejudice an attempt by the holders of Notes to prohibit (through equitable action or otherwise) the taking of any action by the Guarantor or a Subsidiary which would result in an Event of Default or Default.

7.8. Satisfaction Requirement. If any agreement, certificate or other writing, or any action taken or to be taken, is by the terms of this Guaranty required to be satisfactory to any holder of Notes or to the Required Holder(s), the determination of such satisfaction shall be made by such holder or the Required Holder(s), as the case may be, in the sole and exclusive judgment (exercised in good faith) of the Person or Persons making such determination.

7.9. Counterparts. This Guaranty may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

7.10. Governing Law. This Guaranty shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the law of the State of New York.

7.11. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities. The Guarantor hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of any New York state or Federal court sitting in New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Guaranty, and the Guarantor hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in New York state or Federal court. The Guarantor hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The Guarantor agrees and irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such action or proceeding by the mailing, by registered or certified U.S. mail, or by any other means or mail that requires a signed receipt, of copies of such process to the Guarantor at its address set forth in section 7.4. The Guarantor agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Section 7.11 shall affect the right of any holder of the Notes to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or affect the right of any holder of the Notes to bring any action or proceeding against the Guarantor or its property in the courts of any other jurisdiction. To the extent that the Guarantor has or hereafter may acquire immunity from jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, execution or otherwise) with respect to itself or its property, the Guarantor hereby irrevocably waives such immunity in respect of its obligations under this Guaranty.

7.12. Waiver of Jury Trial. THE GUARANTOR AND THE HOLDERS OF THE NOTES AGREE TO WAIVE THEIR RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS GUARANTY, THE NOTE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES, OR ANY DEALINGS BETWEEN THEM RELATING TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS TRANSACTION AND THE LENDER/GUARANTOR RELATIONSHIP THAT IS BEING ESTABLISHED. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS TRANSACTION, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. THE HOLDERS OF THE NOTES AND THE GUARANTOR EACH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THIS WAIVER IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO ENTER INTO THIS BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP, THAT EACH HAS ALREADY RELIED ON THE WAIVER IN ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT, AND THAT EACH WILL CONTINUE TO RELY ON THE WAIVER IN THEIR RELATED FUTURE DEALINGS. THE HOLDERS OF THE NOTES AND THE GUARANTOR FURTHER WARRANT AND REPRESENT THAT EACH HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH ITS LEGAL COUNSEL, AND THAT EACH KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS FOLLOWING CONSULTATION WITH LEGAL COUNSEL. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS GUARANTY MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Note Agreement referred to below.

1. GUARANTY.

1.1 Guaranty. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby irrevocably, absolutely and unconditionally jointly and severally guarantees unto each Beneficiary (i) the full and prompt payment of the principal of, Yield-Maintenance Amount, if any, interest and all other amounts due with respect to the Notes from time to time outstanding, as and when such amounts shall become due and payable, whether by lapse of time, upon redemption, prepayment or purchase, by extension or by acceleration or declaration or otherwise (including (to the extent legally enforceable) interest due on overdue payments of principal, Yield-Maintenance Amount, if any, or interest at the rate set forth in the Notes or any other amounts due thereunder) in coin or currency of the United States of America which at the time of payment or demand therefor shall be legal tender for the payment of public and private debts, (ii) the full and prompt payment, performance and observance by the Company of all other obligations, covenants, conditions and agreements contained in the Note Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, (iii) the full and prompt payment, performance and observance by the Parent of the “Guaranteed Obligations” (as defined in the Guaranty Agreement) and all other obligations, covenants, conditions and agreements of the Parent contained in the Guaranty Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, and (iv) the full and prompt payment, upon demand by any Beneficiary, of all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees), if any, as shall have been expended or incurred in the protection or enforcement of any right or privilege under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or relating thereto or in the protection or enforcement of any rights, privileges or liabilities under this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement or in any consultation or action in connection therewith or herewith (all such obligations, covenants, conditions and agreements described in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) being hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Guaranteed Obligations”).

Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby acknowledges and agrees that its liability hereunder is joint and several with any other Person(s) who may guarantee the obligations and indebtedness under and in respect of the Notes, the Note Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

1.2 Guaranty of Payment and Performance. This is a guaranty of payment and performance and not a guaranty of collection, and each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby waives any right to require that any action on or in respect of the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement or any instrument or agreement relating to the Guaranteed Obligations be brought against the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person or that resort be had to any direct or indirect security for the Notes, for the Guaranty Agreement or for this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement or any other remedy. Any Beneficiary may, at its option, proceed hereunder against any Subsidiary Guarantor in the first instance to collect monies when due, the payment of which is guaranteed hereby, without first proceeding against the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person and without first resorting to any direct or indirect security for the Notes, for the Guaranty Agreement or for this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement or any other remedy. The liability of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall in no way be affected or impaired by any acceptance by any Beneficiary of any direct or indirect security for, or other guaranties of, the Guaranteed Obligations or by any failure, delay, neglect or omission by any Beneficiary to realize upon or protect any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any Notes or other instruments evidencing the same or any direct or indirect security therefor or by any approval, consent, waiver, or other action taken or omitted to be taken by any such Beneficiary. Each Subsidiary Guarantor (i) acknowledges that certain obligations of the Company under the Note Agreement will survive the payment or transfer of any Note and the termination of the Note Agreement, (ii) acknowledges that certain obligations of the Parent under the Guaranty Agreement will survive the payment or transfer of any Note and the termination of the Guaranty Agreement, and (iii) agrees that the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder with respect to such surviving obligations shall also survive the payment or transfer of any Note and the termination of the Note Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement.

1.3 General Provisions Relating to the Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement.

(a) Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby consents and agrees that any Beneficiary, with or without any further notice to or assent from any Subsidiary Guarantor, may, without in any manner affecting the liability of any Subsidiary Guarantor under this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, and upon such terms and conditions as any Beneficiary may deem advisable:

(i) extend in whole or in part (by renewal or otherwise), modify, change, compromise, release or extend the duration of the time for the payment or performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, or waive any default with respect thereto, or waive, modify, amend or change any provision of the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto;

(ii) sell, release, surrender, modify, impair, exchange or substitute any and all property, of any nature and from whomsoever received, held by, or for the benefit of, any such Beneficiary as direct or indirect security for the payment or performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations; or

(b) Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby waives: (i) notice of acceptance of this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement by the Beneficiaries or of the creation, renewal or accrual of any liability of the Company, the Parent or any other Subsidiary Guarantor, present or future, or of the reliance of such Beneficiaries upon this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement (it being understood that all Guaranteed Obligations shall conclusively be presumed to have been created, contracted or incurred in reliance upon the execution of this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement); (ii) demand of payment by any Beneficiary from the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person indebted in any manner on or for any of the Guaranteed Obligations hereby guaranteed; and (iii) presentment for the payment by any Beneficiary or any other Person of the Notes or any other instrument, protest thereof and notice of its dishonor to any party thereto and to the Subsidiary Guarantors. The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor under this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement and the rights of each Beneficiary to enforce such obligations by any proceedings, whether by action at law, suit in equity or otherwise, shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination, whether by reason of any claim of any character whatsoever or otherwise and shall not be subject to any defense, setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever.

(c) The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall be binding upon each Subsidiary Guarantor and its successors and assigns, and shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

(viii) any failure or lack of diligence in collection or protection, failure in presentment or demand for payment, protest, notice of protest, notice of default and of nonpayment, any failure to give notice to any Subsidiary Guarantor of failure of the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person to keep and perform any of the Guaranteed Obligations, or failure to resort for payment to the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or to any other Person or to any other guaranty or to any property, security, Liens or other rights or remedies;

(ix) the acceptance of any additional security or other guaranty, the advance of additional money to the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person, the renewal or extension of the Notes or amendments, modifications, consents or waivers with respect to the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, or the sale, release, substitution or exchange of any security for the Notes;

(x) any defense whatsoever that the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person might have to the payment of the Notes (principal, Yield-Maintenance Amount, if any, or interest or any other amounts due thereunder), other than payment in cash thereof, or to the payment, performance or observance of any of the other Guaranteed Obligations, whether through the satisfaction or purported satisfaction by the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person of its debts due to any cause such as bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, merger, consolidation, reorganization, dissolution, liquidation, winding up or otherwise;

(xi) any act or failure to act with regard to the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement, this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, or anything which might vary the risk of the Subsidiary Guarantors; or provided, that the specific enumeration of the above-mentioned acts, failures or omissions shall not be deemed to exclude any other acts, failures or omissions, though not specifically mentioned above, it being the purpose and intent of this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement that the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be discharged, impaired or varied except by the full and prompt payment and performance of all of the Guaranteed Obligations. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that repeated and successive demands may be made and recoveries may be had hereunder as and when, from time to time, the Company, the Parent or any other Person shall default under the terms of the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto and that notwithstanding recovery hereunder for or in respect of any given default or defaults by the Company, the Parent or any other Person under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement or any such other instrument or agreement, this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall apply to each and every subsequent default.

(d) All rights of any Beneficiary may be transferred or assigned at any time and shall be considered to be transferred or assigned at any time or from time to time upon the transfer of such Note whether with or without the consent of or notice to the Subsidiary Guarantors under this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement or to the Company or the Parent.

(e) Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby subordinates to the rights of the Beneficiaries under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Guaranty Agreement or any other instrument or agreement entered into in connection therewith or otherwise relating thereto, and agrees to defer any assertion, until such time as the Guaranteed Obligations have been indefeasibly paid and performed in full (subject to Section 4 below), of any claim or other rights that it may now or hereafter acquire against the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person that arise from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of each Subsidiary Guarantor's obligations under this Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, including, without limitation, any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, contribution or indemnification and any right to participate in any claim or remedy of any Beneficiary against the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity or under contract, statute or common law, including, without limitation, the right to take or receive from the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person, directly or indirectly, in cash or other property or by setoff or in any other manner, payment or security on account of such claim, remedy or right. (f) Each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees that, to the extent the Company, the Parent, any other Subsidiary Guarantor or any other Person makes any payment on any Note or in respect of any of the other Guaranteed Obligations, which payment or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, voided, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside, recovered, rescinded or is required to be retained by or repaid to a trustee, receiver, or any other Person under any bankruptcy code, common law, or equitable cause, then and to the extent of such payment, the obligation or the part thereof intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect with respect to each

Subsidiary Guarantor's obligations hereunder, as if said payment had not been made. The liability of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall not be reduced or discharged, in whole or in part, by any payment to any Beneficiary from any source that is thereafter paid, returned or refunded in whole or in part by reason of the assertion of a claim of any kind relating thereto, including, but not limited to, any claim for breach of contract, breach of warranty, preference, illegality, invalidity, or fraud asserted by any account debtor or by any other Person.

(g) The Beneficiaries shall have no obligation to (a) marshal any assets in favor of any Subsidiary Guarantor or in payment of any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations or (b) pursue any other remedy that any Subsidiary Guarantor may or may not be able to pursue itself and that may lighten such Subsidiary Guarantor's burden, any right to which each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby expressly waives.

The Collateral of such Grantor, other than Deposit Accounts, Securities Accounts and Commodity Accounts, is presently located, within the meaning of the UCC, at the address(es) further set forth for such Grantor on Schedule ID. In the event that any Grantor shall change its chief executive office or principal place of business (provided that the new location is leased to the Grantor), then, concurrently with entering into the lease for the new location, such Grantor shall furnish to the Collateral Agent, an executed and delivered access agreement in favor of the Collateral Agent with respect to the new location, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent. Such Grantor shall not change its jurisdiction of organization without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent.

(e) All Collateral of such Grantor comprising Chattel Paper, Instruments (in an outstanding or stated principal amount in excess of $25,000) or Investment Property comprising certificated securities is set forth for such Grantor on Schedule II. All action necessary or desirable to protect and perfect such security interest in each item set forth on Schedule II, including the delivery of all originals thereof, duly indorsed in favor of the Collateral Agent, to the Collateral Agent, has been duly taken. The security interest of the Collateral Agent in each Grantor’s Collateral listed on Schedule II is prior in right and interest to all other Liens (other than Liens expressly permitted under the Guaranty Agreement that have priority by operation of law) and is enforceable as such against creditors of and purchasers from such Grantor.

(f) All federally registered Copyrights, Copyright Licenses, Patents, and Trademarks owned, held or in which such Grantor otherwise has acquired or received any rights or interest are listed on Schedule III. Such Grantor shall promptly amend Schedule III from time to time to reflect any material additions to or deletions from this list. Except as set forth on Schedule III, none of the Patents, Trademarks or Copyrights has been licensed to any third party except in the ordinary course of publishing newspapers and related products.

(g) The name and address of each depository institution at which such Grantor maintains any Deposit Account and the account number and account name of each such Deposit Account is listed on Schedule IV-A. The name and address of each securities intermediary or commodity intermediary at which such Grantor maintains any Securities Account or Commodity Account and the account number and account name is listed on Schedule IV-A. Such Grantor agrees to amend Schedule IV-A from time to time within five (5) Business Days after opening any additional Deposit Account, Securities Account or Commodity Account, or closing or changing the account name or number on any existing Deposit Account, Securities Account, or Commodity Account.

(h) All motor vehicles and other Equipment subject to a Certificate of Title owned, held or in which such Grantor otherwise has acquired or received any rights or interest are listed on Schedule V. Such Grantor shall promptly amend Schedule V from time to time to reflect any additions to or deletions from this list.

(i) Such Grantor has no Commercial Tort Claims with a stated or potential claim in excess of $100,000 other than those set forth on Schedule VI hereto. Such Grantor shall promptly amend Schedule VI from time to time to reflect any additions to or deletions from this list.

(j) There are no Accounts or Chattel Paper of such Grantor which arise out of a contract or contracts with the United States of America or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof, except for those listed on Schedule VII hereto. Such Grantor shall promptly amend Schedule VII from time to time (and, in any event, in accordance with Section 5(n) hereof) to reflect any additions to or deletions from this list.

(k) Such Grantor is the sole holder of record and the sole beneficial owner of all certificated securities and uncertificated securities pledged to the Collateral Agent by such Grantor under Section 2 of this Agreement, free and clear of any adverse claim, as defined in Section 8102(a)(1) of the UCC, except for Liens created in favor of the Collateral Agent by this Agreement or as expressly permitted under the Note Documents.

(l) None of the Investment Property of such Grantor has been transferred in violation of the securities registration, securities disclosure or similar laws of any jurisdiction to which such transfer may be subject.

SECTION 5. Covenants. Each Grantor covenants and agrees with the Collateral Agent that so long as any of the Secured Obligations shall remain unpaid:

(a) Further Assurances; Pledge of Instruments. At any time and from time to time, upon the written request of the Collateral Agent, and at the sole expense of such Grantor, such Grantor shall promptly and duly execute and deliver any and all such further instruments and documents and take such further action with respect to the Collateral as the Collateral Agent may reasonably deem necessary or desirable to obtain the full benefits of this Agreement and of the rights and powers herein granted, including (i) using its best efforts to secure all consents and approvals necessary or appropriate for the grant of a security interest to the Collateral Agent in any Contract held by such Grantor or in which such Grantor has any right or interest not heretofore assigned, (ii) executing, delivering and causing to be filed any financing or continuation statements under the UCC with respect to the security interests granted hereby, (iii) filing or cooperating with the Collateral Agent in filing any forms or other documents required to be recorded with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, United States Copyright Office, or any actions, filings, recordings or registrations in any foreign jurisdiction or under any international treaty, required to be secured or protect the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Grantor's Collateral, (iv) transferring such Grantor's Collateral to the Collateral Agent's possession (if a security interest in such Collateral can be perfected by possession), (v) executing and delivering and causing the applicable depository institution, securities intermediary, commodity intermediary or issuer or nominated party under a letter of credit to execute and deliver a collateral control agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent with respect to each Deposit Account; provided however, a collateral control agreement shall not be required for any individual Deposit Account with an amount less than $15,000 at all times; notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the aggregate amount in all Deposit Accounts not subject to collateral control agreement exceed $100,000 at any time), Securities Account, Commodity Account or Letter-of-Credit Right in or to which such Grantor has any right or interest in order to perfect the security interest created hereunder in favor of the Collateral Agent (including giving the Collateral Agent "control" over such Collateral within the meaning of the applicable provisions of Article 8 and Article 9 of the UCC), but excluding the Deposit Accounts and Securities Accounts identified on Schedule IV-B, which are used exclusively for employee payroll or employee trust accounts, (vi) executing and delivering or causing to be delivered written notice to insurers of the Collateral Agent's security interest in, or claim in or under, any policy of insurance (including unearned premiums), (vii) using its best efforts to obtain acknowledgments from bailees having possession of any Collateral and waivers of liens from landlords and mortgagees of any location where any of the Collateral in an aggregate amount in excess of $250,000 may from time to time be stored or located, and (viii) placing the interest of the Collateral Agent as lienholder (or other similar designation) on the Certificate of Title of any motor vehicles or other Equipment constituting Collateral owned by such Grantor which is covered by a Certificate of Title and delivering the original thereof to the Collateral Agent or its designated agent), it being understood that the Grantors shall not be required to comply with the foregoing requirements of this clause (viii) prior to an Event of Default unless the aggregate book value of motor vehicles and such Equipment exceeds $750,000 (in which case, and in the case of an Event of Default, all Certificates of Title will be required to be delivered with the Collateral Agent's Lien properly noted thereon). Such Grantor also hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent and each Secured Party to file any such financing or continuation statement, and any amendments thereto, all without the signature of such Grantor. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Agreement or any financing statement covering the Collateral or any part thereof shall be sufficient as a financing statement where permitted by law, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Collateral Agent is expressly authorized to use a collateral description that encompasses "all assets" or "all personal property” or words of similar import in any such financing statement. If any amount payable under or in connection with any of the Collateral is or shall become evidenced by any Instrument, such Instrument, other than checks and notes received in the ordinary course of business and any Instrument in the outstanding or stated amount of less than $25,000, shall be duly endorsed in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent and delivered to the Collateral Agent promptly and in any event within five (5) Business Days of such Grantor’s receipt thereof. If at any time any Grantor shall hold any Investment Property (other than Excluded TNI Assets) comprised of certificated or uncertificated securities, such Grantor shall promptly, and in any event within five (5) Business Days of such Grantor’s acquisition or receipt thereof, pledge such Investment Property to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, pursuant to the terms of a pledge agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Collateral Agent.

(b) Maintenance of Records. Such Grantor shall keep and maintain, at its own cost and expense, satisfactory and complete records of its Collateral, including a record of all payments received and all credits granted with respect to such Collateral and all other dealings with such Collateral.

(c) Indemnification. In any suit, proceeding or action brought by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party relating to any of such Grantor’s Accounts, Chattel Papers, Deposit Accounts, General Intangibles (including any Contracts), Instruments, Letter-of-Credit Rights or Investment Properties for any sum owing thereunder, or to enforce any provision of any of such Grantor’s Accounts, Chattel Papers, Deposit Accounts, General Intangibles (including any Contracts), Instruments, Letter-of-Credit Rights or Investment Properties, such Grantor shall save, indemnify and keep the Collateral Agent, each Secured Party, and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, advisors, and representatives (collectively, the “Indemnified Persons”) harmless from and against any and all liabilities, expenses, losses or damages suffered by reason of any defense, setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or reduction of liability whatsoever of the obligor thereunder arising out of a breach by such Grantor of any obligation thereunder or arising out of any other agreement, indebtedness or liability at any time owing to, or in favor of, such obligor or its successors from such Grantor, and all such obligations of such Grantor shall be and remain enforceable against and only against such Grantor and shall not be enforceable against any Indemnified Person. Each Grantor hereby further shall save, indemnify and keep each Indemnified Person harmless from, any and all claims, liabilities, expenses, losses or damages arising out of, resulting from, or otherwise related to the subject matter of this Agreement, including but not limited to any claims, liabilities, expenses, losses or damages arising out of or resulting from (a) the failure by such Grantor to perform any obligations or undertakings required to be performed by such Grantor under or in connection with the Collateral (including the failure of any warranty or representation (express or implied) in respect of the sale of any Inventory), (b) any failure by such Grantor, in connection with any of the Collateral, to comply with any applicable Requirement of Law, or (c) any bodily injury, death or property damage occurring in connection with the use, sale or other disposition of the Collateral; provided that such Grantor shall not be liable to any Indemnified Person pursuant to this Section 5(c) solely to the extent any such liability, expense, loss or damage is determined to have been caused by such Indemnified Person’s own gross negligence or willful misconduct. The benefits of this Section 5(c) shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

(d) Limitation on Liens on Collateral. Such Grantor shall not create, permit or suffer to exist, and shall defend its Collateral against and take such other action as is necessary to remove, any Lien on such Collateral, except for Liens expressly permitted under the Note Documents. Such Grantor shall further defend the right, title and interest of the Collateral Agent in and to any of such Grantor's rights under the Collateral and in and to the Proceeds thereof against the claims and demands of all Persons whomsoever.

(e) Limitations on Modifications of Accounts, Etc. Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, such Grantor shall not, without the Collateral Agent's prior written consent, acting pursuant to the direction of the Required Holders, grant any extension of the time of payment of any Account, Chattel Paper or Instrument or amounts due under any Contract, Deposit Account, Letter-of-Credit Right or Investment Property, in each case constituting Collateral, compromise, compound or settle the same for less than the full amount thereof, release, wholly or partly, any Person liable for the payment thereof, or allow any credit or discount whatsoever thereon other than trade discounts granted in the ordinary course of business of such Grantor.

(f) Maintenance of Insurance. Such Grantor shall maintain, with financially sound and reputable companies, insurance with respect to their respective properties and businesses against such casualties and contingencies, of such types, on such terms and in such amounts (including deductibles, co-insurance and self-insurance, if adequate reserves are maintained with respect thereto) as is customary in the case of entities of established reputations engaged in the same or a similar business and similarly situated. In addition, such Grantor shall maintain, with financially sound and reputable companies, insurance policies insuring (a) its Equipment, Fixtures and Inventory against loss by fire, explosion, theft and such other casualties as are usually insured against by companies engaged in the same or similar businesses, and reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders, and (b) against liability for personal injury and property damage relating to such Equipment, Fixtures and Inventory, and reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders. The Grantor, at its expense, shall obtain a loss payable endorsement to each policy of property insurance in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties and each policy of liability insurance shall name the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties as an additional insured. Each Grantor shall, if so requested by the Collateral Agent, acting pursuant to the direction of the Required Holders, deliver to the Collateral Agent, as often as the Collateral Agent may reasonably request pursuant to such direction, a report of a reputable insurance broker reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders with respect to the insurance on its Equipment, Fixtures and Inventory. Within 60 days of the date hereof, all policies of insurance required to be maintained pursuant to this Section 5(f) shall (i) contain a clause which provides that the Collateral Agent's and the Secured Parties' interests under the policy shall not be invalidated by any act or omission to act of, or any breach of warranty by, the insured, or by any change in the title, ownership or possession of the insured property, or by the use of the property for purposes more hazardous than is permitted in the policy; and (ii) provide that, as to the interests of the Collateral Agent under such policies, no cancellation, reduction in amount or change in coverage thereof shall be effective until at least 30 days after receipt by the Collateral Agent of written notice thereof.

(g) [Reserved.]

(h) Limitations on Disposition. Such Grantor shall not sell, lease, license, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of such Collateral, or attempt or contract to do so, except as permitted by the Note Documents.

(i) Further Identification of Collateral. Such Grantor shall, if so requested by the Collateral Agent, furnish to the Collateral Agent, as often as the Collateral Agent shall reasonably request, statements and schedules further identifying and describing its Collateral and such other reports in connection with such Collateral as the Collateral Agent may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail.

(j) Notices. Such Grantor shall advise the Collateral Agent promptly upon obtaining knowledge thereof, in reasonable detail, of (a) any material Lien, other than Liens expressly permitted under the Note Documents, attaching to or asserted against any of its Collateral, (b) the occurrence of any other event which could have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to the Collateral or on the security interest created hereunder, and (c) the acquisition of any Commercial Tort Claim and grant to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, of a security interest therein and in the proceeds thereof.

(k) Right of Inspection and Audit. Such Grantor shall permit the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties such rights of visitation, inspection and audit of the Collateral as provided in the Note Documents or any other Transaction Document.

(l) Maintenance of Properties. Such Grantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain and keep, or cause to be maintained and kept, their respective properties, assets and facilities, including its Equipment and Fixtures in good repair, working order and condition (other than ordinary wear and tear), so that the business carried on in connection therewith may be properly conducted at all times, and (ii) maintain and preserve all material rights, privileges and franchises that such Grantor or its Subsidiaries now have, in each case, except to the extent that the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(m) Covenants Regarding Intellectual Property.

(i) Such Grantor shall notify the Collateral Agent promptly if (A) it knows or has reason to know that any application or registration relating to any Patent or Trademark of such Grantor which is material to the conduct of such Grantor's business may become abandoned, (B) if a terminal disclaimer is filed with respect to any Patent in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, or (C) of any other adverse determination or development (including the institution of, or any such determination or development in, any proceeding in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office, or any court) regarding such Grantor's ownership or license of any Copyright, Patent or Trademark which is material to the conduct of such Grantor's business, its right to register the same, or to keep and maintain the same.

(ii) Such Grantor shall take all commercially reasonable steps necessary (if any be required) to prevent any misuse, infringement, invalidation, misappropriation, unauthorized use or abandonment of its Copyrights, Patents, Trademarks or other Intellectual Property, whether owned or licensed. Such Grantor's efforts pursuant to this Section 5(m) shall include, but not be limited to: (A) establishing prudent security measures and procedures governing access to, and use of, property protected by such Copyrights, Trademarks or Patents or of such Intellectual Property owned or licensed by such Grantor or developed by any Person on behalf of such Grantor; (B) establishing and maintaining in force any agreements with employees and consultants or any written terms of employment, as are customarily used in such Grantor's industry for the protection of such Intellectual Property; and (C) vigorous enforcement of such Grantor's rights in any such Intellectual Property.

(iii) In no event shall such Grantor, either itself or through any agent, employee, licensee or designee, file an application for the registration of any Patent or Trademark with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, any Copyright with the United States Copyright Office, or any similar office or agency in any other country or any political subdivision thereof unless it promptly informs the Collateral Agent and, upon request of the Collateral Agent, executes and delivers any and all agreements, instruments, documents, and papers as may be reasonably necessary to evidence the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Copyright, Patent or Trademark, including, with respect to Trademarks, the goodwill of such Grantor, relating thereto or represented thereby.

(iv) Such Grantor shall take all reasonable and necessary action to maintain and pursue each application (and to obtain the relevant registration) and to maintain the registration of each of the Copyrights, Patents and Trademarks of such Grantor which is material to the conduct of such Grantor's business, including the filing of applications for renewal, affidavits of use, affidavits of noncontestability and opposition and interference and cancellation proceedings.

(v) In the event that any Copyright, Patent or Trademark of such Grantor is infringed, misappropriated or diluted by a third party, such Grantor shall notify the Collateral Agent promptly after such Grantor learns thereof and shall, unless such Grantor shall reasonably determine that such Copyright, Patent or Trademark is not material to the conduct of such Grantor's business, promptly sue for infringement, misappropriation or dilution and to recover any and all damages for such infringement, misappropriation or dilution or take such other actions as such Grantor shall reasonably deem appropriate under the circumstances to protect such Copyright, Patent or Trademark.

(vi) Such Grantor covenants and agrees that in the event any Patent is or becomes subject to a terminal disclaimer, the security interest granted in this Agreement shall extend to the Patent necessitating the disclaimer and such Patent shall not be sold, transferred or otherwise alienated without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent.

(n) Covenants Regarding Federal Government Contracts. If any Account or Chattel Paper of any Grantor arises out of a contract or contracts with the United States of America or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof, such Grantor shall (i) promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof in writing, and execute and deliver in connection therewith (A) a collateral assignment of claims in favor of the Collateral Agent, and (B) a notice of collateral assignment of claims directed to the appropriate federal government agencies and agents thereof as required under applicable law, each in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, (ii) promptly take any other steps reasonably required by the Collateral Agent in order to ensure that all moneys due or to become due under such contract or contracts shall be collaterally assigned to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and notice thereof given under the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940, as amended (31 U.S.C. 3727; 41 U.S.C. 15), or other applicable law, and (iii) promptly update Schedule VII hereto and deliver a copy of such revised schedule to the Collateral Agent, together with copies of all related contracts evidencing such Accounts and/or Chattel Paper. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantors shall not be required to comply with the foregoing in connection with purchase orders for the publication of notices so long as the aggregate amount owing under all of such purchase orders does not at any time exceed $100,000.

SECTION 6. [Reserved.]

SECTION 7. The Collateral Agent's Appointment as Attorney-in-Fact.

(a) Subject to Section 7(b) below, each Grantor hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent and any officer, co-agent or sub-agent thereof with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority in the place and stead of such Grantor and in the name of such Grantor or in its own name, from time to time at the Collateral Agent's discretion, for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Agreement, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute and deliver any and all documents and instruments which may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, hereby gives the Collateral Agent the power and right (but not the obligation), on behalf of such Grantor, without notice to or assent by such Grantor to do the following:

(i) to ask, demand, collect, receive and give acquittances and receipts for any and all monies due or to become due under any of such Grantor's Collateral and, in the name of such Grantor in its own name or otherwise to take possession of, endorse and collect any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances or other Instruments for the payment of monies due under any such Collateral and to file any claim or to take or commence any other action or proceeding in any court of law or equity or otherwise deemed appropriate by the Collateral Agent for the purpose of collecting any and all such monies due under any such Collateral whenever payable;

(ii) to pay or discharge any Liens, including any tax lien, levied or placed on or threatened against such Collateral, to effect any repairs or any insurance called for by the terms of this Agreement and to pay all or any part of the premiums therefor and the costs thereof, which actions shall be on behalf and for the benefit of the Secured Parties and the Collateral Agent and not such Grantor; and

(iii) to (A) direct any Person liable for any payment under or in respect of any of such Collateral to make payment of any and all monies due or to become due thereunder directly to the Collateral Agent or as the Collateral Agent shall direct, (B) receive payment of any and all monies, claims and other amounts due or to become due at any time arising out of or in respect of any such Collateral, (C) sign and endorse any invoices, freight or express bills, bills of lading, storage or warehouse receipts, drafts against debtors, assignments, verifications and notices in connection with Accounts and other Instruments and Documents constituting or relating to such Collateral, (D) commence and prosecute any suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect such Collateral or any part thereof and to enforce any other right in respect of any such Collateral, (E) defend any suit, action or proceeding brought against such Grantor with respect to any such Collateral, (F) settle, compromise or adjust any suit, action or proceeding described above and, in connection therewith, give such discharges or releases as the Collateral Agent may deem appropriate, (G) license or, to the extent permitted by an applicable license, sublicense, whether general, special or otherwise, and whether on an exclusive or non-exclusive basis, any Patent, Copyright, Trademark or other Intellectual Property throughout the world for such term or terms, on such conditions and in such manner as the Collateral Agent shall in its sole discretion determine, and (H) sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect to, or otherwise deal with, any of such Collateral as fully and completely as though the Collateral Agent were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at the Collateral Agent's option and such Grantor's expense, at any time, or from time to time, all acts and things which the Collateral Agent may reasonably deem necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon such Collateral and the Collateral Agent's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as such Grantor might do.

(b) The Collateral Agent agrees that, except upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, it shall not exercise the power of attorney or any rights granted to the Collateral Agent, on behalf and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, pursuant to this Section 7. Each Grantor hereby ratifies, to the extent permitted by law, all that said attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. The power of attorney granted pursuant to this Section 7 is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable until the Secured Obligations are finally and completely paid and performed in full; provided that the foregoing power of attorney shall terminate upon the full, complete and final payment and performance of the Secured Obligations and the termination of all commitments and obligations of the Secured Parties under the Transaction Documents.

(c) The powers conferred on the Collateral Agent hereunder are solely to protect the Collateral Agent's and each Secured Party's interests in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon the Collateral Agent to exercise any such powers. The Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral, including any responsibility for (i) taking any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral, or (ii) ascertaining or taking action with respect to calls, conversions, exchanges, maturities, tenders or other matters relative to any Investment Property, whether or not the Collateral Agent has or is deemed to have knowledge of such matters. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of any of the Collateral if it takes such action for that purpose as the applicable Grantor reasonably requests in writing at times other than upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default. Failure of the Collateral Agent to comply with any such request at any time shall not in itself be deemed a failure to exercise reasonable care. No failure of the Collateral Agent to do any act not so requested shall be deemed a failure to act reasonably. The Collateral Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers and neither it nor any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives shall be responsible to any Grantor for any act or failure to act.

(d) Each Grantor also authorizes the Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties, at any time, and from time to time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, to (i) communicate in its own name with any party to any Contract of such Grantor with regard to the assignment of the right, title and interest of such Grantor in and under the Contracts hereunder and other matters relating thereto, and (ii) execute, in connection with the sale of such Grantor's Collateral provided for in Section 7, any endorsements, assignments or other instruments of conveyance or transfer with respect to such Collateral.

(e) If any Grantor fails to perform or comply with any of its agreements contained herein and the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party, as provided for by the terms of this Agreement, shall perform or comply, or otherwise cause performance or compliance, with such agreement, the reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, of the Collateral Agent or such Secured Party, shall be payable by such Grantor to the Collateral Agent within (3) three days of written demand and shall constitute Secured Obligations secured hereby.

