Note 4. Change in Accounting Principles

In June 1997, the FASB issued Statement No. 130 "Reporting Comprehensive Income" and Statement No. 131 "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information". Statement No. 130 establishes standards for reporting comprehensive income in financial statements. Statement No. 131 expands certain reporting and disclosure requirements for segments from current standards. The Company adopted these standards effective for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1998. The adoption of these new standards did not result in material changes to previously reported amounts or disclosures.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Operations by line of business are as follows (dollars in thousands, except per share data):

* EBITDA is not a financial performance measurement under generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and should not be considered in isolation or a substitute for GAAP performance measurements. EBITDA is also not reflected in our consolidated statement of cash flows; but it is a common and meaningful alternative performance measurement for comparison to other companies in our industry.

PUBLISHING

Wholly-owned daily newspaper advertising revenue increased $$ 2,605,000,6.0 \%$. Advertising revenue from local merchants increased $$ 1,131,000,4.8 \%$. Local "run-of-press" advertising increased $754,000, 4.7\%, as a result of a $3.7 \%$ increase in advertising inches. Local preprint revenue increased $377,000, 5.1\%. Classified advertising revenue increased $$ 650,000,4.1 \%$, as a result of a $4.7 \%$ increase in advertising inches offset by a decrease in average rates Circulation revenue was flat due to promotional pricing and minimal rate increases.

Other revenue consists of revenue from weekly newspapers, classified and specialty publications, commercial printing, products delivered outside the newspaper (which include activities such as target marketing and special event production) and editorial service contracts with Madison Newspapers, Inc.

QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 1999
Exclusive of the effects of acquisitions, costs other than depreciation and amortization increased $1,027,000, 1.6\%. Compensation expense increased $$ 1,205,000,3.7 \%$, due primarily to increase in average compensation. Newsprint and ink costs decreased $$(616,000)$, $(6.4 \%)$, due primarily to lower prices paid for newsprint. Other operating costs exclusive of depreciation and amortization increased $$ 438,000$, $2.1 \%$, due to higher distribution expense and other cost increases.

BROADCASTING

Revenue for the quarter decreased $$(3,875,000)$, (12.5\%), as political advertising decreased $(112,000), (84.2\%) and local/regional/national advertising decreased $$(2,612,000)$, ( $9.9 \%$ ), primarily due to the absence of the Winter Olympics advertising on our CBS-affiliates and the Super Bowl on our NBC-affiliates. Production revenue and revenues from other services decreased $$(916,000)$, $(32.4 \%)$, as a result of the discontinuance of certain production services and loss of NBA production during the strike. Advertising revenue growth may be unfavorably affected later in the year due to the absence of primary elections and increase in competitive conditions.

| Depreciation and amortization | 10.4 | 9.1 |
| Operating margin wholly-owned properties | 6.9\% | 18.0\% |

Compensation costs decreased $$(478,000)$, (3.7\%), due to decreases in incentive compensation and hours worked related to the reduced level of production services. Programming costs for the quarter increased $271,000, 13.1\%, primarily due to accelerated amortization on new programming. Other operating expenses, exclusive of depreciation and amortization, increased $$ 52,000$, .7\%, due to reduced costs related to production services which offset other cost increases.

CORPORATE COSTS
Corporate costs increased by $$ 777,000,26.4 \%$. The prior year period costs were lower due to one time cost reduction.

QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 1999
FINANCIAL EXPENSE AND INCOME TAXES
Interest expense decreased due to payments on long-term debt.
Income taxes were $38.3 \%$ and $38.8 \%$ of pretax income for the quarters ended March 31, 1999 and 1998, respectively.

PUBLISHING

Wholly-owned daily newspaper advertising revenue increased $5,490,000, 5.8\%. Advertising revenue from local merchants increased $$ 3,178,000,5.8 \%$. Local "run-of-press" advertising increased $$ 2,553,000,6.9 \%$, as a result of a $6.4 \%$ increase in advertising inches. Local preprint revenue increased $$ 625,000,3.5 \%$. Classified advertising revenue increased $$ 1,349,000,4.3 \%$, as a result of higher averages rates and a $1 \%$ increase in advertising inches. The employment category was the biggest contributor to the increase.
Circulation revenue was flat due to promotional pricing and minimal rate increases.

Other revenue consists of revenue from weekly newspapers, classified and specialty publications, commercial printing, products delivered outside the newspaper (which include activities such as target marketing and special event production) and editorial service contracts with Madison Newspapers, Inc.

Compensation costs were flat as higher average rates were offset by a reduction in the hours worked related to production services and to a lesser extent reductions in incentive compensation. Programming costs for the period increased $$ 409,000$, $9.5 \%$, primarily due to accelerated amortization on new programming. Other operating expenses, exclusive of depreciation and amortization, decreased $$(339,000),(2.2 \%)$ due to a reduced level of production services which offset other cost increases.

