The following constitutes Amendment No. 6 to the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (“Amendment No. 6”). This Amendment No. 6 amends and supplements the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (as amended, the “Schedule 13D”) on January 29, 2020, with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), as amended by Amendment No. 1 filed on June 10, 2020, and as further amended by Amendment No. 2 filed on November 23, 2021, Amendment No. 3 filed on November 29, 2021, Amendment No. 4 filed on December 16, 2021 and Amendment No. 5 on January 31, 2022, as specifically set forth herein.

All capitalized terms contained herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Schedule 13D. Information given in response to each item shall be deemed incorporated by reference in all other items, as applicable.

Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction.

Item 4 of Schedule 13D is supplemented and superseded, as the case may be, as follows:

On February 16, 2022, the Reporting Persons filed a revised preliminary proxy statement (the “Proxy Statement”) and an accompanying BLUE proxy card with the Securities and Exchange Commission to be used to solicit votes against the election of Mary E. Junck, Chairman of the Board and the Executive Committee of the Board, and Herbert W. Moloney, Lead Director and Chairman of the Executive Compensation Committee, at the Issuer’s upcoming 2022 annual meeting of stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”).

In the Proxy Statement, the Reporting Persons stated that they are seeking stockholder support to compel the resignations of Ms. Junck and Mr. Moloney for their lead roles in overseeing the Issuer’s poor corporate governance practices and the Issuer’s significant underperformance since the acquisition of Berkshire Hathaway’s BH Media Group publications. Ms. Junck and Mr. Moloney have each served on the Board for extremely long tenures of over 20 years, and have both been re-nominated by the Board in apparent contravention of the Issuer’s own director retirement policy set forth in its Corporate Governance Guidelines. In addition, on top of currently serving as Chair of the Board, Ms. Junck previously served as CEO and Executive Chair of the Issuer, while Mr. Moloney currently serves as lead independent director and as a member or Chair of each of the Board’s four main committees. Further, Ms. Junck also serves as Chair of the Executive Committee of the Board, which includes Mr. Moloney and President and CEO Kevin D. Mowbray. Given their positions on the Board and its committees, Ms. Junck and Mr. Moloney exercise a high degree of control over the Board and, when coupled with their excessively lengthy tenures, the Reporting Persons believe Ms. Junck and Mr. Moloney should bear much of the responsibility for the Company’s underperformance and entrenched governance practices.

In addition, as discussed in the Proxy Statement, under the Issuer’s Second Amended and Restated By-laws (the “Bylaws”), in an uncontested election of directors, each director’s election requires the vote of a majority of the votes cast with respect to that director. Of note, the Bylaws also contain a director resignation policy for uncontested elections, whereby any incumbent director up for re-election that doesn’t receive a majority of votes cast for their re-election must submit their resignation to the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will make a recommendation to the Board on whether to accept or reject the resignation, or whether other action should be taken. The Board will act on the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee’s recommendation and publicly disclose its decision and the rationale behind it within 90 days from the date of the certification of the election results.

However, as mentioned in the Proxy Statement, in yet another attempt to further entrench the Board, the Issuer has taken the position that the election of directors at the Annual Meeting is “contested”, meaning directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast and the director resignation policy does not apply. The Reporting Persons cannot understand how the Issuer could make this determination that the election of directors is “contested” when the Issuer invalidated the Reporting Persons’ director nominees more than two months ago on December 3, 2021. Under the plurality vote standard, with no opposition, Ms. Junck and Mr. Moloney would be re-elected to the Board even if they were to receive just one vote each. This flies in the face of best corporate governance practices and corporate democracy.

If the Reporting Persons’ proxy solicitation results in any director failing to receive a majority of the votes cast for his or her election, then the Reporting Persons believe it would clearly be inappropriate for any such director to continue to serve on the Board. In the Reporting Persons’ view, such director’s continued service on the Board would be an egregious violation of proper corporate governance, and in direct opposition to the will of the stockholders.

The above description of the Proxy Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Proxy Statement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.6 and incorporated herein by reference.

Also on February 16, 2022, the Reporting Persons sent a letter to the Board (the “Board Letter”) discussing their concerns with the current plurality voting standard for the election of directors at the Annual Meeting and their views that the Board’s was clearly using the plurality voting standard for the election of directors at the Annual Meeting as tool to further entrench themselves and avoid accountability to the Issuer’s stockholders. The above description of the Board Letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Board Letter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.7 and incorporated herein by reference.