SECTION 8. Rights and Remedies Upon Default. It shall be an "Event of Default" hereunder if any Event of Default (as defined in the Note Agreement or the Guaranty Agreement) shall occur. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Collateral Agent shall have the following rights and remedies as set forth in this Section 8:

(a) The Collateral Agent may exercise, in addition to all other rights and remedies granted to it under this Agreement, the Note Agreement, the Guaranty Agreement, the Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, the other Transaction Documents and under any other instrument or agreement securing, evidencing or relating to the Secured Obligations, all rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC and other applicable law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Grantor expressly agrees that in any such event, the Collateral Agent, without demand of performance or other demand, advertisement or notice of any kind (except the notice specified below of time and place of public or private sale) to or upon such Grantor or any other Person (all and each of which demands, advertisements and notices are hereby expressly waived to the maximum extent permitted by the UCC and other applicable law), may (i) reclaim, take possession, recover, store, maintain, finish, repair, prepare for sale or lease, shop, advertise for sale or lease and sell or lease (in the manner provided herein) the Collateral, and in connection with the liquidation of the Collateral and collection of the accounts receivable pledged as Collateral, use any Trademark, Copyright, or process used or owned by such Grantor, and (ii) forthwith collect, receive, appropriate and realize upon the Collateral, or any part thereof, and may forthwith sell, lease, assign, give an option or options to purchase or sell or otherwise dispose of and deliver said Collateral (or contract to do so), or any part thereof, in one or more parcels at public or private sale or sales, at any exchange or broker's board or at any of the Collateral Agent's offices or elsewhere at such prices as it may deem best, for cash or on credit or for future delivery without assumption of any credit risk. To the extent any Grantor has the right to do so, such Grantor authorizes the Collateral Agent, on the terms set forth in this Section 8, to enter the premises where the Collateral is located, to take possession of the Collateral, or any part of it, and to pay, purchase, contact, or compromise any encumbrance, charge, or lien which, in the opinion of the Collateral Agent, appears to be prior or superior to its security interest. The Collateral Agent or any Secured Party shall have the right, upon any such public sale or sales, and, to the extent permitted by law, upon any such private sale or sales, to purchase the whole or any part of said Collateral so sold, free of any right or equity of redemption, which equity of redemption each Grantor hereby releases. Each Grantor further agrees, at the Collateral Agent's request, to assemble its Collateral and make it available to the Collateral Agent at places which the Collateral Agent shall reasonably select, whether at such Grantor's premises or elsewhere. The Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties shall apply the net proceeds of any such collection, recovery, receipt, appropriation, realization or sale as provided in Section 8(h), below, with each Grantor remaining jointly and severally liable for any deficiency remaining unpaid after such application, and only after so paying over such net proceeds and after the payment by the Collateral Agent of any other amount required by any provision of law, need the Collateral Agent account for the surplus, if any, to any Grantor. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, each Grantor waives all claims, damages, and demands against the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party arising out of the repossession, retention or sale of the Collateral. Each Grantor agrees that the Collateral Agent need not give more than ten (10) days' notice (which notification shall be deemed given if sent in accordance with Section 12(a)) of the time and place of any public sale or of the time after which a private sale may take place and that such notice is reasonable notification of such matters. Each Grantor shall remain liable for any deficiency if the proceeds of any sale or disposition of its Collateral are insufficient to pay all amounts to which the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties are entitled from such Grantor, such Grantor also being liable for the attorneys' fees and expenses of any attorneys employed by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to collect such deficiency.

(b) As to any Collateral constituting certificated securities or uncertificated securities, if, at any time when the Collateral Agent shall determine to exercise its right to sell the whole or any part of such Collateral hereunder, such Collateral or the part thereof to be sold shall not, for any reason whatsoever, be effectively registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (as so amended the "Act"), the Collateral Agent may, in its discretion (subject only to applicable Requirements of Law), sell such Collateral or any part thereof by private sale in such manner and under such circumstances as the Collateral Agent may deem desirable, but subject to the other requirements of this Section 8(b), and shall not be required to effect such registration or cause the same to be effected. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in any such event, the Collateral Agent may, in its sole discretion: (i) in accordance with applicable securities laws, proceed to make such private sale notwithstanding that a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Collateral or part thereof could be or shall have been filed under the Act; (ii) approach and negotiate with a single possible purchaser to effect such sale; and (iii) restrict such sale to a purchaser who will represent and agree that such purchaser is purchasing for its own account, for investment, and not with a view to the distribution or sale of such Collateral or part thereof. In addition to a private sale as provided above in this Section 8(b), if any of such Collateral shall not be freely distributable to the public without registration under the Act at the time of any proposed sale hereunder, then the Collateral Agent shall not be required to effect such registration or cause the same to be effected but may, in its sole discretion (subject only to applicable requirements of law), require that any sale hereunder (including a sale at auction) be conducted subject to such restrictions as the Collateral Agent may, in its sole discretion, deem desirable in order that such sale (notwithstanding any failure so to register) may be effected in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights and the Act and all applicable state securities laws.

(c) Each Grantor agrees that in any sale of any of such Collateral, whether at a foreclosure sale or otherwise, the Collateral Agent is hereby authorized to comply with any limitation or restriction in connection with such sale as it may be advised by counsel is necessary in order to avoid any violation of applicable law (including compliance with such procedures as may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, require that such prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications and restrict such prospective bidders and purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Collateral), or in order to obtain any required approval of the sale or of the purchaser by any governmental authority, and each Grantor further agrees that such compliance shall not result in such sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, nor shall the Collateral Agent nor any Secured Party be liable nor accountable to such Grantor for any discount allowed by reason of the fact that such Collateral is sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

(d) Each Grantor also agrees to pay all fees, costs, and reasonable expenses of the Collateral Agent or any of the Secured Parties, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, incurred in connection with the enforcement of any of its rights and remedies hereunder.

(e) Upon the Collateral Agent's request, each Grantor agrees that it will promptly execute assignments of its entire right, title and interest in and to each its Patents, Trademarks, Copyrights, and Licenses. Such assignments shall be in form and content which is recordable in the United States Patent and Trademark Office or Copyright Office, or any similar office or agency in any other country or any political subdivision thereof, as applicable, and otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent.

(f) Except as otherwise expressly permitted herein, each Grantor hereby waives presentment, demand, protest or any notice (to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law) of any kind in connection with this Agreement or any Collateral.

(g) Each Grantor agrees that a breach of any covenants contained in this Section 8 will cause irreparable injury to the Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties, that in such event the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties would have no adequate remedy at law in respect of such breach and, as a consequence, agrees that in such event each and every covenant contained in this Section 8 shall be specifically enforceable against such Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives and agrees not to assert any defenses against an action for specific performance of such covenants except for a defense that the Secured Obligations are not then due and payable.

(h) The Proceeds of any sale, disposition or other realization upon all or any part of the Collateral shall be distributed by the Collateral Agent in the following order of priorities:

First, to the Collateral Agent in an amount sufficient to pay in full the costs payable hereunder of the Collateral Agent in connection with such sale, disposition or other realization, including all fees, costs, expenses, liabilities and advances incurred or made by the Collateral Agent in connection therewith, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses;

Second, to the Secured Parties in an amount sufficient to pay in full the reasonable costs of the Secured Parties in connection with such sale, disposition or other realization, including all fees, costs, expenses, liabilities and advances incurred or made by the Secured Parties in connection therewith, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses;

Third, to the Secured Parties in an amount equal to the then unpaid principal of and accrued interest, Yield-Maintenance Amount, non-usage and all other fees and charges payable on the Secured Obligations;

Fourth, to the Secured Parties in an amount equal to any other Secured Obligations under any of the Transaction Documents which are then unpaid; and Finally, upon payment in full of all of the Secured Obligations, to the Grantors or their representatives according to their interests or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

SECTION 9. Grant of License to Intellectual Property. For the purpose of enabling the Collateral Agent to exercise its rights and remedies under Section 8, at such time as the Collateral Agent shall be lawfully entitled to exercise such rights and remedies, each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent an irrevocable, non-exclusive license (exercisable without payment of royalty or other compensation to such Grantor) to use, license or sublicense any Copyright, Patent or Trademark, and to exercise any rights held by such Grantor under any License, now owned or hereafter acquired by such Grantor or in which such Grantor now holds or hereafter acquires any interest, and wherever the same may be located, and including in such license reasonable access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer and automatic machinery software and programs used for the compilation or printout thereof, subject to any applicable restrictions or limitations contained in such License.

SECTION 10. Limitation on the Collateral Agent's Duty in Respect of Collateral. Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof and the duty to account for monies actually received by it, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee as may be selected by the Collateral Agent with reasonable care or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto and the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral, by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee as may be selected by the Collateral Agent with reasonable care. The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Collateral or for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Liens in any of the Collateral, whether impaired by operation of law or by reason of any of any action or omission to act on its part hereunder, except to the extent such action or omission constitutes gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, for the validity or sufficiency of the Collateral or any agreement or assignment contained therein, for the validity of the title of the Company to the Collateral, for insuring the Collateral or for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or Liens upon the Collateral or otherwise as to the maintenance of the Collateral.

Additionally, in no event shall the Collateral Agent be responsible or liable for (i) special, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Collateral Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action, or (ii) any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Collateral Agent shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

SECTION 11. Reinstatement. This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective against each Grantor should any petition be filed by or against such Grantor for liquidation or reorganization, should such Grantor become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant part of such Grantor's property and assets, and shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment or performance of the Secured Obligations, or any part thereof, is, pursuant to applicable law, avoided, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee of the Secured Obligations, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent conveyance," or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment, or any part thereof, is avoided, rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Secured Obligations shall be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so avoided, rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

SECTION 12. Miscellaneous.

(a) Notices. Any notice or other communication hereunder shall be addressed and delivered (i) to the Company by delivering such notice in accordance with Section 7.4 of the Guaranty Agreement, (ii) to the Borrower by delivering such notice in accordance with Section 12H of the Note Agreement, (iii) to the Initial Subsidiary Grantors, pursuant to Section 14 of the Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, and (iv) to the Collateral Agent at the address and telefacsimile number set forth under the Collateral Agent's signature block of this Agreement.

(b) Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

(c) Headings. The various headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this agreement or any provisions hereof.

(d) No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

(i) The Collateral Agent and each Secured Party shall not by any act, delay, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any of their respective rights or remedies hereunder, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion preclude the further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy.

(ii) The rights and remedies hereunder provided are cumulative and may be exercised singly or concurrently, and are not exclusive of any rights and remedies provided by law.

(iii) None of the terms or provisions of this Agreement may be waived, altered, modified or amended except by an instrument in writing, duly executed by each of the Grantors and the Collateral Agent.

(e) Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence for the performance of each of the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

(f) Termination of this Agreement. Subject to Section 11, this Agreement shall terminate upon the full, complete and final payment and performance of the Secured Obligations.

(g) Release of Collateral. Upon any sale or other disposition of title in or to any assets of any Grantor constituting Collateral permitted to be sold or disposed of under the Note Documents, the Collateral Agent, at the reasonable request and at the expense of the applicable Grantor, will execute and deliver to such Grantor such instruments provided to it (including UCC partial release statements) acknowledging the release of the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Collateral so sold or otherwise disposed of, provided that such security interest shall continue to attach to and be perfected in the Proceeds of such Collateral, and will record such instruments with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the United States Copyright Office as may be necessary to evidence the release of the Collateral Agent's security interest in such Collateral.

(h) Successor and Assigns. This Agreement and all obligations of each of the Grantors hereunder shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of each such Grantor, and shall, together with the rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties hereunder, inure to the benefit of such Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, and their respective successors and assigns. No sales of participations, other sales, assignments, transfers or other dispositions of any agreement governing or instrument evidencing the Secured Obligations or any portion thereof or interest therein shall in any manner affect the security interest created herein and granted to the Collateral Agent hereunder.

(i) Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND THE RIGHTS OF THE PARTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, EXCLUDING CHOICE-OF-LAW PRINCIPLES OF THE LAW OF SUCH STATE THAT WOULD PERMIT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN SUCH STATE.

(j) Waiver of Jury Trial. THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE TO WAIVE THEIR RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT, OR ANY DEALINGS BETWEEN OR AMONG THEM RELATING TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY AND THE SECURED PARTY/GRANTOR RELATIONSHIP THAT IS BEING ESTABLISHED. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS TRANSACTION, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS WAIVER IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO ENTER INTO THIS BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP, THAT EACH HAS ALREADY RELIED ON THE WAIVER IN ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS, AND THAT EACH WILL CONTINUE TO RELY ON THE WAIVER IN THEIR RELATED FUTURE DEALINGS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO FURTHER WARRANTS AND REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH ITS LEGAL COUNSEL, AND THAT IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS FOLLOWING CONSULTATION WITH LEGAL COUNSEL. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT.

(k) Jurisdiction; Venue. Each Grantor irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents or any of the agreements, documents or instruments delivered in connection herewith shall be brought in the courts of the State of New York, or the United States of America for the Southern District of New York as the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may elect, and, by execution and delivery hereof, each Grantor accepts and consents to, for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that such jurisdiction shall be exclusive, unless waived by the Required Holders in writing, with respect to any action or proceeding brought by such Grantor against the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party. Nothing herein shall limit the right that the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may have to bring proceedings against any Grantor in the courts of any appropriate jurisdiction or to enforce in any lawful manner a judgment obtained in one jurisdiction in any other jurisdiction. Each Grantor hereby waives, to the full extent permitted by law, any right to stay or to dismiss any action or proceeding brought before said courts on the basis of forum non conveniens.

(l) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts (including those transmitted by electronic transmission (including, without limitation, facsimile and e-mail)), each of which when so delivered shall be deemed an original, but all such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument. Delivery of this Agreement may be made by facsimile transmission of a duly executed counterpart copy hereof.

(m) Additional Grantors. From time to time subsequent to the date hereof, additional Subsidiaries and/or Affiliates of the Company may become parties hereto, as additional Grantors (each, an “Additional Grantor”), by executing a Joinder Agreement. Upon the delivery of the Joinder Agreement to the Collateral Agent, such Additional Grantor shall be a Grantor and shall be as fully a party hereto as if such Additional Grantor were an original signatory hereof.

(n) Incorporation by Reference. In connection with its execution and acting hereunder, the Collateral Agent is entitled to all rights, privileges, benefits, protections, immunities and indemnities provided to it (i) under the Collateral Documents to which any Credit Party is party and (ii) under the Collateral Agency Agreement as between the Secured Parties and the Collateral Agent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the parties hereto has caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered by its duly authorized signatory on the date first set forth above.

All payments and proceeds which may at any time, and from time to time, be held by any of the Pledgors, but which such Pledgor is obligated to deliver to the Collateral Agent on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties, shall be held by such Pledgor separate and apart from its other property in trust for the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties.

4.3 Filings; Recordings. Each Pledgor shall authorize the filing of UCC-1 financing statements (and any amendment thereto) and execute, or authorizing the filings of, other documents (and pay the cost of filing or recording the same in all public offices deemed appropriate by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party), and do such other acts and things, all as the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may from time to time reasonably request to establish and maintain a valid, perfected pledge of, and security interest in, the Pledged Collateral in favor of the Collateral Agent.

4.4 Maintenance Of Records. Subject to the provisions of Section 4.5, each Pledgor shall keep at its address indicated on Schedule I all its records concerning the Pledged Collateral.

4.5 Notice Of Change Of Address. Each Pledgor shall furnish to the Collateral Agent at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any change in the address of such Pledgor's principal place of business or chief executive office (as described on Schedule I), the name of such Pledgor, or its state of formation.

4.6 Information. Each Pledgor shall promptly furnish the Collateral Agent and any Secured Party such information concerning the Pledged Collateral as such Person may from time to time reasonably request. Additionally, each Pledgor shall permit the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties such rights of inspection and audit of the Pledged Collateral as provided in the Transaction Documents.

4.7 Notice Of Dissolution. Each Pledgor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent in writing upon learning of the occurrence of any event which would reasonably be expected to cause termination and/or dissolution of any of the Pledged Entities.

ARTICLE V

THE COLLATERAL AGENT

5.1 The Collateral Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact. Each Pledgor hereby irrevocably appoints the Collateral Agent, and any officer, co-agent or sub-agent thereof, to be such Pledgor's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor or otherwise, from time to time in the Collateral Agent's discretion after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, to take any action and to execute any instrument which the Collateral Agent may reasonably deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement, including, without limitation:

(a) to ask, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compromise, receive and give acquittance and receipts for moneys due and to become due under or in respect of any of the Pledged Collateral;

(b) to receive, endorse, and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper, in connection with clause (a) above; and

(c) to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Collateral Agent may deem desirable for the collection of any of the Pledged Collateral or otherwise to enforce the rights of the Collateral Agent with respect to any of the Pledged Collateral.

Each Pledgor hereby acknowledges, consents and agrees that the power of attorney granted pursuant to this Section 5.1 is irrevocable and coupled with an interest.

5.2 The Collateral Agent May Perform. If any Pledgor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, the Collateral Agent may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement for the benefit of the Secured Parties and itself and not for such Pledgor, and the expenses of the Collateral Agent incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by the Pledgors pursuant to Section 6.5.

5.3 The Collateral Agent Has No Duty. The powers conferred on the Collateral Agent hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Pledged Collateral and shall not impose any duty on it to exercise any such powers. The Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Pledged Collateral or responsibility for (a) ascertaining or taking action with respect to calls, conversions, exchanges, maturities, tenders or other matters relative to any Pledged Collateral, whether or not the Collateral Agent has or is deemed to have knowledge of such matters, or (b) taking any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Pledged Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of any of the Pledged Collateral if it takes such action for that purpose as any Pledgor reasonably requests in writing at times other than upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default. Failure of the Collateral Agent to comply with any such request at any time shall not in itself be deemed a failure to exercise reasonable care.

5.4 Notice Of This Agreement. Each Pledgor shall notify the applicable Pledged Entities of the existence of this Agreement by sending to such Pledged Entities a notice in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B within three (3) Business Days of the date hereof, or if a Pledged Entity has not been formed by the date hereof, within three (3) Business Days of the formation of such Pledged Entity.

ARTICLE VI

DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

6.1 Events Of Default. It shall be an “Event of Default” hereunder if any Event of Default (as defined in the Note Agreement or the Guaranty Agreement) shall occur.

6.2 Certain Remedies. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing:

(a) The Collateral Agent may exercise in respect of the Pledged Collateral, in addition to other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it, all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Pledged Collateral) and also may, without notice except as specified below, sell the Pledged Collateral or any part thereof in one or more parcels at public or private sale, at any of the Collateral Agent’s offices or elsewhere, for cash, on credit or for future delivery, and upon such other terms as the Collateral Agent may deem commercially reasonable. Each Pledgor agrees that, to the extent notice of sale shall be required by law, at least ten (10) days’ prior notice to such Pledgor of the time and place of any public sale or the time after which any private sale is to be made shall constitute reasonable notification. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of Pledged Collateral regardless of notice of sale having been given. The Collateral Agent may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed therefor, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned.

(b) The Collateral Agent may:

(i) transfer all or any part of the Pledged Collateral into the name of the Collateral Agent or its nominee, with or without disclosing that such Pledged Collateral is subject to the Lien hereunder;

(ii) notify the parties obligated on any of the Pledged Collateral to make payment to the Collateral Agent of any amount due or to become due thereunder;

(iii) enforce collection of any of the Pledged Collateral by suit or otherwise, and surrender, release or exchange all or any part thereof, or compromise or extend or renew for any period (whether or not longer than the original period) any obligations of any nature of any party with respect thereto;

(iv) endorse any checks, drafts, or other writings in any Pledgor's name to allow collection of the Pledged Collateral;

(v) take control of any proceeds of the Pledged Collateral; and

(vi) execute (in the name, place and stead of any Pledgor) endorsements, assignments and other instruments of conveyance or transfer with respect to all or any of the Pledged Collateral.

(c) If, at any time when the Collateral Agent shall determine to exercise its right to sell the whole or any part of the Pledged Collateral hereunder, such Pledged Collateral or the part thereof to be sold shall not, for any reason whatsoever, be effectively registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (as so amended, the "Act"), the Collateral Agent may, in its discretion (subject only to applicable requirements of law), sell such Pledged Collateral or part thereof by private sale in such manner and under such circumstances as the Collateral Agent may deem desirable, but subject to the other requirements of this Section 6.2(c), and shall not be required to effect such registration or cause the same to be effected. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in any such event the Collateral Agent may, in its sole discretion: (i) in accordance with applicable securities laws, proceed to make such private sale notwithstanding that a registration statement for the purpose of registering such Pledged Collateral or part thereof could be or shall have been filed under the Act; (ii) approach and negotiate with a single possible purchaser to effect such sale; and (iii) restrict such sale to a purchaser who will represent and agree that such purchaser is purchasing for its own account, for investment, and not with a view to the distribution or sale of such Pledged Collateral or part thereof. In addition to a private sale as provided above in this Section 6.2(c), if any of the Pledged Collateral shall not be freely distributable to the public without registration under the Act at the time of any proposed sale hereunder, then the Collateral Agent shall not be required to effect such registration or cause the same to be effected but may, in its sole discretion (subject only to applicable requirements of law), require that any sale hereunder (including a sale at auction) be conducted subject to such restrictions as the Collateral Agent may, in its sole discretion, deem desirable in order that such sale (notwithstanding any failure so to register) may be effected in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights and the Act and all applicable state securities laws.

(d) Each Pledgor agrees that a breach of any covenants contained in this Article VI with the effect of denying the Collateral Agent the realization of the practical benefits to be provided by this Agreement will cause irreparable injury to the Collateral Agent, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties, that in such event the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties would have no adequate remedy at law in respect of such breach and, as a consequence, agrees that in such event each and every covenant contained in this Article VI shall be specifically enforceable against such Pledgor, and such Pledgor hereby waives and agrees not to assert any defenses against an action for specific performance of such covenants except for a defense that the Secured Obligations are not then due and payable.

6.3 Compliance With Restrictions. Each Pledgor agrees that in any sale of any of the Pledged Collateral, whether at a foreclosure sale or otherwise, the Collateral Agent is hereby authorized to comply with any limitation or restriction in connection with such sale as it may be advised by counsel is necessary in order to avoid any violation of applicable law (including compliance with such procedures as may restrict the number of prospective bidders and purchasers, require that such prospective bidders and purchasers have certain qualifications and restrict such prospective bidders and purchasers to persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale of such Pledged Collateral), or in order to obtain any required approval of the sale or of the purchaser by any governmental authority, and such Pledgor further agrees that such compliance shall not result in such sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, nor shall the Collateral Agent nor any of the Secured Parties be liable nor accountable to such Pledgor for any discount allowed by the reason of the fact that such Pledged Collateral is sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction.

6.4 Application Of Proceeds. All cash proceeds received by the Collateral Agent in respect of any sale of, collection from, or other realization upon, all or any part of the Pledged Collateral shall be applied: first, to the payment of all reasonable costs and expenses of holding and selling the Pledged Collateral, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, fees of any accountants and court costs; second, to the full and complete payment of all of the Secured Obligations; and third, to, after payment in full of all of the Secured Obligations, the Pledgors as required by law.

6.5 Indemnity And Expenses. Each Pledgor hereby indemnifies and holds harmless the Collateral Agent, each Secured Party, and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, advisors and representatives (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons") from and against any and all claims, losses, and liabilities arising out of or resulting from this Agreement (including enforcement of this Agreement), except claims, losses, or liabilities resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Indemnified Person. Upon demand, the Pledgors shall pay to the Collateral Agent or such Secured Party the amount of any and all reasonable expenses, including the reasonable fees and disbursements of its counsel and of any experts and agents (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, whether related to a suit or action or any reviews of or appeals from a judgment or decree therein or in connection with non-judicial action) which the Collateral Agent or such Secured Party may incur in connection with this Agreement, including, but not limited to, (a) the custody, preservation, use, or operation of, or the sale of, collection from, or other realization upon, any of the Pledged Collateral, (b) the exercise or enforcement of any of the rights of the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties hereunder, or (c) the failure by the Pledgor to perform or observe any of the provisions hereof.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

7.1 Transaction Document. This Agreement is one of the Transaction Documents executed pursuant to the Note Agreement and the Guaranty Agreement and shall (unless otherwise expressly indicated herein) be construed, administered and applied in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof.

7.2 Reinstatement. This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective if at any time payment of the Secured Obligations, or any part thereof, is, pursuant to applicable law, avoided, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by any obligee of the Secured Obligations, whether as a “voidable preference,” “fraudulent conveyance,” or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment, or any part thereof, is avoided, rescinded, reduced, restored, or returned, the Secured Obligations, shall be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so avoided, rescinded, reduced, restored, or returned.

7.3 Amendments; Waivers. No amendment to, or waiver of, any provision of this Agreement, nor consent to any departure by any Pledgor from any provision in this Agreement shall in any event be effective unless the same shall have been in writing and given by the Collateral Agent.

7.4 Protection Of Pledged Collateral. The Collateral Agent may from time to time, at its option, perform any act which any Pledgor agrees hereunder to perform and which such Pledgor shall fail to perform after being requested in writing so to perform (it being understood that no such request need be given after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default) and the Collateral Agent may, but shall not be required to, from time to time, take any other action which the Collateral Agent reasonably deems necessary for the maintenance, preservation or protection of any of the Pledged Collateral or of its security interest therein, all such actions being for the express benefit of the Secured Parties and the Collateral Agent and not any of the Pledgors.

7.5 Addresses For Notices. Any notice or other communication hereunder shall be addressed and delivered (i) to the Company by delivering such notice in accordance with Section 7.4 of the Guaranty Agreement, (ii) to the Borrower by delivering such notice in accordance with Section 12H of the Note Agreement, (iii) to the Subsidiary Guarantors, pursuant to Section 14 of the Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, and (iv) to the Collateral Agent at the address and telefacsimile number set forth under the Collateral Agent’s signature block of this Agreement.

7.6 Section Captions. Section captions used in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, and shall not affect the construction of this Agreement.

7.7 Severability. Wherever possible each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement shall be prohibited by or invalid under such law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

7.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, (including those transmitted by electronic transmission (including, without limitation, facsimile and e-mail)), each of which when so delivered shall be deemed an original, but all such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument. Delivery of this Agreement may be made by facsimile transmission of a duly executed counterpart copy hereof.

7.9 Governing Law; Entire Agreement. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND THE RIGHTS OF THE PARTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, EXCLUDING CHOICE-OF-LAW PRINCIPLES OF THE LAW OF SUCH STATE THAT WOULD PERMIT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN SUCH STATE.

7.10 Waiver of Jury Trial. THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE TO WAIVE THEIR RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT OR ANY DEALINGS BETWEEN OR AMONG THE COLLATERAL AGENT, ANY OF THE SECURED PARTIES AND ANY OF THE PLEDGORS RELATING TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY AND THE SECURED PARTY/PLEDGOR RELATIONSHIP THAT IS BEING ESTABLISHED. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS TRANSACTION, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS WAIVER IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO ENTER INTO THIS BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP, THAT EACH HAS ALREADY RELIED ON THE WAIVER IN ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS, AND THAT EACH WILL CONTINUE TO RELY ON THE WAIVER IN THEIR RELATED FUTURE DEALINGS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO FURTHER WARRANTS AND REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH ITS LEGAL COUNSEL, AND THAT IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS FOLLOWING CONSULTATION WITH LEGAL COUNSEL. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT.

7.11 Jurisdiction; Venue. Each Pledgor irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents or any of the agreements, documents or instruments delivered in connection herewith shall be brought in the courts of the State of New York, or the United States of America for the Southern District of New York as the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may elect, and, by execution and delivery hereof, each Pledgor accepts and consents to, for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that such jurisdiction shall be exclusive, unless waived by the Required Holders in writing, with respect to any action or proceeding brought by such Pledgor against the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party. Nothing herein shall limit the right that the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may have to bring proceedings against any Pledgor in the courts of any appropriate jurisdiction or to enforce in any lawful manner a judgment obtained in one jurisdiction in any other jurisdiction. Each Pledgor hereby waives, to the full extent permitted by law, any right to stay or to dismiss any action or proceeding brought before said courts on the basis of forum non conveniens.

7.12 Additional Pledgors. From time to time subsequent to the date hereof, additional Subsidiaries and/or Affiliates of the Company may become parties hereto, as additional Pledgors (each, an “Additional Pledgor”), by executing a Joinder Agreement. Upon the delivery of the Joinder Agreement to the Collateral Agent, such Additional Pledgor shall be a Pledgor and shall be as fully a party hereto as if such Additional Pledgor were an original signatory hereof.

7.13 Incorporation by Reference. In connection with its execution and acting hereunder, the Collateral Agent is entitled to all rights, privileges, benefits, protections, immunities and indemnities provided to it (i) under the Collateral Documents to which any Credit Party is party and (ii) under the Collateral Agency Agreement as between the Secured Parties and the Collateral Agent.

NOTICE OF PLEDGE AGREEMENT

TO: [NAME OF PLEDGED ENTITY] (the "Pledged Company")

Reference is made to a Pledge Agreement (an unexecuted copy of which is attached hereto) dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the "Pledge Agreement"), made by the undersigned "Pledgor" and each other "Pledgor" identified therein (each, a "Pledgor" and collectively, the "Pledgors"), in favor of The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., not in its individual capacity, but solely in its capacity as the collateral agent (in such capacity, together with its successors and assigns in such capacity, the "Collateral Agent") for the benefit and on behalf of the Secured Parties (as defined therein). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Pledge Agreement.

Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, the undersigned Pledgor hereby gives you notice that it has pledged and assigned to the Collateral Agent, on behalf and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and granted to the Collateral Agent, on behalf and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a continuing security interest in and to all right, title and interest of such Pledgor, whether now existing or hereafter arising or acquired, in, to and under the Pledged Equity, as set forth in Exhibit A of the Pledge Agreement, in respect of any and all of the following:

(a) The Pledged Equity owned or held by such Pledgor and the certificates representing the Pledged Equity, if any, and all dividends, cash, instruments, and other property or proceeds from time to time received, receivable, or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for any or all of such Pledged Equity;

(b) All voting trust certificates held by such Pledgor evidencing its beneficial interest in any Pledged Equity subject to any voting trust;

(c) All additional shares of capital stock, membership interest, partnership interests or other equity interests, as the case may be, of the Pledged Company and voting trust certificates from time to time acquired by the Pledgor in any manner (which additional interests shall be deemed to be part of the Pledged Equity), and the certificates representing such additional shares of capital stock, membership interests, partnership interests or other equity interests, if any, and all dividends, cash, instruments, and other property or proceeds from time to time received, receivable, or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for any or all of such shares of capital stock, membership interests, partnership interests or other equity interests; and

(d) The rents, issues, profits, returns, income, allocations, distributions and proceeds of and from any and all of the foregoing.

Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, the Pledged Company is hereby authorized and directed (i) to register on its books the undersigned Pledgor's pledge of the Pledged Collateral to the Collateral Agent, (ii) to make direct payment to the Collateral Agent, on behalf and for the benefit of itself and the Secured Parties, for any amounts due or to become due such Pledgor, if so notified by the Collateral Agent or such Pledgor, and (iii) to otherwise comply with instructions, including, without limitation, any vote or consent originated by the Collateral Agent without further consent of such Pledgor.

The undersigned Pledgor hereby requests that the Pledged Company indicate its acceptance of this notice of and consent to Pledge Agreement and confirm its terms and provisions by signing a copy hereof where indicated on the attached page and returning the same to the Collateral Agent.

the Existing First Priority Agreement, the Notes or any other agreement or instrument referred to in this clause (b) unless such agreement or instrument expressly provides that it is not intended to be and is not a First Priority Agreement hereunder (a “Replacement First Priority Agreement”). Any reference to the First Priority Agreement hereunder shall be deemed a reference to any First Priority Agreement then extant.

SECTION 2. Lien Priorities.

2.1 Subordination of Liens. (a) Any and all Liens on assets of any Loan Party now existing or hereafter created or arising in favor of any Second Priority Secured Party securing the Second Priority Obligations, regardless of how acquired, whether by grant, statute, operation of law, subrogation or otherwise are expressly junior in priority, operation and effect to any and all Liens on assets of any Loan Party now existing or hereafter created or arising in favor of the First Priority Secured Parties securing the First Priority Obligations, notwithstanding (i) anything to the contrary contained in any agreement or filing to which any Second Priority Secured Party may now or hereafter be a party, and regardless of the time, order or method of grant, attachment, recording or perfection of any financing statements or other security interests, assignments, pledges, deeds, mortgages and other liens, charges or encumbrances or any defect or deficiency or alleged defect or deficiency in any of the foregoing, (ii) any provision of the Uniform Commercial Code or any applicable law or any First Priority Document or Second Priority Document or any other circumstance whatsoever and (iii) the fact that any such Liens in favor of any First Priority Secured Party securing any of the First Priority Obligations are (x) subordinated to any Lien securing any obligation of any Loan Party other than the Second Priority Obligations or (y) otherwise subordinated, voided, avoided, invalidated or lapsed.

(b) The First Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the other First Priority Secured Parties, acknowledges and agrees that the Second Priority Representative on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, has been granted Liens upon all of the Common Collateral, and the First Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the other First Priority Secured Parties, hereby consents thereto. The subordination of Liens on assets of any Loan Party by the Second Priority Representative in favor of the First Priority Representative shall not be deemed to subordinate such Liens of the Second Priority Representative (or any Second Priority Secured Party) to any Liens other than (x) the Liens of the First Priority Secured Parties securing the First Priority Obligations and (y) Liens that are permitted under the First Priority Documents to be senior to the First Priority Liens, and (z) Liens permitted pursuant to Section 5 hereof.

2.2 Nature of First Priority Obligations. The Second Priority Representative on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties acknowledges that in the event the First Priority Obligations include debt that is revolving in nature the amount of First Priority Obligations that may be outstanding at any time or from time to time may be increased or reduced and subsequently reborrowed, and that the terms of the First Priority Obligations may be modified, extended or amended from time to time, and that the aggregate amount of the First Priority Obligations may be increased, replaced or refinanced, in each event, without notice to or consent by the Second Priority Secured Parties and without affecting the provisions hereof but only so long as any such obligations are permitted to be incurred pursuant to the terms hereof or of the Second Priority Documents as in effect on the date of this Agreement. The lien priorities provided in Section 2.1 shall not be altered or otherwise affected by any such amendment, modification, supplement, extension, repayment, reborrowing, increase, replacement, renewal, restatement or refinancing of either the First Priority Obligations or the Second Priority Obligations, or any portion thereof.