CORPORATE COSTS
Corporate costs increased by $$ 869,000$, $12.2 \%$. The increase occurred in the second quarter as previously discussed.

FINANCIAL EXPENSE AND INCOME TAXES

Interest expense decreased due to payments on long-term debt.

Income taxes were $38.2 \%$ and $38.6 \%$ of pretax income for the six months ended March 31, 1999 and 1998, respectively.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash provided by operations, which is the Company's primary source of liquidity, generated $$ 51,256,000$ for the six month period ended March 31, 1999. Available cash balances, cash flow from operations, and a $$ 50,000,000$ bank line of credit provide adequate liquidity. Covenants related to the Company's credit agreement are not considered restrictive to operations and anticipated stockholder dividends.

YEAR 2000

The Year 2000 issue concerns the inability of information technology (IT) systems and equipment utilizing microprocessors to recognize and process date-sensitive information after 1999 due to the use of only the last two digits to refer to a year. This problem could affect both computer software and hardware and other equipment that relies on microprocessors. Management has completed a company-wide evaluation of this impact on its IT systems and its date-sensitive publishing equipment. The evaluation of critical broadcasting equipment is continuing. Year 2000 software updates for identified critical date-sensitive broadcasting equipment have been obtained and will be tested by June 30, 1999. Broadcasting equipment is believed to be 80\% tested and Year 2000 compliant. Renovation and testing have been completed on all significant IT systems that utilize company-developed software that were not Year 2000 compliant. The Company has received representations and completed testing to determine that significant software developed by others is Year 2000 compliant. Installation of a new Year 2000-compliant financial system is approximately $90 \%$ complete and is planned to be complete by July 31, 1999. Testing of computer hardware for IT systems is approximately $90 \%$ complete. Renovation efforts and testing of systems/equipment are expected to be complete by June 30, 1999.

| 18.6\% | 18.1\% |

The Company will monitor the progress of material vendors and suppliers whose uninterrupted delivery of product or service is material to the production or distribution of our print and broadcast products in their efforts to become Year 2000 compliant. Material vendors and suppliers include electric utilities, telecommunications, news and content providers, television networks, other television programming suppliers, the U.S. Postal Service, and financial institutions.

From September 30, 1994 through March 31, 1999, the Company has spent approximately $$ 500,000$ to address Year 2000 issues for IT systems (exclusive of the cost of the new financial, newspaper production and other systems that were scheduled to be replaced before the year 2000 for reasons other than Year 2000 compliance). Total costs to address Year 2000 issues for IT systems are currently estimated to be less than $$ 1,000,000$ and consist primarily of staff and consultant costs. Year 2000 remediation will require the replacement of telephone switches and software at a cost of $$ 600,000$ to $$ 1,000,000$. Through March 31, 1999 approximately $$ 300,000$ had been spent for new telephone equipment. Funds for these costs are expected to be provided by the operating cash flows or bank line of credit of the Company.

The Company could be faced with severe consequences if Year 2000 issues are not identified and resolved in a timely manner by the Company and material third parties. A worst-case scenario would result in the short-term inability of the Company to produce/distribute newspapers or broadcast television programming due to unresolved Year 2000 issues. This would result in lost revenues; however, the amount would be dependent on the length and nature of the disruption, which cannot be predicted or estimated. In light of the possible consequences, the Company is devoting the resources needed to address Year 2000 issues in a timely manner. Management monitors the progress of the Company's Year 2000 efforts and provides update reports to the audit committee of the Board of Directors at each meeting. While management expects a successful resolution of these issues, there can be no guarantee that material third parties, on which the Company relies, will address all Year 2000 issues on a timely basis or that their failure to successfully address all issues would not have an adverse effect on the Company.

The Company is in the process of reviewing its existing contingency plans in case business interruptions do occur. Management expects the review of these plans to be complete by June 30, 1999.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

This report contains certain forward-looking statements that are based largely on the Company's current expectations and are subject to certain risks, trends, and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated. Among such risks, trends, and uncertainties are changes in advertising demand, newsprint prices, interest rates, regulatory rulings, availability of quality broadcast programming at competitive prices; quality and ratings of network over-the-air broadcast programs, legislative or regulatory initiatives affecting the cost of delivery of over-the-air broadcast programs to the Company's customers, and other economic conditions and the effect of acquisitions, investments, and dispositions on the Company's results of operations or financial condition. The words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intends," "plans," "projects," "considers," and similar expressions generally identify forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, which are as of the date of this report. Further information concerning the Company and its businesses, including factors that potentially could materially affect the Company's financial results, is included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K.
