Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On February 8, 2023, Lee Enterprises, Incorporated (the "Company") received a notification letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") indicating that, as a result of the Company's delay in filing its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 25, 2022 (the "2022 Q1 Form 10-Q"), the Company is not in compliance with the timely filing requirements for continued listing under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1).

The Company filed a Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 on February 6, 2023, stating it was unable to file the 2022 Q1 Form 10-Q within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense because it required additional time to review its financial statements and other disclosures and complete its closing processes and controls in connection with its assessment of the effectiveness of its internal controls over financial reporting as of September 25, 2022, and December 25, 2022. The Company provided an update on the status of filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 6, 2023.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company requires additional time to complete its review of its financial statements and other disclosures as of September 25, 2022, and December 25, 2022, and to complete its closing processes and controls, and is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q on or prior to the prescribed due date of February 3, 2023. The Company does not currently anticipate that it will be able to file the Form 10-Q on or before the fifth calendar day following the February 3, 2023, prescribed filing date as a result of the circumstances described above. The Company will seek to resolve these issues as soon as practicable and plans to file the Form 10-Q as soon as possible.

The notification letter stated that, under Nasdaq rules, the Company has until February 27, 2023, to submit a plan to regain compliance with Nasdaq's continued listing requirements. If the plan is accepted, Nasdaq may grant an extension until June 26, 2023, to regain compliance. The Company can also regain compliance with Nasdaq's continued listing requirements at any time before February 27, 2023, by filing the 2022 Form 10-K and 2022 Q1 Form 10-Q with the SEC, and continuing to comply with Nasdaq's other continued listing requirements. The notification letter has no immediate effect on the listing or trading of the Company's common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market.

The Company's management intends to file the 2022 Form 10-K and 2022 Q1 Form 10-Q as soon as practicable; however, no assurance can be given as to the definitive date on which the 2022 Form 10-K and 2022 Q1 Form 10-Q will be filed.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On February 13, 2023, the Company issued a press release disclosing the Company's receipt of the Nasdaq notification letter. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Lee Enterprises Receives Notification from Nasdaq Related to Delayed Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q

DAVENPORT, Iowa – February 13, 2023 – Lee Enterprises, Incorporated (NASDAQ: LEE), a digital-first subscription platform providing high quality, trusted, local news, information and a major platform for advertising in 77 markets, has received a letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) indicating that, as a result of the Company’s continued delay in filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 25, 2022 (the “2022 Form 10-K”) and because the Company did not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended December 25, 2022 (“2023 Q1 Form 10-Q”), within the prescribed time period, the Company is not in compliance with the timely filing requirement for continued listing under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1).

The notification has no immediate effect on the listing or trading of the Company’s common stock on The Nasdaq Capital Market. Lee must submit a plan of compliance (the “Plan”) to Nasdaq within 60 days of the extended filing due date of the 2022 Form 10-K, or no later than February 27, 2023, addressing how it intends to regain compliance with the Nasdaq Listing Rule. If Nasdaq accepts the Plan, it may grant an extension of up to 180 days from the original filing due date of the 2022 Form 10-K, or until June 26, 2023, to regain compliance. If the Company fails to regain compliance with the Nasdaq Listing Rule within the time periods described above, the Company’s common stock could be subject to delisting from Nasdaq.

On December 12, 2022, Lee disclosed that it required additional time to file its fiscal 2022 Form 10-K for the period ended September 25, 2022, and on February 6, 2023, the Company provided an update on the status of filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K on a Current Report on Form 8-K, with additional information on the Company’s evaluation of internal controls over financial reporting and the evaluation of an acquisition-related deferred tax asset that stemmed from a transaction in 2009, and whether this deferred tax asset still has the current balance sheet carrying value or should be written down. Also on February 6, 2023, the Company disclosed that it required additional time to file the 2023 Q1 Form 10-Q.

The Company is working diligently to complete all matters pertaining to the 2022 Form 10-K and 2023 Q1 Form 10-Q as soon as practicable; however, no assurance can be given as to the definitive date on which the 2022 Form 10-K and 2023 Q1 Form 10-Q will be filed.

Notwithstanding the ongoing nature of its internal controls evaluation, the Company does not expect the evaluation to result in any material impact on the preliminary financial results the Company released on December 8, 2022, for the 12-month period as of and ended September 25, 2022.