2.3 Agreements Regarding Actions to Perfect Liens. (a) The Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, agrees that each patent, trademark or copyright filing or other filings or recordings (other than Uniform Commercial Code financing statements) filed or recorded by or on behalf of the Second Priority Representative in respect of applicable Common Collateral shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, contain the following notation: "The lien created hereby on the property described herein is junior and subordinate to the lien on such property created by any agreement, filing or recording now or hereafter granted to The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as Collateral Agent (under the First Priority Documents), and its successors and assigns, in such property, in accordance with the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement dated as of January 30, 2012, among THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON TRUST COMPANY, N.A. as First Priority Representative, WILMINGTON TRUST, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as Second Priority Representative, ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH LLC, as Borrower, and the other Loan Parties referred to therein, as amended from time to time."

(b) The Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, agrees that all mortgages, deeds of trust, deeds and similar instruments now or hereafter filed against real property comprising Common Collateral in favor of or for the benefit of the Second Priority Representative and the other Second Priority Secured Parties shall contain the following notation: "The lien created by this mortgage on the property described herein is junior and subordinate to the lien on such property created by any mortgage, deed of trust or similar instrument now or hereafter granted to The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as Collateral Agent (under the First Priority Documents), and its successors and assigns, in such property, in accordance with the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement dated as of January 30, 2012, among THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON TRUST COMPANY, N.A. as First Priority Representative, WILMINGTON TRUST, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as Second Priority Representative, ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH LLC, and the other Loan Parties referred to therein, as amended from time to time."

(c) The First Priority Representative hereby acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent that it holds, or a third party holds on its behalf, physical possession of or "control" (as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code) over Common Collateral pursuant to the First Priority Security Documents, such possession or control is also for the benefit of, and the First Priority Representative or such third party holds such possession or control as bailee and agent for, the Second Priority Representative and the other Second Priority Secured Parties solely to the extent required to perfect their security interest in such Common Collateral (such bailment and agency for perfection being intended, among other things, to satisfy the requirements of Sections 8-301(a)(2) and 9-313(c) of the Uniform Commercial Code). Nothing in the preceding sentence shall be construed to impose any duty on the First Priority Representative (or any third party acting on its behalf) with respect to such Common Collateral or provide the Second Priority Representative or any other Second Priority Secured Party with any rights with respect to such Common Collateral beyond those specified in this Agreement and the Second Priority Security Documents, provided that as soon as practicable after the occurrence of the events described in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of the definition of the First Priority Obligations Payment Date, the First Priority Representative shall (i) deliver, at the Borrower's sole cost and expense, the Common Collateral in its possession or control together with any necessary endorsements (x) first, to the Second Priority Representative to the extent any Second Priority Obligations remain outstanding and (y) second, to the Borrower to the extent no First Priority Obligations or Second Priority Obligations remain outstanding, or (ii) direct and deliver such Common Collateral as a court of competent jurisdiction otherwise directs, and provided, further, that the provisions of this Agreement are intended solely to govern the respective Lien priorities as between the First Priority Secured Parties and the Second Priority Secured Parties and shall not impose on the First Priority Secured Parties any obligations in respect of the disposition of any Common Collateral (or any proceeds thereof) that would conflict with prior perfected Liens or any claims thereon in favor of any other Person that is not a Secured Party.

(d) To the extent that any deposit account or securities account of any Loan Party is subject to a control agreement in favor of the First Priority Representative, the First Priority Representative will act as bailee and agent for the Second Priority Representative solely to the extent required to perfect the Liens of the Second Priority Secured Parties in such deposit accounts and securities accounts and the cash and other assets therein. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall be construed to impose any duty on the First Priority Representative (or any third party acting on its behalf) with respect to such Common Collateral or provide the Second Priority Representative or any other Second Priority Secured Party with any rights with respect to such Common Collateral beyond those specified in this Agreement and the Second Priority Security Documents. Unless the Second Priority Liens on such First Priority Collateral shall have been or concurrently are released, after the First Priority Obligations Payment Date, the First Priority Representative shall cooperate with the Loan Parties and the Second Priority Representative (at the expense of the Loan Parties) in permitting control of any deposit accounts and securities accounts to be transferred to the Second Priority Representative (or for other arrangements with respect to each such deposit account and securities account reasonably satisfactory to the Second Priority Representative and in accordance with the Second Priority Documents to be made).

2.4 No New Liens. So long as the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has not occurred, whether or not an Insolvency Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Loan Party the parties hereto agree that (a) there shall be no Lien, and no Loan Party shall have any right to create any Lien, on any assets of any Loan Party securing any Second Priority Obligation if these same assets are not subject to, and do not become subject to, a Lien securing the First Priority Obligations and (b) there shall be no Lien, and no Loan Party shall have any right to create any Lien, on any assets of any Loan Party securing any First Priority Obligation if these same assets are not subject to, and do not become subject to, a Lien securing the Second Priority Obligations. To the extent that the foregoing provisions are not complied with for any reason, without limiting any other rights and remedies available to the First Priority Secured Parties, the Second Priority Representative and the other Second Priority Secured Parties agree that any amounts received by or distributed to any of them pursuant to or as a result of Liens granted in contravention of this Section 2.4 shall be subject to Section 4.1.

2.5 Prohibition on Contesting Liens. Each of the Second Priority Representative, for itself and on behalf of each of the Second Priority Secured Parties, and the First Priority Representative, for itself and on behalf of each of the First Priority Secured Parties, agrees that it will not (and hereby waives any right to) object to or contest or support any other Person in objecting to or contesting, in any proceeding (including without limitation, any Insolvency Proceeding), the validity, extent, perfection, priority or enforceability of a Lien held by or on behalf of any of the First Priority Secured Parties in the First Priority Collateral or by or on behalf of any of the Second Priority Secured Parties in the Second Priority Collateral, as the case may be, or the provisions of this Agreement; provided, that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent or impair the rights of the First Priority Representative, any First Priority Secured Party, the Second Priority Representative or any Second Priority Secured Party to enforce this Agreement, including the provisions of this Agreement relating to the priority of the Liens securing the First Priority Obligations as provided in Sections 2.1 and 3.1. Notwithstanding any failure by any First Priority Secured Party or Second Priority Secured Party to perfect its security interests in the Common Collateral or any avoidance, invalidation or subordination by any third party or court of competent jurisdiction of the security interests in the Common Collateral granted to the First Priority Secured Parties or the Second Priority Secured Parties, the priority and rights as between the First Priority Secured Parties and the Second Priority Secured Parties with respect to the Common Collateral shall be as set forth herein.

SECTION 3. Enforcement Rights.

3.1 Exclusive Enforcement. Until the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has occurred, whether or not an Insolvency Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Loan Party, the First Priority Secured Parties shall have the exclusive right to take and continue any Enforcement Action with respect to the Common Collateral, without any consultation with or consent of any Second Priority Secured Party, but subject to the provisos set forth in Sections 3.2 and 5.1. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a default or an event of default under the First Priority Documents, the First Priority Representative and the other First Priority Secured Parties may take and continue any Enforcement Action with respect to the First Priority Obligations and the Common Collateral in such order and manner as they may determine in their sole discretion.

3.2 Standstill and Waivers. The Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, agrees that, until the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to the proviso set forth in Section 5.1:

(a) they will not take or cause to be taken any Enforcement Action;

(b) they will not take or cause to be taken any action, the purpose or effect of which is to make any Lien in respect of any Second Priority Obligation pari passu with or senior to, or to give any Second Priority Secured Party any preference or priority relative to, the Liens with respect to the First Priority Obligations or the First Priority Secured Parties with respect to any of the Common Collateral;

(c) they will not contest, oppose, object to, interfere with, hinder or delay, in any manner, whether by judicial proceedings (including without limitation the filing of an Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any Loan Party) or otherwise, any foreclosure, sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of the Common Collateral by any First Priority Secured Party or any other Enforcement Action taken (or any forbearance from taking any Enforcement Action) by or on behalf of any First Priority Secured Party;

(d) they have no right to (i) direct either the First Priority Representative or any other First Priority Secured Party to exercise any right, remedy or power with respect to the Common Collateral or pursuant to the First Priority Security Documents or (ii) consent or object to the exercise by the First Priority Representative or any other First Priority Secured Party of any right, remedy or power with respect to the Common Collateral or pursuant to the First Priority Security Documents or to the timing or manner in which any such right is exercised or not exercised (or, to the extent they may have any such right described in this clause (d), whether as a junior lien creditor or otherwise, they hereby irrevocably waive such right);

(e) they will not institute any suit or other proceeding or assert in any suit, Insolvency Proceeding or other proceeding any claim against any First Priority Secured Party seeking damages from or other relief by way of specific performance, injunction or otherwise, with respect to, and no First Priority Secured Party shall be liable for, any action taken or omitted to be taken by any First Priority Secured Party with respect to the Common Collateral or pursuant to the First Priority Documents; and provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, any Second Priority Secured Party may exercise its rights and remedies in respect of Common Collateral under the Second Priority Security Documents or applicable law after the passage of a period of 150 days (the “Standstill Period”) from the first date of delivery of a notice in writing to the First Priority Representative and the Borrower of any Second Priority Secured Party’s intention to exercise such rights and remedies in respect of Common Collateral, which notice may only be delivered following the occurrence of and during the continuance of an “Event of Default” under and as defined in the Second Priority Agreement; provided, further, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall any Second Priority Secured Party exercise or continue to exercise any such rights or remedies if, notwithstanding the expiration of the Standstill Period, (i) the First Priority Representative or any First Priority Secured Parties to the extent constituting the Required Holders (as defined in the Existing First Priority Agreement as of the date hereof) shall have commenced and be diligently pursuing in good faith the exercise of any of its rights and remedies with respect to all or any material portion of the Common Collateral or (ii) an Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any Loan Party shall have been commenced; and provided, further, that in any Insolvency Proceeding commenced by or against any Loan Party, the Second Priority Representative and the Second Priority Secured Parties may take any action expressly permitted by Section 5.

Notwithstanding the foregoing contained in this Section 3.2, the Second Priority Representative and the Second Priority Secured Parties may:

- (1) take any action (not adverse to the priority status of the Liens on the Common Collateral, or the rights of any First Priority Representative or the First Priority Secured Parties to exercise remedies in respect thereof or the agreements set forth in Section 2) in order to create, perfect, preserve or protect its Lien on the Common Collateral;
- (2) file any necessary responsive or defensive pleadings in opposition to any motion, claim, adversary proceeding or other pleading made by any Person objecting to or otherwise seeking the disallowance of the claims of the Second Priority Secured Parties, including any claims secured by the Common Collateral, if any, in each case in a manner that is not inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the express terms of this Agreement;
- (3) file any pleadings, objections, motions or agreements or take any positions that assert rights or interests available to unsecured creditors of the Loan Parties arising under either any Insolvency Proceeding or applicable non-bankruptcy law, in each case in a manner that is not inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the express terms of this Agreement;
- (4) vote on any plan of reorganization, file any proof of claim or statement of interest, make other filings and make any arguments and motions that are, in each case, in a manner that is not inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the express terms of this Agreement, with respect to the Second Priority Obligations and the Common Collateral;
- (5) exercise any of its rights or remedies with respect to the Common Collateral after the termination of the Standstill Period to the extent permitted by this Section 3.2;
- (6) present a cash or credit bid (in the case of any such credit bid, so long as such bid provides for payment in full of the First Priority Obligations and the occurrence of the events described in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of the definition of the First Priority Obligations Payment Date) at any Section 363 hearing or with respect to any other Common Collateral disposition; and

- (7) bid for or purchase Common Collateral at any private or judicial foreclosure upon such Common Collateral initiated by the First Priority Representative or any of the First Priority Secured Parties.

3.3 Judgment Creditors. In the event that any Second Priority Secured Party becomes a judgment lien creditor as a result of its enforcement of its rights as an unsecured creditor, such judgment lien shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement for all purposes (including in relation to the First Priority Liens and the First Priority Obligations) to the same extent as all other Liens securing the Second Priority Obligations are subject to the terms of this Agreement.

3.4 No Additional Rights For the Loan Parties Hereunder. Except as provided in Section 3.5, if any First Priority Secured Party or Second Priority Secured Party shall enforce its rights or remedies in violation of the terms of this Agreement, no Loan Party shall be entitled to use such violation as a defense to any action by any First Priority Secured Party or Second Priority Secured Party, nor to assert such violation as a counterclaim or basis for set off or recoupment against any First Priority Secured Party or Second Priority Secured Party.

3.5 Actions Upon Breach. (a) If any Second Priority Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, commences or participates in any action or proceeding against any Loan Party or the Common Collateral, such Loan Party, with the prior written consent of the First Priority Representative, may interpose as a defense or dilatory plea the making of this Agreement, and any First Priority Secured Party may intervene and interpose such defense or plea in its or their name or in the name of such Loan Party.

(b) Should any Second Priority Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, in any way take, attempt to or threaten to take any action with respect to the Common Collateral (including, without limitation, any attempt to realize upon or enforce any remedy with respect to this Agreement), or fail to take any action required by this Agreement, any First Priority Secured Party (in its own name or in the name of the relevant Loan Party) or the relevant Loan Party may obtain relief against such Second Priority Secured Party by injunction, specific performance and/or other appropriate equitable relief, it being understood and agreed by the Second Priority Representative on behalf of each Second Priority Secured Party that (i) the First Priority Secured Parties' damages from its actions may at that time be difficult to ascertain and may be irreparable, and (ii) each Second Priority Secured Party waives any defense that the Loan Parties and/or the First Priority Secured Parties cannot demonstrate damage and/or be made whole by the awarding of damages.

3.6 Option to Purchase. (a) The First Priority Representative agrees that it will give the Second Priority Representative written notice (the "Enforcement Notice") within five business days after commencing any Enforcement Action with respect to Common Collateral or the institution of any Insolvency Proceeding (which notice shall be effective for all Enforcement Actions taken after the date of such notice so long as the First Priority Representative is diligently pursuing in good faith the exercise of its default or enforcement rights or remedies against, or diligently attempting in good faith to vacate any stay of enforcement rights of its senior Liens on a material portion of the Common Collateral, including, without limitation, all Enforcement Actions identified in such notice). Following the commencement of an Enforcement Action or the institution of any Insolvency Proceeding by the First Priority Representative or any other First Priority Secured Party, any Second Priority Secured Party shall have the option, by irrevocable written notice (the "Purchase Notice") delivered by the Second Priority Representative to the First Priority Representative at any time, to purchase all of the First Priority Obligations from the First Priority Secured Parties. If the Second Priority Representative so delivers the Purchase Notice, the First Priority Representative shall terminate any existing Enforcement Actions, and shall not take any further Enforcement Actions, provided, that the Purchase (as defined below) shall have been consummated on the date specified in the Purchase Notice in accordance with this Section 3.6. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Purchase is not consummated on or before the date specified in the Purchase Notice for any reason, the First Priority Secured Parties shall be entitled to recommence taking Enforcement Actions. In addition, following any such failure the Second Priority Secured Parties shall not be entitled to exercise any right pursuant to this Section 3.6 to Purchase the First Priority Obligations at any time thereafter, unless agreed to by the First Priority Secured Parties.

(b) On the date specified by the Second Priority Representative in the Purchase Notice (which shall be a business day not less than five business days, nor more than ten business days, after receipt by the First Priority Representative of the Purchase Notice), the First Priority Secured Parties shall, subject to any required approval of any court or other governmental authority then in effect, sell to the Second Priority Secured Parties electing to purchase pursuant to Section 3.6(a) (the “Purchasing Parties”), and the Purchasing Parties shall purchase (the “Purchase”) from the First Priority Secured Parties, the First Priority Obligations; provided, that the First Priority Obligations purchased shall not include any rights of First Priority Secured Parties with respect to indemnification and other obligations of the Loan Parties under the First Priority Documents that are expressly stated to survive the termination of the First Priority Documents (the “Surviving Obligations”).

(c) Without limiting the obligations of the Loan Parties under the First Priority Documents to the First Priority Secured Parties with respect to the Surviving Obligations (which shall not be transferred in connection with the Purchase), on the date of the Purchase, the Purchasing Parties shall (i) pay to the First Priority Secured Parties as the purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) therefor the full amount of all First Priority Obligations then outstanding and unpaid (including principal, interest (including, to the extent applicable, interest at the default rate), Post-Petition Interest, fees, yield-maintenance amounts (if any), breakage costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, and, in the case of any Hedging Obligations, the amount that would be payable by the relevant Loan Party thereunder if it were to terminate such Hedging Obligations on the date of the Purchase or, if not terminated, an amount determined by the relevant First Priority Secured Party to be necessary to collateralize its credit risk arising out of such Hedging Obligations), (ii) furnish cash collateral (the “Cash Collateral”) to the First Priority Secured Parties in such amounts as the relevant First Priority Secured Parties determine is reasonably necessary to secure such First Priority Secured Parties in connection with any outstanding letters of credit (not to exceed 105% of the aggregate undrawn face amount of such letters of credit), (iii) agree to reimburse the First Priority Secured Parties for any loss, cost, damage or expense (including attorneys’ fees and expenses) in connection with any fees, costs or expenses related to any checks or other payments provisionally credited to the First Priority Obligations and/or as to which the First Priority Secured Parties have not yet received final payment and (iv) agree, after written request from the First Priority Representative, to reimburse the First Priority Secured Parties in respect of indemnification obligations of the Loan Parties under the First Priority Documents as to matters or circumstances known to the Purchasing Parties at the time of the Purchase which could reasonably be expected to result in any loss, cost, damage or expense to any of the First Priority Secured Parties, provided that, in no event shall any Purchasing Party have any liability for such amounts in excess of proceeds of Common Collateral received by the Purchasing Parties.

(d) The Purchase Price and Cash Collateral shall be remitted by wire transfer in immediately available funds to such account of the First Priority Representative as it shall designate to the Purchasing Parties. The First Priority Representative shall, promptly following its receipt thereof, distribute the amounts received by it in respect of the Purchase Price to the First Priority Secured Parties in accordance with the First Priority Documents. Interest shall be calculated to but excluding the day on which the Purchase occurs if the amounts so paid by the Purchasing Parties to the account designated by the First Priority Representative are received in such account prior to 12:00 Noon, New York City time, and interest shall be calculated to and including such day if the amounts so paid by the Purchasing Parties to the account designated by the First Priority Representative are received in such account later than 12:00 Noon, New York City time.

(e) The Purchase shall be made without representation or warranty of any kind by the First Priority Secured Parties as to the First Priority Obligations, the Common Collateral or otherwise and without recourse to the First Priority Secured Parties, except that each First Priority Secured Party shall severally represent and warrant: (i) the amount of the First Priority Obligations being purchased from such First Priority Secured Party, (ii) that such First Priority Secured Party owns the First Priority Obligations held by it free and clear of any liens or encumbrances and (iii) that such First Priority Secured Party has the right to assign the First Priority Obligations held by it and the assignment is duly authorized.

3.7 Rights as Unsecured Creditors. The Second Priority Representative and the Second Priority Secured Parties may exercise rights and remedies available to unsecured creditors against the Loan Parties that have granted Liens to secure the Second Priority Obligations in accordance with the terms of the Second Priority Documents and applicable law to the extent that such exercise is not inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the express terms of this Agreement; provided that in the event that any Second Priority Secured Party becomes an attachment or a judgment Lien creditor in respect of the Common Collateral as a result of its enforcement of its rights as an unsecured creditor with respect to the Second Priority Obligations, such attachment or judgment Lien shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement for all purposes (including in relation to the First Priority Obligations) as the other Liens on Common Collateral securing the Second Priority Obligations are subject to this Agreement.

3.8 Second Priority Interest, Principal, Etc. Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the receipt by the Second Priority Representative or any Second Priority Secured Parties of payments (including in cash) of interest, principal and other amounts owed in respect of the Second Priority Obligations unless such receipt is (x) the direct or indirect result of the exercise by the Second Priority Representative or any Second Priority Secured Parties of rights or remedies with respect to, or enforcement of, any Lien on Common Collateral held by any of them, which exercise or enforcement is inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the express terms of this Agreement or (y) from the proceeds of an Enforcement Action required to be applied in accordance with Section 4.1 below. Nothing in this Agreement impairs or otherwise adversely affects any rights or remedies the First Priority Representative or the First Priority Secured Parties may have with respect to the Common Collateral.

3.9 Notice By First Priority Representative. The First Priority Representative shall render to Second Priority Representative written notice of the occurrence of the events described in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of the definition of "First Priority Obligations Payment Date" as soon as practicable (and in any event within two business days) following the occurrence thereof, provided that such notice shall not be required in connection with the consummation of a Replacement First Priority Agreement.

SECTION 4. Application Of Proceeds Of Common Collateral; Dispositions And Releases Of Common Collateral; Inspection and Insurance.

4.1 Application of Proceeds; Turnover Provisions. All proceeds of Common Collateral (including without limitation any interest earned thereon) resulting from the sale, collection or other disposition of Common Collateral in connection with an Enforcement Action or the exercise by any First Priority Secured Party or any Second Priority Secured Party of any of its respective rights and remedies with respect to Common Collateral, whether or not pursuant to an Insolvency Proceeding, shall be distributed as follows: first to the First Priority Representative for application to the First Priority Obligations in accordance with the terms of the First Priority Documents, until the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has occurred and thereafter, to the Second Priority Representative for application in accordance with the Second Priority Documents. Until the occurrence of the First Priority Obligations Payment Date, any Common Collateral, including without limitation any such Common Collateral constituting proceeds, that may be received by any Second Priority Secured Party in violation of this Agreement shall be segregated and held in trust and promptly paid over to the First Priority Representative, for the benefit of the First Priority Secured Parties, in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements, and each Second Priority Secured Party hereby authorizes the First Priority Representative to make any such endorsements as agent for the Second Priority Representative (which authorization, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable).

4.2 Releases of Second Priority Lien. (a) Upon any release, sale or disposition of Common Collateral (other than in connection with the occurrence of the First Priority Obligations Payment Date) permitted pursuant to the terms of the First Priority Documents that results in the release of the First Priority Lien on any Common Collateral (excluding any sale or other disposition that is not permitted by the Second Priority Documents unless such sale or disposition is consummated in connection with an Enforcement Action or consummated after the institution of an Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any Loan Party), the Second Priority Lien on such Common Collateral (excluding any portion of the proceeds of such Common Collateral remaining after the First Priority Obligations Payment Date occurs) shall be automatically and unconditionally released with no further consent or action of any Person.

(b) The Second Priority Representative shall promptly execute and deliver such release documents and instruments and shall take such further actions as the First Priority Representative shall request to evidence any release of the Second Priority Lien described in paragraph (a). The Second Priority Representative hereby appoints the First Priority Representative and any officer or duly authorized person of the First Priority Representative, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power of attorney in the place and stead of the Second Priority Representative and in the name of the Second Priority Representative or in the First Priority Representative's own name, from time to time, in the First Priority Representative's sole discretion, for the purposes of carrying out the terms of this Section 4.2, to take any and all appropriate action and to execute and deliver any and all documents and instruments as may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this Section 4.2, including, without limitation, any financing statements, endorsements, assignments, releases or other documents or instruments of transfer (which appointment, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable).

4.3 Inspection Rights and Insurance. (a) Any First Priority Secured Party and its representatives and invitees may at any time inspect, repossess, remove and otherwise deal with the Common Collateral in accordance with the terms of the First Priority Documents, and the First Priority Representative may advertise and conduct public auctions or private sales of the Common Collateral, in each case without notice to, the involvement of or interference by any Second Priority Secured Party or liability to any Second Priority Secured Party; provided that the First Priority Representative shall provide the Second Priority Representative with notice of any sales.

(b) Until the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the First Priority Representative will have the sole and exclusive right (i) to be named as additional insured and loss payee under any insurance policies maintained from time to time by any Loan Party (except that the Second Priority Representative shall have the right to be named as additional insured and loss payee so long as its second lien status is identified in a manner satisfactory to the First Priority Representative); (ii) to adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering the Common Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder in accordance with the terms of the First Priority Documents; (iii) to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Common Collateral in accordance with the terms of the First Priority Documents; and (iv) to receive and apply the proceeds of any insurance (including any proceeds received under any policy of title insurance issued to any Loan Party, the First Lien Representative or the Second Lien Representative and relating to any portion of the Common Collateral) or condemnation award to the First Priority Obligations in accordance with the terms of the First Priority Documents. Until the occurrence of the First Priority Obligations Payment Date, any such insurance proceeds that may be received by any Second Priority Secured Party in violation of this Agreement shall be segregated and held in trust and promptly paid over to the First Priority Representative, for the benefit of the First Priority Secured Parties, in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements, and each Second Priority Secured Party hereby authorizes the First Priority Representative to make any such endorsements as agent for the Second Priority Representative (which authorization, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable).

4.4 Subrogation. With respect to the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets that any Second Priority Secured Party pays over to the First Priority Secured Parties under the terms of this Agreement, the Second Priority Secured Parties shall be subrogated to the rights of the First Priority Secured Parties; provided that, the Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the Second Priority Creditors, hereby agrees not to assert or enforce all such rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has occurred. Each Loan Party acknowledges and agrees that the value of any payments or distributions in cash, property or other assets received by any Second Priority Secured Party that are paid over to the First Priority Secured Parties pursuant to this Agreement shall not reduce any of the Second Priority Obligations.

SECTION 5. Insolvency Proceedings.

5.1 Filing of Motions. Until the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the Second Priority Representative agrees on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties that no Second Priority Secured Party shall, in or in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any Loan Party, file any pleadings or motions, take any position at any hearing or proceeding of any nature, or otherwise take any action whatsoever, in each case that (a) violates, or is prohibited by, this Agreement, (b) asserts any right, benefit or privilege that arises in favor of the Second Priority Representative or Second Priority Secured Parties in their capacity as secured creditors solely as a result of their interest in the Common Collateral or in the Second Priority Lien (unless the assertion of such right is expressly permitted by this Agreement) or (c) challenges the validity, priority, enforceability or voidability of any Liens or claims held by the First Priority Representative or any other First Priority Secured Party, or the extent to which the First Priority Obligations constitute secured claims under Section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; provided, that the Second Priority Representative may take the actions specifically set forth in Section 3.2.

The First Priority Representative agrees on behalf of itself and the other First Priority Secured Parties that no First Priority Secured Party shall, in or in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding, file any pleadings or motions, take any position at any hearing or proceeding of any nature, or otherwise take any action whatsoever, in each case that challenges the validity, priority, enforceability or voidability of any Liens or claims held by the Second Priority Representative or any other Second Priority Secured Party, or the extent to which the Second Priority Obligations constitute secured claims under Section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, except that the foregoing shall not limit the ability of any First Priority Secured Party to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

5.2 Financing Matters. Until the First Priority Obligations Payment Date has occurred, if any Loan Party becomes subject to any Insolvency Proceeding, and if the First Priority Representative or the other First Priority Secured Parties consent to the use of cash collateral under the Bankruptcy Code or provide financing to any Loan Party under the Bankruptcy Code or consent to the provision of such financing to any Loan Party by any third party that (w) is in an aggregate principal amount (including any undrawn portion of the revolving commitments thereunder and the face amount of any letters of credit issued and not reimbursed thereunder) of no more than $10,000,000, the proceeds of which are used solely by the Loan Parties (and not by, or for the benefit of, any Loan Party's affiliate which is not a Loan Party), (x) provides that the Second Priority Secured Parties retain the right to object to any ancillary agreements or arrangements regarding the cash collateral use or the financing that are materially adverse to the Second Priority Secured Parties, (y) provides the Second Priority Secured Parties with the Second Priority Required Adequate Protection, and (z) does not compel the Loan Parties to pursue any specific plan or to conduct a sale or other liquidation of the Common Collateral (any such financing that complies with such clauses (w)-(z), a "DIP Financing"), then the Second Priority Representative agrees, on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, that each Second Priority Secured Party (a) will raise no objection to, nor support any other Person objecting to, the use of such cash collateral or to such DIP Financing, (b) will not request or accept adequate protection or any other relief in connection with the use of such cash collateral or such DIP Financing except as set forth in Section 5.4 below and (c) to the extent the Liens securing the First Priority Obligations are subordinated to or pari passu with such DIP Financing will subordinate (and will be deemed hereunder to have subordinated) the Second Priority Liens (i) to such DIP Financing on the same terms as the First Priority Liens are subordinated thereto (and such subordination will not alter in any manner the terms of this Agreement), (ii) to any adequate protection provided to the First Priority Secured Parties and (iii) to any "carve-out" agreed to by the First Priority Representative or the other First Priority Secured Parties in an amount not to exceed $2,500,000, and (d) agrees that notice received two calendar days prior to the entry of an interim order approving such usage of cash collateral or approving such financing and fifteen days prior to the entry of a final order approving such usage of cash collateral or approving such financing shall be adequate notice.

5.3 Relief From the Automatic Stay. The Second Priority Representative agrees, on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, that none of them will seek relief from the automatic stay (or any analogous stay) in any Insolvency Proceeding in respect of a Loan Party or take any action in derogation thereof, in each case in respect of any Common Collateral, without the prior written consent of the First Priority Representative unless the First Priority Representative or any of the First Priority Secured Parties have concurrently sought relief from the automatic stay (or from any analogous stay) in any Insolvency Proceeding and the Second Priority Representative and/or the other Second Priority Secured Parties are not seeking relief from the automatic stay (or from any analogous stay) in any Insolvency Proceeding in order to take any Enforcement Action in any manner in violation of or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

5.4 Adequate Protection. The Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, agrees that none of them shall object, contest, or support any other Person objecting to or contesting, in respect of any Insolvency Proceeding of a Loan Party, (a) any request by the First Priority Representative or the other First Priority Secured Parties for adequate protection or any adequate protection provided to the First Priority Representative or the other First Priority Secured Parties or (b) any objection by the First Priority Representative or any other First Priority Secured Parties to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on a claim of a lack of adequate protection or (c) the payment of interest, fees, expenses or other amounts to the First Priority Representative or any other First Priority Secured Party under Section 506(b) or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. In any Insolvency Proceeding of a Loan Party, (i) if the First Priority Secured Parties (or any subset thereof) are granted adequate protection consisting of additional collateral (with replacement liens on such additional collateral) and superpriority claims in connection with any DIP Financing or use of cash collateral, then in connection with any such DIP Financing or use of cash collateral, the Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and any of the Second Priority Secured Parties, may seek or accept adequate protection consisting solely of (w) a replacement Lien on the same additional collateral, subordinated to the Liens securing the First Priority Obligations and such DIP Financing on the same basis as the other Liens securing the Second Priority Obligations are so subordinated to the First Priority Obligations under this Agreement, (x) superpriority claims junior in all respects to the superpriority claims granted to the First Priority Secured Parties, (y) payment of the fees and expenses of the Second Priority Representative and the Second Priority Secured Parties, to the extent permitted in the Second Priority Documents (the adequate protection for the Second Priority Secured Parties described in clauses (w), (x), and (y), collectively, the “Second Priority Required Adequate Protection”) and (z) subject to the right of the First Priority Secured Parties to object thereto, the payment of post-petition interest at the pre-default rate (provided, that in the case of this clause (z), that the First Priority Secured Parties have been granted adequate protection in the form of post-petition interest at a rate no lower than the pre-default rate), provided, however, that the Second Priority Representative shall have irrevocably agreed, pursuant to Section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, on behalf of itself and the Second Priority Secured Parties, in any stipulation and/or order granting such adequate protection, that such junior superpriority claims in excess of $3,000,000 may with the consent of two-thirds in amount of the Second Priority Obligations be paid under any plan of reorganization in any combination of cash, debt, equity or other property having a value on the effective date of such plan equal to the allowed amount of such claims and (ii) in the event the Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the Second Priority Secured Parties, seeks or accepts adequate protection consisting of additional collateral (with replacement liens on such additional collateral) and superpriority claims in connection with any DIP Financing or use of cash collateral with respect to an Insolvency Proceeding, and such adequate protection is granted in the form of additional collateral comprising assets of Pulitzer or any of its subsidiaries, then the Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself or any of the Second Priority Secured Parties, agrees that the First Priority Representative shall also be granted a senior Lien on such additional collateral as security for the First Priority Obligations and any such DIP Financing and that any Lien on such additional collateral securing the Second Priority Obligations shall be subordinated to the Liens on such collateral securing the First Priority Obligations and any such DIP Financing (and all Obligations relating thereto) and any other Liens granted to the First Priority Secured Parties as adequate protection, with such subordination to be on the same terms that the other Liens securing the Second Priority Obligations are subordinated to such First Priority Obligations under this Agreement. The Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the other Second Priority Secured Parties, agrees that except as expressly set forth in this Section none of them shall seek or accept adequate protection in respect of a Loan Party without the prior written consent of the First Priority Representative.

5.5 Avoidance Issues. If any First Priority Secured Party is required in any Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise to disgorge, turn over or otherwise pay to the estate of any Loan Party, because such amount was avoided or ordered to be paid or disgorged for any reason, including without limitation because it was found to be a constructively fraudulent or preferential transfer, any amount (a “Recovery”), whether received as proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of set-off or otherwise, then the First Priority Obligations shall be reinstated to the extent of such Recovery and deemed to be outstanding as if such payment had not occurred and the First Priority Obligations Payment Date shall be deemed not to have occurred. If this Agreement shall have been terminated prior to such Recovery, this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior termination shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto. The Second Priority Secured Parties agree that none of them shall be entitled to benefit from any avoidance action affecting or otherwise relating to the First Priority Liens or the Second Priority Liens, it being understood and agreed that the benefit of such avoidance action otherwise allocable to them shall instead be allocated and turned over for application in accordance with the priorities set forth in this Agreement.

5.6 Asset Dispositions in an Insolvency Proceeding. In an Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise, neither the Second Priority Representative nor any other Second Priority Secured Party shall oppose any sale or disposition of any assets of any Loan Party that is supported by the First Priority Secured Parties (or any right of the First Priority Secured Party to credit bid the First Priority Obligations in any such sale or disposition), and the Second Priority Representative and each other Second Priority Secured Party will be deemed to have consented under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (and otherwise) to any sale (and related matters) supported by the First Priority Secured Parties and to have released their Liens on such assets provided that their Liens attach to the proceeds of such assets (subject to the priorities set forth in this Agreement) and that the proceeds remaining after payment of related transaction costs and expenses are applied as a permanent reduction of the First Priority Obligations (with a corresponding reduction in the Maximum First Priority Amount). In an Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise, neither the First Priority Representative nor any other First Priority Secured Party shall oppose any right of any Second Priority Secured Party to credit bid the Second Priority Obligations in any sale or disposition, provided that such bid provides for the payment in full of the First Priority Obligations and the occurrence of the events described in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of the definition of First Priority Obligations Payment Date.

5.7 Separate Grants of Security and Separate Classification. Each of the Secured Parties and the Loan Parties acknowledges and agrees that (a) the grants of Liens on the assets of each Loan Party pursuant to the First Priority Security Documents and the Second Priority Security Documents constitute two separate and distinct grants of Liens and (b) because of, among other things, their differing rights in the Common Collateral, the First Priority Obligations and the Second Priority Obligations are fundamentally different from each other and must be separately classified in any plan of reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency Proceeding. To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, if it is held that the claims of the First Priority Secured Parties and Second Priority Secured Parties in respect of the Common Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of senior and junior secured claims), then the Second Priority Secured Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of senior and junior secured claims against the Loan Parties in respect of the Common Collateral, with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the Common Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Second Priority Secured Parties), the First Priority Secured Parties shall be entitled to receive, in addition to amounts distributed to them in respect of principal, pre-petition interest and other claims, all amounts owing in respect of Post-Petition Interest before any distribution is made in respect of the claims held by the Second Priority Secured Parties. The Second Priority Secured Parties hereby acknowledge and agree to turn over to the First Priority Secured Parties amounts otherwise received or receivable by them to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of the preceding sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Second Priority Secured Parties.

5.8 No Waivers of Rights. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit or in any way limit the First Priority Representative, the Second Priority Representative, any First Priority Secured Party, or any Second Priority Secured Party from objecting, in any Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise, to any action taken by any party not permitted hereunder.

5.9 Plans of Reorganization. Nothing in this Agreement shall impair the rights of any Second Priority Secured Party to propose, support, or vote in favor of or against any plan of reorganization or similar plan or scheme in any Insolvency Proceeding, so long as such plan or scheme is not inconsistent with, or in contravention of, the express terms of this Agreement, provided that in the case of proposing such plan of reorganization or similar plan or scheme it shall, unless otherwise approved by the First Priority Representative, provide for payment in full of the First Priority Obligations and the occurrence of the events described in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of the definition of the First Priority Obligations Payment Date.

5.10 Effectiveness in Insolvency Proceedings. This Agreement, which the parties hereto expressly acknowledge is a "subordination agreement" under section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be effective before, during and after the commencement of an Insolvency Proceeding.

SECTION 6. Security Documents.

(a) Each Loan Party and the Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the Second Priority Secured Parties, agrees that it shall not at any time execute or deliver any amendment or other modification to any of the Second Priority Documents that (x) applies with respect to any Loan Party or any Common Collateral and (y) is inconsistent with or in violation of this Agreement.

(b) Each Loan Party and the First Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the First Priority Secured Parties, agrees that it shall not at any time execute or deliver any amendment or other modification to any of the First Priority Documents inconsistent with or in violation of this Agreement.

(c) In the event the First Priority Representative enters into any amendment, waiver or consent in respect of any of the First Priority Security Documents for the purpose of adding to, or deleting from, or waiving or consenting to any departures from any provisions of, any First Priority Security Document or changing in any manner the rights of any parties thereunder, then such amendment, waiver or consent shall apply automatically to any comparable provision of the Comparable Second Priority Security Document to the extent applicable to any Loan Party and Common Collateral without the consent of or action by any Second Priority Secured Party (with all such amendments, waivers and modifications subject to the terms hereof); provided, that (i) no such amendment, waiver or consent shall have the effect of removing assets subject to the Lien of any Second Priority Security Document, except to the extent that a release of such Lien is permitted by Section 4.2, (ii) any such amendment, waiver or consent that materially and adversely affects the rights of the Second Priority Secured Parties and does not affect the First Priority Secured Parties in a like or similar manner shall not apply to the Second Priority Security Documents without the prior written consent of the Second Priority Representative, (iii) no such amendment, waiver or consent with respect to any provision applicable to the Second Priority Representative under the Second Priority Documents shall be made without the prior written consent of the Second Priority Representative and (iv) notice of such amendment, waiver or consent shall be given to the Second Priority Representative no later than 15 days after its effectiveness, provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the effectiveness and validity thereof.

SECTION 7. Reliance; Waivers; etc.

7.1 Reliance. The First Priority Documents are deemed to have been executed and delivered, and all extensions of credit thereunder are deemed to have been made or incurred, in reliance upon this Agreement. The Second Priority Representative, on behalf of itself and the Second Priority Secured Parties, expressly waives all notice of the acceptance of and reliance on this Agreement by the First Priority Secured Parties. The Second Priority Documents are deemed to have been executed and delivered and all extensions of credit related thereto are deemed to have been made or incurred, in reliance upon this Agreement. The First Priority Representative expressly waives all notices of the acceptance of and reliance by the Second Priority Representative and the Second Priority Secured Parties.

7.2 No Warranties or Liability. The Second Priority Representative and the First Priority Representative acknowledge and agree that neither has made any representation or warranty with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectibility or enforceability of any First Priority Document or any Second Priority Document. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Second Priority Representative and the First Priority Representative will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective extensions of credit to any Loan Party in accordance with law and their usual practices, modified from time to time as they deem appropriate.

7.3 No Waivers. No right or benefit of any party hereunder shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of such party or any other party hereto or by any noncompliance by any Loan Party with the terms and conditions of any of the First Priority Documents or the Second Priority Documents.

SECTION 8. Obligations Unconditional.

8.1 First Priority Obligations Unconditional. All rights and interests of the First Priority Secured Parties hereunder, and all agreements and obligations of the Second Priority Secured Parties (and, to the extent applicable, the Loan Parties) hereunder, shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

(a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any First Priority Document;

(b) any change in the time, place or manner of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any portion of the First Priority Obligations, or any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, or any refinancing, replacement, refunding or restatement of any First Priority Document;

(c) prior to the First Priority Obligations Payment Date, any exchange, release, voiding, avoidance or non-perfection of any security interest in any Common Collateral or any other collateral, or any release, amendment, waiver or other modification, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, or any refinancing, replacement, refunding or restatement of all or any portion of the First Priority Obligations or any guarantee or guaranty thereof; or

(d) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Loan Party in respect of the First Priority Obligations, or of any of the Second Priority Secured Parties, or any Loan Party, to the extent applicable, in respect of this Agreement.

8.2 Second Priority Obligations Unconditional. All rights and interests of the Second Priority Secured Parties hereunder, and all agreements and obligations of the First Priority Secured Parties (and, to the extent applicable, the Loan Parties) hereunder, shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

(a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Second Priority Document;

(b) any change in the time, place or manner of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any portion of the Second Priority Obligations, or any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, or any refinancing, replacement, refunding or restatement of any Second Priority Document;

(c) any exchange, release, voiding, avoidance or non-perfection of any security interest in any Common Collateral or any other collateral, or any release, amendment, waiver or other modification, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, or any refinancing, replacement, refunding or restatement of all or any portion of the Second Priority Obligations or any guarantee or guaranty thereof; or

(d) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Loan Party in respect of the Second Priority Obligations or any First Priority Secured Parties or any Loan Party, to the extent applicable, in respect of this Agreement.

SECTION 9. Miscellaneous.

9.1 In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any First Priority Document or any Second Priority Document (to the extent applicable to any Loan Party or any Common Collateral), the provisions of this Agreement shall govern. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto acknowledge that the terms of this Agreement are not intended to and shall not, as between the Loan Parties and the Secured Parties, negate, waive or cancel any rights granted to, or carry liability or obligation of, any Loan Party in the First Priority Documents and the Second Priority Documents or impose any additional obligations on the Loan Parties (other than as expressly set forth herein).

9.2 Continuing Nature of Provisions. This Agreement shall continue to be effective, and shall not be revocable by any party hereto, until the First Priority Obligation Payment Date shall have occurred. This is a continuing agreement and the First Priority Secured Parties and the Second Priority Secured Parties may continue, at any time and without notice to the other parties hereto, to extend credit and other financial accommodations, lend monies and provide indebtedness to, or for the benefit of, Borrower or any other Loan Party on the faith hereof.

9.3 Amendments; Waivers. No amendment or modification of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the First Priority Representative (with the consent of the Required Holders under and as defined in the First Priority Agreement) and the Second Priority Representative (with the consent of the Required Lenders under and as defined in the Second Priority Term Loan Agreement or other then extant Second Priority Agreement), and, in the case of amendments or modifications of Sections 3.5, 3.6, 9.3, 9.5 or 9.6 that directly affect the rights or duties of any Loan Party, such Loan Party, and each waiver, if any, shall be a waiver only with respect to the specific instance involved and shall in no way impair the rights of the parties making such waiver or the obligations of the other parties to such party in any other respect or at any other time.

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, no consent of any Loan Party shall be required for amendments, modifications or waivers of any other provisions of this Agreement other than those that directly affect any obligation or right of the Loan Parties hereunder or under the First Priority Documents or the Second Priority Documents or that would impose any additional obligations on the Loan Parties.

9.4 Information Concerning Financial Condition of the Borrower and the other Loan Parties. Each of the Second Priority Representative and the First Priority Representative hereby assume responsibility for keeping itself informed of the financial condition of the Borrower and each of the other Loan Parties and all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the First Priority Obligations or the Second Priority Obligations. The Second Priority Representative and the First Priority Representative hereby agree that no party shall have any duty to advise any other party of information known to it regarding such condition or any such circumstances. In the event the Second Priority Representative or the First Priority Representative, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any information to any other party to this Agreement, it shall be under no obligation (a) to provide any such information to such other party or any other party on any subsequent occasion, (b) to undertake any investigation not a part of its regular business routine, or (c) to disclose any other information.

9.5 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the law of the State of New York, except as otherwise required by mandatory provisions of law and except to the extent that remedies provided by the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York are governed by the laws of such jurisdiction.

9.6 Submission to Jurisdiction. (a) Each First Priority Secured Party, each Second Priority Secured Party and each Loan Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the State of New York sitting in New York County and of the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each such party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such Federal court. Each such party agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any First Priority Secured Party or Second Priority Secured Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding against any Loan Party or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) Each First Priority Secured Party, each Second Priority Secured Party and each Loan Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so (i) any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement in any court referred to in paragraph (a) of this Section and (ii) the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding.

(c) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 9.7. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

9.7 Notices. Unless otherwise specifically provided herein, any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be in writing and may be personally served, teletyped, or sent by overnight express courier service or United States mail and shall be deemed to have been given when delivered in person or by courier service, upon receipt of a teletype or five days after deposit in the United States mail (certified, with postage prepaid and properly addressed). For the purposes hereof, the addresses of the parties hereto (until notice of a change thereof is delivered as provided in this Section) shall be as set forth below each party's name on the signature pages hereof, or, as to each party, at such other address as may be designated by such party in a written notice to all of the other parties.

9.8 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each of the parties hereto and each of the First Priority Secured Parties and Second Priority Secured Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and nothing herein is intended, or shall be construed to give, any other Person any right, remedy or claim under, to or in respect of this Agreement or any Common Collateral.

9.9 Headings. Section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

9.10 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction.

9.11 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by email or teletype shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement. This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by each party hereto.

9.12 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

9.13 Additional Loan Parties. Each Person that becomes a Loan Party after the date hereof shall promptly become a party to this Agreement by execution and delivery by such Person of a joinder agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the First Priority Representative and the Second Priority Representative

9.14 Incorporation by Reference. In connection with their execution and acting hereunder, the Company Parties acknowledge that (i) the First Priority Representative is entitled to all rights, privileges, benefits, immunities, protections and indemnities provided to it as Collateral Agent under (and as defined in) the First Priority Documents, and (ii) the Second Priority Representative is entitled to all rights, privileges, benefits, immunities, protections and indemnities provided to it as Collateral Agent under (and as defined in) the Second Priority Documents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

INTERCOMPANY SUBORDINATION AGREEMENT

THIS INTERCOMPANY SUBORDINATION AGREEMENT (as amended, restated, modified and/or supplemented from time to time, this "Agreement"), dated as of January 30, 2012 made by each of the undersigned (each, a "Party" and, together with any entity that becomes a party to this Agreement pursuant to Section 9 hereof, the "Parties") and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as collateral agent (in such capacity, together with any successor collateral agent, the "Collateral Agent"), for the benefit of the Senior Creditors (as defined below). Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Loan Agreement referred to below.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Lee Enterprises, Incorporated (the "Borrower"), the lenders from time to time party thereto (the "Lenders"), Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. and Goldman Sachs Lending Partners LLC, as Joint Lead Arrangers and Joint Book Running Managers, and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as administrative agent (together with any successor administrative agent, the "Administrative Agent"), have entered into a Second Lien Loan Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 providing for the making (or deemed making) and continuation of Loans to the Borrower, all as contemplated therein (with the Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent being herein called the "Secured Creditors") (as used herein, the term "Loan Agreement" means the Second Lien Loan Agreement described above in this paragraph, as the same may be amended, restated, modified, supplemented, extended, renewed, refinanced, replaced, or refunded from time to time, and including any agreement extending the maturity of, or refinancing or restructuring (including, but not limited to, the inclusion of additional borrowers or guarantors thereunder or any increase in the amount borrowed) all or any portion of, the indebtedness under such agreement or any successor agreement, whether or not with the same agent, trustee, representative, lenders or holders; provided that, with respect to any subsequent agreement providing for the refinancing or replacement of indebtedness under the Loan Agreement, such agreement shall only be treated as, or as part of, the Loan Agreement hereunder if (i) either (A) all obligations under the Loan Agreement being refinanced or replaced shall be paid in full at the time of such refinancing or replacement or (B) the Required Lenders shall have consented in writing to the refinancing or replacement indebtedness being treated as indebtedness pursuant to the Loan Agreement, and (ii) a notice to the effect that the refinancing or replacement indebtedness shall be treated as issued under the Loan Agreement shall be delivered by the Borrower to the Collateral Agent);

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Subsidiaries Guaranty, each Subsidiary Guarantor has jointly and severally guaranteed to the Secured Creditors the payment when due of all Guaranteed Obligations (as defined in the Subsidiaries Guaranty);

WHEREAS, it is a condition precedent to the extensions of credit under the Loan Agreement that this Agreement be executed and delivered by the original Parties hereto;

WHEREAS, additional Parties may from time to time become parties hereto in order to allow for certain extensions of credit in accordance with the requirements of the Loan Agreement; and

WHEREAS, each of the original Parties desires to execute this Agreement to satisfy the conditions described in the immediately preceding paragraphs.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the parties hereto, the Parties and the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Senior Creditors) hereby agree as follows:

1. The Subordinated Debt (as defined in Section 7 hereof) and all payments of principal, interest and all other amounts thereunder are hereby, and shall continue to be, subject and subordinate in right of payment to the prior payment in full, in cash, of all Senior Indebtedness to the extent, and in the manner, set forth herein. The foregoing shall apply notwithstanding the availability of collateral to the Senior Creditors or the holders of Subordinated Debt or the actual date and time of execution, delivery, recordation, filing or perfection of any security interests granted with respect to the Senior Indebtedness or the Subordinated Debt, or the lien or priority of payment thereof, and in any instance wherein the Senior Indebtedness or any claim for the Senior Indebtedness (as defined in Section 7 hereof) is subordinated, avoided or disallowed, in whole or in part, under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable federal, foreign, state or local law. In the event of a proceeding, whether voluntary or involuntary, for insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, dissolution, bankruptcy or other similar proceeding pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable federal, foreign, state or local law (each, a "Bankruptcy Proceeding"), the Senior Indebtedness shall include all interest accrued on the Senior Indebtedness, in accordance with and at the rates specified in the Senior Indebtedness, both for periods before and for periods after the commencement of any of such proceedings, even if the claim for such interest is not allowed pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law.

2. Each Party (as a lender of any Subordinated Debt) hereby agrees that until the Senior Indebtedness Termination Date shall have occurred:

(a) Such Party shall not, without the prior written consent of the Required Senior Creditors (as defined in Section 7 hereof), which consent may be withheld or conditioned in the Required Senior Creditors' sole discretion, commence, or join or participate in, any Enforcement Action (as defined in Section 7 hereof).

(b) In the event that (i) all or any portion of any Senior Indebtedness remaining unpaid after it becomes due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise), (ii) any Event of Default under the Loan Agreement or any event of default under, and as defined in, any other Senior Indebtedness (or the documentation governing the same), then exists or would result from such payment on the Subordinated Debt (including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 11.09 of the Loan Agreement), (iii) such Party receives any payment or prepayment of principal, interest or any other amount, in whole or in part, of (or with respect to) the Subordinated Debt in violation of the terms of the Loan Agreement or any other Senior Indebtedness (or the documentation governing the same) or (iv) any distribution, division or application, partial or complete, voluntary or involuntary, by operation of law or otherwise, is made of all or any part of the property, assets or business of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or the proceeds thereof, in whatever form, to any creditor or creditors of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or to any holder of indebtedness of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or by reason of any liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of the Borrower, any of its Subsidiaries or their respective businesses, or of any receivership or custodianship for the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries or of all or substantially all of their respective property, or of any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings or assignment for the benefit of creditors or any proceeding by or against the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries for any relief under any bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency law or laws, federal, foreign, state or local, or any law, federal, foreign, state or local relating to the relief of debtors, readjustment of indebtedness, reorganization, composition or extension, then, and in any such event, any payment or distribution of any kind or character, whether in cash, property or securities, which shall be payable or deliverable with respect to any or all of the Subordinated Debt or which has been received by any Party shall be held in trust by such Party for the benefit of the Senior Creditors and shall forthwith be paid or delivered directly to the Senior Creditors for application to the payment of the Senior Indebtedness (after giving effect to the relative priorities of such Senior Indebtedness) to the extent necessary to make payment in full in cash of all sums due under the Senior Indebtedness remaining unpaid after giving effect to any concurrent payment or distribution to the Senior Creditors. In any such event, the Senior Creditors may, but shall not be obligated to, demand, claim and collect any such payment or distribution that would, but for these subordination provisions, be payable or deliverable with respect to the Subordinated Debt. In the event of the occurrence of any event referred to in subclauses (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of the second preceding sentence of this clause (b) and until the Senior Indebtedness Termination Date shall have occurred and all of the obligations of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries to the Senior Creditors have been performed in full, no payment of any kind or character (whether in cash, property, securities or otherwise) shall be made to or accepted by any Party in respect of the Subordinated Debt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above, if one or more of the events referred to in subclauses (i) through (iv) of the first sentence of this clause (b) is in existence, the Required Senior Creditors may agree in writing that payments may be made with respect to the Subordinated Debt which would otherwise be prohibited pursuant to the provisions contained above, provided that any such waiver shall be specifically limited to the respective payment or payments which the Required Senior Creditors agree may be so paid to any Party in respect of the Subordinated Debt.

(c) If such Party shall acquire by indemnification, subrogation or otherwise, any lien, estate, right or other interest in any of the assets or properties of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, that lien, estate, right or other interest shall be subordinate in right of payment to the Senior Indebtedness and the lien of the Senior Indebtedness as provided herein, and such Party hereby waives any and all rights it may acquire by subrogation or otherwise to any lien of the Senior Indebtedness or any portion thereof until such time as the Senior Indebtedness Termination Date shall have occurred.

(d) Such Party shall not pledge, assign, hypothecate, transfer, convey or sell any Subordinated Debt or any interest in any Subordinated Debt to any entity (other than under the relevant Security Documents (as hereinafter defined) or in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Loan Agreement to a Credit Party which is a Party hereto) without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (with the prior written consent of the Required Senior Creditors).

(e) After request by the Administrative Agent or the Required Senior Creditors, such Party shall within ten (10) days furnish the Senior Creditors with a statement, duly acknowledged and certified setting forth the original principal amount of the notes evidencing the indebtedness of the Subordinated Debt, the unpaid principal balance, all accrued interest but unpaid interest and any other sums due and owing thereunder, the rate of interest, the monthly payments and that, to the best knowledge of such Party, there exists no defaults under the Subordinated Debt, or if any such defaults exist, specifying the defaults and the nature thereof.

(f) In any case commenced by or against the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries under the Bankruptcy Code or any similar federal, foreign, state or local statute (a "Reorganization Proceeding"), to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Required Senior Creditors shall have the exclusive right to exercise any voting rights in respect of the claims of such Party against the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries.

(g) If, at any time, all or part of any payment with respect to Senior Indebtedness theretofore made (whether by the Borrower, any other Credit Party or any other Person or enforcement of any right of setoff or otherwise) is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by the holders of Senior Indebtedness for any reason whatsoever (including, without limitation, the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of the Borrower, any other Credit Party or such other Persons), the subordination provisions set forth herein shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, all as though such payment had not been made.

(h) Such Party shall not object to the entry of any order or orders approving any cash collateral stipulations, adequate protection stipulations or similar stipulations executed by the Senior Creditors in any Reorganization Proceeding or any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code.

(i) Such Party waives any marshalling rights with respect to the Senior Creditors in any Reorganization Proceeding or any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code.

(j) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any amount otherwise required to be held for or paid to the Senior Creditors is required to be held for or paid to any other Senior Creditors (as defined in the Lee Intercompany Subordination Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercompany Subordination Agreement, as applicable) pursuant to the Lee Intercompany Subordination Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercompany Subordination Agreement, the terms of the Lee Intercompany Subordination Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercompany Subordination Agreement, as applicable, shall supersede the terms hereof and such amounts may be held for or paid to such other Senior Creditors (as defined in the Lee Intercompany Subordination Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercompany Subordination Agreement, as applicable) pursuant to the Lee Intercompany Subordination Agreement or the Pulitzer Intercompany Subordination Agreement, as applicable, without resulting in any violation by such Party of this Agreement.

3. Each Party hereby represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) each Party will deliver a schedule setting forth all Intercompany Debt to the Administrative Agent within 10 days after any request by the Administrative Agent or the Required Senior Creditors (although any failure to deliver such a supplement shall have no effect whatsoever on the subordination provisions contained herein, which shall apply to all Subordinated Debt whether or not listed on said schedule); and

(b) each Party will not lend, hold or permit to exist any Intercompany Debt owed by it or to it (in accordance with the definition thereof contained herein) unless each obligee or obligor, as the case may be, with respect to such Intercompany Debt is (or concurrently with such extension becomes) a Party to this Agreement.

4. Any payments made to, or received by, any Party in respect of any guaranty or security in support of the Subordinated Debt shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement and applied on the same basis as payments made directly by the obligor under such Subordinated Debt. To the extent that the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries (other than the respective obligor or obligors which are already Parties hereto) provides a guaranty or any security in support of any Subordinated Debt, the Party which is the lender of the respective Subordinated Debt will cause each such Person to become a Party hereto (if such Person is not already a Party hereto) not later than the date of the execution and delivery of the respective guarantee or security documentation, provided that any failure to comply with the foregoing requirements of this Section will have no effect whatsoever on the subordination provisions contained herein (which shall apply to all payments received with respect to any guarantee or security for any Subordinated Debt, whether or not the Person furnishing such guarantee or security is a Party hereto).

5. Each Party hereby acknowledges and agrees that no payments will be accepted by it in respect of the Subordinated Debt (unless promptly turned over to the holders of Senior Indebtedness as contemplated by Section 2 above) to the extent such payments would be prohibited under any Senior Indebtedness (or the documentation governing the same).

6. In addition to the foregoing agreements, each Party hereby acknowledges and agrees that, with respect to all Intercompany Debt (whether or not same constitutes Subordinated Debt), that (x) such Intercompany Debt (and any promissory notes or other instruments evidencing same) may be pledged, and delivered for pledge, by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to any Security Document to which the Borrower or the respective such Subsidiary is, or at any time in the future becomes, a party and (y) with respect to all Intercompany Debt so pledged, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise all rights and remedies with respect to such Intercompany Debt to the maximum extent provided in the various Security Documents (in accordance with the terms thereof and subject to the requirements of applicable law). Furthermore, with respect to all Intercompany Debt at any time owed to any Credit Party, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the terms of such Intercompany Debt, each obligor (including any guarantor) and obligee with respect to such Intercompany Debt hereby agrees, for the benefit of the holders from time to time of the Senior Indebtedness, that the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent may at any time, and from time to time, acting on its own or at the request of the Required Senior Creditors, accelerate the maturity of such Intercompany Debt if (x) any obligor (including any guarantor) of such Intercompany Debt is subject to any Bankruptcy Proceeding or (y) any event of default under the Loan Agreement shall have occurred and be continuing. Any such acceleration of the maturity of any Intercompany Debt shall be made by written notice by the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent to the obligor on the respective Intercompany Debt; provided that no such notice shall be required (and the acceleration shall automatically occur) either upon the occurrence of a Bankruptcy Proceeding with respect to the respective obligor (or any guarantor) of the respective Intercompany Debt or upon (or following) any acceleration of the maturity of any Loans pursuant to the Loan Agreement.

7. Definitions. As and in this Agreement, the terms set forth below shall have the respective meanings provided below:

“Enforcement Action” shall mean any acceleration of all or any part of the Subordinated Debt, any foreclosure proceeding, the exercise of any power of sale, the obtaining of a receiver, the seeking of default interest, the suing on, or otherwise taking action to enforce the obligation of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries to pay any amounts relating to any Subordinated Debt, the exercising of any banker’s lien or rights of set-off or recoupment, the institution of a Bankruptcy Proceeding against the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, or the taking of any other enforcement action against any asset or Property of the Borrower or its Subsidiaries.

“Intercompany Debt” shall mean any Indebtedness, payables or other obligations, whether now existing or hereinafter incurred, owed by any Credit Party to the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower.

“Lee Intercompany Subordination Agreement” shall mean the “Intercompany Subordination Agreement” referred to and defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement.

“Obligation” shall mean any principal, interest, premium, penalties, fees, indemnities and other liabilities and obligations payable under the documentation governing any indebtedness (including, without limitation, all interest accruing after the commencement of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar proceeding at the rate provided in the governing documentation, whether or not such interest is an allowed claim in such proceeding).

“Pulitzer Intercompany Subordination Agreement” shall mean each “Subordinated Intercompany Note” referred to and defined in the Pulitzer Debt Agreement or the documentation governing any Permitted Pulitzer Debt Refinancing Indebtedness.

“Required Senior Creditors” shall mean (i) the Required Lenders (or such other Lenders (or number or percentage thereof) as shall be necessary under Section 13.12(a) of the Loan Agreement) at all times prior to the Senior Indebtedness Termination Date, and (ii) the holders of at least a majority of the other outstanding Senior Indebtedness at all times after the Senior Indebtedness Termination Date.

“Senior Creditors” shall mean all holders from time to time of any Senior Indebtedness and shall include, without limitation, the Secured Creditors.

“Senior Indebtedness” shall mean all Obligations (including Obligations which, but for the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, would become due) and liabilities (including, without limitation, indemnities, fees and interest thereon) of each Credit Party (whether as obligor, guarantor or otherwise) to the Secured Creditors, whether now existing or hereafter incurred under, arising out of or in connection with each Credit Document to which it is at any time a party (including, without limitation, all such obligations and liabilities of each Credit Party under the Loan Agreement (if a party thereto) and under the Subsidiaries Guaranty (if a party thereto) or under any other guarantee by it of obligations pursuant to the Loan Agreement) and the due performance and compliance by each Credit Party with the terms of each such Credit Document.

“Senior Indebtedness Termination Date” shall mean the first date after the Effective Date upon which all Senior Indebtedness have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash.

“Subordinated Debt” shall mean the principal of, interest on, and all other amounts owing from time to time in respect of, all Intercompany Debt (including, without limitation, pursuant to guarantees thereof or security therefor and intercompany payables not evidenced by a note) at any time outstanding.

8. Each Party agrees to be fully bound by all terms and provisions contained in this Agreement, both with respect to any Subordinated Debt (including any guarantees thereof and security therefor) owed to it, and with respect to all Subordinated Debt (including all guarantees thereof and security therefor) owing by it.

9. It is understood and agreed that any Subsidiary of the Borrower that is required to execute a counterpart of this Agreement after the date hereof pursuant to the requirements of the Loan Agreement or any other Senior Indebtedness shall become a Party hereunder by executing a counterpart hereof (or a joinder agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent) and delivering same to the Collateral Agent.

10. No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto or any holder of Senior Indebtedness in exercising any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy hereunder.

11. Each Party hereto acknowledges that to the extent that no adequate remedy at law exists for breach of its obligations under this Agreement, in the event any Party fails to comply with its obligations hereunder, the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent or the holders of Senior Indebtedness shall have the right to obtain specific performance of the obligations of such defaulting Party, injunctive relief or such other equitable relief as may be available.

12. Any notice to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sent in accordance with the provisions of the Loan Agreement.

13. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the Subordinated Debt, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

14. No Person other than the parties hereto, the Senior Creditors from time to time and their successors and assigns as holders of the Senior Indebtedness and the Subordinated Debt shall have any rights under this Agreement.

15. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

16. No amendment, supplement, modification, waiver or termination of this Agreement shall be effective against a party against whom the enforcement of such amendment, supplement, modification, waiver or termination would be asserted, unless such amendment, supplement, modification, waiver or termination was made in a writing signed by such party, provided that amendments hereto shall be effective as against the Senior Creditors only if executed and delivered by the Collateral Agent (with the written consent of the Required Senior Creditors at such time).

17. In case any one or more of the provisions confined in this Agreement, or any application thereof, shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein, and any other application thereof, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

18. (a) THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES.

(b) Any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement may be brought in the courts of the State of New York or of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York in each case which are located in the County of New York, and, by execution and delivery of this Agreement, each Party hereby irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts. Each Party hereby further irrevocably waives any claim that any such court lacks personal jurisdiction over such Party, and agrees not to plead or claim in any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement or any other Credit Document to which such Party is a party brought in any of the aforesaid courts that any such court lacks personal jurisdiction over such Party. Nothing herein shall affect the right of any of the Senior Creditors to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise proceed against each Party in any other jurisdiction.

(c) EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF

VENUE OF ANY OF THE AFORESAID ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT BROUGHT IN THE COURTS REFERRED TO IN CLAUSE (b) ABOVE AND HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY SUCH COURT THAT SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM.

(d) EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

GRANT OF SECURITY INTEREST
(TRADEMARKS, SERVICE MARKS AND TRADE NAMES)

THIS GRANT OF SECURITY INTEREST (TRADEMARKS, SERVICE MARKS AND TRADE NAMES) is dated as of January 30, 2012 between [NAME OF ASSIGNOR], a [State] [Type of Organization] having its chief executive office at [Address] (the “Assignor”), and THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON TRUST COMPANY, N.A. having a representative office at 10161 Centurion Parkway North, 2nd Floor, Jacksonville, Florida 32256, in its capacity as the Collateral Agent on behalf and for the benefit of the Secured Parties (in such capacity, the “Assignee”). Capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined herein, shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Security Agreement (as defined below).

WHEREAS, reference is made to that certain Note Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the “Note Agreement”) by and among [the Assignor][the Borrower] and the Purchasers named therein, pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, [the Assignor][the Borrower] issued the Notes to such Purchasers.

WHEREAS, reference is also made to that certain Guaranty Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the “Guaranty Agreement”) made by [the Assignor][the Company] in favor of the Secured Parties, pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, [the Assignor][the Company] guaranteed the full, complete and final payment and performance of the “Guaranteed Obligations” as defined in the Guaranty Agreement.

WHEREAS, reference is also made to that certain Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the “Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement”) made by each Initial Subsidiary Grantor in favor of the Secured Parties, pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, [the Assignor and] such [other] Persons have, among other things, guaranteed the full, complete and final payment and performance of the “Guaranteed Obligations” as defined in the Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of a Security Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the “Security Agreement”), in favor of the Assignee on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the Assignor has granted to the Assignee a security interest in all of the Assignor’s right, title and interest, whether presently existing or hereafter arising or acquired, in, to and under all of the Collateral.

WHEREAS, the Secured Parties are willing to enter into the Note Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and otherwise make, extend and maintain certain financial accommodations to and for the benefit of the Assignor, but only upon the condition, among others, that the Assignor shall grant a security interest in and assign for security purposes (and not as an absolute assignment) in favor of and to the Assignee, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in and to, all of Assignor's right, title and interest in and to all Trademarks (as described below) to secure its payment and performance of the Secured Obligations.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, as collateral security for the prompt and complete payment and performance when due of the Secured Obligations, the Assignor hereby represents, warrants, covenants and agrees as follows:

As security for the full, complete and final payment and performance when due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of all the Secured Obligations and in order to induce the Assignee and the Secured Parties to enter into the Transaction Documents and to make, extend and maintain the credit to and for the benefit of the Assignor upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, Assignor hereby mortgages, pledges and hypothecates to the Assignee, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and hereby grants to the Assignee, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a security interest in and to all of Assignor's respective right, title and interest in, to and under each of the following:

(a) all Trademarks, including, without limitation, each registered trademark, trade name and service mark and each trademark, trade name and service mark application for registration listed on Schedules A and B hereto, including, without limitation, all proceeds thereof (such as, by way of example but not by way of limitation, license royalties and proceeds of infringement suits), the right to sue for past, present and future infringements, all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world and all reissues, continuations, continuations-in-part and renewals thereof; and

(b) the goodwill of the business connected with the use of, and symbolized by, each Trademark.

The Assignee does hereby further acknowledge and affirm that the rights and remedies of the Assignee with respect to the assignment of, and security interest in, the Collateral made and granted hereby are more fully set forth in the Security Agreement, the terms and provisions of which are hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Following the termination of the Security Agreement in accordance with its terms, the security interest in the Trademarks, the goodwill thereof and any and all financing statements filed on behalf of the Assignee will be automatically terminated, released, and/or reassigned to the Assignor, and, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Security Agreement, the Assignee will execute, acknowledge and deliver to each Assignor such instruments as may be reasonably requested to evidence such termination, release, and/or reassignment.

In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Grant of Security Interest (Trademarks, Service Marks and Trade Names) and the terms of the Security Agreement, the terms of the Security Agreement shall prevail.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the parties has caused this Grant of Security Interest (Trademarks, Service Marks and Trade Names) to be duly executed by its officer(s) thereunto duly authorized as of the date first written above.

The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted by it, or any action suffered by it to be taken or omitted, excepting only its own gross negligence or willful misconduct, as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. In the absence of written instructions from the Requisite Holders or all of the Noteholders, as the case may be, the Collateral Agent shall not foreclose upon any Lien with respect to any of the Collateral or take any other action with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof.

4. RECOURSE THROUGH COLLATERAL AGENT; CERTAIN RIGHTS OF SECURED PARTIES AGAINST OBLIGORS; SHARING OF COLLATERAL.

(a) Recourse Through Collateral Agent.

Each of the Secured Parties acknowledges and agrees that (i) it shall only have recourse to the Collateral through the Collateral Agent and that it shall have no independent recourse to the Collateral and (ii) the Collateral Agent shall have no obligation to, and shall not, take any action hereunder or under the Intercreditor Agreement or any Collateral Document to which it is a party except upon instructions from the Requisite Holders in accordance with Section 6(a).

(b) Certain Rights of Secured Parties.

Nothing contained herein shall restrict (i) the rights of any Noteholder to pursue remedies, by proceedings in law and equity, or to enforce its rights in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 8A of the Note Agreement, to the extent that pursuit of such remedies or enforcement does not relate to the Collateral or interfere with the Collateral Agent's ability to take action hereunder or under the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreement or (ii) the rights of any Noteholder to initiate an action or actions in any bankruptcy, reorganization, compromise, arrangement, insolvency, readjustment of debt, dissolution or liquidation or similar proceeding in its individual capacity and to appear or be heard on any matter before the bankruptcy or other applicable court in any such proceeding, including, without limitation, with respect to any question concerning the post-petition usage of Collateral and post-petition financing arrangements.

(c) Sharing of Collateral.

No Secured Party shall contest the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of, or seek to avoid, any Lien securing any Noteholder Obligation, and each party hereby agrees to cooperate, at no cost to the Collateral Agent, in the defense of any action contesting the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of any such Lien. No Noteholder shall have the right to obtain any of the Collateral or the benefit of any Lien on any property of any Obligor solely in respect of Noteholder Obligations owing to such Noteholder or any group of Noteholders comprised of less than all the Noteholders.

5. CO-AGENTS; COLLATERAL AGENT'S USE OF PROFESSIONALS.

(a) Co-Agents.

Absent any specific agreement to the contrary, any co-agent or co-agents or separate agent or separate agents so appointed shall, to the extent applicable, have the rights, powers, obligations and duties of the Collateral Agent hereunder. Unless otherwise excused as provided herein, the Collateral Agent shall act on all written instructions received from the Requisite Holders, with respect to any action to be taken or not to be taken in connection with this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement or the Collateral Documents, including, without limitation, actions to be taken in connection with an insolvency proceeding in respect of any Obligor; provided, however, that the Collateral Agent shall act only on written instructions from all Noteholders with respect to the amendment or termination of any Collateral Document or, except as provided in any Collateral Document, any Lien on property of the Obligors granted under any Collateral Document. If the Collateral Agent shall request instructions from the Noteholders with respect to taking any particular action in connection with this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement, any of the Collateral Documents or any such Lien, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to refrain from taking such particular action unless and until it shall have received written instructions from the Requisite Holders or all Noteholders, as the case may be (in which event it shall be required to act in accordance with such written instructions unless otherwise excused as provided herein), and the Collateral Agent shall not incur any liability to any Person for so refraining. Without limiting the foregoing, no Noteholder shall have any right of action whatsoever against the Collateral Agent as a result of the Collateral Agent taking or not taking any action hereunder or pursuant to or in accordance with the written instructions of such required Noteholders, except for the Collateral Agent's own gross negligence or wilful misconduct in connection with any action taken or not taken by it, as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement or any of the Collateral Documents, (i) the failure of the Collateral Agent to take any action shall not constitute gross negligence or wilful misconduct by the Collateral Agent hereunder (A) following a request by the Collateral Agent for the Requisite Holders' consent to such action and the failure of the Requisite Holders to respond to such request or (B) in the absence of written instructions from the Requisite Holders or the Noteholders, and (ii) the Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that is, in its opinion (which may be, but is not required to be, based on the advice of legal counsel), contrary to applicable law or any of the Collateral Documents or that would, in its reasonable opinion, subject it or any Agent-Related Persons to liability or that would require it to expend or risk its own funds.

(b) Enforcement Notices.

The Collateral Agent shall, as soon as practicable but in any event, if applicable, within ten (10) Business Days following receipt thereof, furnish to each of the Noteholders:

- (i) a copy of each Enforcement Notice received by the Collateral Agent;
- (ii) a copy of each certificate or other written notice received by the Collateral Agent rescinding or withdrawing an Enforcement Notice;
- (iii) a copy of any written notice or other written communication given or received by the Collateral Agent under any Transaction Document; and
- (iv) such other written notices required by the terms of this Agreement to be furnished by or to the Collateral Agent.

Any Enforcement Notice shall be deemed to have been given when actually received by the Collateral Agent and to have been rescinded or withdrawn when the Collateral Agent has actually received from the notifying party a written notice rescinding or withdrawing such Enforcement Notice. Any Enforcement Notice shall be deemed to be outstanding and in effect at all times after such notice has been given until such time, if any, as such notice has been rescinded or withdrawn.

7. NO RESPONSIBILITY OF COLLATERAL AGENT FOR CERTAIN MATTERS.

The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible in any manner whatsoever for the correctness of any recitals, statements, information, representations or warranties contained herein or in the Intercreditor Agreement, any Collateral Document or any other Transaction Document except for those made by it herein. The Collateral Agent makes no representation or warranty as to, and is not responsible in any way for: (i) the description, value, location, existence, or condition of any Collateral; (ii) the financial condition of any Obligor or the title of any of the Obligors to any of the Collateral; (iii) the sufficiency of the security afforded by this Agreement or the Collateral Documents or whether registration in respect thereof has been properly effected or maintained; (iv) the validity, genuineness, correctness, perfection, or priority of any Lien with respect to the Collateral; (v) other than in respect of itself as to the Collateral Agent's representations in Section 15(p) hereof, the validity, proper execution, enforceability, legality, or sufficiency of this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement, any Collateral Document or any other Transaction Document or any instrument deposited with the Collateral Agent; (vi) the identity, authority or right of any Obligor or Noteholder executing any document; or (vii) the filing or renewal of any registration of any Collateral Document or any public filing required under applicable law to perfect any of the Collateral Agent's Liens, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in any of the Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall not be required to ascertain or inquire as to the performance by any Obligor of any of its covenants or obligations hereunder or under any of the other Transaction Documents. In no event shall the Collateral Agent be responsible or liable for special, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Collateral Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

8. LIMITED DUTIES OF COLLATERAL AGENT REGARDING COLLATERAL; OPINION OF COUNSEL AND FURTHER ACTS WITH RESPECT TO COLLATERAL.

The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for insuring any of the Collateral or for the payment of taxes, charges, fines, levies, assessments or for ensuring or protecting the validity, genuineness, correctness, perfection, or priority of any Lien upon any of the Collateral, and shall be indemnified therefor as provided in Section 11. Furthermore, the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the maintenance or safeguarding of any Collateral, except as provided in the immediately following sentence when the Collateral Agent has actual possession of any Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty to any of the Obligors or the Noteholders with respect to any Collateral, including, without limitation, any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or nominee of the Collateral Agent selected by it with reasonable care, or any income therefrom or for the preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to the Collateral, except as stated in the next succeeding paragraph.

Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof and the duty to account for monies actually received by it, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto and the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral, by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee selected by the Collateral Agent with reasonable care. The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Collateral or for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Liens in any of the Collateral, whether impaired by operation of law or by reason of any of any action or omission to act on its part hereunder, except to the extent such action or omission constitutes gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, for the validity or sufficiency of the Collateral or any agreement or assignment contained therein, for the validity of the title of the Company to the Collateral, for insuring the Collateral or for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or Liens upon the Collateral or otherwise as to the maintenance of the Collateral.

So long as any Noteholder Obligations remain outstanding, on or prior to February 1 of each year beginning on February 1, 2013, the Obligors, at their expense, shall provide to the Collateral Agent an Opinion of Counsel stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, all actions have been taken (including the filing of such financing statements and continuation statements as may be necessary) fully to maintain, preserve and protect the attachment, perfection and priority of security interests and other Liens in the Collateral contemplated hereby and by the other Transaction Documents, and reciting the details of such actions, if any, and stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, based on existing law and the state of facts existing on the date of such opinion, no additional actions of such type are or will be necessary during the 12 months following the date of such opinion or, if any such action shall be required, specifying the nature of such action. If any such action shall be required, the Collateral Agent shall notify the Noteholders thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 6(b) hereof and, upon the written request of the Requisite Holders, shall take such actions or promptly shall request that the Obligors take all such actions as may be so required, and the Obligors shall promptly take all such actions.

9. RELIANCE ON WRITINGS.

The Collateral Agent shall be entitled and fully authorized to rely and act, and shall be fully protected in relying and acting, upon any writing, instruction, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, telegram, facsimile, telex or other document believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed or sent by or on behalf of the proper Person or Persons, and statements of the Obligors (including, without limitation, counsel to the Obligors) or the Noteholders. The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty to verify or confirm the content of any writing, instruction, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, telegram, facsimile, telex or other document.

10. RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL OF COLLATERAL AGENT.

(a) Resignation or Removal.

The Collateral Agent may at any time resign, effective upon 30 days prior written notice (or such shorter period as may be agreed to by the Requisite Holders and the Collateral Agent) to the Noteholders and the Company, and may be removed for or without cause at any time by the Requisite Holders, effective upon 30 days notice. In the event of any resignation or removal, the Requisite Holders shall have the right to appoint a successor Collateral Agent (which successor Collateral Agent may be one of the Noteholders or a financial institution that is engaged in the provision of agency services in syndicated commercial loan transactions or a trust company that is engaged in the provision of trust services in secured private placement transactions, but, if the Requisite Holders have not appointed a successor Collateral Agent within 30 days after the resigning Collateral Agent's giving of notice of resignation or its removal, the retiring Collateral Agent shall, at the expense of the Obligors, on behalf of the Noteholders, subject to the above provision regarding the identity and nature of a permissible successor Collateral Agent, either appoint a successor Collateral Agent or apply to the appropriate court to make such appointment. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as a Collateral Agent hereunder by a successor, to be evidenced by the successor Collateral Agent's execution and delivery to the Company, the Noteholders and the retiring Collateral Agent of a counterpart of this Agreement, such successor Collateral Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges, duties and obligations of the retiring Collateral Agent, and the retiring Collateral Agent shall be discharged from any further duties and obligations as Collateral Agent, as appropriate, under this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement and the Collateral Documents. The payment and indemnity obligations of the Obligors provided for in Section 11 shall survive any such removal or resignation in favor of the retiring Collateral Agent in respect of any matter arising during or after its tenure as Collateral Agent.

(b) Vesting.

Upon the request of any successor Collateral Agent, at the expense of the Obligors, the Noteholders, the Obligors and the predecessor Collateral Agent shall promptly execute and deliver such instruments, conveyances, and assurances reflecting terms consistent with the terms hereof and the Collateral Documents then in effect for the purpose of more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in such successor Collateral Agent its interest in, and Liens upon, the Collateral and all rights, powers, duties, and obligations of the predecessor Collateral Agent hereunder and under the Collateral Documents, and the predecessor Collateral Agent shall also promptly assign and deliver to the successor Collateral Agent any Collateral subject to the Liens of the Collateral Documents that may then be in its possession.

Any entity into which a Collateral Agent may be amalgamated or merged, or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any amalgamation, merger or consolidation to which a Collateral Agent shall be a party, or any state or national bank or trust company in any manner succeeding to the corporate trust business of a Collateral Agent, as a whole or substantially as a whole, shall be the successor of such Collateral Agent hereunder if legally bound hereby as such successor, without the necessity for execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything to the contrary contained herein notwithstanding.

11. FEES; INDEMNITY.

(a) Fees.

The Obligors shall pay all fees required to be paid to the Collateral Agent under the Fee Schedule attached hereto with respect to this Agreement at the times and in the amounts set forth therein.

(b) Payment by Obligors.

The Obligors agree, jointly and severally, that they will pay all of the Collateral Agent's fees for its services hereunder and will pay or reimburse the Collateral Agent upon its request for all expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Collateral Agent in the administration of its duties hereunder and under the Intercreditor Agreement and any of the Collateral Documents (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees and expenses and the reasonable compensation of all Agent Professionals, Agent-Related Persons and other advisers, agents or experts employed or retained by the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement). In addition to, and without limiting any other protection of, the Collateral Agent hereunder or otherwise by law, the Obligors shall, jointly and severally, indemnify the Agent-Related Persons for any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, claims, demands, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be suffered by, imposed on, incurred by or asserted against any Agent-Related Person, whether groundless or otherwise, howsoever arising from or out of, or in any way related to the subject matter of, this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement, any Collateral Document or any of the Collateral or the performance or enforcement of any of the terms of any thereof, including fees and expenses of special counsel; provided that no Obligor shall be liable for any such payment to any Agent-Related Person to the extent the obligation to make such payment has been caused by such Agent-Related Person's own gross negligence or wilful misconduct, as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. All statements from the Collateral Agent or any other Person for obligations owing by the Obligors pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be sent to the Company in the first instance but may thereafter be sent to any Obligor if timely payment is not made. Any amount due under this Section 11(b) and unpaid 5 Business Days after request for such payment will bear interest from the expiration of such 5 Business Days at a rate per annum equal to two percent (2%) above the rate of interest publicly announced by The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation from time to time in New York City as its prime rate, payable on demand. All amounts so payable and the interest thereon will be payable out of any assets in the possession of the Collateral Agent and any other Collateral in priority to amounts owing to any and all other parties to this Agreement.

(c) Survival.

The obligations of the Obligors under this Section 11 shall survive the payment in full of all of the other Noteholder Obligations, the resignation or removal of the Collateral Agent and the termination of this Agreement.

12. COLLATERAL AGENT'S FUNDS NOT AT RISK.

For purposes of clarity, no provision of this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement or the Collateral Documents, and no request of any Noteholder or other Person shall require the Collateral Agent to expend or risk any of its own funds, or to take any legal or other action under this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement or the Collateral Documents which might, in its reasonable judgment, involve any expense or any financial or other liability unless the Collateral Agent shall be furnished with indemnification acceptable to it, acting reasonably, including the advance of funds sufficient in the judgment of the Collateral Agent to satisfy such liability, costs and expenses.

13. INDEPENDENT CREDIT DECISIONS.

Each Noteholder acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Collateral Agent or any other Noteholder and based upon such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party. Each Noteholder also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon either the Collateral Agent or any other Noteholder and based upon such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under the Transaction Documents to which it is a party.

14. DETERMINATION OF NOTEHOLDERS; SUBSEQUENT NOTEHOLDERS BOUND.

The Collateral Agent may deem and treat the payee of any promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness or obligation relating to any Noteholder Obligation as the owner thereof for all purposes hereof unless and until (i) a written notice of the assignment or transfer thereof signed by such payee and (ii) a written acknowledgment agreeing to be bound by the terms hereof and such other documents required by Section 15(d), each signed by the assignee or transferee, and in form reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, shall have been filed with the Collateral Agent. Any request, authority or consent of any Person who at the time of making such request or giving such authority or consent is the holder of any such note or other evidence of indebtedness or obligation, shall be conclusive and binding on any subsequent holder, transferee or assignee of such note or other evidence of indebtedness or obligation and of any note or notes or other evidences of indebtedness or obligation issued in exchange therefor.

15. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) Notices.

All notices, requests and other communications shall have been duly given and shall be effective (a) when delivered by hand, (b) when transmitted via teletype (or other facsimile device), (c) the Business Day following the day on which the same has been delivered prepaid to a reputable national overnight air courier service, or (d) the third Business Day following the day on which the same is sent by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, in each case to the respective parties at the address or teletype number as provided in the immediately succeeding sentence; provided, however, that if any notice is delivered on a day other than a Business Day, or after 5:00 P.M. (Eastern time) on any Business Day, then such notice shall not be effective until the next Business Day. For purposes hereof, the address of each party hereto and of each Obligor and its facsimile number (until written notice of a change thereof is delivered to the Collateral Agent, each Noteholder and each Obligor) shall be as set forth in Schedule I hereto, or at such other address as such party may specify by written notice to the other parties hereto. Notices to any Person that becomes a holder of Noteholder Obligations after the date hereof shall be given to such address or facsimile number of which such Person shall have given written notice to the Collateral Agent and the Obligors.

(b) Amendments.

No provision of this Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement or any Collateral Document may be amended or waived except by a writing signed by the Requisite Holders and the Collateral Agent; provided, however, that any amendment expanding the obligations or liabilities of any Obligor either hereunder or thereunder shall require such Obligor's consent.

(c) Conflicts with Collateral Documents and other Transaction Documents.

The Collateral Agent and the Noteholders agree that, if any provision of this Agreement is inconsistent with or contrary to any provisions in any of the Collateral Documents or the other Transaction Documents, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail as between and among the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders.

(d) Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders and their respective successors and assigns and, with respect to the Acknowledgment, the Obligors and their respective successors. If any Noteholder shall assign or transfer the Noteholder Obligations owing to it, it shall promptly so notify the Collateral Agent in writing. No Noteholder which assigns or transfers any Noteholder Obligations owing to it shall assign or transfer its benefits under the Collateral Documents without obtaining from the assignee or transferee and delivering to the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders a joinder agreement and an executed acknowledgment of the assignee or transferee agreeing to be bound by the terms hereof to the same extent as if it had been a Noteholder on the date hereof. Each assignee or transferee of any Noteholder Obligations shall take such Noteholder Obligations subject to the provisions of this Agreement and to any request made, waiver or consent given or other action taken or authorized hereunder by each previous holder of such Noteholder Obligations prior to the receipt by the Collateral Agent of written notice of such assignment or transfer; and, except as expressly otherwise provided in such notice, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to assume conclusively that the assignee or transferee named in such notice shall thereafter be vested with all rights and powers as a Noteholder under this Agreement (and the Collateral Agent may conclusively assume that no Noteholder Obligations have been subject to any assignment or transfer other than transfers of which the Collateral Agent has received such a notice). Upon the written request of any Noteholder or the Company, the Collateral Agent will provide such Noteholder and the Company with copies of any written notices of transfer received pursuant hereto.

(e) Continuing Effectiveness.

This Agreement shall continue to be effective among the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders even though a case or proceeding under any bankruptcy or insolvency law or any proceeding in the nature of a receivership, whether or not under any insolvency law, shall be instituted with respect to any Obligor or any portion of the property or assets of any Obligor, and all actions taken by the Collateral Agent with respect to the Collateral or by the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders with regard to such proceeding shall be determined by the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be interpreted to preclude any Noteholder from filing a proof of claim with respect to its Noteholder Obligations or from casting its vote, or abstaining from voting, for or against confirmation of a plan of reorganization in a case of bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law in its sole discretion.

(f) Further Assurances.

Each party and each Obligor agrees to do such further acts and things and to execute and deliver such additional agreements, powers and instruments as necessary or as any Noteholder or the Collateral Agent may reasonably request to carry into effect the terms, provisions and purposes of this Agreement or to better assure and confirm unto the Collateral Agent or any of the other Noteholders its respective rights, powers and remedies hereunder.

(g) Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement, and any of the parties hereto may execute this Agreement or the Acknowledgment by signing any such counterpart. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement or the Acknowledgment by telecopy or other electronic transmission shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement or the Acknowledgment.

(h) Effectiveness.

This Agreement shall become effective immediately upon execution hereof by the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders, and upon execution of the Acknowledgment by the Obligors, and shall continue in full force and effect until 91 days following the date upon which all Noteholder Obligations are irrevocably paid and satisfied in full; provided that, if the Noteholder Obligations due and owing to a Noteholder have been paid and satisfied in full, then such Noteholder shall be deemed released from this Agreement without any further action being necessary. Any such released Noteholder shall give the Collateral Agent notice of such release but the failure to give such notice shall not affect such release.

(i) Governing Law.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK EXCLUDING CHOICE-OF-LAW PRINCIPLES OF THE LAW OF SUCH STATE THAT WOULD PERMIT THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN SUCH STATE.

(j) Jurisdiction.

(i) Each party hereto irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each party hereto irrevocably waives and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, any claim that it is not subject to the jurisdiction of any such court, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(ii) Nothing in this Section 15(j) shall limit any right that the Collateral Agent or any of the Noteholders may have to bring proceedings against any Obligor in the courts of any appropriate jurisdiction or to enforce in any lawful manner a judgment obtained in one jurisdiction in any other jurisdiction.

(k) Headings; Sections.

Headings of Sections of this Agreement have been included herein for convenience only and should not be considered in interpreting this Agreement. Unless stated otherwise in this Agreement, references in this Agreement to Sections are references to Sections of this Agreement.

(l) No Implied Beneficiaries.

Nothing in this Agreement (except Section 15(b)), expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give to any Person, other than the Noteholders and the Collateral Agent, any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or any covenant, condition or stipulation herein contained.

(m) Severability.

If any provision of this Agreement shall be held or deemed to be, or shall in fact be, inoperative or unenforceable as applied in any particular case in any jurisdiction, or because it conflicts with any other provision or provisions hereof or with any constitution or statute or rule of public policy, or for any other reason, such circumstance shall not have the effect of rendering the provision in question inoperative or unenforceable in any other case or circumstance, or rendering any other provision herein contained invalid, inoperative or unenforceable to any extent whatsoever. Upon the determination that any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to give effect to their original intention as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the maximum extent possible.

(n) Obligations Individual.

The obligations and representations and warranties of the Collateral Agent and each of the Noteholders herein are made by each of them individually. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating among the Noteholders, or among the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders, a partnership, joint venture or other joint association.

(o) No Obligation to Extend Credit.

No provision of this Agreement shall be construed as obligating the Collateral Agent or any Noteholder to advance any monies or otherwise extend credit to any Obligor at any time.

(p) Representations of Parties.

Each of the Noteholders and the Collateral Agent, severally and not jointly, represents and warrants to the other parties hereto that such party has all requisite power and capacity to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and that the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of such party and that this Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such party, enforceable against such party in accordance with its terms except as such enforceability may be limited by (i) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or law).

(q) Limitation of Liability Due to Forces Beyond Collateral Agent's Control.

In no event shall the Collateral Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Collateral Agent shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

16. THIRD PARTY AGREEMENTS.

(a) Third Party Agreement Agent.

In the event that BNYMTCNA ceases, for any reason, to act as the Collateral Agent for the Noteholders hereunder and under the Collateral Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement, BNYMTCNA agrees

(i) to continue in force (A) all agreements of the type referred to in Sections 4(d) and 5(a) of the Security Agreement to which it is a party in respect of Real Property Collateral (the "Collateral Access Agreements") and (B) all agreements of the type referred to in Section 5(a) of the Security Agreement which it is a party in respect of each deposit account, securities account or commodities account of any Obligor (the "Control Agreements", and together with the Collateral Access Agreements, collectively, the "Third Party Agreements"; BNYMTCNA, in its capacity as agent solely for purposes of the Third Party Agreements, is referred to herein as the "Third Party Agreement Agent"), and

(ii) while it is acting as the Third Party Agreement Agent, to take such actions under any one or more Third Party Agreements as may be requested in writing by the Requisite Holders, provided that the Third Party Agreement Agent shall be excused from complying with any such request for the same reasons that the Collateral Agent would be excused from taking action in such capacity, as set forth in this Agreement, until the earlier of, (x) the expiration of 180 days after the date BNYMTCNA ceases to so act as Collateral Agent for the Noteholders, (y) the payment in full of all Noteholder Obligations and the release of all Liens in favor of the Noteholders or (z) the assignment of BNYMTCNA's rights under each of the Third Party Agreements to a successor Collateral Agent (or other Person acceptable to the Requisite Holders) so that such successor Collateral Agent (or other Person) becomes effectively vested with all rights and remedies held by BNYMTCNA under each of the Third Party Agreements.

(b) Indemnification of Third Party Agreement Agent.

The Third Party Agreement Agent shall be indemnified with respect to the Third Party Agreements to the same extent as the Collateral Agent is indemnified hereunder pursuant to Section 11 with respect to this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders have executed or caused this Agreement to be duly executed and delivered by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized, all as of the date first above written.

THIS GRANT OF SECURITY INTEREST (COPYRIGHTS) is dated as of January 30, 2012 between [ASSIGNOR'S NAME], a [State] [Type of Organization] having its chief executive office at [Address] (the "Assignor"), and THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON TRUST COMPANY, N.A., having a representative office at 10161 Centurion Parkway North, 2nd Floor, Jacksonville, Florida 32256, in its capacity as the Collateral Agent on behalf and for the benefit of the Secured Parties (in such capacity, the "Assignee"). Capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined herein, shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Security Agreement (as defined below).

WHEREAS, reference is made to that certain Note Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the "Note Agreement") by and among [the Assignor][the Borrower] and the Purchasers named therein, pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, [the Assignor][the Borrower] issued the Notes to such Purchasers.

WHEREAS, reference is also made to that certain Guaranty Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the "Guaranty Agreement") made by [the Assignor][the Company] in favor of the Secured Parties, pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, [the Assignor][the Company] guaranteed the full, complete and final payment and performance of the "Guaranteed Obligations" as defined in the Guaranty Agreement.

WHEREAS, reference is also made to that certain Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the "Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement") made by each Initial Subsidiary Grantor in favor of the Secured Parties, pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, [the Assignor and] such [other] Persons have, among other things, guaranteed the full, complete and final payment and performance of the "Guaranteed Obligations" as defined in the Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of a Security Agreement, dated as of January 30, 2012 (as the same from time to time hereafter may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified, the "Security Agreement"), in favor of the Assignee on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the Assignor has granted to the Assignee a security interest in all of the Assignor's right, title and interest, whether presently existing or hereafter arising or acquired, in, to and under all of the Collateral.

WHEREAS, the Secured Parties are willing to enter into the Note Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and otherwise make, extend and maintain certain financial accommodations to and for the benefit of the Assignor, but only upon the condition, among others, that the Assignor shall grant a security interest in and assign for security purposes (and not as an absolute assignment) in favor of and to the Assignee, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in and to, all of Assignor's right, title and interest in and to all Copyrights (as described below) to secure its payment and performance of the Secured Obligations.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, as collateral security for the prompt and complete payment and performance when due of the Secured Obligations, the Assignor hereby represents, warrants, covenants and agrees as follows:

As security for the full, complete and final payment and performance when due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of all the Secured Obligations and in order to induce the Assignee and the Secured Parties to enter into the Transaction Documents and to make, extend and maintain the credit to and for the benefit of the Assignor upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, Assignor hereby mortgages, pledges and hypothecates to the Assignee, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and hereby grants to the Assignee, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a security interest in and to all of Assignor's respective right, title and interest in, to and under all Copyrights, including, without limitation, each registered and unregistered copyright, and each application for registration of any Copyright listed on Schedules A and B hereto, including, without limitation, all proceeds thereof (such as, by way of example but not by way of limitation, license royalties and proceeds of infringement suits), the right to sue for past, present and future infringements, all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world and all continuations, renewals and extensions thereof.

The Assignee does hereby further acknowledge and affirm that the rights and remedies of the Assignee with respect to the assignment of, and security interest in, the Collateral made and granted hereby are more fully set forth in the Security Agreement, the terms and provisions of which are hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Following the termination of the Security Agreement in accordance with its terms, the security interest in the Copyrights and any and all financing statements filed on behalf of the Assignee will be automatically terminated, released, and/or reassigned to the Assignor, and, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Security Agreement, the Assignee will execute, acknowledge and deliver to each Assignor such instruments as may be reasonably requested to evidence such termination, release, and/or reassignment.

In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Grant of Security Interest (Copyrights) and the terms of the Security Agreement, the terms of the Security Agreement shall prevail.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the parties has caused this Grant of Security Interest (Copyrights) to be duly executed by its officer(s) thereunto duly authorized as of the date first written above.

This Deed of Trust secures the performance of each of the following obligations (collectively, the "Secured Obligations"):

2.1. the payment of all Indebtedness;

2.2. each of Grantor's obligations hereunder and all other existing and future obligations to Beneficiary and the Noteholders under the Note Agreement, the Notes and all other documents, certificates and agreements executed in connection therewith prior to, on or after the date hereof;

2.4. reimbursement of all amounts advanced by or on behalf of Beneficiary or any Noteholder to protect Beneficiary's and the Noteholders' interests under this Deed of Trust.

3. Assignment of Rents and Profits.

3.1. Absolute Assignment

Grantor hereby absolutely and irrevocably assigns to Beneficiary for the benefit of the Noteholders all of its right, title and interest in and to all rents, issues, profits, royalties, income and other proceeds and similar benefits derived from the Property (collectively, the "Rents"), and hereby irrevocably appoints Beneficiary its true and lawful attorney-in-fact, at Beneficiary's option at any time, to demand, receive and enforce payment, to give receipts, releases and satisfactions, and to sue, either in Grantor's name, the Noteholders' names or in Beneficiary's name, for all Rents.

3.2. License to Collect

Notwithstanding the foregoing assignment of the Rents, so long as no Event of Default (as defined below) has occurred and is continuing, Grantor shall have a license to collect all Rents (but no more than one month in advance), and to retain and enjoy the same.

3.3. Collection and Application of Rents by Beneficiary

While any Event of Default remains uncured, (a) Grantor's license to collect the Rents shall automatically terminate, without notice, (b) Beneficiary may at any time, without notice, in person, by agent or by court-appointed receiver, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the Secured Obligations, enter upon any portion of the Property and/or, with or without taking possession thereof, in its own name or the Noteholders' names sue for or otherwise collect the Rents (including past due amounts), and (c) promptly following demand by Beneficiary therefor, Grantor shall deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, all prepaid Rents, deposits relating to Rents, and all other Rents then held by or thereafter collected by Grantor. All Rents collected by or delivered to Beneficiary may only be applied by Beneficiary against the Secured Obligations, in such order as Beneficiary shall determine in its absolute discretion. No application of Rents against any Secured Obligations or other action taken by Beneficiary or any Noteholder under this Section 3 shall be deemed to cure or waive any Event of Default, or to invalidate any other action taken in response to such Event of Default, or to make Beneficiary or the Noteholders a mortgagee-in-possession of the Property.

3.4. Further Assignments

Upon demand by Beneficiary from time to time, Grantor shall promptly execute and deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary, recordable assignments of Grantor's interest in any leases, subleases, contracts, licenses, permits and other documents and agreements to which Rents relate; provided however, that no such assignment shall be construed to impose upon Beneficiary or any Noteholder any obligation with respect thereto.

3.5. Termination

The assignment of the Rents to Beneficiary hereunder shall terminate and be of no further force and effect following the satisfaction in full of all Secured Obligations.

3.6. Assigned Leases

Except as otherwise agreed in writing by Beneficiary from time to time, the following shall apply to each lease and sublease of any portion of the Property (collectively, the "Assigned Leases") with respect to which any portion of the landlord's interest is assigned to Beneficiary and/or Trustee under this Deed of Trust:

- (a) Grantor shall promptly perform all of its obligations as landlord under each Assigned Lease, and shall immediately notify Beneficiary in writing of any notice of default received by Grantor from the tenant thereunder.
- (b) Grantor shall diligently enforce the performance of all of the obligations of the tenant under each Assigned Lease and shall not waive any default or waive, release or discharge any such tenant of or from any such obligation.
- (c) Grantor shall not collect the Rents (or any other amounts) due under any Assigned Lease more than one month in advance of the date due.

(d) Grantor hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the tenants under all Assigned Leases to pay all amounts owing to Grantor thereunder to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, following receipt of any written notice from Beneficiary which states that an Event of Default remains uncured and that all such amounts are to be paid to Beneficiary. Grantor further authorizes and directs all such tenants to pay all such amounts to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, without any right or obligation to inquire as to the validity of Beneficiary's notice and regardless of the fact that Grantor has notified any such tenants that Beneficiary's notice is invalid or has then directed any such tenants not to pay such amounts to Beneficiary.

(e) Upon the foreclosure of this Deed of Trust, no Assigned Lease shall be destroyed or terminated by application of the doctrine of merger or as a matter of law unless Beneficiary, any Noteholder or any purchaser at such foreclosure sale so elects. No act by or on behalf of Beneficiary or any such purchaser shall constitute a termination of any Assigned Lease unless Beneficiary or such purchaser gives written notice thereof to the applicable tenant or subtenant.

(f) Grantor hereby represents and warrants to Beneficiary and the Noteholders, with respect to each Assigned Lease that is presently in effect (collectively, the "Current Assigned Leases"), (i) that Grantor has delivered to Beneficiary a true and complete copy of each Current Assigned Lease, together with all modifications and a rent roll with respect to all Current Assigned Leases; (ii) that Grantor has not accepted any payment of rent (or other charge except any tenant security deposits and advances or prepaid rents in accordance with the provisions of any of the Assigned Leases) under any Current Assigned Lease more than thirty (30) days prior to the due date of such payment; and (iii) that, to the best of Grantor's knowledge, no material default by Grantor or any other person under any Current Assigned Lease remains uncured.

3.7. Perfection Upon Recordation

Grantor acknowledges that Beneficiary and Trustee have taken all actions necessary to obtain, and that upon recordation of this Deed of Trust Beneficiary and Trustee shall have, to the extent permitted under applicable law, a valid and fully perfected, first priority, present assignment of the Rents arising out of the Assigned Leases and all security for such Assigned Leases. Grantor acknowledges and agrees that upon recordation of this Deed of Trust, Trustee's and Beneficiary's interest in the Rents shall be deemed to be fully perfected, "choate" and enforced as to Grantor and all third parties, including, without limitation, any subsequently appointed trustee in any case under Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), without the necessity of commencing a foreclosure action with respect to this Deed of Trust, making formal demand for the Rents, exercising Beneficiary's rights under the assignment of Rents provided in this Section 3 in favor of Beneficiary and the Noteholders pursuant to this Deed of Trust, obtaining the appointment of a receiver or taking any other affirmative action.

3.8. Bankruptcy Provisions

Without limitation of the absolute nature of the assignment of the Rents hereunder, Grantor, Trustee and Beneficiary agree that (a) this Deed of Trust shall constitute a “security agreement” for purposes of Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the security interest created by this Deed of Trust extends to property of Grantor acquired before the commencement of a case in bankruptcy and to all amounts paid as Rents and (c) such security interest shall extend to all Rents acquired by the debtor’s estate after the commencement of any case in bankruptcy.

3.9. No Merger of Estates

So long as part of the Secured Obligations secured hereby remains unpaid and undischarged, the fee and leasehold estates to the Property shall not merge, but shall remain separate and distinct, notwithstanding the union of such estates either in Grantor, Beneficiary, any tenant or any third party by purchase or otherwise.

4. Security Agreement

4.1. Security Interest

This Deed of Trust constitutes a “security agreement” with respect to the Fixtures, Assigned Leases, Rents, Property Agreements, Tax Refunds, Proceeds (as defined herein), Insurance and Condemnation Awards (the “Collateral”). To this end, Grantor grants to Beneficiary a first and prior security interest in the Collateral and further affirms its grant of all other Property which is personal property (“Personal Property”) pursuant to that certain Security Agreement of even date herewith, to secure the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations, and agrees that Beneficiary shall have all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC with respect to such property. Any notice of sale, disposition or other intended action by Beneficiary with respect to Collateral sent to Grantor at least ten (10) days prior to any action under the UCC shall constitute reasonable notice to Grantor.

4.2. Financing Statements

Grantor shall execute and deliver to Beneficiary, in form and substance satisfactory to Beneficiary, such financing statements and such further assurances as Beneficiary may, from time to time, reasonably consider necessary to create, perfect and preserve Beneficiary’s security interest hereunder and Beneficiary may cause such statements and assurances to be recorded and filed, at such times and places as may be required or permitted by law to so create, perfect and preserve such security interest. Grantor’s state of organization is the State of Delaware.

4.3. Fixture Filing

This Deed of Trust shall also constitute a “fixture filing” for the purposes of the UCC against all of the Property constituting goods that are or are to become fixtures. The name of the debtor is St. Louis Post-Dispatch LLC and the name of the secured party is The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as Collateral Agent. The address of Grantor set forth in the initial paragraph of this Deed of Trust and is a mailing address for the debtor, and the address of Beneficiary set forth in the initial paragraph of this Deed of Trust is a mailing address for the secured party. The debtor is an organization, the type of organization for the debtor is a limited liability company, the jurisdiction for the debtor is the State of Delaware, and the organizational identification number for the debtor is 3211374. This Deed of Trust covers goods that are or are to become fixtures related to the Property. Grantor is the record owner of the Property.

5. Maintenance, Operation, Preservation and Repair of Property

Grantor shall maintain the Property (and all abutting grounds, sidewalks, roads, parking and landscape areas) in good condition and repair (other than ordinary wear and tear), shall operate the Property in a businesslike manner, shall use its best efforts to preserve and protect both its own and Beneficiary's and the Noteholders' interests in connection with the Property, shall not commit or permit any waste or deterioration of the Property, shall not abandon any portion of the Property, and shall not otherwise act, or fail to act, in such a way as to unreasonably increase the risk of any damage to the Property or of any other impairment of Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and except as otherwise agreed by Beneficiary in writing from time to time, Grantor shall promptly and faithfully perform and observe each of the following provisions:

5.1. Alterations and Repair

Grantor shall not remove, demolish or materially alter any Improvement, except to make non-structural repairs that preserve or increase the Property's value. Grantor shall promptly restore, in a good and workmanlike manner, any Improvement (or other aspect of the Property) that is damaged or destroyed from any cause, and shall diligently complete, in a good and workmanlike manner, any Improvement constructed by Grantor from time to time.

5.2. Compliance with Laws

Grantor shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, rules, regulations, codes and administrative and judicial decisions applicable to the Property, shall not permit any act on or with respect to the Property in violation of any of the foregoing, and shall obtain and maintain in effect all licenses, permits, exemptions, approvals and other authorizations required by law in connection with the ownership and operation of the Property.

5.3. Compliance with Rights of Third Parties

Grantor shall comply with all covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements and rights of way, and all other contract and other rights of third parties relating to the Property, including without limitation all leases and subleases under which Grantor is a landlord or tenant.

5.4. Changes in Property Restrictions

Grantor shall not initiate, join in or consent to any change in any applicable zoning ordinance, general plan or similar law, or to any private restrictive covenant or any similar public or private restriction or obligation with respect to the Property without Beneficiary's consent.

5.5. Taxes and Impositions

Grantor shall pay, prior to delinquency, all of the following (collectively, the “Impositions”): (i) all general and special real property taxes and assessments imposed on the Property; (ii) all other taxes and assessments of every kind that are assessed upon the Property (or upon the owner and/or operator of the Property) and that create or may create a lien upon the Property (or upon any personal property or fixture used in connection with the Property), including without limitation non-governmental levies and assessments imposed in connection with covenants, conditions or restrictions; (iii) all taxes and assessments imposed on the Property following Grantor’s execution hereof in lieu of or in addition to any of the foregoing Impositions; and (iv) all license fees, taxes and assessments imposed on Beneficiary or any Noteholder (other than income and franchise taxes) and measured by or based upon (in whole or in part) the Secured Obligations. If permitted by law, Grantor may pay any Imposition in installments; provided, however, all such installment payments shall be made on a timely basis so as to avoid any and all late fees, penalties, interest and similar charges.

(a) Grantor shall not be required to pay any Imposition so long as (i) its validity is being actively contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings and (ii) Grantor has demonstrated to Beneficiary’s reasonable satisfaction that leaving such Imposition unpaid pending the outcome of such proceedings could not result in the sale of the Property to satisfy such Imposition or otherwise impair Beneficiary’s or the Noteholders’ interests hereunder; provided that, if reasonable under the circumstances, Beneficiary may require Grantor to furnish Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, with a bond or other security reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary in an amount not less than 150% of the applicable claim.

(b) Upon demand by Beneficiary from time to time, Grantor shall deliver to Beneficiary, within thirty (30) days following the due date of any Imposition, but subject to the provisions of Section 5.5(a) above, evidence of payment reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary.

5.6. Utility Charges

Grantor shall promptly pay all utility charges incurred for the benefit of the Property or which may become a lien upon the Property, and all assessments and other charges of a similar nature, public or private, relating to the Property, regardless of whether any such charge is or may become a lien thereon.

5.7. Liens

Grantor shall perform, on or before the date due, all obligations secured by any lien or encumbrance upon any portion of the Property. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Grantor shall not be required to perform any such secured obligation so long as (a) its validity is being actively contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings and (b) Grantor has demonstrated to Beneficiary’s reasonable satisfaction that leaving such obligation unpaid or unperformed pending the outcome of such proceedings could not result in the sale of the Property to satisfy such obligation or otherwise impair Beneficiary’s or the Noteholders’ interests hereunder; provided that, if reasonable under the circumstances, Beneficiary may require Grantor to furnish Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, with a bond or other security reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary in an amount not less than 150% of the applicable claim. If Grantor fails to fulfill its obligations under this Section with respect to any lien or encumbrance, Beneficiary may, subject to Section 8.5 hereof, discharge the same by paying the amount due or by providing a bond or other security therefor, without inquiring into the validity of such lien or encumbrance and without regard for any claimed defense or offset, and Grantor shall, within three (3) business days following receipt of written demand, reimburse Beneficiary for all costs incurred by Beneficiary or the Noteholders in connection therewith.

5.8. Books and Records

Grantor shall maintain complete books of account and other records relating to the ownership and operation of the Property, including contributions of equity investment capital, in accordance with accounting principles reasonably acceptable to Beneficiary and applied on a consistent basis.

5.9. Hazardous Materials

Without limiting the generality of Section 5.2, Grantor shall not cause or permit the substantial or material violation of any law relating to industrial hygiene or environmental conditions in connection with the Property, including soil and ground water conditions, or use, generate, manufacture, store or dispose of on, under or about the Property, or transport to or from the Property, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, hazardous wastes, toxic substances and similar substances and materials, including, without limitation, all Hazardous Materials (as hereinafter defined) and Mold. "Mold", as used herein, shall mean any fungi that reproduces through the release of spores or the splitting of cells or other means, including, but not limited to, mold, mildew, fungi, fungal spores, fragments and metabolites such as mycotoxins and microbial volatile organic compounds. Without prior written notice to Beneficiary (except in the case of emergency), Grantor shall take no remedial action with respect to any Hazardous Materials on, under or about the Property, and shall not enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise or agreement relating to any such Hazardous Materials.

5.10. Title to Property and Lien of this Deed of Trust

Grantor (i) has good and indefeasible title to the Property, in fee simple (to the extent that the Property constitutes real property), free and clear of any liens, claims or interests, except the liens, if any, set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof (the "Permitted Liens"), and (ii) has full power and lawful authority to encumber the Property in the manner and form set forth in this Deed of Trust. This Deed of Trust creates first priority liens and security interests against the Property. Grantor further hereby covenants and agrees that within thirty (30) days of the date hereof, Grantor shall deliver a full paid Lenders Policy (or Policies) of Title Insurance insuring the lien of this Deed of Trust as senior to all other deeds of trust, liens, and encumbrances except as may be expressly provided herein.

5.11. First Lien Status

Grantor shall preserve and protect the first lien status of this Deed of Trust. If any lien or security interest other than the Permitted Liens is asserted against the Property, Grantor shall promptly, and at its expense, (a) give Beneficiary a detailed written notice of such lien or security interest (including origin, amount and other terms), and (b) pay the underlying claim in full or take such other action so as to cause it to be released.

5.12. Payment and Performance

Grantor shall pay the Indebtedness when due under the Notes, this Deed of Trust, the Note Agreement or any related documents, and shall perform or cause the relevant Obligor to perform the Secured Obligations in full when and how they are required to be performed.

5.13. Other Covenants

All of the covenants of the Grantor in the Note Agreement are incorporated herein by reference and, together with covenants in this Article 5, shall, to the extent applicable, be covenants running with the land.

5.14. Environmental Matters

(a) Definitions. As used herein, “Environmental Laws” shall mean all existing or future federal, state and local statutes, ordinances, regulations, rules, executive orders, standards and requirements, including the requirements imposed by common law, concerning or relating to industrial hygiene and the protection of health and the environment including but not limited to: (a) those relating to the generation, manufacture, storage, transportation, disposal, release, emission or discharge of Hazardous Substances (as hereinafter defined); (b) those in connection with the construction, fuel supply, power generation and transmission, waste disposal or any other operations or processes relating to the Property; and (c) those relating to the atmosphere, soil, surface and ground water, wetlands, stream sediments and vegetation on, under, in or about the Property. Any terms mentioned herein which are defined in any Environmental Law shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in said laws; provided, however, that if any of such laws are amended so as to broaden any term defined therein, such broader meaning shall apply subsequent to the effective date of such amendment.

(b) Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Grantor represents, warrants, covenants and agrees as follows:

(i) To Grantor’s knowledge, neither Grantor nor the Property or any occupant thereof, except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports described in Exhibit C attached hereto and made a part hereof (the “Environmental Reports”), is in violation of or subject to any existing, pending or threatened investigation or inquiry by any governmental authority pertaining to any Environmental Law. Grantor shall not cause or permit the Property to be in violation of, or do anything which would subject the Property to any remedial obligations under, any Environmental Law, and shall promptly notify Beneficiary in writing of any existing, pending or to Grantor’s knowledge, threatened investigation or inquiry by any governmental authority in connection with any Environmental Law. In addition, Grantor shall provide Beneficiary with copies of any and all material written communications with any governmental authority in connection with any Environmental Law, concurrently with Grantor’s giving or receiving of same.

(ii) To Grantor's knowledge, there has been no release, spill, discharge, leak, disposal or emission (individually a "Release" and collectively, "Releases") of any Hazardous Material, Hazardous Substance or Hazardous Waste, including gasoline, petroleum products, explosives, toxic substances, solid wastes and radioactive materials (collectively, "Hazardous Substances") or Mold (as defined herein) at, upon, under or within the Property. The use which Grantor or any other occupant of the Property makes or intends to make of the Property will not result in Release of any Hazardous Substances on or to the Property.

(iii) Except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, the Property has never been used by the present or previous owners and/or operators nor will be used in the future to refine, produce, store, handle, transfer, process, transport, generate, manufacture, heat, treat, recycle or dispose of Hazardous Substances.

(iv) The Property: (i) is being and, except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, has been operated in compliance with all Environmental Laws, and all permits required thereunder have been obtained and complied with in all respects; and (ii) except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, does not have any Hazardous Substances present excepting small quantities of petroleum and chemical products, in proper storage containers, that are necessary for the construction or operation of the commercial business of Grantor and its tenants, and the usual waste products therefrom ("Permitted Substances").

(v) Grantor will and will cause its tenants to operate the Property in compliance with all Environmental Laws and, other than Permitted Substances, will not place or permit to be placed any Hazardous Substances on the Property.

(vi) No lien has been attached to or threatened to be imposed upon the Property, and except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, there is no basis for the imposition of any such lien based on any governmental action under Environmental Laws. Except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, neither Grantor nor any other person has been, is or will be involved in operations at the Property which could lead to the imposition of environmental liability on Grantor, or, to the best of Grantor's knowledge, on any subsequent or former owner of the Property, or the creation of an environmental lien on the Property. In the event that any such lien is filed, Grantor shall, within (30) days from the date that the Grantor is given notice of such lien (or within such shorter period of time as is appropriate in the event that steps have commenced to have the Property sold), either: (i) pay the claim and remove the lien from the Property; or (ii) furnish a cash deposit, bond or other security satisfactory in form and substance to Beneficiary in an amount sufficient to discharge the claim out of which the lien arises.

(c) Right to Inspect and Cure. Beneficiary shall have the right to conduct or have conducted by its agents or contractors such environmental inspections, audits and tests as Beneficiary shall deem necessary or advisable from time to time at the sole cost and expense of Grantor; provided, however, that Grantor shall not be obligated to bear the expense of such environmental inspections, audits and tests so long as (a) no Event of Default exists, and (b) Beneficiary has no cause to believe (other than as a result of matters disclosed in the Environmental Reports) in its sole reasonable judgment that there has been a Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Substances at the Property or that Grantor or the Property is in violation of any Environmental Law. The cost of such inspections, audits and tests, if chargeable to Grantor as aforesaid, shall be added to the Liabilities and shall be secured by this Deed of Trust. Grantor shall, and shall cause each tenant of the Property to, cooperate with such inspection efforts; such cooperation shall include, without limitation, supplying all information requested concerning the operations conducted and Hazardous Substances located at the Property. In the event that Grantor fails to comply with any Environmental Law, Beneficiary may, in addition to any of its other remedies under this Deed of Trust, cause the Property to be in compliance with such laws and the cost of such compliance shall be added to the sums secured by this Deed of Trust in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2 hereof.

(d) Indemnification. The Grantor covenants and agrees, at Grantor's sole cost and expense, to indemnify, defend (at trial and appellate levels and with attorneys, consultants and experts acceptable to Beneficiary) and hold Beneficiary, the Noteholders, and each of their respective successors and assigns (each an "Indemnified Party" and collectively the "Indemnified Parties") harmless against and from any and all liens, damages, losses, liabilities, obligations, settlement payments, penalties, assessments, citations, directives, claims, litigation, demands, defenses, judgments, suits, proceedings, costs, disbursements or expenses of any kind or of any nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and disbursements incurred in investigating, defending against, settling or prosecuting any claim, litigation or proceeding) which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted or awarded against such Indemnified Party or the Property and arising directly or indirectly from or out of: (a) the Release or threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas (i) caused by or attributable to the Grantor or (ii) originating or emanating from the Property regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of the Grantor (b) the violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting the Property, whether or not caused by or within the control of the Grantor; (c) the failure of the Grantor to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Section 5.14; (d) the violation of any Environmental Laws in connection with other real property of the Grantor which gives or may give rise to any liens or other rights of any party with respect to the Property by virtue of any Environmental Laws; or (e) the enforcement of this Deed of Trust, including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable costs of assessment, containment and/or removal of any and all Hazardous Materials from all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas, (ii) the reasonable costs of any necessary actions taken in response to a Release or threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas to prevent or minimize such Release or threat of Release so that it does not migrate or otherwise cause or threaten danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment, and (iii) costs incurred to comply with the Environmental Laws in connection with all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas. Beneficiary's and the other Indemnified Parties' rights under this Section 5.14 shall be in addition to all rights of Beneficiary under the Note Agreement and under any other documents, certificates or instruments evidencing, securing or relating to the Notes, and payments by the Grantor under this Section 5.14 shall not reduce the Grantor's obligations and liabilities under any of the other documents, certificates or instruments evidencing, securing or relating to the Notes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantors shall not be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Parties against any losses or liabilities arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Parties.

6. Insurance

6.1. Policies Required

Grantor shall at all times maintain at Grantor's sole expense, with insurers reasonably approved by Beneficiary, the following policies of insurance in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary:

(a) all insurance required by law from time to time with respect to the ownership or operation of the Property, including without limitation workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance;

(b) fire and hazard "all risk" insurance covering 100% of the replacement cost of the Improvements in the event of fire, lightning, windstorm, earthquake, vandalism, malicious mischief and all other risks normally covered by "all risk" coverage policies in the area where the Property is located (including loss by flood if the Property is in an area designated as subject to the danger of flood);

(c) commercial general liability insurance in amounts reasonably required by Beneficiary from time to time; and

All such insurance shall provide that it may not be cancelled or materially modified without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Beneficiary. The policies required under this Section shall include a Standard Mortgage Clause, a Lender's Loss Payable Clause and Additional Insured endorsements in form and substance satisfactory to Beneficiary, assuring Beneficiary that all proceeds, to the extent of the outstanding balance of the Secured Obligations, shall be paid to Beneficiary, on behalf of the Noteholders, as the secured party. Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall be an additional named insured on the liability insurance policies. Certificates of insurance (on an Acor 27 form, if applicable) evidencing such insurance for the above coverages (and/or original policies, if required by Beneficiary) shall be delivered to Beneficiary from time to time upon demand. All policies insuring against damage to the Improvements shall contain an agreed value clause sufficient to eliminate any risk of co-insurance. No less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of each policy, Grantor shall deliver to Beneficiary evidence of renewal or replacement of such policy reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary.

6.2. Claims

Grantor shall give Beneficiary immediate notice of any casualty to any portion of the Property, whether or not covered by insurance. If covered, and if there is an Event of Default, Grantor hereby authorizes Beneficiary, if Beneficiary so elects, to make proof of loss, to appear in and prosecute any action arising from any applicable policy and, while any Event of Default remains uncured, to settle, adjust or compromise any claim under any such policy, and Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Beneficiary its true and lawful attorney-in-fact for all such purposes. Grantor shall not settle, adjust or compromise any such claim without the reasonable prior written approval of Beneficiary. Nothing in this Section is intended to prohibit Grantor from participating if Beneficiary elects to pursue any such claim.

6.3. Delivery of Proceeds to Beneficiary

In the event that, notwithstanding the Lender's Loss Payable Clause requirement set forth above, the proceeds of any casualty insurance policy described herein are paid to Grantor, Grantor shall deliver such proceeds, to the extent of the outstanding balance of the Secured Obligations, to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, immediately upon receipt.

6.4. Application of Casualty Insurance Proceeds

Any proceeds collected (the "Proceeds") under any casualty insurance policy described in this Deed of Trust shall be disbursed to Grantor as provided below, but only upon fulfillment of each of the following conditions (the "Restoration Conditions") within ninety (90) days following the occurrence of the damage for which the Proceeds are collected:

(a) Grantor shall demonstrate to Beneficiary's reasonable satisfaction that the Proceeds (together with amounts delivered by Grantor pursuant to subsection (b) immediately below) will be adequate to repair the Improvements and to restore the fair market value of the Property, within a time period reasonably acceptable to Beneficiary, to at least the value it had immediately prior to sustaining the damage. Such demonstration shall include delivery to Beneficiary of plans and specifications reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary and a construction contract in form and content, and with a contractor, reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary.

(b) To the extent that the Proceeds are insufficient to accomplish the restoration required above, Grantor shall deliver to Beneficiary funds (the "Shortfall Funds") in the amount of such shortfall, which funds shall be assigned to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, as security for Grantor's Secured Obligations hereunder and held and disbursed in the same manner as the Proceeds.

(c) Grantor shall execute such documents as Beneficiary reasonably requires to evidence and secure Grantor's obligation to use all amounts disbursed for the diligent restoration of the Property.

(d) No Event of Default (other than defaults relating to the casualty) shall remain uncured.

Any Proceeds and Shortfall Funds to be disbursed to Grantor shall be held by Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, and disbursed in accordance with customary construction lending practices. Any amounts remaining undisbursed following completion of such restoration shall be returned to Grantor up to the amount of any Shortfall Funds deposited by Grantor, and any other amounts remaining shall either be paid to Grantor or applied by Beneficiary against the Secured Obligations, as Beneficiary elects in its absolute discretion.

In the event that Grantor fails to fulfill the Restoration Conditions within ninety (90) days following the date on which the damage occurs, Beneficiary may, in its sole discretion, choose to apply the Proceeds against the Secured Obligations, and the selection of which Secured Obligations to apply the Proceeds against, and the order of such application, shall be made by Beneficiary in its absolute discretion.

6.5. Restoration

Nothing in this Section 6 shall be construed to excuse Grantor from repairing and restoring all damage to the Property, regardless of whether insurance proceeds are available or sufficient.

6.6. Assignment of Policies Upon Foreclosure

In the event of foreclosure of this Deed of Trust or other assignment of the Property in extinguishment of any Secured Obligations, all policies of insurance required hereunder and any related unearned premiums shall, without further action, be assigned to the successor-in-interest to Grantor with respect to the Property, and Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Beneficiary as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact to execute all documents necessary to effect any such transfer.

6.7. Waiver of Subrogation

Grantor hereby waives all right to recover against Beneficiary or any Noteholder (or any officer, employee, agent or representative of Beneficiary or any Noteholder) for any loss incurred by Grantor from any cause insured against; provided however, that this waiver of subrogation shall not be effective with respect to any insurance policy if the coverage thereunder would be materially reduced or impaired as a result. Grantor shall use its best efforts to obtain only policies which permit the foregoing waiver of subrogation.

6.8. Limitation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that should any action required under this Section 6 conflict with any provisions contained in the Note Agreement, the Note Agreement shall control.

7. Condemnation

7.1. Proceedings

Upon learning of the institution or threatened institution of any proceeding for the condemnation or other taking for public or quasi-public use of any portion of the Property, Grantor shall immediately notify Beneficiary in writing, together with copies of all applicable documents. Grantor shall take all action reasonably required by Beneficiary in connection therewith to protect the interests of Grantor, the Noteholders and/or Beneficiary, and Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall be entitled (without regard to the adequacy of its security) to participate in any such proceeding and be represented therein by counsel of its choice.

7.2. Compensation

Grantor hereby assigns to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, as security for the Secured Obligations and to the extent of the outstanding balance of the Secured Obligations, all amounts payable to Grantor in connection with any taking of any portion of the Property for public or quasi-public use, and any proceeds of any related settlement regardless of whether eminent domain proceedings are instituted in connection therewith (collectively, "Compensation"). Grantor shall deliver all Compensation to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, immediately upon receipt. In the event Beneficiary chooses, in its absolute discretion, to waive any Event of Default resulting from any such taking, any Compensation received by Beneficiary shall be (a) disbursed to Grantor for repairs and reconstruction and/or (b) paid to Grantor and/or (c) applied by Beneficiary against the Secured Obligations in accordance with the rights, procedures and other provisions set forth in this Deed of Trust for the application of Proceeds (including requirements with respect to Grantor's deposit of Shortfall Funds).

8. Additional Duties and Powers

8.1. Actions by Beneficiary to Protect Its and Noteholders' Interests

If Grantor fails to perform any Secured Obligation, either Beneficiary or Trustee or both may, without releasing Grantor from such obligation, perform such obligation to the extent reasonably necessary to protect its interests hereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Beneficiary and Trustee are each hereby specifically authorized to do any or all of the following:

- (a) enter upon and/or take possession of the Property;
- (b) make alterations, repairs and other improvements reasonably necessary to maintain the Property in good condition and repair;
- (c) participate and appear in any action or proceeding which may affect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder;
- (d) pay, purchase, contest and/or compromise any encumbrance, lien or other claim which may affect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder; and/or
- (e) pay all expenses reasonably incurred in protecting Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder, including fees and costs of attorneys and other consultants.

8.2. Inspections

Beneficiary, the Noteholders and their representatives may from time to time, at reasonable times and following reasonable notice (except in emergencies), conduct inspections of the Property, and inspect and/or copy any and all books and records relating thereto, for the purpose of monitoring Grantor's compliance with its Secured Obligations under this Deed of Trust and any other document secured hereby.

8.3. Defense of Actions

Grantor shall, at its sole expense, appear in and defend any action or proceeding which may affect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder, or under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Secured Obligations or any related document.

8.4. Indemnity of Beneficiary, Noteholders and Trustee

Grantor shall defend, indemnify and hold Beneficiary, the Noteholders and Trustee harmless from and against:

(a) all claims, demands and causes of action asserted against Beneficiary, any Noteholder or Trustee by any person (except to the extent that it results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Beneficiary, such Noteholder or Trustee, as applicable) which directly or indirectly relate to (i) a claim, demand or cause of action that such person has or asserts against Grantor (or any other obligor or guarantor with respect to any Secured Obligation), (ii) any lease or other contract assigned to Beneficiary hereunder, (iii) acts or omissions of Grantor, or other rights of third parties, relating to the Property, (iv) the ownership, occupancy or use of the Property, or (v) the presence, release, handling, transport or remediation of any Hazardous Substance on, under or in the Property caused by Grantor, or the presence, release, handling, transport or remediation of any Hazardous Substance on any neighboring properties caused by Grantor or any violations by Grantor of any Environmental Laws; and

(b) all liabilities, losses and other costs (including court costs and attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by Beneficiary, any Noteholder or Trustee as the result of any claim, demand or cause of action described in subsection (a) immediately above.

8.5. Reimbursement of Beneficiary

Grantor shall reimburse Beneficiary immediately upon written demand for all costs reasonably incurred by Beneficiary or any Noteholder (including fees and expenses of attorneys and other consultants) in the exercise of Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' rights hereunder and the enforcement of Grantor's Secured Obligations hereunder, including without limitation the following:

(a) costs incurred under Section 5.7(a), Section 8.1, or under similar provisions of this Deed of Trust, to protect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder;

(b) costs incurred in connection with claims, demands, causes of action, liabilities, losses and other costs against which Beneficiary or the Noteholders are indemnified hereunder; and

(c) all liabilities, losses and other costs incurred by Beneficiary or any Noteholder as a direct or indirect result of any Event of Default, including the cost of a Trustee's Sale Guarantee, Trustee's fees and expenses, and receiver's fees and expenses.

Grantor's reimbursement obligations under this Deed of Trust shall be Secured Obligations, shall bear interest at any default rate set forth in the Notes or the Note Agreement following written demand, and shall survive the reconveyance of this Deed of Trust.

8.6. Notice of Certain Matters

Grantor shall give notice to Beneficiary, within five (5) business days of Grantor's learning thereof, of each of the following:

- (a) any litigation or claim affecting or relating to the Property;
- (b) any dispute between Grantor and any governmental agency relating to the Property, the adverse determination of which might materially affect the Property; and
- (c) the presence of any Hazardous Materials on, under or about the Property;
- (d) the enforcement, clean-up, removal or other action or requirement of any governmental agency relating to any such Hazardous Materials; and
- (e) the existence of any occurrence or condition on any property in the vicinity of the Property that could cause the Property to be subject to any restrictions relating to Hazardous Materials.

Notice shall be given pursuant to and in accordance with the Note Agreement.

8.7. Further Assurances

Grantor shall execute and deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, all documents, and take all actions, reasonably required by Beneficiary from time to time to confirm the rights created or now or hereafter intended to be created hereunder, to protect and further the validity, priority and enforceability hereof, to subject to the lien hereof any property intended to be encumbered hereby, or otherwise to carry out the purposes hereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantor shall, upon request of Beneficiary, promptly correct any defect, error or omission which may be discovered in the contents hereof or in the execution or acknowledgment hereof.

8.8. Impounds

(a) While any Event of Default remains uncured, if requested by Beneficiary, Grantor shall deposit with Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, in monthly installments, an amount equal to one-twelfth of the estimated aggregate annual Impositions on the Property. In such event, Grantor shall cause all bills and other documents relating to Impositions to be sent directly to Beneficiary and, upon receipt of the same, and provided Grantor has deposited sufficient funds with Beneficiary, Beneficiary shall pay the amounts due out of the funds so deposited. If at any time and for any reason the funds so deposited are or will be insufficient to pay such amounts as may then or subsequently be due, Beneficiary shall notify Grantor and Grantor shall immediately deposit an amount equal to such deficiency with Beneficiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall cause Beneficiary or any Noteholder to be deemed a trustee of such funds or obligate Beneficiary or any Noteholder to pay any amounts in excess of the deposited funds. Beneficiary may commingle such funds with its own funds and Grantor shall not be entitled to interest thereon.

(b) While any Event of Default remains uncured, if requested by Beneficiary, Grantor shall deposit with Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, in monthly installments, an amount equal to one-twelfth of the estimated aggregate annual premiums on all policies of insurance required by this Deed of Trust. In such event, Grantor shall cause all bills and other documents relating to such insurance premiums to be sent directly to Beneficiary and, upon receipt of the same, and provided Grantor has deposited sufficient funds with Beneficiary, Beneficiary shall pay the amounts due out of the funds so deposited. If at any time and for any reason the funds so deposited are or will be insufficient to pay such amounts as may then or subsequently be due, Beneficiary shall notify Grantor and Grantor shall immediately deposit an amount equal to such deficiency with Beneficiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall cause Beneficiary or any Noteholder to be deemed a trustee of such funds or obligate Beneficiary or any Noteholder to pay any amounts in excess of the deposited funds, nor shall anything contained herein modify the obligation of Grantor to maintain such insurance in force at all times. Beneficiary may commingle such funds with its own funds and Grantor shall not be entitled to interest thereon.

9. Sale or Lease of Property

Except as otherwise permitted in this Deed of Trust, Grantor shall not sell, lease, ground lease, pledge, encumber, create a security interest in or otherwise transfer any interest in the Property without the prior written consent of Beneficiary, which consent may be withheld in Beneficiary's absolute discretion. The consent by Beneficiary to any sale, lease, ground lease, pledge, encumbrance, creation of a security interest in, or other transfer of any portion of the Property shall not be deemed to constitute a novation or a consent to any further sale, lease, ground lease, pledge, encumbrance, creation of a security interest in or other transfer, or to waive the right of Beneficiary, at its option, to declare the Secured Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable, without notice to Grantor or any other person or entity, upon any such sale, lease, ground lease, pledge encumbrance, creation of a security interest in or other transfer to which Beneficiary shall not have consented. In connection with the foregoing consent requirements, Grantor acknowledges that Beneficiary and the Noteholders relied upon Grantor's particular expertise in entering into the transaction to which this Deed of Trust relates and continues to rely on such expertise to ensure the satisfactory operation of the Property and repayment of the Secured Obligations.

9.1. Transfers

Transfers requiring Beneficiary's prior written consent shall include, without limitation, the following:

- (a) involuntary transfers and transfers by operation of law; and
- (b) liens and assignments as security for obligations, whether voluntary or involuntary.

9.2. Continuing Liability of Grantor

No sale, lease or other transfer shall relieve Grantor from primary liability for any Secured Obligation or relieve Grantor from any such obligation from any liability under the Note Agreement, the Notes or any other documents, certificates, or agreements executed in connection therewith or relieve any guarantor of any such obligation from any liability under its guaranty, and Grantor shall deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, all documents reasonably required by Beneficiary to evidence its continuing liability.

9.3. Limitation

The foregoing provision notwithstanding, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that in the event of any conflict between this Section 9 and any provisions set forth in the Note Agreement with respect to the release or other disposition of the Property, the Note Agreement shall control.

10. Other Waivers, Rights and Obligations

10.1. Authority to Modify Obligations

Beneficiary may from time to time, without notice, and without affecting the lien of this Deed of Trust or the liability of any other person or entity for any Secured Obligation, (a) release any person from any Secured Obligation, (b) extend the maturity or otherwise alter the terms of any Secured Obligation, (c) grant other indulgences, (d) release or reconvey any portion of the Property, (e) take or release any other security for any Secured Obligation, and/or (f) make compositions and other arrangements with debtors relating to any Secured Obligation.

10.2. Additional Security

No other collateral held as security for any Secured Obligation shall be affected by the execution of this Deed of Trust, and all such collateral shall be cumulative. Neither the taking of additional security nor the release or partial release of any security for any Secured Obligation shall affect the lien hereof or the liability of any obligor, endorser, guarantor or other surety in connection therewith. Beneficiary may, in its absolute discretion, and in accordance with applicable law, enforce the sale of (or otherwise realize on) any other security for any Secured Obligation before, after, or concurrently with, any exercise of its remedies hereunder.

10.3. Survival of Warranties

Any representations and warranties set forth herein or otherwise made by Grantor in connection herewith shall survive the delivery and recording hereof and continue so long as any Secured Obligation remains outstanding.

10.4. Other Waivers By Grantor

Grantor waives, to the extent permitted by law (a) the benefit of all present and future laws providing for any appraisal before sale of any portion of the Property, (b) whether now existing or hereafter created, all rights of redemption, valuation, appraisal, stay of execution, and marshalling, in the event of any foreclosure hereunder, (c) the right to plead or assert any statute of limitations as a defense to the enforcement of any Secured Obligation or this Deed of Trust, and (d) all rights which Grantor may now or hereafter have by reason of laws of the States of New York and/or Missouri pertaining to sureties.

10.5. Subrogation to Lienholder Rights

To the extent that proceeds of the Secured Obligations and/or the Notes are used to pay any outstanding lien, charge or encumbrance against the Property, Beneficiary and the Noteholders shall be subrogated to all rights and liens held by the owner or holder of such lien, charge or encumbrance, regardless of whether such lien, charge or encumbrance is released.

10.6. Nonliability of Beneficiary

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, no assignment to Beneficiary hereunder of any lease, sublease or other document shall be construed to impose any obligation or liability upon Beneficiary or any Noteholder in connection therewith.

10.7. Partial Invalidity of Lien

If the lien of this Deed of Trust is invalid or unenforceable as to any part of the Secured Obligations or any part of the Property, the unsecured or partially secured portion of such obligations shall be completely paid prior to the payment of the remaining secured or partially secured portion of such obligations, and all payments made on the Secured Obligations, whether voluntary or under foreclosure or other enforcement action or procedure, shall be first applied against that portion of such obligations which is not secured or fully secured by the lien of this Deed of Trust.

10.8. Performance of Secured Obligations

Grantor shall pay and perform when due each of the Secured Obligations which constitutes an obligation of Grantor.

11. Events of Default

The occurrence of any of the following, whatever the reason therefor, shall constitute an "Event of Default" hereunder:

11.1. the occurrence of any Event of Default as defined in the Note Agreement, the Guaranty Agreement (as defined in the Note Agreement) or any other document executed in connection therewith, or under any other Secured Obligation or related document;

11.2. a default under any other document or agreement secured hereby;

11.3. if any representation made herein or in the Note Agreement or in any other document executed in connection therewith (including any certificate delivered in connection with any of the foregoing), or otherwise made by or on behalf of Grantor or any guarantor of the Secured Obligations in connection with the transactions contemplated under the Note Agreement, shall be false or misleading in any material respect when made; or 11.4. a default or breach by Grantor in any obligation made or contained herein.

12. Foreclosure and Other Remedies

12.1. Acceleration Upon Default; Additional Remedies

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, Beneficiary may declare all Secured Obligations immediately due and payable and, whether or not Beneficiary exercises such option, Beneficiary, on behalf of the Noteholders, may do any or all of the following:

(a) In person or by agent or court-appointed receiver, and without regard to the adequacy of its security: enter upon and take possession of the Property, or any part thereof, in its own name, in the names of the Noteholders or in the name of Trustee; take any action which it reasonably deems necessary to preserve the value, marketability or rentability of the Property, increase the income therefrom or protect the security hereof; and, with or without taking possession of the Property, sue for or otherwise collect the Rents, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs of operation and collection, against any Secured Obligation, all in such order as Beneficiary determines in its absolute discretion.

(b) Commence an action to foreclose this Deed of Trust as a mortgage, appoint a receiver, or specifically enforce any of the covenants hereof.

(c) Deliver to Trustee a written declaration of default and demand for sale, and a written notice of default and election to cause Grantor's interest in the Property to be sold, which notice the Trustee or Beneficiary shall cause to be duly filed for record in the Official Records of the County in which the Property is located.

(d) Exercise all other rights and remedies provided herein, in the Note Agreement, or in any related document or other document secured hereby, or in any document that secures all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or provided by law.

12.2. Foreclosure By Power of Sale

(a) Should Beneficiary elect to foreclose by exercise of the power of sale contained herein, Beneficiary shall notify Trustee (a "Notice of Default") and deposit with Trustee this Deed of Trust and such evidence of expenditures made and secured hereby as Trustee may reasonably require.

(b) Upon receipt of any such notice from Beneficiary, Trustee shall cause to be recorded, published and delivered to Grantor and all other entitled parties such Notice of Default and Election to Sell as is then required by law and by this Deed of Trust. Trustee shall, without demand on Grantor, after lapse of such time as is then required by law after recordation of such Notice of Default and after Notice of Sale has been given and published as required by law, sell the Property at the time and place of sale fixed in such Notice of Sale, either as a whole or in separate lots, parcels or items and in such order as Beneficiary elects, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States payable at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to such purchaser(s) good and sufficient deed(s) conveying the property so sold, but without any warranty, express or implied. Any person, including Grantor, Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary, may purchase at any such sale.

(c) After deducting all fees and costs of Beneficiary, the Noteholders and Trustee, including costs of evidence of title in connection with any such sale, Beneficiary shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of (i) first, all amounts expended under the terms hereof and not then repaid, with accrued interest; (ii) second, all other amounts then secured hereby; and (iii) the remainder, if any, to the person(s) legally entitled thereto.

(d) To the extent permitted by applicable law, Trustee may postpone the sale of all or any portion of the Property by public announcement at the time and place of sale, and from time to time thereafter may again postpone such sale by public announcement or subsequently noticed sale.

(e) A sale of less than all of the Property or any defective or irregular sale made hereunder shall not exhaust the power of sale provided for herein, and subsequent sales may be made hereunder until all Secured Obligations have been satisfied or the entire Property has been sold without defect or irregularity.

(f) The right of Beneficiary to collect and receive the Rents from the Property or to take possession of the Property or to exercise any of the rights or powers herein granted to Beneficiary shall, to the extent not prohibited by law, also extend to the period from and after the filing of any suit or the taking of other actions to foreclose the lien of this Deed of Trust, including any period allowed by law for the redemption of the Property after any foreclosure sale.

12.3. Separate Sales

The Property may be sold in one or more parcels and in such manner and order as Trustee in its sole discretion may elect; the right of sale arising out of any Event of Default shall not be exhausted by any one or more sales.

12.4. Appointment of Receiver

While any Event of Default remains uncured, Beneficiary may, in accordance with applicable law and without regard to the value of the Property, apply to any court having jurisdiction to appoint a receiver or receivers of the Property, and Grantor hereby irrevocably consents to such appointment. Any such receiver shall have the usual powers and duties of receivers in similar cases, and all the powers and duties of Beneficiary in case of entry as provided herein, until the date of confirmation of sale of the Property (unless such receivership is sooner terminated).

12.5. Application of Funds

Except as otherwise provided herein, while any Event of Default remains uncured, Beneficiary may, at any time without notice, apply any amounts received by Beneficiary or any Noteholder from or on account of Grantor or the Property (including amounts received as Rents, as insurance or condemnation proceeds, and/or as impounds with respect to insurance premiums or Impositions) against any Secured Obligation, in such order as Beneficiary elects, regardless of whether any such obligation is yet due. The receipt, use or application of any such amount shall not be construed to affect the maturity of any Secured Obligation, any rights of Beneficiary, the Noteholders or Trustee under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents, or any obligations of Grantor under the Note Agreement, other Secured Obligation or any related documents; or to cure or waive any default under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents; or to invalidate any act of Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary.

12.6. Cumulative Remedies; No Waiver

Trustee and Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall each be entitled to enforce the performance of any Secured Obligation and to exercise all rights under this Deed of Trust, the Note Agreement, the other Secured Obligations or other agreement or any law now or hereafter in force, regardless of whether some or all of the Secured Obligations are otherwise secured, whether by guaranty, deed of trust, lien, assignment or otherwise. Neither the acceptance or enforcement of this Deed of Trust, whether by court action or pursuant to the power of sale or other powers contained herein, shall prejudice Trustee's, any Noteholder's or Beneficiary's right to realize upon any other security held by Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary, it being agreed that Trustee and Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall each be entitled to enforce this Deed of Trust and any such other security in such order as they determine in their absolute discretion in accordance with applicable law. Trustee's, the Noteholders' and Beneficiary's rights and remedies hereunder are cumulative and in addition to all rights and remedies provided by law or otherwise from time to time. Every right or remedy given by the Note Agreement, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents to Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary or to which any of them is otherwise entitled may be exercised, concurrently or independently, from time to time and as often as is deemed expedient by Trustee or Beneficiary, and either of them may pursue inconsistent remedies. No waiver of any default shall be implied from any omission by Beneficiary or any Noteholder to take action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated. No waiver of any default shall affect any default other than the default expressly waived, and any such waiver shall be operative only for the time and to the extent stated. No waiver of any provision of the Note Agreement, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same provision. Beneficiary's consent to or approval of any act by Grantor requiring further consent or approval shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary Beneficiary's consent to or approval of any subsequent act. Beneficiary's or any Noteholder's acceptance of the late performance of any Secured Obligation shall not constitute a waiver by Beneficiary or the Noteholders of the right to require prompt performance of all further Secured Obligations; Beneficiary's or any Noteholder's acceptance of any performance following the filing of a notice of default hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' right to proceed with the exercise of any remedies for any unfulfilled obligations; and Beneficiary's or any Noteholder's acceptance of any partial performance shall not constitute a waiver of any rights relating to the unfulfilled portion of the applicable obligation.

12.7. Request for Notice

Grantor hereby requests that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale hereunder be mailed to it at the address set forth in the first paragraph of this Deed of Trust.

13. Miscellaneous Provisions

13.1. Execution of Reconveyances and Other Instruments by Trustee

Upon written request of Beneficiary from time to time and upon payment of Trustee's fees and costs in connection therewith and, if reasonably required by Trustee, upon presentation of this Deed of Trust for endorsement, Trustee shall, without affecting the personal liability of any person with respect to any Secured Obligation or the lien of this Deed of Trust upon the remainder of the Property, (a) reconvey to the person(s) legally entitled thereto, without warranty, any portion of the Property then held hereunder, (b) consent in writing to the making of any map or plat thereof, (c) join in granting any easement thereon, or (d) join in any extension agreement, agreement subordinating the lien or charge hereof, or other agreement or document relating hereto or to the Property.

13.2. Appointment of Successor Trustee

Trustee or any successor acting hereunder may resign and thereupon be discharged of the trusts hereunder upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Beneficiary. Regardless of whether such resignation occurs, Beneficiary may from time to time substitute a successor or successors to any Trustee. If permitted by law, Beneficiary shall substitute such successor or successors by recording a document in the County of St. Louis by Beneficiary and containing the name of the original Grantor and Beneficiary hereunder, the book and page where this Deed of Trust is recorded (and/or instrument number, as applicable) in the County of St. Louis and the name of the new Trustee, in which event such successor Trustee or Trustees shall, without conveyance from the predecessor Trustee, succeed to all its estate, rights and duties hereunder.

13.3. Trust Irrevocable; Acceptance by Trustee

The trust created hereby is irrevocable by Grantor. Trustee accepts this trust when this Deed of Trust is made a public record as provided by law.

13.4. Statements by Grantor

Grantor shall, within ten (10) days following Beneficiary's demand from time to time, deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, a written statement setting forth all outstanding amounts secured by this Deed of Trust and stating whether any offset or defense exists against such amounts.

13.5. Beneficiary Statements

For any statement or accounting requested by Grantor or any other entitled person pursuant to any provision of applicable law, or for any other document furnished to Grantor by Beneficiary or any Noteholder, Beneficiary and the Noteholders may charge the maximum amount then permitted by law or, if no such maximum, then in accordance with Beneficiary's and the Noteholders' reasonable and customary charges therefor or the actual cost reasonably incurred by Beneficiary and the Noteholders, whichever is greater.

13.6. Notices

All notices, demands, approvals and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and be sent or delivered to the appropriate party at the address set forth below or as set forth in the first paragraph of this Deed of Trust. Addresses for notice may be changed from time to time by written notice to all other parties. All communications shall be effective when actually received; provided however, that nonreceipt of any communication as the result of a change of address of which the sending party was not notified or as the result of a refusal to accept delivery shall be deemed receipt of such communication.

Section 1.2. Future Advances. THIS DEED OF TRUST, SECURITY AGREEMENT AND FIXTURE FILING SECURES FUTURE ADVANCES AND FUTURE OBLIGATIONS AND SHALL BE GOVERNED BY SECTION 443.055 R.S.MO., AS AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME. THE TOTAL FACE AMOUNT OF THE PRESENT AND FUTURE ADVANCES AND OBLIGATIONS WHICH MAY BE SECURED HEREBY IS $126,355,000.00, PLUS ANY ADDITIONAL AMOUNTS WHICH MAY BE SECURED HEREBY UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 443.055 R.S.MO., AS AMENDED.

Section 1.3. Insurance.

(a) Pursuant to Section 427.120 R.S.Mo., Grantor acknowledges receipt of the following notice: "Unless you provide evidence of the insurance coverage required by your agreement with us, we may purchase insurance at your expense to protect our interests in your collateral. This insurance may, but need not, protect your interests. The coverage that we purchase may not pay any claim that you make or any claim that is made against you in connection with the collateral. You may later cancel any insurance purchased by us, but only after providing evidence that you have obtained insurance as required by our agreement. If we purchase insurance for the collateral, you will be responsible for the costs of that insurance, including the insurance premium, interest and any other charges we may impose in connection with the placement of the insurance, until the effective date of the cancellation or expiration of the insurance. The costs of the insurance may be added to your total outstanding balance or obligation. The costs of the insurance may be more than the cost of insurance you may be able to obtain on your own."

(b) If Grantor fails to maintain any insurance required hereunder or under the other Loan Documents or fails to provide evidence of such insurance as required hereunder or under the other Loan Documents, Beneficiary may, but shall not be obligated to, purchase such required insurance at Grantor's expense to protect its interests in the Property. charges in connection therewith shall be added to the Indebtedness and shall be secured by the lien of this Deed of Trust. The costs of the insurance obtained by the Beneficiary may be more than the cost of insurance Grantor may be able to obtain on its own. Beneficiary may bid and become purchaser at any sale under this Deed of Trust. The power of sale hereunder shall not be exhausted by any one or more such sales (or attempts to sell) as to all or any portion of the Property remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until all of the Property has been sold or all indebtedness of Grantor to Beneficiary secured hereby shall have been paid in full.

(b) Trustee may sell and convey the Property under the power aforesaid, although Trustee has been, may now be or may hereafter be attorney or agent of Beneficiary in respect to the loan made by Beneficiary evidenced by the Loan Documents or this Deed of Trust or in respect to any matter of business whatsoever.

(c) Trustee hereby lets the Property to Grantor until a sale be had under the foregoing provisions, upon the following terms and conditions, such letting being to-wit: Grantor and every and all persons claiming or possessing the Property, or any part thereof, by, through or under Grantor shall pay rent therefor during said term at the rate of one cent per month, payable monthly upon demand, and shall surrender immediate peaceable possession of the Property, to the purchaser thereof, under such sale, without notice or demand therefor. Should possession not be surrendered as provided for herein the purchaser shall be entitled to institute proceedings for possession as aforesaid.

(d) In the event any foreclosure advertisement is running or has run at the time of such appointment of a successor trustee, the successor trustee may consummate the advertised sale without the necessity of republishing such advertisement. satisfactions, and to sue, either in Grantor's name, the Noteholders' names or in Beneficiary's name, for all Rents.

3.2. License to Collect

Notwithstanding the foregoing assignment of the Rents, so long as no Event of Default (as defined below) has occurred and is continuing, Grantors shall have a license to collect all Rents (but no more than one month in advance), and to retain and enjoy the same.

3.3. Collection and Application of Rents by Beneficiary

While any Event of Default remains uncured, (a) Grantors' license to collect the Rents shall automatically terminate, without notice, (b) Beneficiary may at any time, without notice, in person, by agent or by court-appointed receiver, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the Secured Obligations, enter upon any portion of the Property and/or, with or without taking possession thereof, in its own name or the Noteholders' names sue for or otherwise collect the Rents (including past due amounts), and (c) promptly following demand by Beneficiary therefor, Grantors shall deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, all prepaid Rents, deposits relating to Rents, and all other Rents then held by or thereafter collected by Grantors. All Rents collected by or delivered to Beneficiary may only be applied by Beneficiary against the Secured Obligations, in such order as Beneficiary shall determine in its absolute discretion. No application of Rents against any Secured Obligations or other action taken by Beneficiary or any Noteholder under this Section 3 shall be deemed to cure or waive any Event of Default, or to invalidate any other action taken in response to such Event of Default, or to make Beneficiary or the Noteholders a mortgagee-in-possession of the Property.

3.4. Further Assignments

Upon demand by Beneficiary from time to time, Grantors shall promptly execute and deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary, recordable assignments of each Grantor's interest in any leases, subleases, contracts, licenses, permits and other documents and agreements to which Rents relate; provided however, that no such assignment shall be construed to impose upon Beneficiary or any Noteholder any obligation with respect thereto.

3.5. Termination

The assignment of the Rents to Beneficiary hereunder shall terminate and be of no further force and effect following the satisfaction in full of all Secured Obligations.

3.6. Assigned Leases

Except as otherwise agreed in writing by Beneficiary from time to time, the following shall apply to each lease and sublease of any portion of the Property (collectively, the "Assigned Leases") with respect to which any portion of the landlord's interest is assigned to Beneficiary and/or Trustee under this Deed of Trust:

(a) Grantors shall promptly perform all of its obligations as landlord under each Assigned Lease, and shall immediately notify Beneficiary in writing of any notice of default received by Grantors from the tenant thereunder.

(b) Grantors shall diligently enforce the performance of all of the obligations of the tenant under each Assigned Lease and shall not waive any default or waive, release or discharge any such tenant of or from any such obligation.

(c) Grantors shall not collect the Rents (or any other amounts) due under any Assigned Lease more than one month in advance of the date due.

(d) Grantors hereby irrevocably authorize and direct the tenants under all Assigned Leases to pay all amounts owing to Grantors thereunder to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, following receipt of any written notice from Beneficiary which states that an Event of Default remains uncured and that all such amounts are to be paid to Beneficiary. Grantors further authorize and direct all such tenants to pay all such amounts to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, without any right or obligation to inquire as to the validity of Beneficiary's notice and regardless of the fact that Grantors have notified any such tenants that Beneficiary's notice is invalid or has then directed any such tenants not to pay such amounts to Beneficiary.

(e) Upon the foreclosure of this Deed of Trust, no Assigned Lease shall be destroyed or terminated by application of the doctrine of merger or as a matter of law unless Beneficiary, any Noteholder or any purchaser at such foreclosure sale so elects. No act by or on behalf of Beneficiary or any such purchaser shall constitute a termination of any Assigned Lease unless Beneficiary or such purchaser gives written notice thereof to the applicable tenant or subtenant.

(f) Each Grantor hereby represents and warrants to Beneficiary and the Noteholders, with respect to each Assigned Lease that is presently in effect (collectively, the "Current Assigned Leases"), (i) that Grantor has delivered to Beneficiary a true and complete copy of each Current Assigned Lease, together with all modifications and a rent roll with respect to all Current Assigned Leases; (ii) that Grantor has not accepted any payment of rent (or other charge except any tenant security deposits and advances or prepaid rents in accordance with the provisions of any of the Assigned Leases) under any Current Assigned Lease more than thirty (30) days prior to the due date of such payment; and (iii) that, to the best of Grantor's knowledge, no material default by Grantor or any other person under any Current Assigned Lease remains uncured.

3.7. Perfection Upon Recordation

Each Grantor acknowledges that Beneficiary and Trustee have taken all actions necessary to obtain, and that upon recordation of this Deed of Trust Beneficiary and Trustee shall have, to the extent permitted under applicable law, a valid and fully perfected, first priority, present assignment of the Rents arising out of the Assigned Leases and all security for such Assigned Leases. Each Grantor acknowledges and agrees that upon recordation of this Deed of Trust, Trustee's and Beneficiary's interest in the Rents shall be deemed to be fully perfected, "choate" and enforced as to Grantors and all third parties, including, without limitation, any subsequently appointed trustee in any case under Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), without the necessity of commencing a foreclosure action with respect to this Deed of Trust, making formal demand for the Rents, exercising Beneficiary's rights under the assignment of Rents provided in this Section 3 in favor of Beneficiary and the Noteholders pursuant to this Deed of Trust, obtaining the appointment of a receiver or taking any other affirmative action.

3.8. Bankruptcy Provisions

Without limitation of the absolute nature of the assignment of the Rents hereunder, Grantors, Trustee and Beneficiary agree that (a) this Deed of Trust shall constitute a "security agreement" for purposes of Section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) the security interest created by this Deed of Trust extends to property of Grantors acquired before the commencement of a case in bankruptcy and to all amounts paid as Rents and (c) such security interest shall extend to all Rents acquired by the debtor's estate after the commencement of any case in bankruptcy.

3.9. No Merger of Estates

So long as part of the Secured Obligations secured hereby remains unpaid and undischarged, the fee and leasehold estates to the Property shall not merge, but shall remain separate and distinct, notwithstanding the union of such estates either in Grantors, Beneficiary, any tenant or any third party by purchase or otherwise.

4. Security Agreement

4.1. Security Interest

This Deed of Trust constitutes a "security agreement" with respect to the Fixtures, Assigned Leases, Rents, Property Agreements, Tax Refunds, Proceeds (as defined herein), Insurance and Condemnation Awards (the "Collateral"). To this end, each Grantor grants to Beneficiary a first and prior security interest in the Collateral and further affirms its grant of all other Property which is personal property ("Personal Property") pursuant to that certain Security Agreement of even date herewith, to secure the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations, and agrees that Beneficiary shall have all the rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC with respect to such property. 4.2. Financing Statements

Each Grantor shall execute and deliver to Beneficiary, in form and substance satisfactory to Beneficiary, such financing statements and such further assurances as Beneficiary may, from time to time, reasonably consider necessary to create, perfect and preserve Beneficiary's security

As to all fixtures on the Land owned by Distribution, the name of the debtor is STL Distribution Services LLC and the name of the secured party is The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as Collateral Agent. The address of Post-Dispatch is set forth in the initial paragraph of this Deed of Trust and is a mailing address for such debtor, the address of Distribution is set forth in the initial paragraph of this Deed of Trust and is a mailing address for such debtor, and the address of Beneficiary set forth in the initial paragraph of this Deed of Trust is a mailing address for the secured party. The Post-Dispatch debtor is an organization, the type of organization for the debtor is a limited liability company, the jurisdiction for the debtor is the State of Delaware, and the organizational identification number for such debtor is 3211374. The Distribution debtor is an organization, the type of organization for the debtor is a limited liability company, the jurisdiction for the debtor is the State of Delaware, and the organizational identification number for such debtor is 3371779. This Deed of Trust covers goods that are or are to become fixtures related to the Property. Each Grantor is the record owner of its Property.

5. Maintenance, Operation, Preservation and Repair of Property

Grantors shall maintain the Property (and all abutting grounds, sidewalks, roads, parking and landscape areas) in good condition and repair (other than ordinary wear and tear), shall operate the Property in a businesslike manner, shall use its best efforts to preserve and protect both its own and Beneficiary's and the Noteholders' interests in connection with the Property, shall not commit or permit any waste or deterioration of the Property, shall not abandon any portion of the Property, and shall not otherwise act, or fail to act, in such a way as to unreasonably increase the risk of any damage to the Property or of any other impairment of Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and except as otherwise agreed by Beneficiary in writing from time to time, Grantors shall promptly and faithfully perform and observe each of the following provisions:

5.1. Alterations and Repair

Grantors shall not remove, demolish or materially alter any Improvement, except to make non-structural repairs that preserve or increase the Property's value. Grantors shall promptly restore, in a good and workmanlike manner, any Improvement (or other aspect of the Property) that is damaged or destroyed from any cause, and shall diligently complete, in a good and workmanlike manner, any Improvement constructed by Grantors from time to time.

5.2. Compliance with Laws

Grantors shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, rules, regulations, codes and administrative and judicial decisions applicable to the Property, shall not permit any act on or with respect to the Property in violation of any of the foregoing, and shall obtain and maintain in effect all licenses, permits, exemptions, approvals and other authorizations required by law in connection with the ownership and operation of the Property.

5.3. Compliance with Rights of Third Parties

Grantors shall pay, prior to delinquency, all of the following (collectively, the "Impositions"): (i) all general and special real property taxes and assessments imposed on the Property; (ii) all other taxes and assessments of every kind that are assessed upon the Property (or upon the owner and/or operator of the Property) and that create or may create a lien upon the Property (or upon any personal property or fixture used in connection with the Property), including without limitation non-governmental levies and assessments imposed in connection with covenants, conditions or restrictions; (iii) all taxes and assessments imposed on the Property following Grantors' execution hereof in lieu of or in addition to any of the foregoing Impositions; and (iv) all license fees, taxes and assessments imposed on Beneficiary or any Noteholder (other than income and franchise taxes) and measured by or based upon (in whole or in part) the Secured Obligations. If permitted by law, Grantors may pay any Imposition in installments; provided, however, all such installment payments shall be made on a timely basis so as to avoid any and all late fees, penalties, interest and similar charges.

(a) Grantors shall not be required to pay any Imposition so long as (i) its validity is being actively contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings and (ii) Grantors have demonstrated to Beneficiary's reasonable satisfaction that leaving such Imposition unpaid pending the outcome of such proceedings could not result in the sale of the Property to satisfy such Imposition or otherwise impair Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder; provided that, if reasonable under the circumstances, Beneficiary may require Grantors to furnish Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, with a bond or other security reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary in an amount not less than 150% of the applicable claim.

(b) Upon demand by Beneficiary from time to time, Grantors shall deliver to Beneficiary, within thirty (30) days following the due date of any

5.6. Utility Charges

Grantors shall promptly pay all utility charges incurred for the benefit of the Property or which may become a lien upon the Property, and all assessments and other charges of a similar nature, public or private, relating to the Property, regardless of whether any such charge is or may become a lien thereon.

5.7. Liens

Grantors shall perform, on or before the date due, all obligations secured by any lien or encumbrance upon any portion of the Property. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Grantors shall not be required to perform any such secured obligation so long as (a) its validity is being actively contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings and (b) Grantors have demonstrated to Beneficiary's reasonable satisfaction that leaving such obligation unpaid or unperformed pending the outcome of such proceedings could not result in the sale of the Property to satisfy such obligation or otherwise impair Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder; provided that, if reasonable under the circumstances, Beneficiary may require Grantors to furnish Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, with a bond or other security reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary in an amount not less than 150% of the applicable claim. If any Grantor fails to fulfill its obligations under this Section with respect to any lien or encumbrance, Beneficiary may, subject to Section 8.5 hereof, discharge the same by paying the amount due or by providing a bond or other security therefor, without inquiring into the validity of such lien or encumbrance and without regard for any claimed defense or offset, and such Grantor shall, within three (3) business days following receipt of written demand, reimburse Beneficiary for all costs incurred by Beneficiary or the Noteholders in connection therewith.

5.8. Books and Records

Grantors shall maintain complete books of account and other records relating to the ownership and operation of the Property, including contributions of equity investment capital, in accordance with accounting principles reasonably acceptable to Beneficiary and applied on a consistent basis.

5.9. Hazardous Materials

Without limiting the generality of Section 5.2, Grantors shall not cause or permit the substantial or material violation of any law relating to industrial hygiene or environmental conditions in connection with the Property, including soil and ground water conditions, or use, generate, manufacture, store or dispose of on, under or about the Property, or transport to or from the Property, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, hazardous wastes, toxic substances and similar substances and materials, including, without limitation, all Hazardous Materials (as hereinafter defined) and Mold. "Mold", as used herein, shall mean any fungi that reproduces through the release of spores or the splitting of cells or other means, including, but not limited to, mold, mildew, fungi, fungal spores, fragments and metabolites such as mycotoxins and microbial volatile organic compounds. Without prior written notice to Beneficiary (except in the case of emergency), Grantors shall take no remedial action with respect to any Hazardous Materials on, under or about the Property, and shall not enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree or other compromise or agreement relating to any such Hazardous Materials.

5.10. Title to Property and Lien of this Deed of Trust

Each Grantor (i) has good and indefeasible title to its Property, in fee simple (to the extent that the Property constitutes real property), free and clear of any liens, claims or interests, except the liens, if any, set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof (the "Permitted Liens"), and (ii) has full power and lawful authority to encumber the Property in the manner and form set forth in this Deed of Trust. This Deed of Trust creates first priority liens and security interests against the Property. Grantors further hereby covenant and agree that within thirty (30) days of the date hereof, Grantors shall deliver a full paid Lenders Policy (or Policies) of Title Insurance insuring the lien of this Deed of Trust as senior to all other deeds of trust, liens, and encumbrances except as may be expressly provided herein.

5.11. First Lien Status

Grantors shall preserve and protect the first lien status of this Deed of Trust. If any lien or security interest other than the Permitted Liens is asserted against the Property, Grantors shall promptly, and at its expense, (a) give Beneficiary a detailed written notice of such lien or security interest (including origin, amount and other terms), and (b) pay the underlying claim in full or take such other action so as to cause it to be released.

5.12. Payment and Performance

Grantors shall pay the Indebtedness when due under the Notes, this Deed of Trust, the Note Agreement, the Guaranty or any related documents, and shall perform or cause the relevant Obligor to perform the Secured Obligations in full when and how they are required to be performed.

5.13. Other Covenants

All of the covenants of the Grantors in the Note Agreement or the Guaranty, as the case may be, are incorporated herein by reference and, together with covenants in this Article 5, shall, to the extent applicable, be covenants running with the land.

5.14. Environmental Matters

(a) Definitions. As used herein, "Environmental Laws" shall mean all existing or future federal, state and local statutes, ordinances, regulations, rules, executive orders, standards and requirements, including the requirements imposed by common law, concerning or relating to industrial hygiene and the protection of health and the environment including but not limited to: (a) those relating to the generation, manufacture, storage, transportation, disposal, release, emission or discharge of Hazardous Substances (as hereinafter defined); (b) those in connection with the construction, fuel supply, power generation and transmission, waste disposal or any other operations or processes relating to the Property; and (c) those relating to the atmosphere, soil, surface and ground water, wetlands, stream sediments and vegetation on, under, in or about the Property. Any terms mentioned herein which are defined in any Environmental Law shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in said laws; provided, however, that if any of such laws are amended so as to broaden any term defined therein, such broader meaning shall apply subsequent to the effective date of such amendment.

(b) Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Each Grantor represents, warrants, covenants and agrees as follows:

(i) To each Grantor's knowledge, neither Grantor nor the Property or any occupant thereof, except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports described in Exhibit C attached hereto and made a part hereof (the "Environmental Reports"), is in violation of or subject to any existing, pending or threatened investigation or inquiry by any governmental authority pertaining to any Environmental Law. Grantors shall not cause or permit the Property to be in violation of, or do anything which would subject the Property to any remedial obligations under, any Environmental Law, and shall promptly notify Beneficiary in writing of any existing, pending or to each Grantor's knowledge, threatened investigation or inquiry by any governmental authority in connection with any Environmental Law. In addition, Grantors shall provide Beneficiary with copies of any and all material written communications with any governmental authority in connection with any Environmental Law, concurrently with Grantors' giving or receiving of same.

(ii) To each Grantor's knowledge, there has been no release, spill, discharge, leak, disposal or emission (individually a "Release" and collectively, "Releases") of any Hazardous Material, Hazardous Substance or Hazardous Waste, including gasoline, petroleum products, explosives, toxic substances, solid wastes and radioactive materials (collectively, "Hazardous Substances") or Mold (as defined herein) at, upon, under or within the Property. The use which each Grantor or any other occupant of the Property makes or intends to make of the Property will not result in Release of any Hazardous Substances on or to the Property.

(iii) Except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, the Property has never been used by the present or previous owners and/or operators nor will be used in the future to refine, produce, store, handle, transfer, process, transport, generate, manufacture, heat, treat, recycle or dispose of Hazardous Substances.

(iv) The Property: (i) is being and, except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, has been operated in compliance with all Environmental Laws, and all permits required thereunder have been obtained and complied with in all respects; and (ii) except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, does not have any Hazardous Substances present excepting small quantities of petroleum and chemical products, in proper storage containers, that are necessary for the construction or operation of the commercial business of Grantors and its tenants, and the usual waste products therefrom ("Permitted Substances").

(v) Each Grantor will and will cause its tenants to operate the Property in compliance with all Environmental Laws and, other than Permitted Substances, will not place or permit to be placed any Hazardous Substances on the Property.

(vi) No lien has been attached to or threatened to be imposed upon the Property, and except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, there is no basis for the imposition of any such lien based on any governmental action under Environmental Laws. Except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, neither Grantor nor any other person has been, is or will be involved in operations at the Property which could lead to the imposition of environmental liability on Grantors, or, to the best of each Grantor's knowledge, on any subsequent or former owner of the Property, or the creation of an environmental lien on the Property. In the event that any such lien is filed, Grantors shall, within (30) days from the date that the Grantor is given notice of such lien (or within such shorter period of time as is appropriate in the event that steps have commenced to have the Property sold), either: (i) pay the claim and remove the lien from the Property; or (ii) furnish a cash deposit, bond or other security satisfactory in form and substance to Beneficiary in an amount sufficient to discharge the claim out of which the lien arises.

(c) Right to Inspect and Cure. Beneficiary shall have the right to conduct or have conducted by its agents or contractors such environmental inspections, audits and tests as Beneficiary shall deem necessary or advisable from time to time at the sole cost and expense of Grantors; provided, however, that Grantors shall not be obligated to bear the expense of such environmental inspections, audits and tests so long as (a) no Event of Default exists, and (b) Beneficiary has no cause to believe (other than as a result of matters disclosed in the Environmental Reports) in its sole reasonable judgment that there has been a Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Substances at the Property or that any Grantor or the Property is in violation of any Environmental Law. The cost of such inspections, audits and tests, if chargeable to Grantors as aforesaid, shall be added to the Liabilities and shall be secured by this Deed of Trust. Grantors shall, and shall cause each tenant of the Property to, cooperate with such inspection efforts; such cooperation shall include, without limitation, supplying all information requested concerning the operations conducted and Hazardous Substances located at the Property. In the event that any Grantor fails to comply with any Environmental Law, Beneficiary may, in addition to any of its other remedies under this Deed of Trust, cause the Property to be in compliance with such laws and the cost of such compliance shall be added to the sums secured by this Deed of Trust in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2 hereof.

(d) Indemnification. Each Grantor covenants and agrees, at Grantor's sole cost and expense, to indemnify, defend (at trial and appellate levels and with attorneys, consultants and experts acceptable to Beneficiary) and hold Beneficiary, the Noteholders, and each of their respective successors and assigns (each an "Indemnified Party" and collectively the "Indemnified Parties") harmless against and from any and all liens, damages, losses, liabilities, obligations, settlement payments, penalties, assessments, citations, directives, claims, litigation, demands, defenses, judgments, suits, proceedings, costs, disbursements or expenses of any kind or of any nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and disbursements incurred in investigating, defending against, settling or prosecuting any claim, litigation or proceeding) which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted or awarded against such Indemnified Party or the Property and arising directly or indirectly from or out of: (a) the Release or threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas (i) caused by or attributable to any Grantor or (ii) originating or emanating from the Property regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of any Grantor (b) the violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting the Property, whether or not caused by or within the control of any Grantor; (c) the failure of any Grantor to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Section 5.14; (d) the violation of any Environmental Laws in connection with other real property of any Grantor which gives or may give rise to any liens or other rights of any party with respect to the Property by virtue of any Environmental Laws; or (e) the enforcement of this Deed of Trust, including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable costs of assessment, containment and/or removal of any and all Hazardous Materials from all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas, (ii) the reasonable costs of any necessary actions taken in response to a Release or threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas to prevent or minimize such Release or threat of Release so that it does not migrate or otherwise cause or threaten danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment, and (iii) costs incurred to comply with the Environmental Laws in connection with all or any portion of the Property or any surrounding areas. Beneficiary's and the other Indemnified Parties' rights under this Section 5.14 shall be in addition to all rights of Beneficiary under the Note Agreement and under any other documents, certificates or instruments evidencing, securing or relating to the Notes, and payments by the Grantors under this Section 5.14 shall not reduce the Grantors' obligations and liabilities under any of the other documents, certificates or instruments evidencing, securing or relating to the Notes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantors shall not be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Parties against any losses or liabilities arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Parties.

6. Insurance

6.1. Policies Required

Grantors shall at all times maintain at Grantors' sole expense, with insurers reasonably approved by Beneficiary, the following policies of insurance in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary:

- (a) all insurance required by law from time to time with respect to the ownership or operation of the Property, including without limitation workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance;
- (b) fire and hazard "all risk" insurance covering 100% of the replacement cost of the Improvements in the event of fire, lightning, windstorm, earthquake, vandalism, malicious mischief and all other risks normally covered by "all risk" coverage policies in the area where the Property is located (including loss by flood if the Property is in an area designated as subject to the danger of flood);
- (c) commercial general liability insurance in amounts reasonably required by Beneficiary from time to time; and
- (d) all other insurance reasonably required by Beneficiary from time to time.

All such insurance shall provide that it may not be cancelled or materially modified without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Beneficiary. The policies required under this Section shall include a Standard Mortgage Clause, a Lender's Loss Payable Clause and Additional Insured endorsements in form and substance satisfactory to Beneficiary, assuring Beneficiary that all proceeds, to the extent of the outstanding balance of the Secured Obligations, shall be paid to Beneficiary, on behalf of the Noteholders, as the secured party. Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall be an additional named insured on the liability insurance policies. Certificates of insurance (on an Acord 27 form, if applicable) evidencing such insurance for the above coverages (and/or original policies, if required by Beneficiary) shall be delivered to Beneficiary from time to time upon demand. All policies insuring against damage to the Improvements shall contain an agreed value clause sufficient to eliminate any risk of co-insurance. No less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of each policy, Grantors shall deliver to Beneficiary evidence of renewal or replacement of such policy reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary.

6.2. Claims

Grantors shall give Beneficiary immediate notice of any casualty to any portion of the Property, whether or not covered by insurance. If covered, and if there is an Event of Default, each Grantor hereby authorizes Beneficiary, if Beneficiary so elects, to make proof of loss, to appear in and prosecute any action arising from any applicable policy and, while any Event of Default remains uncured, to settle, adjust or compromise any claim under any such policy, and each Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Beneficiary its true and lawful attorney-in-fact for all such purposes. Grantors shall not settle, adjust or compromise any such claim without the reasonable prior written approval of Beneficiary. Nothing in this Section is intended to prohibit Grantors from participating if Beneficiary elects to pursue any such claim.

6.3. Delivery of Proceeds to Beneficiary

In the event that, notwithstanding the Lender's Loss Payable Clause requirement set forth above, the proceeds of any casualty insurance policy described herein are paid to Grantors, Grantors shall deliver such proceeds, to the extent of the outstanding balance of the Secured Obligations, to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, immediately upon receipt.

6.4. Application of Casualty Insurance Proceeds

Any proceeds collected (the "Proceeds") under any casualty insurance policy described in this Deed of Trust shall be disbursed to Grantors as provided below, but only upon fulfillment of each of the following conditions (the "Restoration Conditions") within ninety (90) days following the occurrence of the damage for which the Proceeds are collected:

(a) Grantors shall demonstrate to Beneficiary's reasonable satisfaction that the Proceeds (together with amounts delivered by Grantors pursuant to subsection (b) immediately below) will be adequate to repair the Improvements and to restore the fair market value of the Property, within a time period reasonably acceptable to Beneficiary, to at least the value it had immediately prior to sustaining the damage. Such demonstration shall include delivery to Beneficiary of plans and specifications reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary and a construction contract in form and content, and with a contractor, reasonably satisfactory to Beneficiary.

(b) To the extent that the Proceeds are insufficient to accomplish the restoration required above, Grantors shall deliver to Beneficiary funds (the "Shortfall Funds") in the amount of such shortfall, which funds shall be assigned to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, as security for Grantors' Secured Obligations hereunder and held and disbursed in the same manner as the Proceeds.

(c) Grantors shall execute such documents as Beneficiary reasonably requires to evidence and secure Grantors' obligation to use all amounts disbursed for the diligent restoration of the Property.

(d) No Event of Default (other than defaults relating to the casualty) shall remain uncured.

Any Proceeds and Shortfall Funds to be disbursed to Grantors shall be held by Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, and disbursed in accordance with customary construction lending practices. Any amounts remaining undisbursed following completion of such restoration shall be returned to Grantors up to the amount of any Shortfall Funds deposited by Grantors, and any other amounts remaining shall either be paid to Grantors or applied by Beneficiary against the Secured Obligations, as Beneficiary elects in its absolute discretion.

In the event that Grantors fail to fulfill the Restoration Conditions within ninety (90) days following the date on which the damage occurs, Beneficiary may, in its sole discretion, choose to apply the Proceeds against the Secured Obligations, and the selection of which Secured Obligations to apply the Proceeds against, and the order of such application, shall be made by Beneficiary in its absolute discretion.

6.5. Restoration

Nothing in this Section 6 shall be construed to excuse Grantors from repairing and restoring all damage to the Property, regardless of whether insurance proceeds are available or sufficient.

6.6. Assignment of Policies Upon Foreclosure

In the event of foreclosure of this Deed of Trust or other assignment of the Property in extinguishment of any Secured Obligations, all policies of insurance required hereunder and any related unearned premiums shall, without further action, be assigned to the successor-in-interest to Grantors with respect to the Property, and each Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Beneficiary as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact to execute all documents necessary to effect any such transfer.

6.7. Waiver of Subrogation

Each Grantor hereby waives all right to recover against Beneficiary or any Noteholder (or any officer, employee, agent or representative of Beneficiary or any Noteholder) for any loss incurred by Grantors from any cause insured against; provided however, that this waiver of subrogation shall not be effective with respect to any insurance policy if the coverage thereunder would be materially reduced or impaired as a result. Each Grantor shall use its best efforts to obtain only policies which permit the foregoing waiver of subrogation.

6.8. Limitation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that should any action required under this Section 6 conflict with any provisions contained in the Note Agreement, the Note Agreement shall control.

7. Condemnation

7.1. Proceedings

Upon learning of the institution or threatened institution of any proceeding for the condemnation or other taking for public or quasi-public use of any portion of the Property, Grantors shall immediately notify Beneficiary in writing, together with copies of all applicable documents. Grantors shall take all action reasonably required by Beneficiary in connection therewith to protect the interests of Grantors, the Noteholders and/or Beneficiary, and Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall be entitled (without regard to the adequacy of its security) to participate in any such proceeding and be represented therein by counsel of its choice.

7.2. Compensation

Each Grantor hereby assigns to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, as security for the Secured Obligations and to the extent of the outstanding balance of the Secured Obligations, all amounts payable to Grantors in connection with any taking of any portion of the Property for public or quasi-public use, and any proceeds of any related settlement regardless of whether eminent domain proceedings are instituted in connection therewith (collectively, "Compensation"). Grantors shall deliver all Compensation to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, immediately upon receipt. In the event Beneficiary chooses, in its absolute discretion, to waive any Event of Default resulting from any such taking, any Compensation received by Beneficiary shall be (a) disbursed to Grantors for repairs and reconstruction and/or (b) paid to Grantors and/or (c) applied by Beneficiary against the Secured Obligations in accordance with the rights, procedures and other provisions set forth in this Deed of Trust for the application of Proceeds (including requirements with respect to Grantors' deposit of Shortfall Funds).

8. Additional Duties and Powers

8.1. Actions by Beneficiary to Protect Its and Noteholders' Interests

If Grantors fail to perform any Secured Obligation, either Beneficiary or Trustee or both may, without releasing Grantors from such obligation, perform such obligation to the extent reasonably necessary to protect its interests hereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Beneficiary and Trustee are each hereby specifically authorized to do any or all of the following:

- (a) enter upon and/or take possession of the Property;
- (b) make alterations, repairs and other improvements reasonably necessary to maintain the Property in good condition and repair;
- (c) participate and appear in any action or proceeding which may affect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder;
- (d) pay, purchase, contest and/or compromise any encumbrance, lien or other claim which may affect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder; and/or
- (e) pay all expenses reasonably incurred in protecting Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder, including fees and costs of attorneys and other consultants.

8.2. Inspections

Beneficiary, the Noteholders and their representatives may from time to time, at reasonable times and following reasonable notice (except in emergencies), conduct inspections of the Property, and inspect and/or copy any and all books and records relating thereto, for the purpose of monitoring Grantors' compliance with its Secured Obligations under this Deed of Trust and any other document secured hereby.

8.3. Defense of Actions

Grantors shall, at their sole expense, appear in and defend any action or proceeding which may affect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder, or under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the Secured Obligations or any related document.

8.4. Indemnity of Beneficiary, Noteholders and Trustee

Each Grantor shall defend, indemnify and hold Beneficiary, the Noteholders and Trustee harmless from and against:

(a) all claims, demands and causes of action asserted against Beneficiary, any Noteholder or Trustee by any person (except to the extent that it results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Beneficiary, such Noteholder or Trustee, as applicable) which directly or indirectly relate to (i) a claim, demand or cause of action that such person has or asserts against Grantors (or any other obligor or guarantor with respect to any Secured Obligation), (ii) any lease or other contract assigned to Beneficiary hereunder, (iii) acts or omissions of Grantors, or other rights of third parties, relating to the Property, (iv) the ownership, occupancy or use of the Property, or (v) the presence, release, handling, transport or remediation of any Hazardous Substance on, under or in the Property caused by Grantors, or the presence, release, handling, transport or remediation of any Hazardous Substance on any neighboring properties caused by Grantors or any violations by Grantors of any Environmental Laws; and

(b) all liabilities, losses and other costs (including court costs and attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by Beneficiary, any Noteholder or Trustee as the result of any claim, demand or cause of action described in subsection (a) immediately above.

8.5. Reimbursement of Beneficiary

Grantors shall reimburse Beneficiary immediately upon written demand for all costs reasonably incurred by Beneficiary or any Noteholder (including fees and expenses of attorneys and other consultants) in the exercise of Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' rights hereunder and the enforcement of Grantors' Secured Obligations hereunder, including without limitation the following:

(a) costs incurred under Section 5.7(a), Section 8.1, or under similar provisions of this Deed of Trust, to protect Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' interests hereunder;

(b) costs incurred in connection with claims, demands, causes of action, liabilities, losses and other costs against which Beneficiary or the Noteholders are indemnified hereunder; and

(c) all liabilities, losses and other costs incurred by Beneficiary or any Noteholder as a direct or indirect result of any Event of Default, including the cost of a Trustee's Sale Guarantee, Trustee's fees and expenses, and receiver's fees and expenses.

Grantors' reimbursement obligations under this Deed of Trust shall be Secured Obligations, shall bear interest at any default rate set forth in the Notes or the Note Agreement following written demand, and shall survive the reconveyance of this Deed of Trust.

8.6. Notice of Certain Matters

Grantors shall give notice to Beneficiary, within five (5) business days of any Grantor's learning thereof, of each of the following:

- (a) any litigation or claim affecting or relating to the Property;
- (b) any dispute between any Grantor and any governmental agency relating to the Property, the adverse determination of which might materially affect the Property; and
- (c) the presence of any Hazardous Materials on, under or about the Property;
- (d) the enforcement, clean-up, removal or other action or requirement of any governmental agency relating to any such Hazardous Materials; and
- (e) the existence of any occurrence or condition on any property in the vicinity of the Property that could cause the Property to be subject to any restrictions relating to Hazardous Materials.

Notice shall be given pursuant to and in accordance with the Note Agreement.

8.7. Further Assurances

Grantors shall execute and deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, all documents, and take all actions, reasonably required by Beneficiary from time to time to confirm the rights created or now or hereafter intended to be created hereunder, to protect and further the validity, priority and enforceability hereof, to subject to the lien hereof any property intended to be encumbered hereby, or otherwise to carry out the purposes hereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Grantors shall, upon request of Beneficiary, promptly correct any defect, error or omission which may be discovered in the contents hereof or in the execution or acknowledgment hereof.

8.8. Impounds

(a) While any Event of Default remains uncured, if requested by Beneficiary, Grantors shall deposit with Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, in monthly installments, an amount equal to one-twelfth of the estimated aggregate annual Impositions on the Property. In such event, Grantors shall cause all bills and other documents relating to Impositions to be sent directly to Beneficiary and, upon receipt of the same, and provided Grantors have deposited sufficient funds with Beneficiary, Beneficiary shall pay the amounts due out of the funds so deposited. If at any time and for any reason the funds so deposited are or will be insufficient to pay such amounts as may then or subsequently be due, Beneficiary shall notify Grantors and Grantors shall immediately deposit an amount equal to such deficiency with Beneficiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall cause Beneficiary or any Noteholder to be deemed a trustee of such funds or obligate Beneficiary or any Noteholder to pay any amounts in excess of the deposited funds. Beneficiary may commingle such funds with its own funds and Grantors shall not be entitled to interest thereon.

(b) While any Event of Default remains uncured, if requested by Beneficiary, Grantors shall deposit with Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, in monthly installments, an amount equal to one-twelfth of the estimated aggregate annual premiums on all policies of insurance required by this Deed of Trust. In such event, Grantors shall cause all bills and other documents relating to such insurance premiums to be sent directly to Beneficiary and, upon receipt of the same, and provided Grantors have deposited sufficient funds with Beneficiary, Beneficiary shall pay the amounts due out of the funds so deposited. If at any time and for any reason the funds so deposited are or will be insufficient to pay such amounts as may then or subsequently be due, Beneficiary shall notify Grantors and Grantors shall immediately deposit an amount equal to such deficiency with Beneficiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall cause Beneficiary or any Noteholder to be deemed a trustee of such funds or obligate Beneficiary or any Noteholder to pay any amounts in excess of the deposited funds, nor shall anything contained herein modify the obligation of Grantors to maintain such insurance in force at all times. Beneficiary may commingle such funds with its own funds and Grantors shall not be entitled to interest thereon.

9. Sale or Lease of Property

Except as otherwise permitted in this Deed of Trust, Grantors shall not sell, lease, ground lease, pledge, encumber, create a security interest in or otherwise transfer any interest in the Property without the prior written consent of Beneficiary, which consent may be withheld in Beneficiary's absolute discretion. The consent by Beneficiary to any sale, lease, ground lease, pledge, encumbrance, creation of a security interest in, or other transfer of any portion of the Property shall not be deemed to constitute a novation or a consent to any further sale, lease, ground lease, pledge, encumbrance, creation of a security interest in or other transfer, or to waive the right of Beneficiary, at its option, to declare the Secured Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable, without notice to Grantors or any other person or entity, upon any such sale, lease, ground lease, pledge encumbrance, creation of a security interest in or other transfer to which Beneficiary shall not have consented. In connection with the foregoing consent requirements, each Grantor acknowledges that Beneficiary and the Noteholders relied upon Grantors' particular expertise in entering into the transaction to which this Deed of Trust relates and continues to rely on such expertise to ensure the satisfactory operation of the Property and repayment of the Secured Obligations.

9.1. Transfers

Transfers requiring Beneficiary's prior written consent shall include, without limitation, the following:

- (a) involuntary transfers and transfers by operation of law; and
- (b) liens and assignments as security for obligations, whether voluntary or involuntary.

9.2. Continuing Liability of Grantors

No sale, lease or other transfer shall relieve Grantors from primary liability for any Secured Obligation or relieve Grantors from any such obligation from any liability under the Note Agreement, the Notes or any other documents, certificates, or agreements executed in connection therewith or relieve any guarantor of any such obligation from any liability under its guaranty, and Grantors shall deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, all documents reasonably required by Beneficiary to evidence its continuing liability.

9.3. Limitation

The foregoing provision notwithstanding, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that in the event of any conflict between this Section 9 and any provisions set forth in the Note Agreement with respect to the release or other disposition of the Property, the Note Agreement shall control.

10. Other Waivers, Rights and Obligations

10.1. Authority to Modify Obligations

Beneficiary may from time to time, without notice, and without affecting the lien of this Deed of Trust or the liability of any other person or entity for any Secured Obligation, (a) release any person from any Secured Obligation, (b) extend the maturity or otherwise alter the terms of any Secured Obligation, (c) grant other indulgences, (d) release or reconvey any portion of the Property, (e) take or release any other security for any Secured Obligation, and/or (f) make compositions and other arrangements with debtors relating to any Secured Obligation.

10.2. Additional Security

No other collateral held as security for any Secured Obligation shall be affected by the execution of this Deed of Trust, and all such collateral shall be cumulative. Neither the taking of additional security nor the release or partial release of any security for any Secured Obligation shall affect the lien hereof or the liability of any obligor, endorser, guarantor or other surety in connection therewith. Beneficiary may, in its absolute discretion, and in accordance with applicable law, enforce the sale of (or otherwise realize on) any other security for any Secured Obligation before, after, or concurrently with, any exercise of its remedies hereunder.

10.3. Survival of Warranties

Any representations and warranties set forth herein or otherwise made by Grantors in connection herewith shall survive the delivery and recording hereof and continue so long as any Secured Obligation remains outstanding.

10.4. Other Waivers By Grantors

Each Grantor waives, to the extent permitted by law (a) the benefit of all present and future laws providing for any appraisal before sale of any portion of the Property, (b) whether now existing or hereafter created, all rights of redemption, valuation, appraisal, stay of execution, and marshalling, in the event of any foreclosure hereunder, (c) the right to plead or assert any statute of limitations as a defense to the enforcement of any Secured Obligation or this Deed of Trust, and (d) all rights which Grantor may now or hereafter have by reason of laws of the States of New York and/or Missouri pertaining to sureties.

10.5. Subrogation to Lienholder Rights

To the extent that proceeds of the Secured Obligations and/or the Notes are used to pay any outstanding lien, charge or encumbrance against the Property, Beneficiary and the Noteholders shall be subrogated to all rights and liens held by the owner or holder of such lien, charge or encumbrance, regardless of whether such lien, charge or encumbrance is released.

10.6. Nonliability of Beneficiary

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, no assignment to Beneficiary hereunder of any lease, sublease or other document shall be construed to impose any obligation or liability upon Beneficiary or any Noteholder in connection therewith.

10.7. Partial Invalidity of Lien

If the lien of this Deed of Trust is invalid or unenforceable as to any part of the Secured Obligations or any part of the Property, the unsecured or partially secured portion of such obligations shall be completely paid prior to the payment of the remaining secured or partially secured portion of such obligations, and all payments made on the Secured Obligations, whether voluntary or under foreclosure or other enforcement action or procedure, shall be first applied against that portion of such obligations which is not secured or fully secured by the lien of this Deed of Trust.

10.8. Performance of Secured Obligations

Each Grantor shall pay and perform when due each of the Secured Obligations which constitutes an obligation of such Grantor.

11. Events of Default

The occurrence of any of the following, whatever the reason therefor, shall constitute an "Event of Default" hereunder:

11.1. the occurrence of any Event of Default as defined in the Note Agreement, the Guaranty Agreement (as defined in the Note Agreement) or any other document executed in connection therewith, or under any other Secured Obligation or related document;

11.2. a default under any other document or agreement secured hereby;

11.3. if any representation made herein or in the Note Agreement or in any other document executed in connection therewith (including any certificate delivered in connection with any of the foregoing), or otherwise made by or on behalf of any Grantor or any guarantor of the Secured Obligations in connection with the transactions contemplated under the Note Agreement, shall be false or misleading in any material respect when made; or 11.4. a default or breach by any Grantor in any obligation made or contained herein.

12. Foreclosure and Other Remedies

12.1. Acceleration Upon Default; Additional Remedies

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, Beneficiary may declare all Secured Obligations immediately due and payable and, whether or not Beneficiary exercises such option, Beneficiary, on behalf of the Noteholders, may do any or all of the following:

(a) In person or by agent or court-appointed receiver, and without regard to the adequacy of its security: enter upon and take possession of the Property, or any part thereof, in its own name, in the names of the Noteholders or in the name of Trustee; take any action which it reasonably deems necessary to preserve the value, marketability or rentability of the Property, increase the income therefrom or protect the security hereof; and, with or without taking possession of the Property, sue for or otherwise collect the Rents, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs of operation and collection, against any Secured Obligation, all in such order as Beneficiary determines in its absolute discretion.

(b) Commence an action to foreclose this Deed of Trust as a mortgage, appoint a receiver, or specifically enforce any of the covenants hereof.

(c) Deliver to Trustee a written declaration of default and demand for sale, and a written notice of default and election to cause Grantors' interest in the Property to be sold, which notice the Trustee or Beneficiary shall cause to be duly filed for record in the Official Records of the County in which the Property is located.

(d) Exercise all other rights and remedies provided herein, in the Note Agreement, or in any related document or other document secured hereby, or in any document that secures all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or provided by law.

12.2. Foreclosure By Power of Sale

(a) Should Beneficiary elect to foreclose by exercise of the power of sale contained herein, Beneficiary shall notify Trustee (a "Notice of Default") and deposit with Trustee this Deed of Trust and such evidence of expenditures made and secured hereby as Trustee may reasonably require.

(b) Upon receipt of any such notice from Beneficiary, Trustee shall cause to be recorded, published and delivered to Grantors and all other entitled parties such Notice of Default and Election to Sell as is then required by law and by this Deed of Trust. Trustee shall, without demand on Grantors, after lapse of such time as is then required by law after recordation of such Notice of Default and after Notice of Sale has been given and published as required by law, sell the Property at the time and place of sale fixed in such Notice of Sale, either as a whole or in separate lots, parcels or items and in such order as Beneficiary elects, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States payable at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to such purchaser(s) good and sufficient deed(s) conveying the property so sold, but without any warranty, express or implied. Any person, including Grantors, Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary, may purchase at any such sale.

(c) After deducting all fees and costs of Beneficiary, the Noteholders and Trustee, including costs of evidence of title in connection with any such sale, Beneficiary shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of (i) first, all amounts expended under the terms hereof and not then repaid, with accrued interest; (ii) second, all other amounts then secured hereby; and (iii) the remainder, if any, to the person(s) legally entitled thereto.

(d) To the extent permitted by applicable law, Trustee may postpone the sale of all or any portion of the Property by public announcement at the time and place of sale, and from time to time thereafter may again postpone such sale by public announcement or subsequently noticed sale.

(e) A sale of less than all of the Property or any defective or irregular sale made hereunder shall not exhaust the power of sale provided for herein, and subsequent sales may be made hereunder until all Secured Obligations have been satisfied or the entire Property has been sold without defect or irregularity.

(f) The right of Beneficiary to collect and receive the Rents from the Property or to take possession of the Property or to exercise any of the rights or powers herein granted to Beneficiary shall, to the extent not prohibited by law, also extend to the period from and after the filing of any suit or the taking of other actions to foreclose the lien of this Deed of Trust, including any period allowed by law for the redemption of the Property after any foreclosure sale.

12.3. Separate Sales

The Property may be sold in one or more parcels and in such manner and order as Trustee in its sole discretion may elect; the right of sale arising out of any Event of Default shall not be exhausted by any one or more sales.

12.4. Appointment of Receiver

While any Event of Default remains uncured, Beneficiary may, in accordance with applicable law and without regard to the value of the Property, apply to any court having jurisdiction to appoint a receiver or receivers of the Property, and each Grantor hereby irrevocably consents to such appointment. Any such receiver shall have the usual powers and duties of receivers in similar cases, and all the powers and duties of Beneficiary in case of entry as provided herein, until the date of confirmation of sale of the Property (unless such receivership is sooner terminated).

12.5. Application of Funds

Except as otherwise provided herein, while any Event of Default remains uncured, Beneficiary may, at any time without notice, apply any amounts received by Beneficiary or any Noteholder from or on account of Grantors or the Property (including amounts received as Rents, as insurance or condemnation proceeds, and/or as impounds with respect to insurance premiums or Impositions) against any Secured Obligation, in such order as Beneficiary elects, regardless of whether any such obligation is yet due. The receipt, use or application of any such amount shall not be construed to affect the maturity of any Secured Obligation, any rights of Beneficiary, the Noteholders or Trustee under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents, or any obligations of Grantors under the Note Agreement, the Guaranty, other Secured Obligations or any related documents; or to cure or waive any default under the Note Agreement, the Notes, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents; or to invalidate any act of Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary.

12.6. Cumulative Remedies; No Waiver

Trustee and Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall each be entitled to enforce the performance of any Secured Obligation and to exercise all rights under this Deed of Trust, the Note Agreement, the other Secured Obligations or other agreement or any law now or hereafter in force, regardless of whether some or all of the Secured Obligations are otherwise secured, whether by guaranty, deed of trust, lien, assignment or otherwise. Neither the acceptance or enforcement of this Deed of Trust, whether by court action or pursuant to the power of sale or other powers contained herein, shall prejudice Trustee's, any Noteholder's or Beneficiary's right to realize upon any other security held by Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary, it being agreed that Trustee and Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, shall each be entitled to enforce this Deed of Trust and any such other security in such order as they determine in their absolute discretion in accordance with applicable law. Trustee's, the Noteholders' and Beneficiary's rights and remedies hereunder are cumulative and in addition to all rights and remedies provided by law or otherwise from time to time. Every right or remedy given by the Note Agreement, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents to Trustee, any Noteholder or Beneficiary or to which any of them is otherwise entitled may be exercised, concurrently or independently, from time to time and as often as is deemed expedient by Trustee or Beneficiary, and either of them may pursue inconsistent remedies. No waiver of any default shall be implied from any omission by Beneficiary or any Noteholder to take action on account of such default if such default persists or is repeated. No waiver of any default shall affect any default other than the default expressly waived, and any such waiver shall be operative only for the time and to the extent stated. No waiver of any provision of the Note Agreement, the other Secured Obligations or any related documents shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same provision. Beneficiary's consent to or approval of any act by Grantors requiring further consent or approval shall not be deemed to waive or render unnecessary Beneficiary's consent to or approval of any subsequent act. Beneficiary's or any Noteholder's acceptance of the late performance of any Secured Obligation shall not constitute a waiver by Beneficiary or the Noteholders of the right to require prompt performance of all further Secured Obligations; Beneficiary's or any Noteholder's acceptance of any performance following the filing of a notice of default hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of Beneficiary's or the Noteholders' right to proceed with the exercise of any remedies for any unfulfilled obligations; and Beneficiary's or any Noteholder's acceptance of any partial performance shall not constitute a waiver of any rights relating to the unfulfilled portion of the applicable obligation.

12.7. Request for Notice

Each Grantor hereby requests that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale hereunder be mailed to it at the address set forth in the first paragraph of this Deed of Trust.

13. Miscellaneous Provisions

13.1. Execution of Reconveyances and Other Instruments by Trustee

Upon written request of Beneficiary from time to time and upon payment of Trustee's fees and costs in connection therewith and, if reasonably required by Trustee, upon presentation of this Deed of Trust for endorsement, Trustee shall, without affecting the personal liability of any person with respect to any Secured Obligation or the lien of this Deed of Trust upon the remainder of the Property, (a) reconvey to the person(s) legally entitled thereto, without warranty, any portion of the Property then held hereunder, (b) consent in writing to the making of any map or plat thereof, (c) join in granting any easement thereon, or (d) join in any extension agreement, agreement subordinating the lien or charge hereof, or other agreement or document relating hereto or to the Property.

13.2. Appointment of Successor Trustee

Trustee or any successor acting hereunder may resign and thereupon be discharged of the trusts hereunder upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Beneficiary. Regardless of whether such resignation occurs, Beneficiary may from time to time substitute a successor or successors to any Trustee. If permitted by law, Beneficiary shall substitute such successor or successors by recording a document in the County of St. Louis and the City of St. Louis executed by Beneficiary and containing the name of the original Grantors and Beneficiary hereunder, the book and page where this Deed of Trust is recorded (and/or instrument number, as applicable) in the County of St. Louis and the City of St. Louis and the name of the new Trustee, in which event such successor Trustee or Trustees shall, without conveyance from the predecessor Trustee, succeed to all its estate, rights and duties hereunder.

13.3. Trust Irrevocable; Acceptance by Trustee

The trust created hereby is irrevocable by Grantors. Trustee accepts this trust when this Deed of Trust is made a public record as provided by law.

13.4. Statements by Grantors

Grantors shall, within ten (10) days following Beneficiary's demand from time to time, deliver to Beneficiary, for the benefit of the Noteholders, a written statement setting forth all outstanding amounts secured by this Deed of Trust and stating whether any offset or defense exists against such amounts.

13.5. Beneficiary Statements

For any statement or accounting requested by Grantors or any other entitled person pursuant to any provision of applicable law, or for any other document furnished to Grantors by Beneficiary or any Noteholder, Beneficiary and the Noteholders may charge the maximum amount then permitted by law or, if no such maximum, then in accordance with Beneficiary's and the Noteholders' reasonable and customary charges therefor or the actual cost reasonably incurred by Beneficiary and the Noteholders, whichever is greater.

All notices, demands, approvals and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and be sent or delivered to the appropriate party at the address set forth below or as set forth in the first paragraph of this Deed of Trust. Addresses for notice may be changed from time to time by written notice to all other parties. All communications shall be effective when actually received; provided however, that nonreceipt of any communication as the result of a change of address of which the sending party was not notified or as the result of a refusal to accept delivery shall be deemed receipt of such communication.

Notwithstanding such provisions, however, (i) matters respecting title to the Property and the creation, perfection, priority and foreclosure of liens on, and security interests in, the Property shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the internal law of Missouri without giving effect to the conflicts-of-law rules and principles of such state; (ii) Grantors agree that whether or not deficiency judgments are available under the laws of Missouri after a foreclosure (judicial or nonjudicial) of the Property, or any portion thereof, or any other realization thereon by Beneficiary or any Noteholder or their respective successors and assigns, Beneficiary, Noteholders and their respective successors and assigns shall have the right to seek such a deficiency judgment against Grantors in other states or foreign jurisdictions; and (iii) Grantors agree that, to the extent Beneficiary, any Noteholder or any of their respective successors and assigns obtains a deficiency judgment in any other state or foreign jurisdiction then such party shall have the right to enforce such judgment in Missouri, as well as in other states or foreign jurisdictions.

13.11. Joint and Several Obligations

Should this Deed of Trust be signed by more than one party, all obligations contained herein shall be deemed to be the joint and several obligations of each such party. Any married person signing this Deed of Trust agrees that recourse may be had against community assets and against his or her separate property for the satisfaction of all obligations contained herein.

13.12. Interpretation

In this Deed of Trust the singular shall include the plural and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter and vice versa, if the context so requires. Any reference to the Note Agreement, the Notes, any other documents, certificates, or agreements executed in connection therewith prior to, on or after the date hereof, the other Secured Obligations or other related document shall include such document both as originally executed and as it may from time to time be modified.
